BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Have you had a mess of the rotten tubercy trout?
-J. E. Stine visited friends at Holt's Hollow and Runville on Friday last week.
-Mr. and Mrs. William Houser are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son in their household.
-Harry Poorman returned to his home at Coeville on Tuesday from a visit with friends in New York state.
-Mrs. Dora Rine departed on Saturday for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Alice Yeager, at Jersey Shore.
-J. S. Hoy, of Gregg, left on yesterday morning's train, on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Sadie Hendries, in Pittsburgh.
-Joseph Gordon arrived in Bellefonte last week, after an absence of over a year, and is employed at the home of Col. Taylor.
-Miss Blanch Houser, one of the efficient compositors at the Watchman office, spent several days with friends in Lock Haven.
-Thomas McClellan, wife and children, spent a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McClellan, on Lamb street.
-Frank Derstine, of Altoona, was a Memorial day guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Derstine, on Penn street.
-All the regular services will be held in the Reformed church next Sunday including Sunday school and C. E. society meeting.
-Boyd Musser came down from Altoona last week and spent the Sabbath with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Musser, on Lamb street.
-Sidney Barlet, of Altoona, spent the Sabbath in Bellefonte at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barlet, on Thomas street.
-Beginning next Sunday the Methodist Sunday school will convene at 9:30 in the morning instead of 2:30 in the afternoon, as heretofore.
-Geo. Smull, promoter and general hustler, returned recently from a successful trip to the far west and spent part of last week in Bellefonte.
-Bruce Meese, formerly a clerk in Henry Linn's china store, but for the past three months employed at Tyrone, visited his mother in this place on Tuesday.
-Communion services will be held in the United Brethren church on Sunday, both morning and evening. All members are urged to be present and partake of the Lord's Supper.
-Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harper are this week attending commencement exercises at the University of Ohio, at Columbus, Ohio, where their son Arthur is an instructor and holds an excellent position.
-Tom Barges, of Centre Hall, gave us a pop call, and reports some of the orchards over that way are making the best showing for an apple crop. We guess Tom will find the lagging ones catching up yet as the season advances.
-Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stine drove down from State College on Tuesday and visited their relatives during the day. They remained for the memorial services held in the Knights of the Golden Eagle hall on the evening of the same day.
-The Bellefonte Daily, under the spunky Dunham, has again made its appearance, awakening from its Rip Van Winkle sleep, and is gladdening the county seat with seeming new life and new vigor that betoken it means to stay. Dunham's snap and push deserves encouragement and liberal patronage.
-Robert Adams, the genial Brant House porter, returned home last Thursday from a three-days' visit with friends in Williamsport. While down in "Big town" he met a number of his old Harrisburg friends, with whom he had a good elegant time. "Bobby" being a strict Methodist, however, kept the rest of the bunch pretty straight.
-Following the reception to-night at the Bellefonte Academy, the annual dance will be held tomorrow night in the armory, from 9 to 2. The affair will be strictly formal, and as usual promises to be one of the most delightful social events of the season. A full orchestra will be in attendance, and refreshments will be served during the evening.
-The friends of Eugene Stine, formerly of this place, will be interested to know that he recently removed from Johnstown to Zimmerman, Somerset county, where he has accepted a good position with the Penn Traffic company. He is a son of James Stine, the blind man of this place, and has been located in Johnstown ever since the memorable flood in that city.
-Junata College, of Huntingdon, was trimmed by Academy last Friday afternoon in a game which was featured by a piling up of runs on both sides. The score was 14-12 in favor of Academy. Memorial-day the home team went down to Lewisburg and played Bucknell Academy returning home with a record of having made 15 runs to Bucknell's 6. Not so bad.
-Friday afternoon the last base ball game of the season wherein the Academy will take part, will be played at Hughes Field at 3:15, when the boys on the hill will have as their opponents, the strong Susquehanna University team. Last Saturday the latter beat the Academy in a hot game at Selingsgrove, and tomorrow's contest promises to be just as warm. Go out and see the final game of the season.
-Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thomas were arrivals from Lewistown on Sunday morning and spent the Sabbath with the former's father, Mr. William Thomas, at Milesburg. Mrs. Thomas was formerly Miss Beila Ward, a daughter of Mrs. George Ward, of this place, and on Monday they came up to Bellefonte and became the guests of the latter remaining until Tuesday, when they returned to their home at Lewistown. Mr. Thomas holds a good position with the Francis Hardware company in that city.
-Thursday about noon Robert, the three-year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan, was painfully though not seriously scalded by falling in a boiler of hot water at their residence on Spring street. One of the members of the family had taken a boiler containing hot water from the stove and placed it on the rear porch, where Robert and a number of other children were playing. In some manner the little fellow stepped backwards into the scalding water. Fortunately there was not a large quantity of water in the boiler, but enough, however, to painfully scald the child's back, which necessitated the services of a physician. He is now recovering very nicely.

-A very fine and welcome rain set in yesterday evening.
-Abraham Jackson was a guest of the Commercial Telephone company, at Tyrone, over Sunday.
-Mrs. Harold Saylor departed on Wednesday afternoon for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Wilson, at Altoona.
-Mr. and Mrs. Levi Whippo, of this place, are in Harrisburg with the guests of their daughter and other friends.
-Next improvement in Bellefonte should be the continuation of the street paving from the diamond to the Penna. Railroad station.
-Mrs. Ralph Malloy and children were passengers east on Wednesday afternoon for Philadelphia to spend a short time visiting friends.
-James Vallance, a Spanish-American War veteran and one-time resident of Bellefonte, is greeting friends in town. He is located at Galeton, Pa.
-W. Font Crider has decided to get in the game, and in a short time will be in town with an electric car about town. The machine is expected this week.
-The Pleasant Hill Sunday school will hold a social at the school house on Saturday evening, June 3, to which all are cordially invited, as a good time is assured.
-Mrs. Fred Bryan and two children left last Saturday for Grassflat, Clearfield county, where she will spend several weeks visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Josephine Moser, and other relatives.
-During the past week one new case of scarlet fever developed in Bellefonte, at the home of Andrew Young, on Logan street. The other cases in town are improving nicely, and no serious results are apprehended as yet of them.
-The public schools have not been opened and will remain closed for the balance of the term. The regular commencement exercises will be held on the dates previously announced, to wit: on Saturday, June 10th and 11th, and the commencement exercises on the 20th of June.
-There is more alarm felt outside of Bellefonte regarding the scarlet fever scare than anywhere else. The few cases that have been quarantined, in ordinary circumstances, would barely attract passing notice, but the alarm that sounds as though we had an epidemic.
-After a pleasant five-weeks' visit in Bellefonte at the home of their brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. Finklistine, the Misses Sarah and Lena Finklistine, left on Wednesday afternoon for their home in Harrisburg. They will remain there for a few days and then depart for Atlantic City to spend a season at the shore.
-Mrs. Anna Brown and daughter Louise, were arrivals in Bellefonte the beginning of the week, and are now the guests of Mrs. Brown's brother, Michael Lamb, and family, on north Allegheny street. Mr. Brown's home is in Baltimore, Md., and they spent a pleasant time visiting friends in Ocoola Mills before coming to Bellefonte.
-The memorial services held by the Knights of the Golden Eagle and the Ladies Temple in their hall on Tuesday evening were of a specially interesting character, and a large and pleased audience was present. The disappointment of not having one of the principal speakers present was the only blotch in an otherwise well prepared program.
-Rev. Dr. Schmidt returned from Canton, O., last Thursday where he had been attending the General Synod of the Reformed church. Dr. Schmidt is a member of the Reformed church in the "Alliance of Reformed and Presbyterian churches" which meets at Aberdeen, Septland, in June, 1911. He was also a member of the Reformed church in the "Alliance of Reformed and Presbyterian churches" in the United States.
-Among the Sunday arrivals in Bellefonte were Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Rath, accompanied by Mr. George Ryan, all of Elizabeth, N. J., the three constituting a party who became the guests of Mrs. Rath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider, at their home on Linn street. Monday evening a social function was held in their honor at the Nittany Country Club at Hecla Park, and on Tuesday Mr. Rath and Mrs. Ryan departed for their homes, while Mr. Rath, who was formerly Miss Mary Crider, will spend some time at the parental home here.
-Philip Haag, while attending the Knights Templar celebration in Williamsport last week, came within a hair's breadth of being minus a gold watch and chain. The fact of the matter was that some of the thieves had deftly pocketed the time-piece from his coat pocket while Philip was down there. A little detective work among the pawn shops soon located the stolen watch, and later the gentleman who had pawned it was caught while attempting to "hawk" other articles he had pilfered. Philip was mighty lucky in getting the watch and chain back, and it is to be hoped that he was a raw amateur at the business.
-Wednesday evening four boys named Rhoads, Cox, Bathurst and Hartcock, were hauled before Squire Musser, charged by Ammon Gramley, who resides above Coeville, with trespassing on his land. Mr. Gramley has a field of corn which affords short cut to a swimming dam. The boys have been taking advantage of this and have been crossing the field, as Mr. Gramley declares, without regard to what they trample down in their path. On the other hand the boys swore the prosecutor had left a road through the field, over which he told them they could traverse. There was also some dispute as to which of the boys were guilty. In Squire Musser's estimation it was trespass, however, and after reprimanding the boys he allowed them to go without a fine by the payment of the costs.
-Mr. Weston, local secretary of the Y. M. C. A., went down to Lock Haven on Saturday and stayed overnight with the friends of Bradford Williams, the auto evangelist who has been holding forth in that city for several weeks past. It may be possible that Mr. Williams can be secured to give special meetings in Bellefonte, during the summer, although nothing definite has been settled upon. He is said to be a wonderfully magnetic speaker, and is known as the auto evangelist from the fact that he travels in and delivers his addresses from an automobile, which was bought for his special use by a philanthropist. Mr. Williams was a Shakespearean actor of considerable note before his conversion, and his interpretations of the Scriptures are said to be marvelous. Another possible religious "speaker" who may visit Bellefonte this summer is Prof. A. Smith, the evangelist who here last year was pronounced one of the best ever heard.

-Eugene Wilson and Roy Ebert, of Glenn Union, spent Memorial day very pleasantly in Bellefonte.
-Contractor George Rhoads together with Albert Rhoads and Clayton Rote, who are assisting the former on a job at Unionville, laid aside their work on Memorial day and spent the day with their families at Coeville.
-A pleasant party, consisting of Mr. R. W. Mulhollen, formerly of this place; Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Rilling, and Miss Margaret Piper, all of Altoona, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey, on High street.
-Miss Anna Shuey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey, will entertain the graduating class and faculty of the Bellefonte High school, at dinner this (Thursday) evening at 6:30, at her home on High street. Plates for thirty-eight guests will be laid.
-RECENT DEATHS.
SHRECKENGAST.-Mrs. Mary Shreckengast died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Beach, at Bellefonte, on Saturday morning, June 1st, at the age of 74 years, death being due to tuberculosis. Funeral services were conducted in the Tyersville Reformed church by Rev. G. A. Stauffer, of Rebersburg.
LOHR.-Elizabeth Lohr, an aged lady well known to the older residents of Centre county, died at the home of her niece at Altoona on Wednesday last and her body was brought to Bellefonte on Friday where interment was made in the Union cemetery. She was aged at time of death, 85 years, 3 months and 2 days. In her younger days she resided in Bellefonte, and carried on the profession of nursing.
RISHEL.-Died May 25th at her home in State College, Mrs. Malinda Rishel, aged 87 years, 7 months and 25 days. She was born in Dauphin county and lived most of her life in the vicinity of State College. She was a member of the Reformed church; interment in the Boalsburg cemetery. She is survived by four sons: Ira M. Rishel, of Boalsburg; Oscar H. Rishel, of Hall, Pa.; Walter H. of Lemont and Newton J. of Oak Hill; also two daughters: Alma C. Miller, of Pine Grove Mills; and Clara E. Zerby, of State College.
FISHER.-After a lingering illness with tuberculosis, Miss Annie Fisher died at the Mont Alto sanitarium on Wednesday last, aged about 19 years and 8 months. She was a daughter of the late Samuel Fisher, of Bellefonte, who died quite a number of years ago. Her mother, Mrs. Sarah Paul, who survives, makes her home with her father, Joshua Folk, on east High street. One sister, also is left to mourn, Mrs. Edward Lehler, of near Pleasant Gap. Deceased was one of three children of Mrs. Paul's who have succumbed to the white plague within the past three years. Before entering the sanitarium she had been making her home with her aunt in Woodward township, Clinton county, and had visited at the home of her grandfather, Joshua Folk in this place, a number of times. The remains were taken to Lock Haven for burial, interment being made on Saturday afternoon.
McGIRK.-Dr. John D. McGirk, one of Phillipsburg's best known physicians, died at his home in that place on Thursday morning last, after an illness due to a general breaking down of the system, which dated back more than a year. He was born in Phillipsburg, October 21, 1834, making his age at time of passing away 76 years, 3 months and 4 days. He was a native of James McGirk, a native of Ireland, who in early manhood became a resident of Phillipsburg and engaged in business as a miller, farmer and hotel keeper. He was a member of the Methodist church, a democrat in politics, and for the most part his education had been gained by private study. The study of medicine early attracted his attention, and he practiced for some years with marked success before entering a medical college; but in the spring of 1871 he completed the regular professional course at the University of Pennsylvania, and in 1872, in 1891 he was associated with his son, Dr. Charles E. McGirk, in establishing a sanitarium in Phillipsburg, which has been a remarkably successful institution. He was married to Miss Mary Ann Fisher, of this place, in 1857, and they were the parents of seven children, of whom J. Edgar, who preceded him to the grave in 1900, Two children survive Miss Annie and Dr. Charles E. of Phillipsburg. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Henrietta Foster, also of Phillipsburg. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church, a democrat in politics, and is the last of the charter members of Moshannon Lodge F & A. M. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon.

PORT MATILDA.
We had fine rain here on Monday. This is the first we have had for three weeks. The grass was dying, and drying up. Hay will be far from what was expected earlier in the spring. A little over a week ago N. T. Patton badly sprained his ankle in jumping out of a buggy. A couple of the ligaments were broken or torn. He has a very painful experience just at present, but is getting along as well as can be expected in such a case.
Last week Clyde Daughenbaugh had a narrow and rather miraculous escape from death. He was sitting on the railroad bridge crossing the Bald Eagle creek near Martha fishing, where in looking down under the bridge he lost his hold and fell head first down to the creek bottom alighting on his head and shoulders on the stones. The bridge is twelve feet or more above the creek bed. He hit his neck, head and side along with other blows, but is not seriously injured. How he escaped breaking his neck is a mystery.
The boys came to our town during the last week. One of the home of C. M. Pringle and one to the home of H. M. Crain.
If you want to see a fine piece of cement walk and curbing, just view the one Williams Bros. have placed along the front of their properties adjoining the diamond. The work was done by Alfred Maguire our mason, who is a first class workman excelled by very few. This work, along with that W. T. Hoover has just had completed in front of his property, makes quite an improvement in our town. Keep the good work up.
The M. E. pastor, Rev. Gilbert, has gotten himself an automobile to do his traveling in his work on this charge. He believes it is less expensive to keep in repair and furnish with power than the keeping of a horse. Many horses are selling here and do not have to pay any more for the machine than for a horse and outfit. The machine only eats when in use. It may break down but you can repair it. A horse is liable to lie down and die, and you can not repair it. The auto is surely taking the place of the horse.
H. C. Woodring lost a fine horse this past week. He gave it some grass but it had been cut and left in a sack until it had heated. It gave a horse colic. A veterinary was summoned from Bellefonte, but the horse died the next evening.
Decoration Day passed off very quietly here. Patriotism is at a very low ebb. This should not be. Who is responsible for such? Are you?
Those in our town who are sick at present are Mrs. Kate Weaver, Mrs. Mary Young and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Williams.
