

The Centre Democrat.

Circulation Over 5,600—Largest in Centre County.

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 19th, 1911.

Vol. 34, No. 3.

USED REVOLVER AND STEEL KNUCKLES

FOREIGNERS IN A MIXUP AT COLLINS' ROW.

HAPPENED ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Deputy Sheriff and Police Called to The Scene—The Parties Were Giving a Hearing on Monday—The Case Was Settled.

Pistol shots and the unusual commotion of two men fleeing from the hand behind the gun, startled the peaceful citizens of the lower end of Coleville on Sunday evening about 8 o'clock, and for awhile nobody knew just what had happened. Here possibly might occur a tragedy, but it was averted by the fact that the parties were known as Collins' Row, near the Bellefonte Furnace, and inhabited to a greater extent by foreigners. At times some gruff and even vulgar language was used, but it was all in good nature and boozed and became synonymous.

On Sunday evening, however, after the trouble started, some of the more peaceful citizens came into Bellefonte to find the police and have them visit the scene. Policeman Dukeman was located by the excited foreigners, who, because of the place being outside of the borough limits, could not respond without being deputized. Deputy Sheriff Rees was then summoned, who quickly made Dukeman a Deputy, and they started for the scene of the trouble. Arriving there they were informed that the man who did the shooting was in house No. 10, but a search was made and he and another fellow were located in No. 8, Joe Ribben's house. They were brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail, where they gave their names as Joe Maetchia and George Sternig. Maetchia was the fellow who handled the gun during the fracas.

On Monday forenoon a hearing was held before Squire Brown, in which Steve Shaver and John Cushon appeared as prosecutors, and were represented by W. D. Zerk, Esq. For a while Squire Brown's office resembled the emigrant landing at Castle Garden, but fortunately the evidence was brought out with very little delay. Cushon testified that he and Shaver were invited to the house of the defendants, and went in, unwillingly, however, as he feared Maetchia would make trouble. Squire enough the latter began talking fight and placed his arms across the door to prevent Cushon and Shaver from going out. In a scuffle which followed Maetchia was hit, and he then donned steel knuckles and went after Shaver, cutting the latter's head.

Shaver then beat a retreat up the hill, followed by four or five bullets from a revolver in the hands of Maetchia, which fortunately failed to connect with the fleeing men. The Shaver's story was practically the same as Cushon's, but another witness, who claimed he was a friend to all parties concerned, testified to having seen the fight and that the shooting was simply to scare the plaintiffs. Squire Brown promptly bound Maetchia over for next term of court. "Do you want to arrange for bail?" asked the Squire. The prisoner hesitated, looked sheepish and answered, "I don't know." "Well, you can go to jail and think it over," was the Squire's reply, and Maetchia was taken back to the hill by Deputy Rees. George Sternig, for want of evidence, was discharged, and he departed for home happy.

The parties got together afterward and settled up the matter.

WOODPECKER AGENT GUILTY.

Congressman Focht Wins His Libel Suit.

The criminal libel suit brought by Congressman Benjamin K. Focht against J. Allen Fegley, the Lewisburg newsdealer, for circulating the Woodpecker, an anonymous publication issued in Allegany county, Bucknell university, which in lively manner assailed Focht in its December edition, and which has been the centre of attraction in the Union county court when the jury returned a verdict finding Fegley guilty.

Judge J. W. Shull, of Perry county, who presided at the hearing, left Lewisburg on an early morning train, and before leaving instructed Judge Harold M. McClure, the president judge of Union county, that in case of a verdict of guilty, he should suspend sentence until the March term of court, and hold Fegley under $1000 bail. Senator George Herring, one of Fegley's attorneys, in addressing the court, pleaded for mercy for the prisoner, but made no request for a new trial.

The jury was out thirteen hours, and 25 ballots were taken before a conclusion was reached. At 5 o'clock in the morning they brought in a sealed verdict, which was read at the convening of court at 9 o'clock.

MURDER WILL OUT.

Was in the "Middle West" the "Rockies" and "Nevada."

"A few years ago in a trip across the continent, while passing through a town in one of our Middle West states, we saw a wagon load of men start out on a Sunday trip. The following Sunday was spent in a town close to the Rockies, and they had base-ball and horse racing, and three weeks later on our return our train stopped on a Sunday in the state of Nevada where there were no churches."—From Gazette.

Darn it! If a man has "traveled some" and been "in all the states of the union but three" it is expecting too much of him to keep quiet about it all the time.

No Serious Harm.

The floods along the rivers and larger creeks caused ice gorges during the late freezes, which, happily, loosened up by the end of last week, and the ice passed off. The part of Lock Haven along the river had flooding of its streets but otherwise no damage was done by the gorges. The Stald Erie was also high to cause a scare amongst the folks living along that stream.

THE TREE TALK.

Mr. Withers Illustrated Tree Talk Will Be Interesting.

Mr. John T. Withers the famous tree man will deliver his very interesting lecture on Trees in the High School Auditorium on Monday evening, February 6. It will be of valuable interest to all property owners and lovers of trees and it is earnestly hoped that all those will attend. Not alone the illustrations of the way of trimming and treating trees from all parts of the world will be shown, all finely colored.

Mr. Withers has about two hundred slides which will make a very entertaining two hour picture talk. The lecture will be delivered at the State College, also on Saturday evening, February 4th. In Bellefonte it will be under the auspices of the Civic Improvement Association for the benefit of the Department of Domestic Science of the High School which is under their charge. A nominal sum had to be charged to pay some of the minor expenses. The tickets will be only ten cents to pay those expenses, and will be on sale by the High School. Mr. Withers delivers his lecture free of charge here as a favor to Mr. George Bush and we trust it will be well appreciated.

This town has been so deficient in the way of having their shade trees handled and butchered that an instructive lecture like this, illustrated as it is, will be of great benefit to many and to the town in general.

C. U. Hoffer a Candidate.

Under the proper heading in this issue will be found the announcement of C. U. Hoffer, of this city, who comes to the front as a candidate for Prothonotary of Centre county, subject to the will of the Democratic party on the first Saturday in June. There are few men in Centre county better known than Mr. Hoffer, and we are sure there will be no aspirants for this important office who can present any better claim, whether it be loyalty to party and general fitness. He has exceptional ability as an accountant, and as many feel the office this year should come to one on this side of the mountain, Mr. Hoffer's selection ought to appeal to all.—Phillips Ledger.

Finds Gem in Chicken's Crop.

Mrs. Joseph B. McConnell, of Saratoga, N. Y., is $75 richer as a result of careful search in the interior of her chickens—but the chickens are all gone now.

One summer while on a visit, Mrs. McConnell's mother, Mrs. K. V. Lutz, of Guttenberg, N. J., lost a diamond, which systematic search failed to locate. Since then Mrs. McConnell, as she has killed the occupants of the chicken yard, has opened the crops and searched for the missing stone.

One day last week she killed the last survivor of the flock for the New Year dinner. In the rooster's stomach she found the diamond which was valued at $75.

Farmers' Institute.

A series of three farmers' institutes will be held in Centre county next month, under the direction of John A. Woodward, chairman of the county committee, as follows:

Pleasant Gap—Monday and Tuesday, February 20th and 21st.

Unionville—Wednesday and Thursday, February 22nd and 23rd.

Eagleville—Friday and Saturday, February 24th and 25th.

Four State speakers will be present, namely: Prof. Franklin Menger, York; Miss Sara C. Lovejoy, State College; Leon Otis Van Noy, Troy; D. H. Watts, Keermoor. Five sessions at each meeting, and no admission fees nor collections. Everybody invited.

Insurance Meeting.

The annual meeting of the directors and members of the Far Mut. Fire Insurance Co. of Centre county, was held in their room in Petriken hall on Monday of last week.

The election of directors for the ensuing year resulted as follows: J. G. Goheen, Frank McFarlane, J. B. Strohm, F. M. Fisher, Geo. Mitchell, Fred Reynolds, H. E. Duck, C. E. Haines, J. H. Beck, Z. D. Thomas, R. H. Reed, Henry Getzler.

The board organized by choosing the following officers: President, H. E. Duck; Vice-President, J. B. Strohm; Treasurer, J. R. Brunhart; Secretary, D. F. Luse.

Girls Lured to Philadelphia.

Lured to Philadelphia with promises of positions as actresses in moving picture houses, four girls between 16 and 18 years of age, were held in white slave dens. John McGuire was held in $2000 bail for a further hearing on the charge of enticing girls from their homes. The girls gave their names as Katie Rosenour, aged 18 years, of 70 East 112th street, New York; Barbara Wahl, aged 16 years, and Louisa Fischer, aged 18 years, of Pottstown, Pa.; and Alice McCarren, aged 18 years, of Hazelton, Pa.

Hospital Notes.

The following have been admitted for treatment: Mrs. Bertha Stier, Naoma McCafferty (aged 3 years).

Operations—Mrs. Harriet Lowry, Bellefonte; Miss Bess Brown, Milesburg.

Miss Gergenski and Miss Karstetter, nurses convalescing.

Miss Mary Eiters, Oak Hill, discharged.

Twenty-one patients in the hospital at present.

Plan For Dinner.

The board of directors of the Centre County Association, of Philadelphia, held a meeting at the home of Dr. Roland G. Curtin, at Philadelphia and decided upon Tuesday evening, February 14th, for the annual banquet of the organization.

Arrangements are in charge of the following committee: Ira D. Garman, Thomas Foster, Mrs. Bertha Stier, E. Gray Mattern, William Magee, Warren Underwood, Stuart C. Runkle, Herman A. Haupt, L. Olin Meek and J. C. C. Beale.

For Fruit Growers.

The first annual meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association, of Centre County, will take place at Spring Mills, January 21st. There will be two sessions. Morning session opening at 9:30 a. m., Prof. Surface will be present and talk on planting and culture of fruit.

An invitation is extended to the public in general. Cyrus Brunhart, Pres.

Lewis and Connelly

TWO FAMOUS ROBBERS WHO SPREAD FEAR THROUGHOUT CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA ALMOST A FULL CENTURY AGO

Lewis' Complete Confession and Autobiography

For the sake of giving the readers of "The Centre Democrat" a little variety in its columns during the next month, we have decided to publish as a special feature the complete confession and autobiography of the early history of this county—Lewis and Connelly, the robbers and counterfeiters. They operated in Centre and some of the counties south of us in the period of 1820. Both were desperate characters and their careers read like romance. Many of our older readers are familiar with the story, and it will be interesting to younger generation a thrilling event that belongs to the early history of Centre County, and is part of the political history of Pennsylvania as it resulted in the defeat of a prominent Governor, of this state, for re-election.

The narrative will be published by installments, and as a preface we publish the story of Lewis and Connelly, the robbers and counterfeiters, as found in "John B. Linn's History of Centre County." Following this, will be the "Dying confession of Lewis the Robber," as made in the Centre County jail in 1820, where he died from a gun shot wound when he was captured. This confession is quite lengthy and covers a long period of crime in the larger cities and the country districts of Pennsylvania. During his escape from prison, the story of his life as embodied in his dying confession emphasizes again the truth that "the way of the transgressor is hard."

LEWIS THE ROBBER AND COUNTERFEITER.

Story of his Life, Capture and Death in the Centre County Jail.

(From John B. Linn's History of Centre County.)

In June, 1820, the neighborhood of Pottery Mills was disturbed by the robbers Lewis and Connelly, who lurked in the Seven Mountains, and made incursions for the purpose of plunder. Lewis was the son of Lewis Lewis, who was a surveyor in Nicholas Lukens, the terror in that neighborhood for some weeks was unbounded, and its shadows still linger in the traditions of the valley. Night after night men peeped to the windows at Pottery Mills, shuddered and trembled at any approaching footsteps.

The following account of the pursuit and capture of these thieves is derived from the statement of one of the men who belonged to the posse:

Hammond & Page, merchants of Bellefonte, were receiving at that time a stock of goods. They had three thieves hauling them. One in particular, being loaded with the costliest goods, in crossing the Seven Mountains broke down, and it being late, they drove on to John Carr's tavern at Pottery Mills with the remaining wagons. Lewis and his party overhauled the goods and took such as suited them, and then started for Pottery Mills, with the intention of robbing Carr's store, but John Carr observed them at the shutters, and they fled and were followed by the few that could be gathered. Paul Lebo, a very active man, outran the rest so far that he was the only one who secured themselves. Captured Lebo, and Connelly had him nearly choked to death, and only at the earnest request of Lewis released him. The next place they were heard of was near Colonel McMillen's, where they were seen to be themselves on Sunday shooting at marks.

Word was immediately sent to Bellefonte, and search commenced. William Alexander, ex-sheriff, started down Nittany Valley to collect men to go by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with a posse consisting of John Mitchell, William Armor, Paul Lebo, Peter Deisal, (a one-armed man), and Joseph Butler, (sheriff of the County next year), started by way of the Great Island, and James Lewis and Connelly, who had taken to the woods, were in Centre county, with