The Democracy, of Pennsylvania, needed re-organization long ago, but while the mills of the Gods grind a slowly, they do the work exceedingly

The present legislature has a grist $80. of several thousand bills in its hopper, and when the adjournment comes the expense will be high in the millions and the public be out just that

In thirty years the tax payers of interest alone on the $100,000 four Charles G. Corbin. per cent. bond issue recently negotiated. The wisdom of that deal is frequently questioned by tax payers.

All doubt as to the purpose of the Government in sending 20,000 troops to the Mexican border has at last been swept away. The United States has determined that the revolution in the republic of the South must end. The American troops have been sent to form a solid military wall along the Rio Grande to stop filibustering and to see that there is no further smuggling of arms and men across the international boundary.

The Pennsylvania Democrats in the House of Representatives have selected Congressman William B. Wilson as the congressional member of the committee of seven, to be intrusted with the important duty of reorganizing the State Democracy. Mr. Wilson, who represents the Fifteenth district, and who last fall was reelected for a third term, is well qualified to aid in the work of re-organization. He will prove a strong member of the committee of seven.

A distrain passed is as follows:

NO GUN TAX.

The foolish gun tax proposition was killed in the legislature last week and friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnthe corpse sent up Salt river. In place of it the author of the gun tax now proposes that instead every hunter pay a tax instead of the gun-tax. This would simply be jumping from the frying pan into the fire. If a person wanted to hunt he would have to pay a tax and if he only hunt-ed five minutes—and if he had any boys, one ,two, three or four, and any of them wanted to hunt, a tax, so much per head, would have to be paid. Thus the difference between between tweedledum and tweedledeeor even worse. The public does not ask for any such childish legislation and mock laws; those fellows at Harrisburg know it and should keep their fingers off-they are not put there for that kind of monkeying. The state does not need the money to be derived from a guntax or hunting tax; what is needed looking after in the legislature is that jobs, graft, and plun-dering be crushed out and there will enough money left in the treasury for all needed purposes and a surplus sit up and take notice

How Plants Remain Upright. If a flowerpot is laid on its side the stalk of the plant growing in it gradually curves upward until it resumes the vertical position. are the most ingenious in the world. If you go to your destination by gondola they can beat you thereto by a good bit of time. What they know about cer has been applied by them to navig. on land, and they know every tiny street in the city.

Of course there are postoffice gondolas, too, gay yellow things that quite outcolor the yellow sunlight, and any day you happen over the bridge of the Rialto you will see them all fastened to their red and gold poles just underneath the old palatial Fondaco del Tedeschi, which centuries ago by decree of the Venetian senate two famous architects of early days, Girolamo Tedesco and Giorgio Spavento, built for the use of the many German merchants then living in Venice (somewhere about the year 1505).-Travel

The Mystery of a Duel.

Having fought his duel and saved his honor by firing a shot in the air, newspaper went back to his desk, and the incident had quite left his mind when he felt something strange in his thigh. He looked and found that he was bleeding profusely. A doctor was called, who discovered that a bullet was imbedded in the editor's thigh some two inches deep and required extraction. "Why was this not taken notice of on the spot where the duel took place?" he asked. An Irish Grand Prix.

There was once an Irish Grand Prix. The horse that lowered the French colors was the property of an eccena big, bony roan, not much to look at great surprise to everybody but his owner when he came in first. His previous record at the English Derby the preceding year had not been brilliant enough for anybody to lay any large bets on him, with the sole exception of Copolly himself, whose faith in his entry was so great that he mortgaged his lands and put every cent on the horse. Up to the very end of the race everybody looked on Conolly as a wagons, 4 in. tire, g ruised man, but when the roan shee er side as the position is changed and first under the wire he not only carried by their pressure influence the mech- the British colors to victory, but won a great fortune for his master. This for each or take cattle and sheep in each happened in the time of Napoleon III., and Conolly was so proud of is triumph that he insisted on walking ahead of the emperor and empress, cheering and waving his hat.-New York Press.

We, the People.

The phrase "We, the people of the United States," in the preamble of the constitution read in the first draft of the constitution as follows: "We, the people of New Hampshire. Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, do ordain, declare and establish." etc. Though unanimously adopted by the convention, the wording had to be changed to "We, the people," simply because the constitution, which had not as yet been ratified, was to go into effect when ratified by nine states, and, not knowing which states were to ratify, the naming of the states was, of course, out of the question .-New York American.
