Thursday, January 12th, 1911.

FACT, FUN AND FANCY. Bright, Sparkling Paragraphy-Selected and Original.

A girl may be shy of a mouse and yet not be shy a rat.

The Boston woman who threw a base-ball 262 feet must have been a Female help is always the cheapest. Women will never get men's pay-until they marry them.

An Ohio man was killed while re-turning an umbrella, and yet we are told it pays to be honest.

The average amount of illness in a human life is nine days a year. This does not include the grouch trust.

Love is not entirely blind. If you think it is just try flirting with another girl when your wife is around.

Talk about the high living, it is claimed a Washington man eats a whole ham every day. This is a case of hog eat hog.

A Baltimore physician he discov-ered a new disease, but as it has a name a yard long only the very wealthy can afford to have it.

A woman is not necessarily contri-buting to the support of her husband when she presents him with a pair of suspenders.

A Kansas City man, who has lived to be seventy-five years of age, de-clares that he never touched liquor, never chewed tobacco, never smoked, never gambled, never told a lie, never entered a theatre, never traveled a mile on a boat, or on a train on Sun-day never spoke unkindly to his felday, never spoke unkindly to his fel-low man, nor lifted his hat to a woman. Our opinion of that man is that he is the champion liar of the age.

Feathers and Bills.

Doesn't it make you sad," exclaim-ed the member of the Audubon So-clety, "to see women wearing on their hats the feathers of the poor little birds?

. . .

sad.'

The Other Sleeve Liable. Mary had been greatly interested in watching the men in her grandfather's orchard putting bands around the fruit trees, and asked a great many questions

Some weeks later, when in the city with her mother, she noticed a gen-tleman with a mourning band around "Mamma," she asked. "What's to

. . . There was a young man of Squedunk,

Who bought a cat in a trunk;

crsburg, left Monday of last week for Stowell, Texas, to join the colony that recently left that section of the county to locate there.

F. Glossner, in Blanchard.
B. D. Brisbin & Company will move from the Duck farm, along Sinking creek, now owned by Adam Finkle, to the Grove farm, purchased some few years ago by D. Elmer Ripka.
Dr. and Mrs. Will family, who have been visiting at the home of Captain and Mrs. James A. Quigley in Blanchard, during the holidays, left last week for their home in Yonkers, N. Y.

Joseph H. Hoffman, who is a cadet at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., and who has just recovered from an attack of typhoid fever, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hoffman, at Milheim.

James Palmer, the well digger, who was taken to his home in Tioga Dec. 28, county, from the home of James Au-man, in Penn township, December 13, has since died. His sons have taken charge of the business. Has since died. His sons have taken Smith, Feb. 8, 1910, tract of land in Ferguson Twp.; $251.

Centre County Pomona Grange will be held at Centre Hall, Thursday, 19th inst. At this meeting the reports of the various business enterprises con-nected with the Grange will be heard Rey. Daniel "It isn't the feathers that make me bected with the Grange will be heard. d." replied the married man. "It's Rev. Daniel Gress December 31st Rev. Daniel Gress December 31st, resigned his pastorship of the Centre

The Baby, Of Course. ' "O, mamma, look!" said Tommy. "Baby's grabbed a piece of raw bacon, and is tryin' to swallow it!" "Save it!' hastily exclaimed the father. "I-er-meant the baby, of course, Maria," he added a moment later. "Why are you looking at me in that horrified way?" The Other Sleeve Light a week.

> Rev. J. B. McLaughlin, pastor the United Evangelical church at Rebersburg, had the misfortune to lose a horse recently. The animal took colic during the night, and in-jured himself to such an extent that he had to be killed.

One day recently John H. Brindle, "Mamma," she asked. "What's to who lives with Moses Eby, north of keep them from crawling up his other Fiedler. was seriously injured. He had kone to the barn to feed the stock sed while on the mow throwing down hay he accidentally fell down the hay-hole and Groke his right shoulder blade.

The fellow near died When, looking inside, He found that the cat was a-Well? A Matter of License. "T am very sorry, sir," said the in-keeper,--mthressing the noisy visitor, "but I shall have to ask you to leave, ar."

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

only for the heroic efforts of Mr. Colyer, a different story might have to be told. That morning Mr. Colyer, who is the drayman from Millheim to who is the drayman from Millheim to Coburn, arose early and lit the hang-ing lamp in the kitchen, seeing that it was only 4 o'clock and most too early to remain up, he went back to bed again, and had partly fallen a-sleep, when he heard something crack in the kitchen. He hurriedly arose and ran to the room and saw that the lamp chimney had broken. He was in the act of grasping the lamp when it worm on it. The saying that there is room at the top is fully realized by a bald headed fellow. David S. Smith, who has been in Atlantic city for the past six weeks. returned to his home in Blanchard Wednesday. Iamp chimney had broken. He was in the act of grasping the lamp when it scattering burning oil all over the room. Mr. Colver grasped a heavy Wednesday. Samuel Alter, who occupies the Co-burn farm in Gregg township, will move on April 1st onto the Jared Kreamer farm, east of Rebersburg. O. W. Weaver and family, of Reb-crsburg, left Monday of last week for Stowell. Texas, to join the colony that was then soon under control. The walls and ceiling of the room were blistered by the heat.

John L. Holmes et al to J. A. Cram-er, Dec. 27, 1910, tract of land in Ferg-uson Twp.; $250. Mary E. Wilson to Harry Fisher.

Mary E. Wilson to Harry Fisher. Dec. 31, 1910, tract of land in Half-moon Twp: $5212. W. D. Zerby admr to Chas. E. Pletcher, Dec. 29, 1910, tract of land in Howard Boro: $1765. John M. Weiland et ux to Sarah J. Krumrine, Jan. 11, 1907, tract of land in Harris Twp.: $250.

Mary E. Doughlas et al, Swift & Co., June 16, 1910, tract of land in Philipsburg; $2075. E. J. Goodyar et ux to John Boda.

1910, tract of land in Rush

Knisely, Dgc. 31, 1910, tract of land in Bellefonte: $1900. John W. Gayler, to A. L. Auman, March 23, 1910, tract of land in Penn

March 25, 1910, tract of land in Fein Twp.; $30. John I. Thompson, Jr., et ux to Mary A. Murray, June 9, 1910, tract of land in College Twp.; $300. Geo, W. Stovers admrtrix to Eliza J. Stover, Jan. 8, 1909, tract of land in Penn Twp.; $1950.

CENTRE MILLS.

Mrs. Cumings has been confined to the house with a sore throat the past Miss Minnie Kline left for the Jas Moyer has sold his property at Spring Bank to Mr. Vonada and expects to move to Potters Mills in the spring. We are sorry to loose Mr. Moyer, for he is a good citizen and a driver at the mill the past weeks. John Frazier returned last week ter visiting friends near Linden Hall.

First Trolley Saturday. The difficity between the railward in These prices are made to hold company and the Milton trolley lines this splendid corps together.

Bible school in Philadelphia last week. Mrs. Weaver is on the sick list. Mr. Duck, of Madisonburg, expects to move on the Corman farm soon. Ira Shultz'is getting along finely kind neighbor. Ray Held has been the trustworthy

<text><text><text>

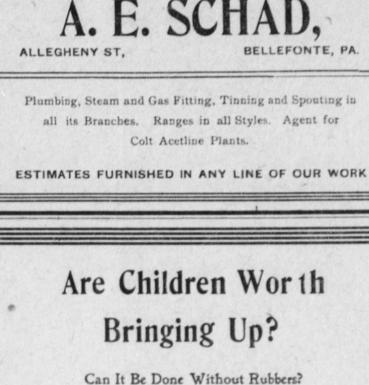

Black Diagonal, Black or Blue Serge, Scotch Mixtures or French Tailorings, $55.00.

Fine Imported Black Broadcloth or fine Imported White Serge, $60.00.

The same expert hands employed on these Suits as do our fine work in the height of the season.

January is ordinarily a quiet time in tailoring.

This is what appeared in a recent number of the AMER-ICAN JOURNAL OF HEALTH.

The family doctor should din it into the mothers head all the time, that the health of their children's lies in their feet.

Keep the feet dry. Never let them get wet. No child should be allowed to go out in the snow or rain. or when walking is wet, without rubbers.

REMEMBER-Yeager's RUBBERS are best and the prices just a little CHEAPER than the other fellows.

YEAGER'S SHOE STORE,

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Lubrication Without Carbon

The ideal oil for either air-cooled or water-cooled machines. Dis-tilled from Pennsylvania Crude Oil. A thin, pale oil which feeds freely and will not congeal. Absolutely Free From Carbon. If your dealer or garage has no Weverly Special, write us and we'll see that you are supplied.

WAVERLY OIL WORKS COMPANY. - PITTSBURG, PA. INDEPENDENT REFINERS Makers of "Waverly" Gasolines

VO mo

Page 3.

Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting, Tinning and Spouting in

sir. noisy visitor "You are intoxicated, sir." returned

"Well, Whaff I am?" retorted the drunk on the premises. Ain'tcher?" "Ycs, I have,' said the inkeeper, "but that's my license, not yours.'

. . .

The Humorous Side.

The Humerous Side. There are many good people in the world who never have any fun in the family circle. Everything is staid, and decorous, and proper. It is a'-ways dignified and as it should to. But the hard places in the household But the hard places in the household life, the little annoyances, the distur-bances which, if begun in too serious trouble, might in many cases be dis. Krise received an injury to his arm pelled in a moment by the spirit of humor. I do not mean rather "good humor," or "good nature." but sime both pretty badly shaken in Krise humor," or "good nature," but sim-ply the spirit of good fun which will not permit any member of the house-

Busted His Gall. '

In the brissing slept station in Georgia slept brother. He snored gently with his mouth ajar, and his long, moist tongue resting on his chest like a pink plush necktie. A Northerner climbed off a train to stretch his legs, unscrewed the top of a capsule and, advancing on tiptoe, dusted ten grains of quinine on tiptoe, dusted ten grains of quine the darkey's tongue him wildly. "Mistah," he said to the joker, "is you a doctah?"

"Well, then kin yo' tell me whar I in fin' me a doctah right away?"

"What do you want with a doctor?" "Tm sick?"

"How sick?"

"Powerful sick."

"Do you know what's the matter with you?"

"Suttin'ly I knows whut's de mat-teh with me-mah gall's busted!"

some leaving for the washroom, some consulting the clock; some were still busy. Suddenly the "boss" entered. He glanced about him, and then ap-proached the young bookkeepen. "What time is it?" he asked. The young man kept on figuring, and the boss put a hand on his desk and repeated the question. Instantly the other looked up, sur-prised to see the chief at his elbow, "I beg your pardon, were you speak-ingto me?" he asked. "Merely inquired the time-that was all," said the other. The bookkeeper glanced about the

The bookkeeper glanced about the room, located the office clock, and said "It's ten minute to twelve." "Thank you," said the general man-ager and vice-president, and strolled out. That conversation cost the young bookkeeper his place—in the passen-ger department—and put him under a higher officer, "on the firing line." Nine years later he was assistant gen-eral manager, and while still in the thirties became a general manager, full-fiedged. beth Alexander, of Milroy, io. atd, about two miles above Centre Hall, was sold to A. P. Leaster, of Mifflin county, the price paid being $500. An exploded lamp in the home of W. F. Colyer, at Millibeim, on the morning of December 24th, almost caused a serious conflagration, and beth Alexander, of Milroy, io. atd, beth Alexander, of Milroy, io. atd

W. O. Rioka, of Georges Valley, "Me, sir? Whaffor?" demanded the father of Mrs. D. W. Sweetwood, of Centre Hall, was stricken with paralysis a few days before Christmas, and since has been in a very delicate con-

Andrew Rote, of Farmers Mills recently purchased the house and lot in Spring Mills belonging to the Philip it will also double the fare from Milheirs, and which has been oc-

Recently while Mr. and Mrs. Perry Krise were driving through Potters Mills, their horse frightened at a coaster sled, and upset the sleigh.

Martin Dreibilbis, whom we mentioned several weeks ago as going to hold to magnify a comparatively small affair. Many children could be laughed out of a bad habit quicker than they could be whipped out of it. able to return to his home at State usted His Gall. ' In the bright sunlight on a railroad College. We heartily sympathize with the unfortunate man in this misforcupy a portion of the house, and board Co. with the Slack family.

A two-year-old colt, purchased at the James B. Strohm sale by M. N. Miller, recently, died of lock jaw a few days after transferring the animal to Mr. Miller's stable. In some man-ner the animal got its foot fastened in a door and shaved the flesh of the pastern joint. Treatment was given it but lock jaw developed causing its death. Seventy-two dollars had been paid for the colt.

The State College Times says: Ser-"Suttin'ly I knows whut's de mat-teh with me-mah gall's busted!" * * * No Clock-Watcher. How many workmen measure up to the standard of the young bookkeeper in this story in the passenger de-partment of a great railroad. It was just a little before lunch. Some of the clerks were putting on their coats, some leaving for the washroom, some consulting the clock; some were still Quite a number of deals in real estate have taken place in and around Centre Hall in the past few weeks, among which might be mentioned the among which might be mentioned the following: Mrs. Catharine Dale has sold her house and lot to P. H. Mey-er; former druggist J. D. Murray's dwelling house and furniture store room sold to Samuel W. Moore, of Germantown: the Bible farm, east of Centre Hall sold by Miss Annie Bible to Dr. Geo. P. Bible, the lec-turer: the Floray property, at the foot of Nittany mountain sold by Mrs. Rebecca Floray to Miss Sara Mc-Clenahan, and next spring will be oc-cupled by her brother, Charles Mc-Clenahan; the Alexander farfn, the property of the estate of Mrs. Eliza-beth Alexander, of Milroy, located about two miles above Centre Hall, was sold to A. P. Leaster, of Mifflin county, the price pald being $500.

has been adjusted and the first ser-vice on the electric line between Lewlaburg and Milton was started on last Saturday morning.

The line from East Lewisburg across the bridge into Lewisburg has East Lewisburg "Well, Whaff I am?" retorted the noisy visitor. "You gotta sign up there on th' wall sayin' licensed to be from the feeble condition first ex-perienced after the stroke.

ton to Watsontown. This has raised cupled for some twenty years by Mrs. Shook and her son, E. P. Shook. The the road and the kicking has been purchase price was $1915. Mr. Rote will rent the property for awhile.

WINGATE.

Mrs. Matilda Barr and children who have been spending some time here at Ezra Fisher's left on Monday for Waddle. Miss Sue McLaughlin and sister.

Mrs. John Smith, spent Sunday at Unionville

Mrs. Harry Crust, of Bellefonte, also Mrs. Reuben Crist, of Fillmore, spent some time here last week at Thos Murray's.

We are sorry to say we have some girls in our village who are guilty of the unladylike act of eavesdropping. Miss Sue Murray with sore throat is included in the weekly sick list.

Death in Roaring Fire.

may not result from the work of fire-bugs, but often severe burns are caused, that make a quick need for Buck-len's Arnica Salve, the quickest, sur-est cure for burns, wounds, bruises, bolls, sores. It subdues inflammation. It kills pain. It soothes and heals. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c. at Green's Pharmacy

PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. John Bliger is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Sholl spent a ouple of days at Mr. and Mrs. Frank

Quite a few of the young folks from this place took in the entertainment Rockview last Friday night.

Mrs. E. E. Swartz got a gasoline en-gine one day last week, which he will use for his well. H. N. Keller bought a new sleigh; now Harvey, you can go it. Mrs. J. E. Meyer and James spert Sunday evening at Mrs. J. Bilger's.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN.

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs When housework is torture When night brings no rest nor

When urinary disorders set in Women's lot is a weary one. There is a way to escape these woes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills. Have cured women here in Belleonte. This is one Bellefonte woman's testim Mrs. John Andress, 245 S. Spring

Mrs. John Andress, 245 S. Spring St., Bellefonte, Pa., says: "I willing-ly confirm the public statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago, after they had benefited me so greatly. I procured this reme-dy at Green's Pharmacy Co., when suffering from backache and severe pains in my loins and its use brought prompt and permanent relief. An-other member of my family also took Doan's Kidney Pills and was cured of kidney trouble." For sale by all dealers. Price 50

Orders will be taken at the above prices until January 21st. We are hoping that these low prices--- so near to what you pay for a good tailored gown-ready made--will be the means of interesting many more women in "tailored to order" clothes.

All the above fabrics are new -Spring weight.

The tailoring without superior.

REGAL SHOES

are the only kind of shoes for gou-if you want the smartest styles, the finest fit and the longest service.

Ours is the only store in town where you can secure this world-famous foot-wear. Come in and see the latest Regal models —they're "thorough-breds."

A.C. Mingle,

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Begin the New Year with a bank account. You cannot make a better start toward success.

The First National Bank, Bellefonte, Pa.

WHEN THE CROPS ARE SOLD

and paid for Mr. Farmer, in Money or notes we are sure we can be of service to you. A Checkings or Savings Account or a Certificate of Deposit will insure the absolute safety of any money you receive and notes may be left with us for collection or discount.

We pay 3 per cent on Savings, and accounts may be opened with $1.00 or more.

