EDITORIAL.

Poor Mexico is at peace-its coming in was signalized with the going out of Diaz, over twenty years the President. And now there are reports of new elements threatening trouble, by such as are desirous to step into the shoes of Diaz.

ent Legislature was a recent resolution of the state senate to create a commission of five of its members to investigate the conduct of judges, and other civil officers, in this state, While the whole proceeding is irregular and unconstitutional it shows the viciousness of the Penrose machine in Pennsylvania to attempt to interfere with our courts, and intimidate our judges to do their bidding. The whole proceeding is futile and harmless, for such a commission is without power. Just such acts bring the lawmaking department of our state continually in disrepute.

Last Saturday afternoon the House at Harrisburg had a disgraceful row that would shame a gang of toughs. The trouble was caused by the gangster speaker, Cox, who brutally refused to obey the rules which he was under oath to enforce, but which he infamously refused, because such enforcement would have blocked the gangster measure, that a majority favored. Members ran together cursing, swinging their fists, some defending the recreant speaker and others denouncing his infamous and arbitrary conduct in defiance of the established rules. Quiet was restored father, Dr. A. W. Hafer, of this place, after some thirty minutes and the bully in the speaker's chair found he had stirred up a hornet's nest.

TOOK HIS MEASURE.

The Clearfield Republican, edited by ohn F. Short, took the measure of Old Windy Tom, last week, in good old windy Tom, last week, in good style. It shows that people almost ev-erywhere know why this man is a republican and yelps for Penrose. The following is Editor Short's com-

TOM HARTER'S CODE. "Editor Tom Harter of the Bellefonte Keystone Gazette, ultra g. o. p. whether it is good or bad, reproduced a paragraph from the Republican of two weeks ago commending Governor Tener for the promised stand against the orders of the machine, and follows with the suggestion that we "get down on our knees and ask the good Lord to forgive us for the infernal lies about him (Gov. Tener) in the last campaign.

Sure, Brother Harter, that is just what we ought to do, if we ever utter-ed or published a 'lie' about John K. Tener in the last campaign, and get wn severol times for an 'infernal lie. But that is just what this paper never did. Never during all the weeks of the bitter campaign of 1910 did the Republican ever contain a word, a line or a sentence criticising the character of John K. Tener. We did crit-icise the method of his nomination and the purpose of those responsible for his nomination. We opposed his election and did everything in our power to prevent it. But never a word against the man or his private character. And in proof of this fact, if Brother Harter wants proof, we refer him to our files; or, if he wants g. o. p. proof, to the closest personal friends Mr. Tener has in the State.

that he measures every other man by his own political standard. He can-not see good in any man who votes anything but a gang Republican ticket. He actually pretends to believe that all who cannot agree with his

Eugene C. Bonniwell, Esq., of Philadelphia, was in Bellefonte on Friday and called on many of our people to urge a continuance of the Keystone Party organization in this county this year. From what we can learn our people feel that the movement last year did a good service to the state year did a good service to the state in filing a strong protest to the abuses in both parties. This year there is practically no state ticket and there really are no state issues involved, the contests being for local officers only, and for that reason they do not deem it advisable to conduct a campaign, with a third party ticket in the field. Therefore the local Keystone Party organization of Centre county will remain quiet this campaign, but will be ready to take an active stand in future campaigns in active stand in future campaigns in Pennsylvania should the conditions

JOHNSON:-Mrs. Geo. W. Johnson, while walking in the orchard near the residence at Graysville, Saturday, was stricken with apoplexy and died Sunday evening without regaining consciousness, aged about 58 years. She was a grand lady and had many friends. She had been twice married and leaves four sons and four daugh-ters, besides her widower. Some six years ago she became the fifth wife of William Johnson of Graysville, all of thom are dead and his home is again broken up. He can truly say, "What is home without a mother." Funeral services were held at the residence Tuesday at four o'clock, Rev. R. M. Campbell officiating. The remains were taken to Marienville where burial was made Wednesday afternoon.

HAAGEN:--Mrs. H. L. Haagen, daughter of Dr. A. W. Hafer, of this place, died at the home of her huspand's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Haagen, in Tyrone, on Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock. Deceased was born in Osceola, November 23rd, 1875, making her age at time of passing away about 35 years and 6 months. With her husband and family Mrs. Haagen lived for a number of years at Tyrone, but since the first of January and up antil the time of her death the family resided at Hollidaysburg. At the time of their removing to the latter. place, she suffered a stroke of paralsis finally resulting in death. Suriving are her husband and two chiland the following sisters and brother: Mrs. Lauretta Hamilton, of New Haven, Conn.; Jane, Hafer, of New Haven, Conn.; Alpha G. We cannot, therefore, too much commend the wisdom displayed by the present Board of County Commissioners in doing their work so economical-y and so well, avoiding patchwork and cheap economies, and thereby bring-ing this building to such a position that it will serve all the purposes of Centre county for generations to come. SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE. (By Dr. Edward E. Sparks, President of State College)

Mr. Chairman, Citizens of Centre County, Neighbors and Friends: It is my very pleasant though brief task to accept in your name this magnificent building from the hands of the County Commissioners and to reply to their sentiments as voiced by the excellent address you have just heard from the Common Pleas Judge of the county. As we allow our eyes to fall upon the appointments of this room, as we note the harmony of colors, as we see the symphony in quist tones, no doubt our minds ruse back to that long space which is bridged by civilization from the primitive days to the present. We think
