What's become of Roosevelt? his cry in the wilderness has not been heard for three weeks.

The capitol graft suits have been settled. The state is to get back $1,300,000 of the six millions stolen. The prosecution cost the state $107,-961. The state thus gets about one dollar for every six dollars stolen. Pretty good bargain given the thieves.

Now Tener is the governor of this commonwealth. If he follows the even tenor of his previous ways, his administration will be discreditable. If he mends his ways, and keeps aloof from the grafters and looters that will beset him, and be true to his oath, to administer the affairs of State for the for his administration. Wait and see.

A court decision has lately been rendered in Massachusetts on what constitutes a subscriber, says an exchange. The judge firmly believed that the man who received the paper although he never subscribed for it is entitled to pay.

James Thompson moved, and William Robinson took immediate pos-session and received and accepted a weekly newspaper that was delivered to him through the mails every week. The good-natured editor sent ac-counts frequently but no attention was paid to them by Mr. Robinson.

18 years ago. Three times since has the lower house passed favorably on the proposition, but each time the Judgment was rendered in favor of the newspaper. The judge was severe in his criticism of people who are re-ceiving papers and do not think it worth while to pay for what they re ceive and make use of. It is an act of dishonesty, he said. One should acquaint the publisher and pay for whatever number he receives.

Brooks-Rimmey.

Duglass L. Brooks, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Alta May Rimmey, of Centre Hall, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the United Evangelical parsonage at Centre Hall, on Saturday afternoon by the Rev. S. A. Snyder. The happy couple start life's journey together with the best wishes to their many friends.

They will take a honeymoon trip to eastern cit-ies, after which they will reside at We Pay 33c. for Eggs.

Hartsock-Loveland.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Johnston, Esq., on Bishop street, when their niece, Miss Nora Loveland, became the wife Gray Hartsock, of Altoona. Rev. Thos. S. Wilcox performed the cere-mony, after which the happy couple departed on a wedding trip, amidst the hearty congratulations of their friends. The bride was formerly stenographer in her uncle's office, and in that capacity proved herself a most excellent young lady. The former clerked in his uncle's store at Philipsburg, but of late has been employed in the offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad company at Altoona in which latter city Mr. and Mrs. Hartsock will reside.

ABLY REPRESENTED.

It is a satisfaction to the voters of Centre County to know that they are being ably represented at the State Capitol, during the present session of the Pennsylvania legislature. When the body was organized, the name of Hon. J. C. Meyer, of Bellefonte, was put forth as the Democratic nominee for the speakership. While this may be termed by some as an empty honor with no hope of election yet such is not the case as it implies prestige, the leadership with the leadersh leadership with the minoriy party. In orther words, it recognizes Mr. Meyer as the leader of the Democratic side in the legislature, and while this is a compliment that no one would refuse, it also carries with it considerable influence.
