Heaton-Gunsallus. Mr. Harvey Heaton and Miss Em-ma Gunsallus were unitel in mar-riage Wednesday evening. December 21st, at the parsonage of the Dis-ciple church at Beech Creek by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Patterson. Imediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Heaton drove to the N. Y. C. station here and left on the § o'clock train for a brief wedding trip. The bride is a highly respected lady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Gunsallus. The groom is the son of Michael Heaton and lives on the farm of his father in the vicinity of Yarnell, far up Marsh creek, and is a man of good reputation and industrious. They will reside on the farm. Several years ago this couple were sweet-hearts and devoted to each other, but the lady decided that she could not well marry and leave her parents alone on the farm, and by mutual Re-agreement the courtship ceased. Re-cently, the lady attended a sale up Marsh creek where she met her old lover, who had a little heart-to-heart talk with her and told her that now there was no reason why she could not marry and leave home, since her brother and his wife were there. She admitted that there was no excuse and the proposition of his that they begin again where they had left off was accepted, and the wedding Wednes-
