

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Edward Doll, of Altoona, is a Bellefonte visitor this week.

—George Ohl, proprietor of the Clintondale creamery, was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday.

—Leo Shull, who has been employed as a baker at Doll's has gone to Johnstown to accept a similar position.

—The Academy entered upon the last quarter of its school year on Wednesday with every student back from the Easter vacation.

—Lieut. Richard Taylor, of the military department at the Huntingdon reformatory, spent the Easter vacation with his family in this place.

—John Raymond spent Sunday and Monday in Lock Haven as the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Dean Smith, and gladdened the heart of his little granddaughter Lena by taking with him a big basket of Easter goods.

—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lambert, of Milesburg, died at the home of the parents on Friday last, and was buried on Saturday at 2 o'clock. Interment was made at Curtin, Rev. C. W. Winey having charge of the burial service.

—The Scenic has in store some excellent pictures to be shown during the balance of the week. The programs are varied and will suit every taste. You'll not want to miss any of them, and you see one. The best place of entertainment in town to spend an hour.

—Frank and Linn Graham were compelled to yield to the calling of the stream and came to Bellefonte for a few days of trout fishing. Frank has been holding down the clerks in the Hotel Milton, at Milton, while Linn has been traveling for the American Tobacco company.

—Two weeks from tomorrow the first performance of the Academy minstrels and dramatic entertainment will be given in the opera house. From what we have seen of the performance this year will be unusually fine. Remember the dates—Friday and Saturday evenings, May 5th and 6th, and make no other engagements.

—Duncan Ward, formerly of this place, who for the past year has been employed in Philadelphia, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Harry Walker, at his home on East Bishop street, during the week end. They returned to their home on Monday afternoon. Mr. Ward is a successful cigar agent of Altoona.

—A Novel Entertainment, entitled "A Trip Around the World," is being prepared under the auspices of the Luther League. It will be both educating and entertaining and void of any objectionable feature. Date for the entertainment will be announced later.

—The Penn State Thespians, presenting the original musical comedy, "The Climatology," Saturday evening, April 22nd at the Garman Theatre. In order that everyone may be able to go to the show the curtain will not go up until 9 o'clock. There will be a short musical program from 8:30 until 9.

—Last week a fine team of draft horses were taken to Phillipsburg by John Swartz for the use of the Luederbach-Barber company, in the latter place. The animals were purchased near Lewisburg by Mr. Swartz, who is a good judge of horse-flesh, and we might add is a former resident of Bellefonte.

—The Lutheran Sunday school class taught by Mrs. F. M. Crawford, has organized under the name of "Willing Workers." As a part of their work they have become an Altar Society, assuming the care of the Altar. The class will be greatly appreciated, and is hoped will result in having a full set of the vestments for the various seasons of the Church Year.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Bathurst and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wood, all of Altoona, are guests of Mrs. Bathurst's father, James H. Miller, near Axemann. The gentlemen came down to Centre county to enjoy coaxing the wily trout from their sequestered haunts, at which they are both adepts. While in Bellefonte on Friday, they were in a quartette called at the Democrat office.

—With a remarkable sturdiness the venerable Daniel Callahan, who resides at his home above Pleasant Gap, makes periodical trips to Bellefonte, walking the entire journey, a distance of perhaps seven or eight miles. For the past week or more Callahan has been a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Raymond in this place. Should he live until November next, Mr. Callahan will have reached his eighty-fourth year.

—On Thursday Clayton Brown, proprietor of the Scenic, became the possessor of a fine Stoddard-Dayton 1909 model touring car. Mr. Brown attended the purchase while in attendance at the automobile show at Williamsport. Although a second-hand car, it is considered an extremely good bargain. This will enable Clay to take more fishing jaunts than he otherwise could indulge in, and rest assured his friends will not be forgotten.

—On Monday of last week John Sourbeck, Jr., met with an accident in the shops at Burnham, where he is employed, which at first was feared would result in permanent blindness. He was employed in the electrical welding department, and in some manner received a severe electric shock. In addition to burns on his face, his sight was affected, causing total blindness. Word was received, however, from the young man this week, which states that an eye examination by his physicians one eye was found to be only temporarily injured, while the condition of the other eye was uncertain, although hopes were entertained that it, too, could be saved. We trust that his sight may be speedily and permanently restored.

—The District Camp convention of the Maccabees was held in Altoona last Saturday and Geo. T. Bush was the delegate in attendance from Bellefonte tent. At the session held on Saturday he was elected a delegate from that convention to represent the district at the Great Camp convention to be held at Pittsburgh some time in June. This convention is held every four years, and is an important gathering of Bess. Mr. Bush went up to Altoona on Friday and attended a meeting of the Commandery of the Knights Templar of that place, at which were present the officers of the Grand Commandery of Penna. A banquet was held in the evening at which addresses were made. On Saturday night, after the convention of the Maccabees, a banquet was also held.

—Lawrence McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. McClure, was one of the Bellefonte boys who are employed at Renovo and who were lured home by home ties during the Easter vacation period. Lawrence is getting along tip-top.

—Frank Graham, of Milton, took home with him a basket of twenty-five trout this week, representing Saturday's catch along Logan Branch. One of the trout measured twenty inches, and weighed three pounds. The big fellow put up a game fight, and it took some skill to land him, but he was finally successful.

—Miss Helen E. Overton, head of the primary department of the Bellefonte Academy, was this week honored by being elected vice regent of the Daughters of American Revolution of Pennsylvania, by that body, while in session at Washington, this week. The Julia K. Hogue prize, which is given annually to the young lady of a women's college or co-ed institution by the Pennsylvania Daughters, for the best essay on some assigned historical subject, has been awarded to Miss Kessler, of $50 in addition to a hand-engraved certificate.

—On Tuesday in company with W. H. Musser, we had a call from Mr. Allen Albert, who years ago when a boy resided with his parents in Bellefonte, and whose father the Rev. Jacob Albert, of this town, was a minister which stood about where Gen. Beaver's residence is located. Mr. Albert is a veteran of the Civil War, having been a member of Co. D, of the famous 45th Penna. Regiment. He is now living at 25 Washington, D. C. being an employe of the Bureau of Pensions; this is Mr. Albert's first visit to Bellefonte in forty-five years, and his errand here at this time was to gather data for a history of the 45th regiment, which is soon to be published. Having been chosen editor of the history we feel sure that Mr. Albert will make of it an interesting narrative.

—On Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Brandman, on Bishop street, was the scene of a pleasing and memorable event when the christening ceremony of their youngest child, a son, took place. A fewish faith, hence Rabbi S. Weinger, of Lock Haven, was the officiating minister. A number of invited guests were present, and a happy time was made of the event. The little fellow was christened "Benjamin," and bids fair to grow up and be as honest and as useful a citizen as his father. For quite a number of years the Brandman family have resided in our town, where Mr. Brandman has conducted a clothing and notion store on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, building up a business by fair dealing which has made him one of the town's best citizens. May the young Master Brandman live to succeed his father.

—On Tuesday evening James Finley was brought before Justice. Having been charged with entering the residence of Mrs. W. H. Eason, at Unionville, on the night of February 18th and taking therefrom a number of personal articles. After the robbery the man disappeared. He is now in the county jail, where he is held until a few days ago when he was located at Williamsport, Dauphin county. A warrant was at once sent to that place and the man was arrested and brought to Bellefonte. At the hearing on Tuesday evening the prisoner pleaded guilty to taking from the Eason residence a suit of clothes, an overcoat, a gold watch, and a collection of old coins. Justice Brown very promptly sent him back to jail to await trial at the same time Mr. Finley is in the same man who robbed Harry Otto's cigar store almost a year ago, and who served a term in the Centre county jail for the same.

—Borough council held a very brief and dry session on Monday night last, the most important of which might be mentioned: C. T. Gerberich, present and in behalf of the Dr. Constance Curtin estate petitioned council for more substantial repairs to the curb in front of Dr. Fisher's office, as the estate wished to lay a new sidewalk at that place. This was referred to committee and borough engineer C. Mitchell stated that through communication with the State Highway Department the latter promised the prompt action on the building of the State road. Mr. Mitchell also stated in regard to the new High street bridge, that the required petition had been presented to the Court and viewers appointed. In reference to the Noonan damage case, street committee and Solicitor Mitchell were ordered to confer with the directors of the electric light company and report at next regular meeting.

—The Rev. Edward A. Snook, of Newton Hamilton, will preach in the Milesburg Presbyterian church, Sabbath evening, April 23rd. All are welcome.

—Mrs. A. B. Struble and Mrs. Henry Homans, of State College, have returned to their homes after a pleasant visit among friends in Tyrone and Sinking Valley.

—Plenty of Preachers. Philadelphia Record: Preachers are no so scarce as newspaper accounts have represented. Fifty preachers were applicants for permission to preach trial sermons in the Presbyterian church at Bellefonte, which was declared vacant at the meeting of the Presbytery last week. Out away from home to hear the news, the Democrat begs to add.

—Swallowed a Pin. An Altoona young lady swallowed a pin she was holding in her mouth Monday, and was taken to the Altoona hospital for treatment. The pin which had lodged, was washed down into the stomach by water especially prepared for the purpose, which induced vomiting, and brought the pin up with it on the return trip.
