

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—W. T. Kelly spent Sunday with friends in Tyrone.

—John D. Meyer, of Altoona, spent Sunday in town among friends.

—See "The Thief" at the opera house Saturday, matinee and evening.

—Mrs. Ada Finkle, of York, Pa., spent part of the week visiting friends in Bellefonte and vicinity.

—Mrs. E. C. Hallett and sister, Mrs. Ed. Young, of Juniata, are visiting friends in Bellefonte and Centre county.

—Mrs. William Bible and Mrs. Milton Kern were Tyrone visitors at the home of Mrs. S. R. Kamp, one day last week.

—During the past week Wm. Katz was in Philadelphia and New York City making selections for the spring trade.

—"The Thief," one of the best emotional dramas ever placed on the stage at the opera house Saturday afternoon and evening.

—After an enjoyable visit of three weeks among friends in New York City, Miss Elizabeth Hart returned home last week.

—Mrs. C. Dale Musser and little son, of Jenkintown, Pa., is a pleasant visitor at the home of grandpa W. H. Musser's, on east Lamb street.

—If you are interested in public sales turn to page 7 of this issue. All the leading sales in Centre county are advertised in the Centre Democrat.

—John Nighart spent Wednesday in Williamsport consulting Dr. Haskins in regard to his eyes, which have been giving him considerable trouble lately.

—J. W. Roush, of Aaronsburg, spent an hour in our sanctum, when an interesting talk was had over old times, in past years, including the dead and living.

—Dr. Kilpatrick and wife spent last week among friends in Philadelphia. He now is working over time as he has some special business on hand after April 15th.

—Mrs. Howard Best and little son, Donald, departed last Saturday for Williamsport, where they will spend a week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donachy.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Witchcraft, of Williamsport, spent over Sunday in Bellefonte as guests at the home of Mrs. Witchcraft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beezer.

—George Kerstetter is in charge as conductor of the passenger train between Lewisburg and Bellefonte, formerly of Jersey Shore, who have been visiting in Bellefonte for some time past, departed on Tuesday for Atlantic City, where they will make their future home. Mr. Bradley is a skilled machanic and will be engaged in contracting.

—The Junior preliminary oratorical contest of the Bellefonte High school, will be held in the new High school building on Friday evening, March 31, at 8 o'clock. At this time the contestants will be chosen for the annual Junior oratorical contest for the Reynolds prize. These meetings always are interesting and should draw a large crowd.

—Thomas Toot, a veteran of the civil war, paid his respects to the Democrat sanctum. He had been at Philadelphia, and was visiting on his old stamping ground in Potter township and other parts of the county.

—Mrs. Eliza Ammerman has been confined to bed for the past week at her home near the old glass works, suffering from a complication of diseases, which have been giving her friends some concern. The lady is getting well up in years, and to one so far advanced in life, it is more difficult to combat the diseases to which mankind is heir.

—Rev. C. C. Shuey and Cyrus Solt left here on Wednesday to attend the services of the Methodist conference at Leesburg this week. Rev. Wilcox left here on Monday for the same meeting. Owing to the many vacancies of pastorates, due to deaths and old age, there will be many changes among the churches, and the appointments will be announced sometime next Tuesday and will appear in the next issue.

—William Royer this week shipped his household goods to Tyrone, and hereafter he and his family will be located on east Thirteenth street, in that city. We are sorry to see Billy becoming a permanent fixture anywhere outside of Bellefonte, the call of the dollar did it. Their daughter, Miss Pearl, who holds an excellent position in the Penna. Match Co. office, will remain in Bellefonte for a while, probably until fall.

—While cutting wood at the Penna. freight station on Thursday evening, John Strunk, who is employed as one of the freight handlers, struck his knee with an axe and severed one of the blood vessels of the knee cap. The wound bled profusely for a time, and he was taken to his home on Thomas street. A physician was at once summoned, who dressed the injured limb, and John is now getting along all right.

—Forest Bullock's new brick building on Water street will soon be up, for as the Wallaces are putting the finishing touches on it. This will considerably enlarge Mr. Bullock's business, as he will have a complete shop for repairing and painting buggies and automobiles, separate from the blacksmith stand. The brick in the building were originally made for the state road, and are larger than the average building brick, and we think it improves the appearance of the building.

—William Ogden expects to move his household goods to Clintonville in a short time, where he will bring his family from Tioga county, and go to housekeeping. The Ogden family at one time were residents of Bellefonte, but since leaving here several years ago, Mrs. Ogden and children have been staying with relatives in Tioga county, while Mr. Ogden was on the road selling medicine. After they are located at Clintonville it will give Mr. Ogden an opportunity to visit his family more frequently.

—Snow set in on Tuesday evening and continued until midnight, landing to a depth of three inches. It was heavy with moisture and there being a perfect calm it stuck to the trees and shrubbery, giving them a most beautiful appearance, clothed in a mantle of white, covering every stem and twig to the utmost tip, remaining thus garbed until a little after sunrise next morning, Wednesday, when, under an attack of the sun's rays, the "beautiful" began to drop to the earth by handfuls. Altogether it was a pretty sight. By noon it was transformed into one third of an inch of water.

—Lewis McQuiston is about the streets again after his prolonged illness during the winter with pneumonia.

—Mrs. L. S. Beltz, superintendent of the Bellefonte hospital, left on Tuesday for several days' visit at her home in Harrisburg.

—Friday, May 6th, is the date for the appearance of the Academy Minstrels in Bellefonte. They will put up a good program this season.

—Tomorrow is St. Patrick's Day, and the natives of the Emerald Isle will give it due recognition in this section by wearing the green.

—Rev. McDowell, a returned missionary, will be in Bellefonte on Wednesday and Thursday, March 22 and 23, and will speak in the Presbyterian chapel.

—Mrs. F. P. Blair was called recently to the bedside of her brother, Joseph Entwistle, at Lorain, Ohio, who is critically ill at his home in that place.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burlingame, of Syracuse, N. Y., last Monday became the parents of a fine big baby boy, Mrs. Burlingame was formerly Miss Margaret Burnett, of this place.

—Charley Fisher, the Penn Hall merchant, was in town this week having some needed repairs made to his Overland car, which he has successfully operated for several seasons.

—An interesting game of basket ball will be played on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, between Altoona and Bellefonte Y. M. C. A.'s. This should prove an interesting scrimmage and we advise all to attend.

—Miss Roxy Mingle is slowly recovering from the serious attack of pneumonia, which at one time made her condition critical. During the past week there has been a marked improvement, which will be welcome news to her many friends.

—The Misses Blanche and Mary Treaster and Blanch Haagen were a trio of pretty girl callers at our office on Tuesday. We do not know where the young ladies' homes are, but we would be glad to own them.

—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, formerly of Jersey Shore, who have been visiting in Bellefonte for some time past, departed on Tuesday for Atlantic City, where they will make their future home. Mr. Bradley is a skilled machanic and will be engaged in contracting.

—The Junior preliminary oratorical contest of the Bellefonte High school, will be held in the new High school building on Friday evening, March 31, at 8 o'clock. Altogether it was a pretty sight. By noon it was transformed into one third of an inch of water.

—Will you be "wearin' of the Green" to-morrow?

—Mrs. D. H. Emlig, of State College, and lady friend, were pleasant callers.

—The mercantile appraisal for Centre County will be found on page 2 of this issue.

—It cost the price of about twenty fine farms to repair the Centre County Court House.

—Mrs. Oscar Young and children, of Greensburg, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Andrew Dunkle, in Bush's Addition.

—Uncle George Rumberger, alias "Domino," was a pleasant caller at this office on Wednesday while in Bellefonte on business.

—Grocer Edw. Haupt on Thursday last added another notch to his list of successful fox hunts by shooting a large red fox on the mountains near Unionville.

—William Ammerman, of Mt. Carmel, and Austin Ammerman, of State College, were one-day visitors in Bellefonte this week, called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Eliza Ammerman.

—Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis departed on Wednesday for New York where they will spend a few days visiting friends. Their daughter, Mrs. Harvey, also accompanied them on the same train, her destination being her home at Wynwood.

—One of the large panes of glass in Montgomery & Co's show window, which had cracked sometime in the fall, was replaced this week by the insurance company, Messrs. Miller and Wallace put in the new glass, which was no small task.

—Mr. D. K. Geiss, one of Centre Hall's estimable citizens, has come to Bellefonte to make his home with his son Wagner Geiss for a month, his daughters, Misses Elsie and Vernie, having left for Philadelphia, for a month's visit with friends, and are closing their home at Centre Hall during their absence.

—Elmer Straub, is contemplating making some extensive repairs and alterations to his dwelling house on the farm in Spring township. Elmer now lives pretty cozy as it is, but when he gets things fixed up in accordance with the ideas he has in mind, he'll not be willing to swap places with John Rockefeller.

—The services at the United Brethren Church in this place are becoming more interesting every night. Rev. Sawyer, the evangelist, is a plain speaker, and his talks each evening are helpful and inspiring. Quite a number of conversions have already resulted, and many more are expected to follow. His class of converts has not been there, by all means go, as everybody is giving a hearty welcome.

—The emigration of some of Centre county's best and hardiest population, has been strong within the past few years. The west and north-west have been the gainers by this loss. At present meetings, however, we are pleased to learn, all speak well of their move and are prospering, which induces others to go too. Folks that move from Centre county are usually found in their new homes to be a grand class of citizens.

—Squire W. H. Musser sat in judgment on a lively case on Wednesday evening, in which there were so many plaintiffs and defendants present, that it required a legal mind to keep track of the proceedings. There were three cases in the mixup, and all were the same kind. The first was a case of parties living on western outskirts of the town. One of the litigants was a blackened eye. Justice Musser disposed of the cases by placing the costs on one of the parties—he of the blackened eye.

RECENT DEATHS.

HALL.—Mrs. James Hall, a well known resident of Julian, died on Tuesday evening, 7th, of Bright's disease, aged 64 years, survived by her husband. She was buried the following Thursday.

HOLTER.—Mrs. Mary Elizabeth H. Holter, wife of Henry C. Holter, died very suddenly at her home in Howard, on Friday morning last, aged 63 years 8 months and 10 days. She was born near Unionville, and when about 21 years of age was married to Henry C. Holter, who with the following children survive: Daniel W., at home; Mrs. Nannie Thompson, of Howard; Mrs. Lizzie Gordon, of Columbus, Ohio; John S., of Johnsonburg; E. Fowler, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Mary Almida Kuntz, of Columbus, O.; David A., Philip C., Cameron S., and H. Walter, at home. The deceased was of the highest type of womanhood, and will be greatly mourned in the community in which she lived. The funeral was held on Sunday morning, services being conducted at the house by the Rev. R. S. Taylor, interment in the Schenck cemetery.

GORDON.—Ex-Judge Cyrus Gordon died at his home in Clearfield, Friday morning, March 10, at 5:30 a. m., in the 74th year of his age. He was afflicted with diabetes from which he had long been a sufferer. The deceased was a son of the late James Gordon, of Centre county; he graduated at State College, then read law in Bellefonte under the late Judge Furst, and then in the law office of the late Judge Smith, finally graduating from the law school at Ann Arbor, Mich., and was admitted to the bar of Clearfield county in 1870. He became associated in practice with Thomas H. Murray, the partnership continuing until the death of Judge Smith in 1894. He was president of the bar until 1904. He resumed practice upon his retirement, taking as a partner Attorney Harry Boulton, of Houtzdale. Failing health finally compelled him to resign active work, and for the past year he has been an invalid. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Dr. John Gordon, Leslie and James, interment on Monday at Clearfield.

BLAIR.—Mrs. Lina Blair, wife of Frank Blair, died at her home at Williamsport, on Monday evening, about 11 o'clock, of cancer of the stomach, from which she had been a longtime sufferer. Her age was 68 years, 3 months and 4 days. She was born in this county, her maiden name having been Lina Barr. For many years the Blair family resided at Buffalo Run, on a farm, about one mile west of Fillmore. In the neighborhood of six years ago, they moved to Williamsport, where they have since resided. Deceased was a woman of many fine traits of character, which are attested to by a large circle of friends. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church, and passed away in the faith of everlasting life. Surviving are her husband and two children, John W. of Fillmore, and George, of Williamsport; a grand daughter, Mary, was also a member of the family, and took care of the deceased through her last illness. Two sisters are left to mourn, namely Mrs. Hattie Viock and Mrs. Miller. The body was brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday noon, accompanied by the friends and pastor of the Wilkensburg M. E. church. The funeral cortege then proceeded to Fillmore, where burial was made at the Branch cemetery. Revs. C. C. Shuey and C. W. Winney assisted at the funeral.

WELCH.—Mrs. Elizabeth Welch, wife of Robert Welch, of Vall, died at her home on Saturday night, from heart trouble. Mrs. Welch's death was very sudden. She had been in apparent good health up until the time she was stricken. Deceased was a daughter of John and Isabella Mountz of near Bald Eagle. She was born July 1, 1855.

LYON.—The news was received in this place on Monday of the death of Mrs. Henry Lyon, whose passing away occurred at a hospital in Norfolk, Virginia, on that morning. Her maiden name was Zanders, and she was born at Danville, Pa., about 37 years ago. She had been suffering for some time from a growth in her side, and a hospital in Norfolk, Virginia, was taken to Danville for burial, the funeral being held on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Rev. J. F. Seebach occupied the pulpit of the Lutheran church in Centre Hall on Sunday.

Misses Erna and Sara Stevenson, of Waddle, were the guests of Misses Hazel and Ruth Cox, in Tyrone this week.

Dr. C. S. Musser, of Aaronsburg, and P. P. Vonada, of Coburn, are among the new automobilists in Centre county.

Chauncey DeLong, of Philadelphia, came up from Philadelphia Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his relatives in Blanchard.

A. L. Swarrin, who spent the past six months at Ocean, N. Y., returned to his home in Rebersburg. He says Ocean is a booming town.

Station agent W. Frank Bradford left Centre Hall on Saturday for a trip to Cuba and other points of the South. He went with the International Ticket Agents' association and will visit numerous southern points on his trip.

If you change your postoffice address this spring, on the first of April, the general moving time, now is the time to notify us and the paper will go to you without any interruption. Be sure to give the old address when you write.

The members of the graduating class of the high school at Pleasant Gap, will hold a social in Noll's hall on Saturday evening the 18th, to which the public is invited. Refreshments will be served and the proceeds will be devoted to the school.

Up to this date the prospects for our agriculturists are most promising over the county. The winter has been favorable for next summer's crops and the spring, thus far, keeps up the good cheer for the farmer, the backbone of the country's wealth.

M. B. Lucas, of Clearfield, formerly of Phillipsburg, found it necessary to have one of his legs amputated below the knee in an effort to stay the ravages of gangrene. He stood the operation well, and his physicians believe they have conquered it.

On Thursday morning Earl Whitehill left Oak Hill for McConnell, Illinois, where he will visit friends and will likely remain during the coming summer. He expects to visit other portions of the west before returning. While out there he will read the Centre Democrat to keep in touch with home.

Geo. Confer was out at Peale, Pa., the past winter, where he had been working in the mines, but finding that the coal business was so uncertain and not enough of work at times to suit his family he moved his family back to Loggs township, where he thinks he can make a better living at farming, and he would rather spend his time on the top of the ground enjoying the good sunshine, than down under the earth. A good home about one certain anytime than coal mining these days.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Joseph Funk, at Curtin, on Saturday evening, March 11, this being Mr. Funk's 77th birthday. They spent the evening with music and singing till about half past seven. All were called to the dining room to sit down to a sumptuous supper. Those present were, John Bryan and wife, Edward Kline and wife, Edward Spear, wife and grand daughter Gladys Glenn, Mrs. J. M. Jones, Mrs. Joseph Griffith, Mrs. Shirly White, Mrs. Calvin Bathurst, Mrs. Elsie Laird and son Roy Laird, Simeon Bathurst, Mrs. Anna Derstine and son Roy, Howard Neff, Wm. Brooks, Miss Florence Spear and Lloyd Harvey. All returned to their homes about one o'clock, wishing him many more happy birthdays.

A double birthday anniversary took place at the residence of Jno. F. Schenck, one mile below Howard, on Wednesday, March 8th, 1911. This date marked the 51st milestone in the life of his good wife Emma, and also the 43rd of her sister Mrs. Emanuel Bowse (Mattie) residing on Marsh Creek. To say that all present had an enjoyable time, is putting it too mild. The gathering was a complete surprise to Mrs. Schenck as you know the things are. Those present were as follows: John F. Schenck and wife, Wm. R. Schenck and wife, David S. Brachdel and wife, C. Bower Schenck and wife, Albert Schenck and wife, J. Lynn Pletcher and wife, David B. Schenck and wife, Henry Thompson and wife, John Lucas and wife, Irvin M. Lucas and wife, Emanuel Bowse and wife, Joseph H. Schenck and wife, Wm. B. Pletcher and wife, Rudolph Pletcher and wife, Joseph Herr and wife, Mrs. James N. Smith and children, Mrs. Harry Butler and daughter, Gladys Herr, Cecil Herr, S. Ella Hall, Gertrude Herr, Mrs. Theo. Pletcher, Auson A. Schenck, Minnie Holter, Michael P. Holter, Mrs. Chauncey Pletcher, Mrs. Harriet Bolt, Jos. Pletcher, Milford Meyers, David Kochler, Mrs. Saxon, Samuel Lyons, Nellie Lyons, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. Winfield Thompson and daughter, Mrs. Oscar Schenck, and John Herr. An excellent dinner was prepared by the ladies present, and after all had partaken of the same to their entire satisfaction even to the dog, Dilla (which was a prominent accession to the assembly) the afternoon was spent in sociality, and listening to inspiring musical numbers and phonograph selections furnished by our young friend Milford Meyers. Mrs. Schenck received both presents and cash. She is an excellent woman, highly esteemed by the entire community. After saying good-bye, we all departed for home, our hearts full.
