

Correspondents' Department

Bright, Newsy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

JULIAN.

Mrs. Nannie Davis is beautifying her home with a coat of paint.
On last Thursday morning at 6 o'clock the Haar Show consisting of twelve cars all-told, passed eastward through our town enroute to Bellefonte. A good many of our people followed on the 9 a. m. train to see the elephant. Show-day is the day the children take the reins of the household in hand and say to Dad, "Dad! you must take us to the show to-day," thus Dad, though very much against his will, dons his seventeenth-day garb and all make haste toward the show ground.
James Andrews got another fine mule team last week, which weighs 2,085 lbs., with the harness on. The mule epidemic has struck our town, mule owners are as follows: James Andrews, 2 teams; Charley Andrews, 2 teams; E. B. Williams, 1 team.
One morning last week the motor delivery truck of the Camp Furniture Store of Tyrone, came down from that Railroad Centre with a mammoth load of furniture, which it delivered to Edward Turner, Isaac Holt, and Wm. Fink.
Miss Ida Turner, one of Julian's up-to-date school-ma'ams, spent several days visiting friends in the western city, Altoona.

Sunday school has re-opened for the summer at the school house, every Sabbath afternoon at 2 o'clock. Turn out one and all, bring the children and help the good cause along.
Now, readers, lay aside the big fish stories, and the big snake stories, while I get up on the stump and tell about Mrs. Leghorn Hen's big setting of eggs. Harris Harbridge, who resides one mile west of town, noticed one day recently, one of his leghorn hens going under the kitchen; he being curious to know the why's, etc., investigated, and to his surprise, found the faithful would-be mother hen trying to sit on 81 eggs, equivalent to 6 dozen and 9. Of course eggs were rotten, thus the hen's copious effort to win the peanut for having the largest flock of little chicklets, were all in vain.

The writer is informed that potato bugs and cut worms are unusually plentiful in this section this summer; they are sitting around under the clouds waiting for the tubers to come up. 28 hard shell potato bugs from five little stocks only an inch or two high, is one report.
Edwin Taylor, of Altoona, spent a few days last week with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parsons, of this place.
Aaron Turner left last week for West Virginia, where he has secured a position with a civil engineering corps.
Corn is coming up nicely, although the long continued dry spell we have had in this section will be a great hindrance to its growth. Several very hard storms passed around us on both sides while it rained but little here.

Miss Clara Myers, one of our progressive school teachers, enjoyed several days' visit among relatives in Jersey Shore.
Francis Froll, of Blue Ball, spent Sunday at the home of G. E. Campbell.
Mr. and Mrs. Grant Martin, of near Bellefonte, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at this place.
John Henderson and Geo. Woods, of Huntingdon, spent a few days here.
Roy Myers left last week for Davis, West Virginia, where he will be the guest of his sister, Mrs. Joe Kilne.
Edward Erwin and wife, of Cherry-tree, Indiana county, spent Sunday in town with relatives.

WINGATE.

Have you tried Rosie's recipe for the new style of ice cream?
Miss Erma M. Sylvie, of Stormstown, was seen on our streets last week. Welcome, Erma.
Mr. and Mrs. George Summers spent last week at Williamsport and Danville.
L. S. Way and Claud Summers made a flying trip to Tyrone, Wednesday.
Aaron Long, our chief horticulturist, has a dandy assortment of cabbage and tomato plants for sale at reasonable prices.
Clyde Confer and Chas. Harnish, of Tyrone, visited here Thursday.
John Smith had his blacksmith shop closed last week on account of being indisposed.
The Hagge circus was well attended from this locality.
Ester Bennet is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. P. J. Strunk, here.
Mrs. Jennie Watson's famous dog, Bower, died on Thursday night.
The many friends of C. G. Murray, of Altoona, will be glad to hear he is improving nicely from his illness.

COLYER.

Miss Annie Fahringer, of Northumberland, had been spending a few days with friends at this place, also attended the Breon-Lee wedding at Boalsburg.
Mrs. Wm. Seanson and children, of near Lemont, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edna Bobb.
Miss Carolina McCloskey, of Pottery Mills, had been playing her needle at the home of G. R. Meese the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Palmer and family spent Sunday at the home of C. S. Boddorf.
The party that was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thomas, last Friday evening, was well attended, about thirty-three being present; after all had done justice to the excellent refreshments, they returned to their homes having enjoyed the evening very much.
A missionary conference will be held at Tusseyville, beginning next Tuesday evening, continuing Wednesday all day and evening, June 6th and 7th. All cordially invited to attend.

SKUNK HOLLOW.

Mrs. Della Albright, of Yeagerstown, spent the past week visiting friends and relatives here.
Miss Jennie Ream and friend, Vesta Auman, of Millheim, spent ascension day very pleasantly at W. W. Vonnada's.
The birthday party at Chas Rishel's in honor of Mrs. Rishel was well attended.
Those who spent Sunday at William Vonnada's, were O. A. Jamison and son Miles, of Millheim, Ella Auman and Rose Gentzel.
S. R. Lingle and family spent Sunday at the home of Daniel Shooks.
Stella Auman, who is working at Vicksburg spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.
Rumor has it, there will be a wedding in the near future; boys get your horns and bells ready.
Wonder where Penn Twp. is? Guess he has gone on a bullfrog tour, but rather early for frogs.

BRUSHVALLEY.

The rain which passed through here, thought by some as a cloud burst, did considerable damage, uprooting trees and wrecking buildings, fences carrying away bridges, and washing out fields causing many farmers to replant corn.
Mr. William Crater, who is at Bellefonte hospital, is slowly improving; her friends wish her a speedy recovery.
Our lumbermen are busily engaged in hauling bark to the station.
Our supervisor is erecting a new bridge at O. C. Jonnan's, where the old one was torn away by the water.
Some people had better swallow their words instead of speaking them, and then turn around and do the opposite.
Rev. C. L. Cares preached an able sermon in Bethesda church on Sunday evening.
Rev. J. F. Bigman will have preaching service in the Yearick United Evangelical church on Sunday evening.

TYLERSVILLE.

A number of people were in the narrows on Ascension Day and also a number of them were fishing.
Mrs. Mary Shreckengast, who had made her home with her daughter at Bellwood, died at that place last Sunday at 6:20. She was brought to Greenburg last Monday a. m. to her son John, and was buried at this place last Tuesday forenoon. Funeral services were held in the Reformed church.
Mrs. Ore Johnsonbaugh and children of Avis, are here visiting her parents, P. T. Shreckengast.
Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Caris and two of their children visited at George Jackson's, at Madisonburg last Sunday.
Mrs. Margis Frantz made a trip to Reading last week.
Mr. Zeigler, of Spring Mills, made a trip through this place last week and pup through this place last week.
A little baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl's last Wednesday. Robert can now walk around with his face full of smiles.
Amos Strayer and son are painting Samuel Glantz's house.
Chas. Harter, of Lock Haven, visited his parents last week.

FILLMORE.

We have been having some very hot weather during the past two weeks; a little rain mixed with this kind of weather would make things look quite different.
Miss Bertha and Nannie Henderson, of State College, spent Saturday at J. C. Hunter's, here.
Robert Fryman, who has been living in the west, is visiting his friends and relatives of this place.
There will be a festival held at Pleasant Hill school house on Saturday night, June 3rd, for the benefit of their Sunday school; everybody come.
We are sorry to say that William Garman, who has been laid up with typhoid fever for several weeks, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last Friday for treatment.
If you see William Brenon smoking a five-cent cigar, you will know that it is because he purchased a new carriage.
The erection of a new house on the Hale farm one mile north of Waddell, occupied by Dallas Marshall was commenced on last Tuesday by contractor Willis Shull, of Bellefonte.
Andy Reisher and family, of Snow Shoe, are visiting at J. C. Hunter's.

SPRING MILLS.

H. F. Rossmann bought a fine horse at the Millheim horse sale, which can now boast of having one of the first horses in town.
O. T. Corman and wife and Jno. Huss and wife spent a day at the county seat; they did not get on account of the Haag Show.
T. M. Gramley and Jacob Lee received their new Ford autos, which places them now in class No. ten, while Prof. Gramley gave them all the instruction that he possibly could. Mr. Gramley thinking that he had everything put under a hat, planted himself to the rear wheel to show his family how he could run his auto. Off it started over the lawn, but he forgot to keep it in the road and landed in one of Mrs. Cranley's fine rose bushes; but it might have gone up a telephone pole or tree in place of the rose bush.
Captain Taylor and family, of Bellefonte, spent a day at the Wood house; the captain knows how to treat his family and even them a nice time while on the other hand he did not forget his many friends whom he called on for sociability.
There was quite a scare here last Tuesday when we had such heavy rains; word was received that the farmers mill dam broke and had it been true there might have been a kind of trouble, but it was a false report, for which everybody was glad, as the water was high without the dam breaking.
Mrs. May Gramley has been housed in with a severe attack of quinsy. Mrs. William Grove and M. T. Leitze are also on the sick list.
Smith Bros. are getting another shipment of their fine pianos; anyone in need of a piano will do well to get their prices before buying elsewhere.
G. K. Kenney spent a couple days with his wife, Mr. Kenney is employed by Kelley, contractor and builder, at Snow Shoe.
The supervisors are doing good work on the south side of town; they should not forget that it needs crushed stone in front of the hotel.
Prof. Moyer and Tiben Zubler had the children have a flag drill for Decoration.

NTITANY.

John Weaver, of Olean, N. Y., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. George Young and family.
On account of not being well, Mrs. Israel Yearick was deprived of attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Gertie, at Boalsburg, on Saturday.
Noah Yearick and wife were callers at the former's home on their way back from Madisonburg on Saturday.
Mr. Gill and family are visiting Frank Toner and family at this place. Naoma Gansullus accompanied her aunt, Mrs. John Delaney, to her home at Centre Hall, where she will stay for some time.
Mr. and Mrs. James Nolan were to Bellefonte one day the past week.
Preaching in the Evangelical church Sunday morning at 10:30.
Some of our young folks have the mumps at this writing, among them being Milton Gansullus and Anna Winkelman.
Blanche Snavely and her friend, of Flemington, visited the former's mother and brothers here on Sunday.
Those from this place who attended the Haag show report it to be as fine a show as any on the road.
Two of Reynolds Shope's daughters, of Bellefonte came down on Saturday to visit their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Yarnell, over Sunday.
Hand your news to the scribe and it will be sent in for publication.

TYLERSVILLE.

Mrs. Mary Shreckengast, who had made her home with her daughter at Bellwood, died at that place last Sunday at 6:20. She was brought to Greenburg last Monday a. m. to her son John, and was buried at this place last Tuesday forenoon. Funeral services were held in the Reformed church.
Mrs. Ore Johnsonbaugh and children of Avis, are here visiting her parents, P. T. Shreckengast.
Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Caris and two of their children visited at George Jackson's, at Madisonburg last Sunday.
Mrs. Margis Frantz made a trip to Reading last week.
Mr. Zeigler, of Spring Mills, made a trip through this place last week and pup through this place last week.
A little baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl's last Wednesday. Robert can now walk around with his face full of smiles.
Amos Strayer and son are painting Samuel Glantz's house.
Chas. Harter, of Lock Haven, visited his parents last week.

TYLERSVILLE.

A number of people were in the narrows on Ascension Day and also a number of them were fishing.
Mrs. Mary Shreckengast, who had made her home with her daughter at Bellwood, died at that place last Sunday at 6:20. She was brought to Greenburg last Monday a. m. to her son John, and was buried at this place last Tuesday forenoon. Funeral services were held in the Reformed church.
Mrs. Ore Johnsonbaugh and children of Avis, are here visiting her parents, P. T. Shreckengast.
Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Caris and two of their children visited at George Jackson's, at Madisonburg last Sunday.
Mrs. Margis Frantz made a trip to Reading last week.
Mr. Zeigler, of Spring Mills, made a trip through this place last week and pup through this place last week.
A little baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl's last Wednesday. Robert can now walk around with his face full of smiles.
Amos Strayer and son are painting Samuel Glantz's house.
Chas. Harter, of Lock Haven, visited his parents last week.

FILLMORE.

We have been having some very hot weather during the past two weeks; a little rain mixed with this kind of weather would make things look quite different.
Miss Bertha and Nannie Henderson, of State College, spent Saturday at J. C. Hunter's, here.
Robert Fryman, who has been living in the west, is visiting his friends and relatives of this place.
There will be a festival held at Pleasant Hill school house on Saturday night, June 3rd, for the benefit of their Sunday school; everybody come.
We are sorry to say that William Garman, who has been laid up with typhoid fever for several weeks, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last Friday for treatment.
If you see William Brenon smoking a five-cent cigar, you will know that it is because he purchased a new carriage.
The erection of a new house on the Hale farm one mile north of Waddell, occupied by Dallas Marshall was commenced on last Tuesday by contractor Willis Shull, of Bellefonte.
Andy Reisher and family, of Snow Shoe, are visiting at J. C. Hunter's.

WINGATE.

The inhabitants of the quiet and pretty village of Chestnut Grove were treated last week to a little amusement which while it lasted had Haags circus beaten to a frazzle. It was related that the scribe, thereof "The Bell Telephone Company disconnected one of their subscriber's phones, for some reason, much against the said subscriber's will, and being of a stratotic disposition, the unlucky subscriber objected with choice epithets and stoncs.
The dry weather still continues which makes the gardens and fields look very bad.
The various improvements in our village this spring were as follows: P. G. Murray's new board walk; David Estright's new chicken coops; Clara Idding's new chicken coops; Thomas Murray's new pump drain; Jacob Kerchner's new board walk; Harry Kellerman's new roof on house; Geo. Summer's new out kitchen; Eli Sters' house repainted inside; P. J. Strunk's house remodeled; Lemuel Warner's general out door repairing; Willard Fisher, a new barn for which there was an old fashioned frolicsome barn raising, Saturday.
Eli Sters spent the Sabbath among relatives at Altoona.
One of our fair damsel was in a sad predicament one night last week, when a fellow who is employed there, for a joke just wouldn't go to bed when her beau came to see her—even if she did keep repeating "two compartments, three's a crowd."
By showing the never give up spirit the Centre Hall baseball team defeated the Central City team on Saturday in a 9th inning rally 3-2 in one of the most exciting and best played games on the Central City grounds.
Features of the game were the catching of Allison of Centre Hall and the batting of Holt, and the fielding of John and Woodring for Central City.
IP, A. Ralzwirtz worthwilt einzimmer Mahlon Smith received his bicycle Saturday and all the boys are casting envious eyes at him now as it is certainly a dandy.
That it's far better to be wise than otherwise was shown here last week. P. E. Flynn holds the record for mops this spring as he has raised by nature's way—a cluck—nearly 150 little chickens.
Frank Kerchner, of Tyrone, spent the week end here with relatives.
The race for the championship in eel fishing is a merry race between Mahlon Smith, Corney Estright and Bill Kellerman, with Blair and George getting the most fish.

Preaching in the U. E. church here by the pastor Rev. Shearer, June 18th, at 10:30 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., and by Rev. John Zeigler, June 11th, at 7:30.
John Wertz, of Johnstown, is spending some time here at W. Fisher's.
Rev. John Zeigler is attending the Messiah church conference at Kylertown this week.
Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

Those who spent Sunday here renewing or making new acquaintances were: Paul Clancy, of Fayetteville; Myra Brower, of Central City; Harry J. Park, of Altoona; Lloyd Brower, of Lower Egypt; Andrew Young and son, George, of Bellefonte; Irvin Bennett, wife and daughter, Linnie, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Tones Spicer, of Bellefonte; Martin Harnish, Chas. Harnish and Mrs. E. Stonebraker, of Tyrone; James Martin, wife and children, Earl Harter and John Martin, of Bellefonte.
Mrs. Jacob Kerchner, of Bermlingham, is spending some time here at her father-in-law's, Jacob Kerchner.
Miss Sue A. McLaughlin and Toner W. Fisher being firm believers in the saying "mum's the word" put the same in practice recently when with various pretenses of where and why they were leaving they put the kibosh on their generally wise friends by just going right off and being married by Rev. J. L. Fisher, at Pittsburg, May 17th. The bride was one of our most widely known and popular young ladies and the daughter of Chas. McLaughlin, while the groom is a son of Wm. E. Fisher and a model young man. They are now at home to their host of friends at Clinton, Iowa, where the groom has a fine position with the Clinton Refining Co., and have the well wishes of their friends, even if we lost a jolly couple and a treat "Gone but not forgotten" will be emphasized on their first trip to our village. All you need now, Sue, to make your home complete is the Centre Democrat.

SPRING MILLS.

H. F. Rossmann bought a fine horse at the Millheim horse sale, which can now boast of having one of the first horses in town.
O. T. Corman and wife and Jno. Huss and wife spent a day at the county seat; they did not get on account of the Haag Show.
T. M. Gramley and Jacob Lee received their new Ford autos, which places them now in class No. ten, while Prof. Gramley gave them all the instruction that he possibly could. Mr. Gramley thinking that he had everything put under a hat, planted himself to the rear wheel to show his family how he could run his auto. Off it started over the lawn, but he forgot to keep it in the road and landed in one of Mrs. Cranley's fine rose bushes; but it might have gone up a telephone pole or tree in place of the rose bush.
Captain Taylor and family, of Bellefonte, spent a day at the Wood house; the captain knows how to treat his family and even them a nice time while on the other hand he did not forget his many friends whom he called on for sociability.
There was quite a scare here last Tuesday when we had such heavy rains; word was received that the farmers mill dam broke and had it been true there might have been a kind of trouble, but it was a false report, for which everybody was glad, as the water was high without the dam breaking.
Mrs. May Gramley has been housed in with a severe attack of quinsy. Mrs. William Grove and M. T. Leitze are also on the sick list.
Smith Bros. are getting another shipment of their fine pianos; anyone in need of a piano will do well to get their prices before buying elsewhere.