NEW PENSION BILL. T. P. Rynder Sends Greeting to the Soldiers of Centre County. Comrades:-It gives me pleasure to tell you that at last you are to receive partial justice. The Sulloway Bill will be passed by the Senate and that will carry some relief to a part of the soldiers. It does not cover the whole ground, as did the Rynder Bill, for which you signed the petition, but it will carry relief to about four hundred thousand soldiers.

The Rynder Bill, for which you signed, would have ended the pension leg-islation for the soldiers of the Civil

To the court and lawyers, the preachers, the business men and the soldiers, of Centre County is due some credit of the Sulloway Bill. I dis-cussed the matter with Mr. Sulloway several times before I was taken sick, and at his request left with him copies of the Rynder bill.

Although still confined to the house, I have kept posted on the progress of the pension legislation. Thanking you for your own assistance I ask you to number of friends and relatives were find room for this greeting to my old present. Rev. Frownfelter conducted

Takes Carbolic Acid for Medicine Mistaking carbolic acid for medicine which he wished to take on Tuesday evening of last week, Ex-Treas-urer Frank G. Harris, of Clearfield, came near making the error of his life For two weeks or more Mr. Harris had been suffering with grip and on the night in question he went to his bathroom to take a dose of medicine before retiring. Instead of the bottle of medicine, he obtained by mistake a similar bottle containing carbolic Pouring out almost an ounce of the fluid, he swallowed it. Realizing at once his error, Mr. Harris procured a quantity of alcohol, which he drank. and which acted as an antidote. Two physicians were hastily summoned and after working all night with the ber of the living ex-sheriffs and deputies of the same office, for the purpose of holding reunions whenever the spirit moves them. The result of the meeting was that a committee was appoined to hold a banquet at the Haag House, on the evening of February 22nd, when ex-sheriff Henry Kline will set before them a bill of fare that will make them think that life is worth living, and make them wish to be centenarians. The committee consists of D. W. Woodring, Miles W. Walker, Wm. A. Ishler, Henry Kline and Wm. E. Hurly, the present sheriff of the county. It is remarkable how many sheriffs and deputies of Centre County are still living, and when the roll is called at the banquet, thé number will surprise you.

Favors Pension Bill. Editor Centre Democrat :-- In order that I may answer the numerous communications from Grand Army Posts and individual soldiers who are interested in the adoption and passage of the Sulloway Bill recently passed by the Lower Hiuse of Congress and now pending in the U.S. Senate will you kindly call attention to the fact that this evening the Penn. H. of R. adopted a resolution requesting our U. S. Senators to support that Bill and I was 'gratified to lend it my
