ZION.

Sunday was an ideal spring day. Services and Sunday school were well attended. An electric storm passed over this place on Wednesday that looked very threatening, but passed off to the north and just gave us a nice little shower. Mrs. J. H. Beck, of Snytown, was a visitor of this place, and attended synod. She is a very companionable lady and made a host of friends while here. H. T. Struble is in attendance at Canton, Ohio, this week as a delegate of the Zion Reform Church to a meeting of ministers and delegates of the Reformed denomination of the United States to formulate plans to further the interests of spreading the Gospel, not only in that particular church, but to all people and all denominations interested. Our ball team journeyed to the Diamond at Hecla Park on Saturday. By previous arrangements they were to play a select team of Hecla and Milesburg's best players, and counted largely on coming home with a scalp or two dangling from their belt. But to their great surprise after being on the ground for some time, and the manager had gotten everything in shape, the Hecla manager informed that no arrangements had been made to play our team either by Hecla or Milesburg. It appears that the whole thing was a blind for our team. We believe that at least some of the Hecla manager's ungentlemanly manner. Heretofore both teams have been on very intimate terms, and why this trick was played is beyond the comprehension of the writer. The Zion Union Sunday school will hold its Children's day services on Sabbath evening, June 11th, at 7:30 in the Lutheran church. The ministers of the several denominations are expected to be present, an interesting program suitable for the occasion will be given and an interesting and profitable time is expected. From May 8th to 10th, the Northern Conference of Central Penna. Synod met in the Lutheran church at this place. Thirteen ministers with their delegates being present. The conference sermon on Monday evening, Tuesday morning conference was opened by devotional exercises, after which conference business was attended to. Rev. Barry, of Bellefonte read a paper on "The Ideal Church" in which he gave his views as to what an ideal church should be and do. Rev. D. R. P. Barry, of Hartwood, read the communion sermon. Part of the afternoon was devoted to business, after which several good papers were read by members of conference. The evening services were opened by a song service conducted by Rev. Allen, of West Milton, which were very good and enjoyed by all. Two papers were then read on the subject "Has so-called Christian Science" (Eddyism), a Biblical Foundation, Wednesday morning session opened with devotional exercises, followed by business of conference and reading of several papers. Afternoon: Business of conference and a talk on Sunday school work. Evening session opened by Rev. Fred Barry with praise service, followed by D. R. P. Barry who gave the closing address to the parents. The exercises throughout where very good, but we believe that Rev. Bearick's talk to the parents was the best discussion on that subject that we ever heard. His subject was "The Marriage Vow" in which he set forth the parents' duty to their family and their God. He handled the subject without gloom, and spoke plain truths.

LEMONT.

Hope it will rain, as the streets are so dusty and everything is drying up. William Hoy is making preparations to have his house weather-boarded and painted. Johnnie Gets and wife were out on Sunday taking a buggy ride for their health. Hoy is kept busy nearly day and night as there are so many autos to be repaired. Verna Fogleman is suffering with scarlet fever; we hope the dreaded disease will not spread over town. Ira Benner's family filled their place in the Evangelical church on Sunday, as they used to attend church and Sunday school regular, but are now too far away to attend every Sunday; we have missed them and are glad to have them back. Maud Mayes is home on a few day's visit. L. F. Mayes erected a monument at Houserville last week for Maurie Bohn's child. H. E. Walters visited at Lemont on Thursday. Samuel Weaver found four young foxes on the mountain above Lemont and has them at his home in a cage. It is very interesting to watch them playing. Oscar says Maggie must be busy farming these days at the branch as she don't come to town very often any more. Miss Dunkleberger, who had been out in the country sewing for a couple weeks, has returned home again. As near as we can describe there were a hundred autos passed through Lemont on Sunday. George Thompson visited his parents, Jno. L. Thompson's here on Sunday. Harry Coble's visited his brother, Will Coble's, here on Sunday.

YARNELL.

Charles Heaton built a new addition to his summer house which greatly improved it. Miss Sarah Shawley spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Lucetta Heaton. Harry Kessling had a barn raising on last Friday, under the direction of contractors Yarnell and Quick. Jacob and Harry Confer, of Snow Shoe, visited friends at Yarnell, on Sunday. Mrs. Samuel Shank, of Avis, visited friends at Yarnell last week. Rev. Eldridge, of Milesburg, preached a fine sermon in the Baptist church at Yarnell, Tuesday evening. Miss Sarah Fetzer is improving slowly. Clare Miller is working for Miles P. Heaton this summer. There will be preaching in the U. B. church at this place on Sunday at 10:30 by Rev. Dean. William Aikens and family who have been living at Lewistown, have returned to their own home in Moose Run. Mr. Aikens will still work at Lewistown. Josephine Kessling is still in a weak condition, having been sick several years. Mrs. Arnilla Heaton has 45 fine little peeps, which are almost big enough for cooking. Miss Ella Confer returned to his work at Miss M. Snyder's at Bellefonte, after spending a few days at home.

GREENBURG.

E. E. Dooty loaded a car of lumber last week at the Loganton railroad station. We are glad to hear that Mrs. Amelia Miller of this place, who had been sick for the past winter, is improving; and also Mrs. Regina Schrock the same. John Mark and family moved on William Thomas' farm this spring. Miss Katherine Foreman, who had been in Nittany for some time, has returned home for the summer.

PORT MATILDA.

Last Thursday was the Banner Day for Port Matilda, I. O. O. F. In the last few weeks they have secured twenty members—eighteen new ones, one reinstated and one admitted on a transfer certificate. On Thursday night the degree team of Allegheny Gateway Lodge of Tyrone came to Port Matilda and gave the initiatory and the three degrees to the class of candidates. Quite a lot of brothers from other lodges were present to witness the work. Frat Grove, Stormtown and Bellefonte were represented, besides many members of the Tyrone lodge. The degrees were conferred very well, and the work of the degree team ranks among the best. They made it very real and impressive to all who were present. The entire work was completed between one and two o'clock a. m. after which all passed into an adjoining room and surrounded the long tables piled with good food to eat. Every one seemed pleased and were only sorry that they could not eat it all; but had to leave some. This increases the membership of the lodge to somewhere between 80 and 90. That is a good strong lodge for a town the size of ours. The names of those who took the degrees at this meeting are as follows: H. L. Shope, C. M. Pringle, Geo. B. Casher, F. H. Sigle, C. W. Eddie, D. Downing, A. B. Williams, H. T. Patton, T. C. Wiser, O. C. Johnson, Harry Gates, J. S. Williams, D. L. Ross, Jr., Levi Cowher, Paul Reese, James L. Oswald and Charles Richards. Also Harry Robinson, Andrew Knisely, and Fred G. Johnson, of Allegheny Gateway lodge took the three degrees here. They having received the initiatory degree in the house lodge. The lodge is to be congratulated for securing this class of good members that compose it. This gives the order quite a "boost."

The Port Matilda K. G. E. No. 219 will have a memorial service 10:30 a. m. on Sunday, May 21st. The services are to be in the M. E. church, and sermon to be preached by Rev. Wm. F. Gilbert. Let all the Knights be sure to attend and show the true spirit of the K. G. E's. All meet at Hall and go to church in a body.

Wm. Bennett, who was the representative of Port Matilda Castle, No. 219, K. G. E., at the session of Grand Castle at Williamsport, reports that he had a very pleasant trip and a fine time. The parade was the main public feature which he says could not be surpassed. If you never attended one of the seasons, you witnessed one of these parades do so next year. You will never regret it. If you are not a member you will wish you were one then.

A few weeks ago we complained of it being too wet. Now the cry is too dry. We poor mortals are nervous and nervous at a time there would be if every one could have just the kind of weather he wanted for a season.

You supervisors had better get those loose stones off the road. They will soon end, and quite a few are to be found on the roads.

We are sorry to see Rev. H. A. McKelvey is afflicted with rheumatism and has to use crutches. We hope he may receive speedy and permanent relief.

Fine prospects for fruit in our community this year. All kind of trees are loaded with blossoms. What a beautiful scene they present on the landscape along our valley.

P. W. Young has just completed adding a new stable to his property, with all up-to-date and modern improvements. Philip is our very accomplished barber. This shows that his business is prospering and we are all glad to know it. Every good citizen should desire to see others prosper.

J. E. Cowher experienced quite a painful little injury the other day. He was shoeing a man's horse when it jerked its foot causing a nail to cut quite a gash in his hand. He went to the doctor's and had it stitched together. He looked rather pale after the ordeal. We hope it may not develop into anything serious.

At a public sale at the hotel the other day the property of Jacob Franke, deceased, located along the Allegheny mountains, near Flat Rock was sold to the highest bidder, Gilbert Eller. He expects to cut the timber on it in the near future.

Hayes Daughenbaugh's mother spent a few days with him. Mrs. Arthur Bathurst and children spent Sunday at her home at Howard. Miss Mildred Tobias and friend, of Lock Haven, spent a few days at her home. There is a girl here that has a new beau. How about it Beany?

ROMOLA.

Miss Ethel Packer, of Juniata, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Bricker's. Miss Ruth Wenzel, who has been visiting friends at State College, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Probst, of Lock Haven, spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Probst's sisters, Mrs. Poorman and Mrs. Welsh.

TOO MANY.

Years ago aged and anxious mothers stood in the doorway at their homes and said: "Where is my wandering boy tonight?" but the cry today comes from the small children, and is: "Where is my wandering mother tonight?" This was one of the striking sentences in the sermon of Rev. Dr. William N. Yates, pastor of the Fourth Street Church of God, says the Harrisburg Patriot. "To begin with," he continued, "the children are being neglected by both parents, and it might be said that the church services also figure in these cases. While it is very necessary that much of our time should be spent in this work, yet there are too many meetings in the week. In consequence our families are left at home alone. If we had only three good spirited services in the week and would be at home with our wives and children the remainder the home would become brighter and the acquaintance would soon develop."

WOES OF MEXICO.

Poor Mexico, after an absence of over thirty years of internal strife, is again clouded with revolution directed towards the unseating of the ruler of Diaz, who was elected president of the republic for a quarter of a century during which time that country was free from internal uprisings so common in their earlier history. Revolutions in Mexico were his rule previous to the period stated—each dictator at the head of the government being driven from power by force of arms by rivals. Santa Anna, dictator during the war with the United States, in 1845, was the ablest statesman and commander of his army during the war with this country, after peace was declared, soon had to face internal strife and he was driven from power. Previous to that Texas rebelled against the long tables of government of its own, under the leadership of its eminent statesman, General Sam Houston, who commanded at the memorable battle of San Jacinto, defeated the Mexican army, and established the republic of Texas, and in '44 Texas, under Polk's administration became annexed to the United States. After the declaration of peace between the United States and Mexico, the land of the Montezumas was afflicted with many uprisings against the various governments set up by rivals and the country experienced a revolution about once a year, and new dictators sat in power until the days of Santa Anna, several times President, when a better era set in. But he, too, had to step off and out and let another, successful revolutionist, step in. This was, in brief as the Centre Democrat can sum it, the situation of affairs with our Mexican neighbors, until Diaz succeeded to the presidency of the new republic, remaining as president for a number of terms, until now, when all signs indicate that a new uprising will end his rule.

An attempt was made to establish a monarchy in Mexico, by France, when Napoleon the Third, sent Maximilian there as Emperor, but after a short reign he was shot by order of a new regime established. The United States at the same time informed the French Emperor that his action in sending Maximilian to Mexico as Emperor, was in violation of the Monroe doctrine, and in disregard of our government, and the resulting end was the execution of the interloper, set up as Emperor by Napoleon, June 19, 1867.

SCULPTOR BARNARD SPOKE.

Talked of Marble Groups at Main Entrance, State Capitol. George Gray Barnard, who brought the two beautiful groups that have been placed on either side of the main entrance to the state capitol, addressed the house of representatives on Wednesday. He spoke on labor and the brotherhood of man which, he said, he had tried to amplify in marble. Labor, he said, is the best thing in life and the best friend of man.

The vision of the figures in the two groups, he said, came to him eighteen years ago, at 2 o'clock in the morning, while walking along a lonely road. It was sculpture work for the beautiful capitol. "Do as you will," I was told, and I gradually put my vision into marble. The groups, he continued, show two sides of life. One group represents the burdened souls who cannot follow the path of brotherhood; the other love, fraternity and labor. Mr. Barnard described each figure and what it represents.

At the conclusion of his address Speaker Cox appointed a committee to adopt plans for the formal acceptance of the groups. It is planned to have Governor Tener make an address and to invite the father and mother of Mr. Barnard to be present to witness, as a speaker Cox put it, the "crowning of their son as the modern Michael Angelo of sculpture." The committee appointed is composed of Messrs. Dearden, Philadelphia; Hess, Lancaster, and Ulerich, Westmoreland.

Wild Animals Plentiful.

Never in the memory of the present generation of fishermen were catamounts or wildcats so plentiful along the mountain trout streams of Clearfield county as this year.

Although the season has been on less than a month, more "cats" have been encountered by Clearfield fishermen within a few miles of the town than was ever before known in so short a time.

Onions by the Mile.

Ten miles of onions have been planted by Huntingdon reformatory boys on the farm connected with the institution. Seventy tons of potatoes and other vegetables in like proportion have also been put under ground.

Voice Carries 2,000 Miles. For the first time in the history of mankind the human voice carried 2,000 miles direct on Monday night when New York found Denver over the long distance telephone wires. A group of Manhattan newspaper men in a downtown skyscraper talking to another group in the Colorado city, picked up Omaha on the way and also gossiped with Chicago. A "phantom" telephone, connected with four copper wires the thickness of a lead pencil, brought the cities together, and in all 22 people were exchanging messages by telephone and telegraph at once over these four wires.

More Pay for Election Officers. The bill to make the pay of all election officers, outside of Philadelphia and districts governed by special acts, $5 a day was passed by the house after a statement by Mr. Kleiser, of Dauphin, author of the bill in which he called attention to the fact that elections are fewer in number than under the old laws, "fewer in number" and large increase in pay—who the dickens can fall to see the joke?

LITTLE DAUGHTER HAD SCALP HUMOR

Itched So that She Scratched Until Blood Came. Hair Fell Out. Scalp had Unpleasant Odor. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment Four Weeks. Scalp Perfectly Clear. Hair Began to Grow Again and Now Has Beautiful, Long Hair.

"When my little daughter was about five years old, she was taken with the measles. A few weeks after the measles were gone, she began to have a severe scalp humor. It itched so that she would scratch the whole day, until the blood came. We had a doctor and tried a good many other remedies, but nothing helped. Her hair all fell out and the scalp itself had an unpleasant odor. After we had tried all the other remedies, my wife told me to try the Cuticura Remedies. We bought one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. We used the Cuticura Remedies according to directions and in about three or four weeks her scalp was perfectly clear of the terrible humor. Her hair began to grow again and now she has beautiful, long hair. Since that time I have recommended the Cuticura Remedies to other people and they also had success. Chas. Salzbrener, Amans, Iowa, Nov. 8, 1909." Cuticura Soap (25c), Cuticura Ointment (50c) and Cuticura (10c) are sold throughout the world. The good wife was equal to the occasion—thanks to her New Perfection Oil Cook-stove. U. S. Tariff Commission Cannot Prevent Higher Prices on Shoes

Shoe prices in this country are fixed by the Leather Trust. The Trust has a throttling grip on the tanneries. It regulates the quantity of leather. It fixes the price of that leather. Worse than that—it influences the quality of all leather. If cheaper shoes—if better shoes—mean anything to you and your family, you must strike for yourself—Get Endicott-Johnson shoes. Endicott, Johnson & Co. are the only shoe manufacturers in this country who are independent of the Leather Trust. They buy their hides in the open markets of the world. They own their tanneries—they tan every pound of leather they put into their shoes. They sell direct to your home shoe dealer, cutting out the profits of four distinct middlemen. Endicott-Johnson shoes save you 50 cents to $1.00 on every pair—and they give you service, style, fit and comfort that you simply cannot get in any other shoes at any price. The ENDWELL (Goodyear Welt) is their dress or business shoe—$3.00, $3.50 and $4.00. ENDWELL shoes give you every choice of style—snappy, up to the minute lines, or the more conservative cut—any width and shape of toe—all the colors of leather. Good fitting—exquisitely finished—easy to the foot. Look for this name stamped in every shoe—
