

Correspondents' Department

Bright, Newsy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

WINGATE.

Clara J. Warner, ably assisted by Mary Felmlee, of Bellefonte, gave a dinner at her father's, Lemuel Warner's, on February 8th, it being his 80th birthday.
Florence Heaton, who has been employed at M. E. Flynn's, returned to her home at Runville last week.
Free Methodist revival services commenced at Summit Grove church on Sunday evening. All are invited to attend.
Owing to a dullness in the coal trade Thos. A. Summers has returned home from Tyrone, where he was employed as P. R. K. fireman.
George A. Croll, of Milesburg, has been chosen train operator here in place of L. S. Way who was recently promoted to Tyrone office.

On and after February 17th, 1911, the railroad fare to Bellefonte will be 10 cents, which was heretofore 11 cents.
Mrs. Allison Freize, who was condescended as Wingate's most lovely maiden, but now of Furtle Creek, and children Harriet and Pauline are spending some time here at her mother's, Mrs. John Harbush and sister's Mrs. Fred Freize.
P. B. Iddings desires the person, who found his glove between Snow Shoe Intersection and Glen Harris to return same or come and get the other one. He also found a glove at Milesburg which owner can have by calling.

Mrs. Carrie Fisher left on Friday for her initial visit at her sons E. B. Fisher at Tyrone, who was recently married.
Rev. I. C. Shearer will preach his valedictory sermon in the United Evangelical church here Sunday, February 26th at 10:30 sharp.
Born to Oscar Summers and wife a baby boy, January 24th, so called Oscar Lewis.
Quitting and making waists is the chief industry among the women and how to exterminate the woodchuck is the chief topic among the men as they were all blowing their hands and had one of those "dang the ground hog" expressions on their faces last week.

Miss Almida Eckert, of Tyrone, is spending some time here with her cousin Ella Davidson on Sunday.
The scariest fever quarantine which had been in Jacob Kerchner's residence here, since November 29th, was taken down on Sunday.
Ester Young, of Bellefonte, Milla and Harry Kerchner, of Unionville, C. B. Harbush, of Tyrone; Barney Barnhart, of Curtis; B. H. Hancock, of Phillipsburg and sister Mrs. Ada Kanobia, of New York, and Elias Hancock, of Runville; Florence Heaton, of Hillside and Eve Lucas, of Altoona, were visitors here on Sunday.
Henceforth Wingate items will be found under Boggs township head lines as the future scribe is a resident of the township.

Miss Beatie Petzer has returned to her home at Runville after spending some time at Pittsburg.
Harris Summers and Bunt Estright spent Saturday afternoon at Howard.

JULIAN.

Mrs. Martha Gill, who has almost reached her 80th milestone in life, is now seriously ill at her home in this place, suffering with paralysis of the limbs.
Mrs. William Fink is very sick at this writing, and her condition is serious.
Rev. Ake, pastor of the M. E. church, preached a very interesting sermon on Sunday morning to a large congregation.

Mrs. Lucy Rowin and Clara Myers, both teachers, attended the debating society at Stormstown, on Saturday.
J. H. Turner and wife spent a couple days visiting friends in Williamsport, this week.
There are some young men in town up in the twenties that seem to delight to be in company with little boys of the age of 8 to 15 years, and we are sorry to say that they do not get the proper example they should. About all they learn from these fellows is to smoke, chew and swear. Small boys should be where they belong and not in company with men unless they are the right kind that will give them the proper advice.
Prayer meeting in the United Brethren church tonight, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone welcome to this meeting; let there be a good attendance.

Preaching in the United Brethren church next Sunday morning, at 10:30 a. m. by the pastor G. Elmer Smith.

POTTER TOWNSHIP.

The following attended a surprise party given for Mrs. F. W. Frazier at their home: James Musser, David Glasgow, Gule Wagner, Mr. Bible Foster Frazier, Adam Heckman, Wm. Rocky, Wm. Baird, Arthur Lee, Wm. Martz, Chas. Miller, Henry Rossman, Ida Miller, Ida Martz, Anna Frazier, Anna Portney, Mrs. Rossman, Mrs. Shuey, Ida Weaver, Mrs. Wagner, Magie McClean, Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Ripke, Naomi Lee, Anna Stover, Sadie Lee, Mrs. Bible, Mrs. Heckman, Letti Glasgow, Rebecca Lee, Ida Weaver, Mary Ishler, Mrs. Bitner, Bertha Bible, Thos. Swartz, Harvey McClellan, Mr. Weaver, Henry Shuey, Roy Martz, Mr. Horner, Wm. H. Lee, Myra Rockey, Jennie Rockey, Edzar Miller, Sarah Heckman, Harriet Frazier, Franklin Heckman, Nellie Weaver, Wm. Glasgow, Kate Frazier, Ellen Frazier, Chas. Frazier and Sue Frazier. Elegant refreshments were served and they all enjoyed themselves.

PLEASANT GAP.

John Royer, while at work at White Rock got hit by a flying stone, which cut the eye ball. A horse belonging to W. H. Noll got hit and is badly hurt.
Don't forget Farmers' Institute, which is to be held at this place, February 20th and 21st.
Harry Swartz spent Sunday with his parents at this place.
David Noll expects to move in Alfred Hoover's house about the 24th of March and work for Mr. William Smeltzer this summer.
A party was held at J. A. Meyer's on Friday evening. A royal good time was spent playing games and singing; about 24 were present.
We heard Ed. Ishler is going to make sale of his live stock and farm implements about the last of March.
H. N. Keller finished threshing last week for Mr. Musser. The old saying is, better late than never.

NITTANY.

Some of our women attended quiltings three days in succession, and then were sorry they could not go on Saturday. Too many big dinners in succession might cause stomach trouble.
Mrs. H. P. Zerby gave a quilting for her Hubbersburg friends, on last Saturday evening.
Quite a number of our people attended farmers' institute at Lamar last week, and report the institute being very good.

Elder J. C. Reecer preached two very powerful sermons on Saturday evening and on Sunday morning, to well filled houses in the United Evangelical church.
On Wednesday evening, February 22nd, the ladies aid of the Evangelical church will hold an oyster supper at the home of Miss Mittie Winkelman. Everybody cordially invited, and don't forget the date, Washington's birthday, February 22nd.

Miss Mildred Shope and her friend, Miss Verna Baird, of Milesburg, visited friends here over Sunday.
There will be preaching in the Disciple church on Saturday night, February 18th, Sunday morning and Sunday evening, February 19th, to which all are cordially invited.
Harry Schreckengast, of Avis, visited friends here one day last week.
William Minnick, tax collector of Hubbersburg, was in our town on Saturday.

Miss Charlotte Krapp, of Flemington, visited the Misses Erva and Lillie Kessinger over Sunday.
S. Peck purchased a new gasoline engine and chop machine, also a wood sawing outfit, from Mr. Stover, of Millheim, agent for the Holland Machine Co., who set up the machinery last week, which worked very nicely. Mr. Peck is greatly pleased and will receive other machinery through the same agent in the near future.
Some of our men employed at Waddell spent the past week with their families here.
J. Wesley Crawford's family left on Wednesday for Michigan, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Crawford having gone to the above named place several weeks ago.

Mrs. Henry Sachs and son Ray, of Nuremberg, Schuykill county, were the guests of Mrs. Rev. Bingman and family several days last week.
Perry Weber, who is employed at Waddell, is home with very sore eyes, his wife who has been sick the last two years, is not improving any.

Mrs. Andy Singleton, of Unionville, visited her brother Wilson Ammerman and wife here, over Sunday.
We noticed Ed. Green and wife of Howard on our streets on Sunday.
William Showers is running his saw mill full blast.
The writer was misinformed last week in regards to Miss Erva Kessinger going to Philadelphia, as she is still here.

Bert Fletcher, of Benetzte, who visited his lady friend here, has returned home; his lady friend, Miss Marie E. Young accompanied him as far as Lock Haven.
We failed to learn the names of guests at the Nolan home last week.

Last Saturday a very enjoyable quilting party was held at the home of Mrs. H. P. Zerby. The sewing club, otherwise known as "The Butting in club", notified the lady of their intended visit and like the "wise old owl" she had a quilt in the frame. They did their duty nobly and when going home time came, the quilt was almost finished. They certainly redeemed their reputation as to the quantity and quality of the work done. The hours passed very quickly, with music and good cheer, and no small feature of the occasion was the excellent dinner served by the hostess and her daughters. May long life attend them. Thanks are due to the following: J. D. Miller, Mrs. Geo. Hoy, Mrs. Ed. Markle, Mrs. L. E. Swartz, Mrs. Joe Emerick, Mrs. H. K. Allison, Mrs. E. J. Peck, Mrs. Geo. Fisher, Miss Lillian Knecht, Miss Mabel Knecht, and Miss Verna Allison.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

(The following correspondence was sent in last week for publication, but was unavoidably crowded out.)
John Markle, who is working in Bellwood, visited his family here last week.
J. H. and Maude Decker, of Bellefonte, came up to Pine Grove on Friday evening, to assist at the festival held last week.
Do not forget the teacher's local institute to be held in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Saturday, February 19th; every person is invited.
William Garner, one of Ferguson's former school teachers, now of Bellefonte, spent Friday of last week with friends in town.

J. E. Decker and Luther Fishburn spent Sunday with their parents here.
Howard Wright, of Tyrone, visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Wright, over Sunday.
Mae Meyer, of Fairbrook, spent several days of last week with her friend Beattie Martz here.
Mary Osmand and Hester Shuey, of State College, spent Sunday with their friend Mrs. H. E. Reed, of our town.

Miss Alma Krebs, of Bellwood, spent several days last week with friends in town.
Ella Ripper, of Alexandria, Pa., is visiting at the home of Sallie Barr.
Mrs. Elsie Meyer, of the Branch, spent several days this week here with her mother, Mrs. Sue Peters.
Mrs. Sadie Shafer, of Bellefonte, visited friends here several days last week.
Mrs. J. N. Everts is at Oak Hall this week, helping to care for a new granddaughter that arrived at the home of C. A. Peters last week.

The festival held by the Reformed church was a success; they took in over $130 in three evenings in spite of the bad weather.

GREENBURR.

Rev. Stauffer delivered a fine sermon in the Reformed church on Sunday morning.
How many of us have visited our school this winter?
George Dooty is the proud father of a bouncing boy, born February 11th 1911.
Jacob Reninger, of Maple Grove, and his son Clyde, of Greenburr, visited friends in Nittany valley last week.
Samuel Esterline is sporting a new sleigh.
P. O. Sheets and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Sheets' father, H. B. Kleckner, of Loganton, on Monday forenoon.

AARONSBURG.

John Detweiler and his wife Annie, of Centre Hall, are the welcome guests of his father and sister and family.
Mrs. Fred Lambert had a very nice quilting at her home on the 8th of February; got everything finished up in good time and lots of fun.
Ira Gramley, wife and daughter Jenie, spent Sabbath afternoon with the lady's sister and aunt at the home of Thomas Stover at Wolf's Chapel.
Mrs. Walter Orwig is still under the doctor's care; hope for her speedy recovery.

Era Burd, of Coburn, is spending the Sabbath to visit among friends, Mrs. K. E. Swabb.
Henry Mowery and Jane Bell, her daughter Dotta and her too children, of Madisonburg, were Sunday visitors at Wimmer Stover's.
Ira Gramley, wife and daughter Jenie, will move his family to Millheim on the 14th of February, where he is employed for the summer, by P. F. Letzler.

James Wert took the advantage of his wife, while she went to a quilting to have a nice time; he hitched his 2.40 sorrel and went to Felder for his dinner, which he greatly enjoyed at the home of his cousin, Frank Guise-wite.

Last evening the Lutheran pulpit was filled by Rev. Greesey, from Franklin county, as a trial sermon; he has a fine delivery.
Osburn Holloway, wife and son Paul, from Akron, Ohio, arrived here on Saturday to visit among friends.
Henry Bower bought his mother's home for $380.
Ardana Harman and Martha McCall, of State College, came home to their parents for a few weeks' stay.

Mrs. Frank Barce, of Coburn, was among many friends to solicit music pupils which she will instruct during the spring month.
Sparr Wert is with his brother John, at Tusseyville; his lady friend wishes he would soon come home.
Mrs. Clara Burr, after spending a month or more among her friends, at Avis, Lock Haven and Centre Hall, returned home on Friday well pleased with her trip.
Our up-to-date merchant R. W. Mensch and wife took a day off to spend it with their friends at Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Crantson, nee Eva Meyer, spent a short time with her aged aunts, the Kline sisters and uncle, Dr. A. S. Musser.

REBERSBURG.

Sidney Krumrine and wife are visiting in Sugar Valley.
M. C. Haines bought the store of C. N. Wolfe and has been very busy the past week taking an invoice of it.
Rev. G. A. Stauffer was installed as pastor of the Reformed church on Thursday evening, Rev. H. L. Crow, of Harrisburg; Rev. Confer, of Millingsburg and Rev. Donat, of Aaronsburg, conducted the service. At this time Rev. Stauffer announced his text for Sunday evening, February 19th, "The Sin of Gossip." Sermons on this subject are greatly needed in our town.

William Mitterling, of Centre Hall, spent a few days with his friend, Samuel Shaffer.
Last Sunday Rev. N. A. Whitman preached to the veterans and sons of veterans. A fine sermon was delivered and the service was largely attended.

For good ice cream go to the parlor of Frank Waite. He gives gospel measure, pressed, down, shaken together and running over.
Prof. Franks, the eye specialist, of Bellefonte, canvassed our town the past week.
If you want a square deal call on M. C. Haines, our new merchant.
Wilbur Diehl wears a broad smile since the arrival of that baby boy.
Melvin Pitts, of Panama, is visiting at Thomas Faxon's. Special attractions.

Quite a number of people from Millheim attended the services for sons of veterans here.
Mrs. Joseph K. Moyer recently bought the property of J. C. Morris and will take possession in the near future, while Mr. Morris will move his family to Huntingdon where he is employed in the Huntingdon reformatory.

FILLMORE.

Reuben Crist purchased another team of young horses from John Grove. Reuben has rented the Musser farm, joining which he expects to have his son Roy farm. There are more farms to rent in the barrens and if there are no renters for them Mr. Crist will be able to run another on account of his son Earl getting married.

Protracted meeting is still in progress at this place. We think that it will be a success. We do not know how long it will last. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, led the exercises on Sunday evening last and was a very good service.
Sleighting has all gone again. We are looking for some rain to follow.
Bruce and Claud Lomison visited friends around here last week.
Wilbur Earner and wife, of Williamsport, are visiting at the home of James Waddell's.

Frank Rocky, wife and family, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rocky.
Mrs. Henry Norris is on the sick list; we hope she will soon recover.
J. W. Blair purchased a new horse at Axemann last week. He is getting ready for his new farm.
Charles Meyers, of Julian, is hauling lime stone from Beatie Green's farm at this place. We think that is a long ways to haul stone.

TYLERSVILLE.

Andrew Albright, who has suffered for a long time, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jacob Quiggle, of Pine, last Wednesday morning and was buried at this place last Saturday morning. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Rearick of Salona, in the Lutheran and Reformed church.
Mrs. Adam Waller, of Nittany valley, is visiting her friends and relatives at this place for a few days.
Harry Shreckengast, of Jersey Shore, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shreckengast last week.
John Carlis and Mrs. W. D. Kerstetter visited Frank Carlis at Loganton last Sunday.

Some of our young people attended Farmers Institute at Loganton last Friday and Saturday.
A little girl came to the home of Samuel Tressler last Thursday and intends to stay there.

PORT MATILDA.

Don't forget the Sunday school convention in the Baptist church on Friday evening and Saturday, February 17th and 18th. Come everybody and do your part in making this convention the best we ever held.

On Saturday evening the Knights of the Golden Eagle, of our town, gave an oyster supper to its members and their wives and best friends. At least one hundred persons were present and enjoyed the supper and the social gathering. After partaking of the good things of the supper all were very much pleased to listen to addresses by Rev. W. H. Hume, pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. H. A. McKelvey, pastor of the United Brethren church and Mr. W. R. Dillen, a member of the order whose home is at Altoona. Music was furnished by the Port Matilda band. Truly, it pays to be a Knight of the Golden Eagle.

The I. O. O. F. lodge No. 733, is trying to get a class of applicants for membership to be initiated on the fourth of March, by the degree team of the Allegheny Gateway Lodge of Tyrone. Quite a few young men have already handed in their applications. To be in this class you should have your application presented by Friday evening, February 17th. We will be pleased to welcome all good, honest, sober, upright young men, who may wish to unite with us. Now is your chance, when this degree team will be present to do the work. They know how to confer it, and it certainly will be great. Give your name and money to any member by Friday evening, and decide to join this world known order.

The account of the lamp explosion and burning of the United Brethren parsonage will be found in another part of this issue.

YARNELL.

Misses Mary and Grace Hemstead, of Altoona, visited over Sunday very pleasantly at the home of A. M. Shank. Quite a number of our people attended the mass meeting at Runville on Sunday.
Charles and James Thorpe, of Pittsburg, spent some time at the home of their father here, recently.

Miss Ella Confer returned to her home here on last Friday after spending several months at Lionier.
Harry Shank, of Altoona, visited over Sunday at his home here.
E. Brown, of Centre Hall, spent last week at his home here.
Mrs. Orvis Petzer is quite ill at this writing; we hope for her a speedy recovery.

Ross Petzer, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at his home here.
A number of young people spent Friday evening very pleasantly at the home of Fleming Poorman. The evening was spent in singing and playing games. At eleven o'clock a most excellent supper was served, after which they all returned to their homes thanking the people for the good supper and fine time spent together. Those present were, Misses Mary and Grace Hemstead, of Altoona, Pearl Brickley, of Romola, Smantha Pownell, Lucinda Kline, Maudella Poorman, Almida Pownell, Laura Pownell, Anna Shank, Nancy Kelley, Ella Confer, of this place, Malcolm Poorman, Elroy Baker and Harry Shank, of Altoona, Arthur Confer, Clement Shope, Ellis Pownell, Toner Petzer, John Shank and Charles Poorman, also of this place.

MARTHA.

We are having summer weather since the ground hog saw his shadow. The ground has been bare for some time.
The able sermons delivered by Rev. Ellis and Rev. Ake, at this place, on Sunday were attended by large audiences.
Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Ebert's little daughter has been suffering with pneumonia the last few days.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Crossgrove is not recovering very speedily from his long siege of illness. We all hope for his recovery soon.
Geo. W. and W. O. Steele have been busy hauling lime from the cars to their farms. They both have good farms and raise large crops.

Robert Williams, of this place, is wearing a broad smile over the arrival of a big boy.
The party held at Ray Steres on Saturday, was largely attended and all enjoyed themselves, feasting on oysters and all kinds of refreshments.

The Richards Bros. of this place are now in Huntingdon county operating on their big tract of timber. Curtis Robinson is doing their clerical work.
The many friends of Rev. H. A. McKelvey, of Port Matilda, are sorry to hear of his house being destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning.

The Methodist Sunday school expects to hold an oyster supper in the basement of the M. E. church on Saturday evening, February 25th. Everybody is invited to attend.

Auto License Tag.

In placing 1911 auto license tags it will be well for owners of automobiles to bear in mind that phrase of the law which says that "from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise tags shall be illuminated so that the number can be plainly seen." There is but one place that a tag can be placed that will comply with this section of the law that is—place the tag beside the lamp where the rays will be thrown directly upon it.

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was Cleansed By a Simple Wash.
"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard of Altamahaw, N. C. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema, and that was three years ago."
D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in Eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, blackheads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of Eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wash for the skin made that can compare with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. A 25-cent bottle will give you positive proof of the wonderful effectiveness of this great remedy.
Greens' Pharmacy, Bellefonte, Pa.

Discouraged
The expression occurs so many times in letters from sick women, "I was completely discouraged." And there is always good reason for the discouragement. Years of pain and suffering. Doctor after doctor tried in vain. Medicines doing no lasting good. It is no wonder that the woman feels discouraged.
Thousands of these weak and sick women have found health and courage regained as the result of the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
It establishes regularity, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures weakness.
IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG AND SICK WOMEN WELL.
Refuse substitutes offered by unscrupulous druggists for this reliable remedy.
Sick women are invited to consult by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Pres't, Buffalo, N. Y.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

LANDRETH'S SEEDS

WHICH SUCCEED. Write for the Best Catalog Printed BRISTOL, Pennsylvania.
are not sold by a Merchant in BELLEFONTE. Consequently we hope to sell our Seeds to you direct by Mail. This advertisement mailed to us, if paper is mentioned, will be taken as worth 20c. on any order of One Dollar ($1) or over, and the coupon inclosed with Seeds on first order, if returned to us, will be worth One Dollar ($1) on a Five Dollar ($5) order. Say If Market or Private Gardener. To every One Dollar ($1) order will be added, to introduce them, without charge, one packet each of three especially desirable sorts Vegetables.

A. E. SCHAD,

ALLEGHENY ST., BELLEFONTE, PA.

Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting, Tinning and Spouting in all its branches. Ranges in all styles. Agent for Colt Acetyline Plants.

Estimates Furnished in Any Line of Our Work.

Our Financial Security

will appeal to all conservative business men. If you will investigate our resources and standing as a fiscal institution you will see why you can invest your money with perfect confidence in the

BELLEFONTE TRUST CO.

Are Children Worth Bringing Up?

Can It Be Done Without Rubbers?

This is what appeared in a recent number of the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF HEALTH.
The family doctor should din it into the mothers head all the time. that the health of their children's lies in their feet.
Keep the feet dry. Never let them get wet. No child should be allowed to go out in the snow or rain or when walking is wet, without rubbers.
REMEMBER—Yeager's RUBBERS are best and the prices just a little CHEAPER than the other fellows.

YEAGER'S SHOE STORE,

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Fire, Life Accident and Tornado

HARRY FENLON, INSURANCE

Successor to Frederick K. Foster and William Burasite

TEMPLE COURT

BELLEFONTE, PA.