CURTIN.

Thomas Hazzard, of Phillipsburg, visited his brother Roy, on Wednesday.

Rev. I. C. Shearer and Mrs. Henry Shultz visited Mrs. Thomas Neff who has been seriously ill the past six months with but slight hopes of recovery.

Mrs. Orlando Bryan, Mrs. Jacob Shay and Thomas Neff comprise the sick list this week.

Mrs. Henry Shultz and Mrs. Roy Hazzard attended a quilting party at the home of Mrs. Austin Bathurst at Mt. Eagle.

Mrs. Wm. Shope and Miss Nettie Shope, of Bellefonte, were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Henry Shultz, on Friday.

Mrs. Henry Doughman, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, on Monday.

George Harvey purchased a fine bay team of horses on Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry Shultz visited her many friends here on Friday.

John Curtin and little son, of Bellefonte, were the guests of his mother, Mrs. H. R. Curtin on Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Funk is seriously ill at her home at the rolling mill.

Miss Myra Prince, of Bellefonte, visited her parents, Wm. Prince's on Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Shultz is visiting friends at Nittany for a few days.

Mrs. J. L. Curtin, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Miss Beulah Bryan and brother Roy returned home on Saturday, after a week's pleasant visit with their sisters at Orvinton.

Samuel Bryan, of Milesburg, visited his sons, Edward and Elmer, over Sunday.

James Bathurst is wearing a broad smile—it's on account of a baby girl that came to his home on Sunday. Mother and child are doing well.

W. R. Shope and daughters, the Misses Sue and Nettie, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Henry Shultz on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hazzard visited friends in Brookville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst visited their daughter, Mrs. Samuel Stanley, of Milesburg, on Saturday.

Miss Helen Bryan visited her sister, Mrs. Elmer Justice, of Coleville part of last week.

Mrs. Orlando Bryan was very sick last week but is much improved under the treatment of Dr. S. M. Huff.

Mrs. Clarence Lyons is on the sick list suffering with a gripe.

PORT MATILDA.

We have had all kinds of weather here in the last few weeks. Spring days with warm sunshine, that make a person lazy, are very backward about coming.

H. C. Thompson moved to Maryland where he has bought a farm. He left his farm here in charge of his son Blake, who expects to farm the place this year.

H. E. Woodring has accepted a position as farmer on a dairy farm near Johnstown and will move there this week.

Wm. Cowher moved to Tyrone where he has secured employment.

J. A. Williams had a very disagreeable experience a few days ago. One night after a warm day the thermometer fell pretty low, and in the morning when he stirred up his fire, he discovered that the firefront in his stove had frozen and bursted. He had a fire in the stove all night, and the pipes in the bathroom were also bursted. He had quite a time before he got things fixed up again.

G. A. Williams, who is at Dickinson college, preparing himself for the ministry, was at home over Sunday. He preached in the M. E. church on Sunday night. He has been given an appointment this year in Altoona. His former charges have been in Cumberland county.

Eugene Harshberger, who has been in charge of a church, as pastor, near Pittsburg, spent a few days at home, while on his way to his new appointment at Tullytown, in the Philadelphia district.

J. E. Cowher moved his family here from Bald Eagle. He is working with his father in his blacksmith shop.

ZION.

Many people from this locality attended the Walter's sale.

George Yarnell has closed down his mill and will now spend some of his time in hustling about the county, in the interest of his candidacy for the nomination for sheriff.

Lloyd Homan, of East Pittsburg, spent a few days with his parents. He is getting along nicely.

Many of the people of the neighborhood attended the funeral of their former townsman, Mr. Samuel Showers. The community extend their heartfelt sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Mrs. George Kauffman, whose death occurred last week, was buried last Saturday forenoon.

Mrs. Hassinger and family moved to their new home near Mill Hill. The community loses a good neighbor, also will be without a barber. May he be successful in the new locality, is the earnest wish of the writer.

Witmer Smith will move to Little Nittany on one of Calvin Garbrick's farms.

The home of Wm. Clevensine, Jr., was visited by the stork last week, and another son has been adopted into the family.

A few days of nice spring weather. An electric storm on Monday afternoon with a heavy downpour of rain and hail, followed by snow, high winds and freezing weather—such are the present weather conditions.

Public sales are about all past for this season, and farm stock has reached the high water mark.

Movings and big dinners are now all the go, but muddy roads and cold and stormy weather make them a sort of unpleasant enjoyment.

On the evening of the 22nd, Mrs. Geo. Kauffman passed over the river to the great beyond. She was past 70 years of age. Her husband died last June; thus within about nine months, father and mother have been called away, and a happy home has been broken up. Five children and one sister survive to mourn her loss.

Her sister, Mrs. Garthoff, of Bellefonte. Her children are, Mrs. Herb Showers, Mrs. Wm. Harshberger, Miss Ida and Horace and Clayton. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. I. Crow, assisted by Rev. Schmidt of Bellefonte. Burial on Saturday forenoon in the Zion cemetery.

FILLMORE.

There was a little shower of rain on last Sunday evening which will make the grain and grass grow.

We think that summer will soon be here, for most all the summer birds are around, except the swallows and they are a late bird.

There was a large flock of wild geese passed over our neighborhood last Saturday night; they were on their way to the northern lakes.

Mrs. Joseph Tressler is able to be around again.

Mrs. Eva Struble was visiting at the home of her parents with her little boy, when he took sick with the grip. Hope the little babe will soon be well. Chick Sowers, wife and family, of State College, visited at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tressler, on Sunday.

Boyd Tressler and wife, of State College, visited at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tressler.

Samuel Kelly and wife, of Phillipsburg, are visiting a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Huey and other friends.

Spitting tobacco juice around our streets isn't very polite.

Stuart Rocky and William Musser, who are employed on the P. R. R. of Altoona, are visiting at the home of J. B. Rocky's here.

Charles Rimmer sold a young team of horses at his sale on last Thursday which brought $51; one brought $25, and the other $25; we think at this rate the autos are not going to put horses down to a low price.

Rev. Hugh Strain will preach for us next Sabbath at the M. E. church. All come and try to give good attention to our minister's salary and not let it get so far behind.

SOBER.

Mrs. Mary Boyer, of Laurelton, and family were callers at Mrs. John Smith's over Sunday.

Mrs. James Eisenhuth, of Renovo, was a caller with her mother, Mrs. Solomon Snyder.

The Centre Temple, of Spring Mills, spent Friday evening at Uriah Aumon's. There were present, Daniel Heckman, Mrs. William Smith, Windom Gramely, Gates Kennedy and wife, Mrs. Bryan, Annie King, Mrs. D. McCool, Agnes Osman, Madge Braucht, Carrie McClellan, Mrs. Geo. Bartley, Mrs. Warren Wood, Mrs. Bruce Ripka, Jerry Confer and wife, Mabel Brown, Katie Gentzel, Carrie Daman, Rosie Smith, Ruth McCool, Hae Houtz, James Finkle, Rosie Gentzel and Mrs. J. J. Gentzel. After supper was served the evening was spent in playing games. All had a jolly good time.

Mrs. Ed. Noll and friend, Mrs. Kline Grenoble, Willis Eason and family, James Finkle and Alf. Aumon spent Sunday at Uriah Aumon's.

TYLERSVILLE.

Grouer Bierly, of McElhattan, visited his grandfather, Jonathan Bierly, and other relatives and friends for a few days.

C. T. Greninger and family and Benj. Greninger attended Mr. Barner's sale at Carroll on Thursday.

Adam Walizer, of Nittany valley, made a business trip to this place last week.

UNIONVILLE.

The Methodist people, as well as others, are rejoicing over the return of their beloved pastor, Rev. R. S. Oylar.

Rev. Victor L. Wagner has been assigned to circuit in the vicinity of Bloomsburg and will move his family to that town as soon as his school closes.

A sorely afflicted family is that of W. H. Eason. We visited his home on Tuesday evening and found Mr. Eason in bed seriously ill with the grip, his wife lying on a couch unable to be up, and her sister Margaret Cambridge, also in bed utterly helpless. Thus the whole family is down and none but an elderly lady to administer to them. It is hoped that by the assistance of their physician, they will soon be about again.

Commissioners' clerk, E. J. Williams, has been seriously ill since Sunday by reason of a severe cold he contracted when affected his throat and lungs. Latest reports, we are glad to say, announced that he is convalescing.

The Unionville summer school will open on April 24th, and continue for six weeks. Special work will be given for teachers and those preparing to teach. For further information inquire of Prof. J. C. Fox, Fleming, Pa.

That good, honest, upright old gentleman, O. L. Hansoon, in renewing his subscription to the Centre Democrat, said "I don't know how we could get along without the Centre Democrat. It is a great source of pleasure to us. In fact I can hardly wait till it comes. It is the best remedy for the blues I ever found."

BRUGGER.—On last Wednesday, a telegram was received by his mother, Mrs. Margaret M. Brugger, announcing the death of her oldest son, Walter M. Brugger, who died in the Asbury hospital in Minneapolis, Minn., on Tuesday night, March 21st, of heart trouble. His remains were brought home, arriving here on last Sunday morning and were taken to the home of his mother, where services were held, conducted by the Rev. R. S. Oylar, at 2 o'clock, p. m., interment in cemetery of the brothers and sisters, Joseph E. of Unionville; John P. of Johnstown; Mrs. Nora Becker, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Carrie Rumberger, of Bellefonte. The funeral was one of the largest that has been held here for many years.

PLEASANT GAP.

The play held by the young folks of the Lutheran church, on Saturday night, was a success. They cleared about $55 which will go towards building a new church.

The primary school closed on Tuesday, March 23; the grammar school on Wednesday, March 23; the high school will not close until Wednesday, April 12th. From the grammar school there were about fourteen graduates, among whom were, Roy Noll, Morris Mullinger, Samuel Noll, George Hill, Ree Flory, Clarence Zeigler, Paul Waite, and Helen Swartz. I have not learned the names of the others, but I will give them next week if possible. The graduates from the high school will be Ward Hill, Lee Zonge, Clarence Crust, Emeline Noll, Elsie Herman and Marrian Gettig.

Elmer Gill, who has been suffering for some time from an ailment, unknown to the writer, left on Tuesday morning for Philadelphia. He was accompanied by his sister Nettie. Mr. Gill will undergo an operation at one of the Philadelphia hospitals.

MILESBURG.

F. L. Baird and wife are visiting friends in DuBois, Clearfield and Allport.

Mahlon Baird, of Altoona, spent the Sabbath at home.

Mrs. Carl Garbrick, of Valleyview, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. W. W. Smith, on Water street.

Calvin Zimmerman and wife spent Friday at Unionville.

Mrs. Eddie Zimmerman and Mrs. J. Bailey, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of Calvin Zimmerman and family.

Wilbur and Edgar Miles have returned to Dickinson Seminary, after a two weeks' vacation at home.

Don't forget the new barber shop will open next week with a reduction in prices. Mr. Alkey is a good, clever fellow with many friends to boast him to success. He will be known as the "Chief" barber.

Summer Normal.

The Blanchard Summer Normal will open April 17th, and continue for a term of eight weeks. Special attention given to teachers, and those preparing to teach. Inquire for future information of S. S. Williams, Blanchard, Pa. x13

COBURN.

This is fitting week for this town and community. More changes will take place than for many years. Next week we will give a list of all of them.

W. F. Braubert and family, of Dewart, spent several days with relatives here.

Mrs. Pearl Linn, of Three Bridges, N. J., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kestetter. It is reported that Mr. Linn will take charge of a creamery at Elizabethville to which place they will move this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shively, of Millburg, spent Sunday with friends here.

Prof. R. U. Wasson will open his term of spring school on Monday, April 3rd, and T. A. Hoesterman intends to have a term for primary pupils beginning Monday, April 16.

On Tuesday W. L. Hoesterman received a car load of hogs which he purchased last week near Waynesburg, Pa.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday with her sister here, Mrs. E. J. Burd.

MARSH CREEK.

Spring is here, farmers are getting busy.

Mrs. George Eminhizer and her daughter, Mrs. Lucas, were callers at Hays Run on Sunday.

Harry Long has moved in one of Dally's houses.

George Walker was the purchaser of a fine big horse.

Mrs. Mary E. C. Chapman was contracting business at Mrs. Harry Walkers, and E. G. VanBuskirk's, the other day.

Warren Lon, who is working at A. D. Lucas' mill, spent Sunday at home.

Harry Walker is putting wire fence around his farm and making other new improvements.

Wm. Fye is moving on the creek.

There will be meeting at Summit Hill church on Sunday by Rev. Diehl.
