by Rev. Shearer. Harry Brown and wife left Sunday to visit their daughter. Mrs. Dervin Fuller, at Williamsport. John Smith, the jolly and efficient blacksmith here, owing to his trade now exceeding his fondest expecta-tions when he built his present shop and to make room for his son and helper Mahlon, has decided to en-large his shop this summer to twice large his shop this summer to twice its present size.

The dry weather that prevalled last week was a severe handlcap to farmers and gardeners, but there's one con-solation, one don't need to be an expert gardener or have wet weather to raise radishes. Time to hunt bean poles has ar-rived which is a sure sign summer is here.

Roy Alexander, wife and children, of Pitcairn returned to their home Saturday, after a pleasant visit in this vicinity.

Born to Irvin Bennett and wife, May 15th, at Gum Stump, a baby girl. Sunday visitors here were: Edgar

J. C. Hoover, who has been confined to his bed for a week or ten days with pneumonia, is still very low. Ira Davis, who has been visiting his parents for a week, returned on Monday to Pitcairn. Mrs. Samuel Hosband, who has been sick for the last week, is much improved at this tin

Rev. H. A. McKelvey, of Port Ma-tilda, preached a very able sermon in the U. B. church on fast Sunday morn-Ing. There will be preaching service in the M. E. church next Sunday even-ment figure in our city for some time past; many large bouquets were brought in from the mountains and hills. How beautiful, how fragrant, is this highly prized honeysuckle.

.Chas. Meyers planted a large apple orchard this spring, which consisted of over 500 trees. Say, Charley, may I slide down your cellar door while this delicious fruit hangs ripening in the sun? The bridge over the Bald Eagle creek, which has been undergoing re-pairs for the past few weeks, is finished. Some of the wheat fields in the low lands are looking pretty spotted being the result of the hard freezes after the snow went off early in the

Many of our poultrymen have had such unusual bad luck with little chicks this spring, some loosing as high as fifty and over. This is truly not very encouraging; but, cheer up! there are better days coming,

Wm. Richards is adding to the appearance of his home as well as to the comfort of himself and family, by building a new kitchen. The same is being erected by Martin Harbridge and Steward Dillen. The rain on Friday afternoon made everything jump skyward, while it did not wet the ground to any extent, it was welcome, and all were thankful for It John Swisher, John Adams and Mart Spotts left last week for the bark woods, where the axe and spud are nimbly handled. Where the drag was used on our roads at the proper time, they are in excellent condition. Very dusty, but that is no fault of the supervisors. Mr. Rockey and Henry Huey, of Buffalo Run Valley, passed westward through town one day last week with a fine drove of young cattle enroute to pasture for the summer. Many snakes have been reported killed in our vicinity this spring, mostvipers which seem to be unusually plentiful Ira Davis returned on Monday to Pitcairn, where he will resume his duty as railroad brakeman. Whew! but Saturday and Sunday were hot days, 96 degrees in the shade of the old "Persimmon" tree. Miss Vera Young, a bright young lass, of Manhelm, arrived on the Saturday evening train and will visit indefinitely with her grandma, Mrs. Eliza Myers.

On this week's sick list are: Mrs. Hosband and Guy; J. C. Hoover, who has been suffering with pleura pneu-monia, is not much improved at this writing.

On next Tuesday 30th, will be Me-morial Day—our soldiers and citizens will not forget their comrades and friends who have gone before. (The writer could not learn of any arrange-ments for the day.)

Fierce Forest Fires,-Forest fires, either of an accidental or incendiary origin, after sweeping over a vast ter-ritory of mountain land north of Loganton, doing much damage to grow-ing timber, spread rapidly toward Hoppleton, causing a great deal of ex-citement and no little alarm. The fire burned flercely under the warm rays of the sun, fed by fallen leaves, brush and trees consuming everything in its pathway. Many rods of farm fences were burned and a number of houses including those of Mrs. Isaac Duck, Newton Bower, Licoln Confer and Harvey Trump were in danger of being destroyed. In answer to a call for help scores of men, women and boys fought like tigers in the work of checking the flames as they neared their homes.

A "Ratling" Good Clean-Up.

McConnellsburg, Fulton county, did a unique stunt last week in the way of brushing up. Instead of a "clean-up" week they had a "rat week" during which every citizen of the town did his best to rid his premises of the ob-noxious rodents. Bellefonte might do lkewise, with the proviso, however, that the men folks do the work.
