in the last campaign was based large-ly on the dissatisfaction of the voters with the present Democratic state organization. For sometime there was a lack of confidence in the men who were in charge of the party. The common complaint was that there was no efficient leadership; that campaigns were conducted in a listless manner that evoked no interest, wih the re-sult that for some years the Democratic vote in the state has been dwindling to a hopeless minority, in close touch with the Republican machine of the state and was at its service whenever it was needed. Frequently questionable legislation was supposted by these roosters. Later, the campaign last year proved to the satisfaction of every intelligent man that the Democratic Organization and the Republican Machine leaders were about one and the same thing, work-ing in harmony and to the same ends. The result that followed was the normous vote for the Keystone Party standpatters were all doing business which came near electing Berry, and relegated the Democratic party to the rear, and carried with it a stinging rebuke to those who had been in charge of the organization up to that time. Tener was elected by a close shave, and is now a minority Governor.

With these facts staring the voters of Pennsylvania in the face there is reason for a reorganization in the Democratic party. There is need in the state of a live, wide-awake, aggressive minority to save the state from the spollation by the political brigands who infest the capitol at Harisburg. For these reasons the Democratic members of this state in congress recently joined together and issued an address to the public expressing their lack of faith in the present leadership

SALARY INCREASE.

A bill making an annual increase of $453,000 in the appropriation for pay of judges in the state was reported favorably to the house and it is expected that it will be pushed through although there is certain to be some strong opposition to the big salary The bill increases the salary of raise. the chief justice of the supreme court $5,000 making it $15,500 a year, while each of the associate judges is to re+ ceive $15,000. In districts having a population of 90,000 and less than 500,-000 the salary is to be $8,500, but in such a district with only one judge he is to receive $1,000 additional. In districts of less than 90,000 population, the pay will be $7,500, an increase of $2,500 a year.

The aggregate increase made by this bill for the supreme court's seven justices is $35,000; for the superior court's seven judges, $35,500; the 20 Philadelphia judges, including five in the orphan's court, $100,000; 15 Allegheny judges, $75,000: two in Dauphin county, $5,000: 37 in the other larg-er counties, $107,500: 34 judges in the smaller counties, $75,000, and eight orphan's court judges outside of Phil-adelphia and Allegheny, $20,000. All this, for the 120 judges of Pennsylvania, raises the annual salary totat from $886,000 to $1,339,000, showing an average increase of more than 50 per cent.

While the measure increasing the salary of judges was being reported favorably in the house, over in the senate Senator McIlhenny was presenting a bill providing a pension for judges.

The minimum salary of school teachers holding professional, permanent or normal schools certificates and having had two years' practice, would be $50 a month, and for teachers with certificates of lower grade the bill introduced by Representative Ailman, of Juniata, specifies $40.

A Compliment.

The following, from the Everett, Pa., Press. rep., is a truthful compli-ment paid the standpat congress:

"There are indications that the most promising Congress for a score of years has lost its dynamic force six weeks before its end; but little of the legislation begun in December is like-ly to be enacted. Some are predeting that the appropriation bills will not be passed by March the 4th. It is al-most impossible for a heterogeneous team of over three hundred patriots. statesmen, demagogues and cranks to pull together as a harmonious whole."
