THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Harry Bartan and J. E. Stine spent Sunday with friends at Buffalo Run. -W. H. Lingle and wife, of near Tusseyville, did shopping in town and gave the Democrat a call. -The Misses Edna and Loretta Ward, of Pine Grove Mills, were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ward, Curtin street, last week. Levi Daughenbaugh, who has been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Emma Boyer, for the past week, left for Clearfield on Tuesday. -Rev. Francis S. Hort, of South Bethlehem, will preach in the Presbyterian church on the coming Sabbath, in the morning and the evening.

-The Ladies' Aid society, of the Lutheran church, will hold a sale of bread, ples, cakes and aprons, Saturday afternoon, June 24, in the room formerly occupied by Roan's store, on Bishop

-Miss Viola Parrish, a niece of Drug-M. Parrish /spent a couple of days this week at the home of the latter while on her way to her home at atives in this place, this week. Ebensburg, from the Lock Haven Normpast term.

-Edward Baudis, of Fleming, was in our office yesterday and informed us that he has purchased his father's merry-go-round, and expects to attend many of the picnics and public gatherings in the county this summer. He will start off at Snow Shoe on the 4th of July.

-John F. Short, editor of the Clearfield Republican, John F. Leitzinger, Edward Leitzinger, and James Redding, all of Clearfield, called on Tuesday at this office. They left Clearfield at 6 a. m. and arrived here at 9:30 having breakfasted at Philipsburg. They visited Snow Shoe on the return trip.

-Misses Mary Hicklen and Alice Lowry are entertaining their school chum, Miss Ethel Fox, of Mt Carmel, the trio having been students together at the Luthersville, Md., College for Women. A trip to State College and other delightful jaunts to the country are being indulged in by the young

-The Lock Haven Democrat has this to say of one of it citizens, who was a former Bellefonte boy: "'Mart' Burger, the genial and popular mixologist, has accepted a position at the St. Charles reason his dental parlors in Petriken hotel. Mart knows everybody and is one of the sociable, every day clerks, and has many friends, who will be pleased to see him at the St. Charles.'

of Christian Endeavor Societies, held at Woodland, Clearfield county. The convention honored the Reverend with the presidency for the next year, and also was in town on Tuesday. His family see him upon the streets. Mr. Bartley elected him a delegate to attend the International convention which meets at Pa, Atlantic City, July 6th to 12th.

new line of cigars, cigarettes and tobac- church. cos, to his establishment, and hereafter the very best that can be had. Give the pumping station to the falls, should, by no means, be permitted as a re-ceptacle for old tinware, bottles and other refuse, rendering it a blemish to that locality, and is in bad contrast with the beauties immediately surrounding the spring, so attractive to

-While en route from Pittsburg to his home at Niagara Falls, Jas. G. Marshall spent over-night last Thursday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Cooke. the latter being a sister of Mrs. Marshall. His mother who has been staying at the Cooke residence for some time, has not been in the best of health, and for that reason he wished to pay her a visit, however short it might be.

-Henry Lowery, the contractor, recently returned home from a visit to the bedside of his brother, the wellknown Christ Lowery, at Fillmore, who on Sunday, the 11th inst., suffered a stroke of paralysis, leaving him practically helpless. The organs of the strickmakes his home with his daughter. Mrs. John Rockey.

-Do you know that many fine bits of history are woven into interesting stories, and shown at the Scenic almost evevening? And did you ever realize several years. that by seeing these important historical education is broadened by pictures of vantage of the same for a short vacatravel, industries, etc., that is worth tion. more to you than you have any idea. other entertainment.

Auman, pressman at the Gazette office, will open up a cigar, tobacco, confecroom formerly used as a composing room, adjoining the main office. Glass will be placed in the front door, several fine show cases placed in the room, and everything made cozy and up-to-date. This doesn't by any means indicate that he will give up his position on the paper, as they could as easily do without a press as dispense with Herbie's services; it will imply be conducted as a side line by Herbie, with a competent in charge to wait on the customers. Herb is an honest and industrious young man, and deserves the patronage of his friends. Here's hoping the new venture may grow as large as Wanamaker's. -On Sunday last Mr. Charles McCoy, the well known mechanic and blacksmith, reached the 54th year of his life, and to make the affair a pleasant one for their paternal parent, his children, three sons and two daughters, all gathunder the parental roof, in the form of a delightful little house party. we might mention Harry McCoy, who holds a responsible agency with the Harry is rapidly climbing the ladder of trio of automobilists from Fredericks Herbert McCoy and family came up -In the absence of Rev. Barry, last Sabbath, the Lutheran pulpit was ably filled by Rev. Shuey, of this place.

-The Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company held their annual quarterly meeting here on Monday in Petrikin

-Bishop street looks 50 per cent. better, since contractor R. B. Taylor put the finishing touches on the new state road. -When you are in need of job printing remember that the Centre Democrat is especially equipped for that kind of work.

-Dr. Philip Fisher, of Zion, who also Maxwell runabout from Rothrock Bros., operating. Lock Haven.

-Mrs. Amos Ross and two chil-Sherlack, at Coleville.

-Mrs. Alice Compt, of Bradford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William T. Shirk, on Thomas street, and other rel-

-During the past week the condition where she has been a student the of Miss Mame Ceader has not improved her people regarding her recovery.

> -And the hobble skirt is getting almost as plenty on Bellefonte concrete walks as strawberries at curb market. Yes, Bellefonte is always up to date.

-Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Donachy and two High street.

-Mrs. Rebecca Bickle and daughter, friends in Bellefonte.

-Edward Fleming brought gladness to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming, by an over-Sunday visit, returning to his residence at Altoona on Monday afternoon.

-An ice cream and cake festival will be held in the Union chapel, at Pleasant View, below town, on Saturday evening to which a cordial invitation is next. extended to the public to attend.

Dr. D. K. Musser, the dentist, left Wednesday morning for Philadelphia, on business and pleasure bent. For that Hall will be closed the coming week.

-Miss Mable Feint is a guest at the home of Mrs. Sarah Shook on south Allegheny street; Mrs. Shook is also en--Rev. C. W. Winey returned home joying a visit from her son, Floyd, who last week from attending the convention is a traveling salesman for a shoe firm. -W. Scott Weland, formerly with

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

-Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues-dustrious citizens, and it is to be will be able to serve his customers with the funeral of his uncle, the late Thom-

for New York City where he will put in a week or two visiting relatives and then go to a boys' school in the Adriondack mountains, where he will tutor a num ber of the pupils during his vacation period.

-Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis is at present visiting at the home of her daughter. Mrs. Harvey, in Philadelphia, where she will remain for several weeks. During Ler absence the Orvis home on Linn street is closed, and Judge Orvis is "at home" temporarily with his sister Mrs. Harry

Rev. Lang gave two excellent Bible ticing attorney) between John Wetzel a stand for, and Mr. Krebs told him he readings in the Olive Branch church at carpenter and builder, and J. G. Kurtz, had better "get," and take a walk down ject was "Christian Baptism," and in and an office building, both structures hotter and with another explosion of the afternoon he spoke of "The Hus- being now occupied by the present pub- wrath he informed Mr. Krebs that no which affect his speech. Mr. Lowery and son Dr. John Keichline of Peters- ciples, which acquired considerable presof their youngest daughter Miss Anna which finally suspended publication. Keichline, who has been a student in Later the buildings were purchased by the university at that place for the past Edward Tyson, who conducted a meat

-Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, of events acted by the moving picture ar- New York City, have been guests for tists, your mind is better able to see past week of Bellefonte relatives, Mrs. and grasp them, and thereby remember Watson being a daughter of Mr. and them? Such is the case, however, and Mrs. William McElhattan, and a sister the moving picture has therefore be- of Mrs. John Knisely. Mr. Watson runs come one of the greatest educators a large freight boat on the New York known. Not only do you see historical channel, and during the time his boat events reproduced true to life, but your was in dry dock for repairs, took ad-

-Edward Gross recently sold his There is also plenty of amusement to milk route to Samuel W. Zettle, of near vary the programs. You get more for Pleasant Gap, and will hereafter devote your money at the Scenic than any his time to assisting his brothr John in his grocery store, with the possibility of -Within the next few weeks Herbie adding a line of fresh meats in the near tionery and shoe shining shop, in the Zettle's assistant, and both gentlemen will endeavor to build up a reputation for good service.

> -Prof. Clarence E. Garbrick, of Philadelphia, became a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. George Garbrick, on grown to more than 125 feet in length. east High street. Mr. Garbrick is one of the corp of efficient instructors of the High schools of the Quaker City and every year he spends his vacation at his home in this place. His wife stopped off at Jersey Shore to visit her parents for a few weeks before, coming to Bliefonte to join her husband. -Word received recently by Amanda Waite from her daghter, Mrs. Harry Rhodes, who resides with her husband in Panama, was to the effect that the latter had been confined to a cot in the hospital at that place, suffering from appendicitis. Up to time of writing to her mother, Mrs. Rhodes had undergone no operation, but the probabilities were that such would be necessary in order to regain her former health. Adams Express Co., and has been sta-tioned for some time in California. Kline and Miss Amy Fahrney, a jolly success, and is bound to some day make burg, Md., were arrivals in Bellefonte a creditable name for himself. Then last Thursday in Mr. Fahrney's automobert McCoy and family came up bile, and became the guests for a few and Mrs. Ray Hoy, and Mr. and charles McCoy, Jr., of Bellefonte, Kathryn at home, the affair development into a pleasant family reunion. We trust Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, Sr., may fonte on Thursday by way of State Collive to enjoy many more visits from their children.

-From June 10th to 13th, there were four inches of rain at this station. -My store will be open evenings, un-

Remember the place-D. o'clock. I. Willard, High street. -A New York auto came to town yesterday numbered 71,624. That's over double the number licensed in our state. -Mrs. Charles Penington, of State College, is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Smith, on Bishop street.

-Contractor Henry Lowery and men are improving the residence of Robert Kline, corner Bishop and Penn streets. by placing thereon a brand new roof.

-The Maccabees had a special sermon delivered to them at the United Brethren church last Sunday by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey. It is said they were well pleased with the discourse. -On Wednesday Sylvester Ray accompaned his brother Ambrose to Williamsport, where the latter will undergo an operation for the removal of several cataracts from his eyes. Dr. Hashas an office at Bellefonte purchased a kins, the noted specialist, will do the

-The Central Railroad of Penna. have replaced the old bridge, near the fair dren, of Hollidaysburg, are visiting at the home of the former's brother, Joseph sitated a Sunday job for the crew of workmen who did the work. Everything connected with the trestle is now brand new except the stone abutments.

-Mrs. Louisa Callaway, daughter of Mrs. Louisa Bush, of this place, underwent an operation in St. Luke's hospi-Philadelphia, last week, which, her any, and there is much concern among friends will be glad to learn, was very her people regarding her recovery. Bellefonte within the next few weeks.

-On Wednesday afternoon Bert Campbell was brought to Bellefonte by the constable of Milesburg, and placed in jail, charged with stealing a bicycle children, of Williamsport, spent the from Samuel Haupt, of that borough. Sabbath at the home of Mrs. Donachy's The owner of the wheel claims that The owner of the wheel claims that to Penna. Furnace, where it was sold by the defendant.

Mrs. Poorman, formerly of this place, but of late residing in Lock Haven, spent Wednesday of last week with consisting of Lester Haupt, and mother, -A jolly party of automobilists passed consisting of Lester Haupt, and mother, of Tyrone; Miss Jessie Fetterolf, of Huntingdon, and Miss Ada Baird, of Milesburg; they were enroute in Mr. Haupt's car to New York state to view the sighs of Niagara Falls, Watkins Glenn, and other points of interest.

-The insurance adjusters and the church have come together the past week and agreed upon $2000 as the amount due the latter for the damage done by the recent fire to the interior of the edifice. The work of repairing will at once be started and pushed to a speedy completion. The main audience room upstairs will probably be repainted and re-frescoed, as the smoke did considerable discoloring to the walls -Austin Bartley, of Altoona, spent a few days the past week at the home of his parents in this place, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartley. The elder Mr. Bartley has not been enjoying the best of health is spending the summer at Nordmont, when his age and health permitted was more than tons of valor. The incident one of Bellefonte's most useful and in--Rev. C. W. Winey departed on Tues- dustrious citizens, and it is to be hoped.

morial library at the Y. M. C. A. today not been there long until a stone thrown —J. W. Norris, of Bellwood, attended by Miss Rebecca Rhoads, to whom the public is deeply indebted for a munificent car, which incensed his trampship to nesday evening. 14th. their youngest and valuable library of reference. A such a degree that he concluded to wipe the very best that can be had. Give him a call when in need of a good him a call when in need of a good.

The overflow from Bellefonte's great spring, forming the stream from great spring, forming the stream from the stream from great spring, forming the stream from the who are not acquainted with this library, should call at the Y. M. C. A one to disturb him while making his rooms and examine the books.

BIT OF INTERESTING PAPER.

was left at this office, which to us is gineer at the Bellefonte Electric comof more than passing interest from the pany plant, and was home at that time fact that it speaks of the "birth" of the day. Mr. Hobo, without cerebuilding wherein the Centre Democrat mony, began using very abusive is now published.

same pulpit, at 10:20 in the morning. had the building erected for a printto attend the graduaton exercises Civil War Mr. Kurtz sold the paper, ful place where he could finish his shave. market in the office building for a number of years, finally disposing of the same to Frank B. Stover, who continued in the meat busines up to about eight years ago. The buildings were then purchased by the present owner, and the newspaper equipment moved from the Garman building, near the Court House, to the new location, and once more did the aroma of printer's ink pervade the atmosphere of the shop.

Mr. Wetzel, the builder, is still liv-ing, although long past the number of most 85 years of age. Of him it can be said he builded well, and he was a mechanic of ability and skill. The old bit of paper containing the agreement chips of the old blocks, in usefulness and of building brings to mind the odd fact sturdy integrity and good habits. Go defined in the connection is most worthy manager. The bride is also no stranger capably handled by Jared Evey. Mr. years the building returned to the use of it and will have a warm second from in Bellefonte, being a graduate nurse of years the building returned to the use for which it was intended. In the original plans for the erection of the building, the agreement called for a depth of two weeks did much damage to the Morris C. Lingle - - Penn Twp. their friends at the Olewine residence on roads. It has been a long time since Agnes Davis - - - - Gregg Twp. they were in as bad condition. In every Wm. E. Shannon - Morrisdale Mines section where supervisors have failed to Anna A. Jones - - - Philipsburg properly drain their roads the most visors are learning that it is better to Margaret C. Garner - - Bellefonte keep the water on the side of the road than in the middle.

man Boone for "cussing" at him. Turner denied he has used other than ordinary language in addressing the police-man when arraigned in Police Court, but her death, admitted he had said "damn."
"Seven fifty a word," ruled Recorder Keffer and Turner stopped admitting.

WITH BOROUGH COUNCIL.

Council came to order on Monday night with Messrs. Harper, Judge Sheffer, Musser, Beezer and Grim present, and after the reading of minutes and subsequent approving without al- building. terations, verbal communications were

Clarence Garbrick was present and stated that he was laying a concrete sidewalk in front of his property on east Curtin street, and had asked for and received from the boro engineer the proper grade for same; that he had gone to onsiderable trouble and expense to get down to the established grade, and in consequence asked that the same noted upon the minutes of council, for his protection in case of a dispute ever that the owner of the property west of Grace Viola Showalter, Anna Mulhollan his be notified as to the proper grading Shuey, Anne Bayard Spangler, Mary

Mr. Garbrick's requests were granted. By written communication R. B. Tayor asked permission to cross west Lamb street with a siding from the Pennsy tracks to his proposed new coal yard site, near Gamble's mill; referred to street committee.

Fire and police committee reported two alarms for fire. Market committee, $4.20 market fees collected. Special committee-progress.

Boro Solicitor Mitchell introduced an Allegheny, east to the borough when posted will give the cost per foot tion by Dr. A. M. Schmidt, front to each property owner. Under a new Act of Assembly petitioning of citi-zens along a street or thoroughfare is For general excellence, to Anna done away with, and instead, an ordinance authorizing the intended improvements is posted for thirty days. Property owners are assessed two-thirds of the cost, each owner's share to be calculated from the number of feet front his real estate occupies. In this case parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey, on Campbell stole the wheel and took it the boro engineer was instructed to calculate the amount due from each property owner, and amount per foot before 30 days notice is given.

Borough treasurer asked for the renewal of three notes-one for $4,000, another for $2,200, and one for $800,which by motion was ordered.

Mr. Judge reported the Lamb street bridge as being in need of repairs and repainting, but as it was undecided as For special prize (this year), to Elsi to whether the borough or the county was liable for the same, the matter was R. Hayes. board of trustees of the Methodist referred back to the street committee for enlightenment.

On motion of Mr. Musser an order was drawn on the boro treasurer for $500 in favor of R. B. Taylor, on ac-

A note for $2,200 to meet current bills was ordered drawn, and after reading bills to the amount of about $1000, council adjourned.

A HOBOE'S TROUBLES.

On Saturday forenoon last a big, redfaced specimen of the common genus had an experience with a Bellefonte citizen which will in all probability teach the aforesaid itinerant knight that see him upon the streets. Mr. Bartley a little discretion is sometimes worth occurred near Gamble's grist mill.

With the intention of taking a much to upbraid that official for allowing anymorning toilet. This censuring of the watchman did not appease his thirst for trouble, however, and he made for the residence of John Krebs, west of the Last week an old piece of manuscript railroad tracks. Mr. Krebs is night enguage to Mr. Krebs, and was for wal-The old paper is an article of agree- loping his little boy, who was in the ment, drawn up in 1862, by the late kitchen at the time. The man's abuse Judge A. O. Furst, (then a young prac- was more than any good citizen would Coleville, on Sunday. His morning sub- for the erection of a dwelling house the track. This made the fellow all the band and Wife." Two weeks from next lisher. Mr. J. G. Kurtz was a broth-sunday, Rev. Lang will occupy the er of the senior editor of this paper, and man wouldn't "get." but the next terday (Wednesday) at 7:39 a. m. The moment he "got"-what he was looking where he published the "Cenfor—a few of the quickest and hardest man's throat are also impaired, panied by their daughter. Miss Dalsy, tral Press," a paper of republican prinpunches he ever received in his life. punches he ever received in his life. Presbyterian church. The bride is a It took him but a few minutes thereafburg, departed on Monday for Cornell, tige throughout the county. After the ter to hunt a more congenial and health- family being well known residents of Another Clan Organization.

The next organization for a family re-Haines Hosterman-Stover clan, in township, who form one of the largest connections in the county, and many as chief electrician, relatives found all through the west, and prominent in the various walks of life. pioneers; of the early days, when the ceremony performed, at the home of aboriginees were yet denizens in Centre Mrs. John Olewine, on Spring street, at county wilds. The ancestors of these which time Rev. Fred W. Barry, pastor families were among those who cleared of the Lutheran church, pronounced the vallies, and underwent many privations wife. The groom is well known of frontier life. The present generations Bellefonte as a successful business man, the relatives in many states. Marriage Licenses. Daniel Ziegler - - - State College were driven to Milesburg, where The several rains that passed over John C. McCloskey - - Downey, Idaho they will spend a week or ten days, sections of Centre county in the last Lydia A. Musser - - Millhelm, Pa. their return, they will be at home Willis M. Bottorf - - - Bellefonte

Circus Girl Is Fatally Injured. A crowd of 5000 people at the Fore-paugh-Sells show at York, on Friday, Atlantic City cop, according to the the tent to the ground. She was fatally schedule put in force by the ruling of Recorder Martin E. Keffer. John Turnstrap with her teeth and was half to a

Both arms were broken, and she sus-

An inquirer wishes to have the German name for ginger cake. It is "Leb-Will Hold Memorial Services.

The Odd Fellows of Rebersburg, will hold memorial services on Saturday next, meeting at Tylersville at 2, and at Rebersburg at 6 p. m. Dr. A. E. Gobble, of Albright College, Myerstown, Pa., will be the speaker.

man name for ginger cake. It is "Lebkuchen" and the Germans just know how to bake it, too. It is like the tune "Old Hundred"—good and never gets out of date. In the old days of Volunteer and Militia battalions, "Lebkucha un en glass small beer" were the bill of fare on the parade ground. All the old codgers yet living know that.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

The 28th annual commencement exercises of the Bellefonte High School, class of 1911, took place on Tuesday evening, June 20th, in the New High school

The platform was tastefully decorated with evergreens, potted plants and the American flag, with the class colors, purple and gold, predominating. On the stage were the following members of the class of 1911:

Elsie Altenderfer, Emma Janet Bachman, Gertrude Alice Barnhart, Mar-guerite Blanche Coxey, Bertha May James Millard Hartswick Deitrich, be Lovina Edith Houser, Benjamin Graham Hunter, Henry Keiler, Adaline Florence Kline, Harry Liewellyn Noll, Margaret arising over the grade. He also asked Clare Reynolds, Helen Ceceiia Saylor, Shuey, Anne Bayard Spangler, Mary Elizabeth Straub, Joseph Russell Taylor, Clara Esther Undercoffler, Mildred Car Beulah Grace oline Wetzel, Beulah Grace Woods, Philip Burns Yorks, Homer David Zimmerman. First honors, Anna M. Shuey; second honors, Grace V. Showalter. The program proved an interesting one and was as follows: Invocation by Rev. Fred Barry. Salutatory and Essay by Grace V. Showalter. Class History by B. Graham Hunter. Prophecy by Beulah G. Woods. Valedictory by Anna M. Shuey. Commenceordinance for the macadamizing of east ment Address by Samuel E. Weber, M. Bishop street from its intersection with A., Ph. D. Presentation of diplomas and awarding of prizes by M. J. Locke, M. line, to a width of 24 feet. The ordinance D., president of school board. Benedic-

The following is a list of prizes awardto Anna M. Shuey-$10, by Col. W. F. Reynolds. For senior biographical, to Grace V. Showalter-$10 by estate of the late Hon J. C. Meyer.

For mathematical, to Grace V. Showalter-$10, by Harry Keller, Esq. For U. S. History, 1st, to Anna M. Shuey-$6, by D. A. R. For U. S. History, 2nd, to Clare Reynolds-$4, by D. A. R. For first honor, to Anna M. Shuey-$5 by Dr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Hayes. For second honor, to Grace V. Showalter-$2.50, by Dr. and Mrs. Thos. R.

Hayes. For merit prize, to Clare Reynolds-For special prize (this year), to Elsle Altenderfer-$2.50, by Dr. and Mrs. Thos

For bookkeeping, to Mary Kline— $5.00, by George R. Meek. For spelling, to Marie Welch-$5.00, burgh, Pa.

by George R. Meek.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Hayes have further manifested their generosity by establishing permanent prizes of $2.50 each, to any members of the graduating each, to any members of the graduating three quarters acre. Inquire of R. F. Shaffer, Mrs. Mary Reese. establishing permanent prizes of $2.50 each, to any members of the graduating

At the home of the bride's parents at Port Matilda, on Thursday, June 15, Miss Ella May Jones and Mr. James McCoy Graham, of Newton Hamilton, Pa., were united in marriage by the Rev. S. S. Bergen, of Petersburg. The couple have many warm friends who wish them much happiness throughout their wedded life.

Geist-Stover.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J.

McCloskey-Musser.

John C. McCloskey, of Idaho, and Miss Lydia A. Musser, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Musser, of Millheim, were united in marriage at the home of the bride on Monday last. The bride was formerly a student-nurse at the Bellefonte hospital, and is a very popular young lady. The groom is a telegraph operator by occupation, and after a honeymoon trip to Washington, D. C., the young couple will locate in the state of Utah where the groom is employed.

Dorworth-Cator. Announcement has been made of the marriage of William J. Dorworth, a son and Mrs. E. S. Derworth, and Miss Mary Louise Cator, the event having been solemnized at the home of the ceremony was performed by Rev. Melon D. Clark, pastor of the Greensboro daughter of Mrs. Annie S. Cator, Greensboro. The groom is one of Bellefornte's former young men, who have started out in the world and made good. He graduated from Penna. State Colunion and an association, will be the lege a number of years ago, and since then has been identified with the Proximity Cotton Mills at Greensboro, Bottorf-Garner. On Tuesday, June 20th, at the noon These people spring from the hour, there was a quiet little wedding ing, although long past the number of the forests, were instrumental in found-years usually allotted to man, being aling the rich farms in Penns and Brush and Margaret C. Garner, husband and of the Hostermans and Stovers are having for the past nine years been connected with the John Olewine Hardsturdy integrity and good habits. Go ware Company, of which he now is the the Bellefonte hospital, and a most es-timable young lady. After the nuptial ceremony, which consisted of the beau 40 feet, but this has been gradually L. Frank Hull - - - Philipsburg tiful and solemn ring service of the added to until the present building has Carrie Norris - - - Philipsburg Lutheran church, the bride and groom Bessie R. Reeser - - - State College boarded the train enroute to Atlantic City and Washington at which their return, they will be at home to Spring street where they will reside.

> The Lutheran General Synod. The next biennial convention of the general synod of the Lutheran church in the United States will be beid at Atchi-soh, Kansas, in 1913. This was decided upon at Wednesday's meeting of the synod after being in session in Washington for the past week,

CHARTER NOTICE. CHARTER NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Pennsylvania, on Saturday the 18th day of July, A. D. 1911, at ten o'clock A. M., under the provisions of the incorporation act of 1874 and 11s supplements, for a charter for an intended incorporation to be call. 1874 and its supplements, for a charter for an intended incorporation to be called "THETA PSI FRATERNITY" the character and objects of which are to provide a home for the active chapter of the Theta Psi Fraternity, and for the promotion, of the moral, intellectual and social benefits and advancements of the members of said Corporation; and for that purpose to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by said Act and the supplements thereto.

W. HARRISON WALKER, Solicitor.

Penny a Word Adv.

WANTED-Two girls wanted at the Garman House. 21-tf FOR SALE-2 Fresh Cows. Ammon Gramley Coleville, Bell phone. x25

BEES and scaps, for sale privately. Rishel, near Axemann, Bellefonte.

FOR SALE-Spring wagon, buggy and two sets of barness, at a bargain. Toner Hugg, Milesburg, Pa. FOR SALE:—A good young cow, fresh in May, CHAS. BILGER, Bellefonte, R-2.

FOR S. ..e-Two Durham Bulls, 9 mo color ..d. thorought red. Fire single ness. D. & Soyer, Rebersburg, Pa. FOR SALE:-1500 No. 1 cedar shingles, also some finished lumber, brick, etc., H. L. TRUCKENMILLER, Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR SALE-Fifteen Farms, from 15 to 200 acres, near Tyrone, good limestone soil, some well timbered. For further information in quire of G. C. Waite, Tyrone. Pa.

BARY CBICKS—every week healthy,—pure bred S. C. White Leghorus, also limited num-ber utility bred. Barred Plymouth Bocks, $8.50 per 160. J Fred Best, Hublersburg. x25

FOR SALE—Sorrel horse, 4 years old, weight 1200, fine all purpose horse, T. C. Bartges, Centre Hall, 1½ mile west of Old Fort, Bell phone. 24tf

FOR SALE-Home-made cones, used to make up the delicious Ice Cream Cones, for socials, parties, picnics, etc. Price, 60c per 100. Call or address Haupts Cash Grocery. Bellefonte, Pa.,

FOR SALE—One two-story Double-frame dwelling house, situated on Half Moon Hill in Spring twp, will sell at a bargain to a quick buyer-Rents for $12 per month. Apply to James Toper, Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR SALE—Celery Plants, six dozen for 25 cents, and 50 cents per hundred for natural grown plants; for transplant-ed plants 40 cents per 100. Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Howard.

WANTED-Fifty good healthy steers one to three years old at my Eagleville farm for which I will ray four cents per pound. Samuel Kline the Superintdepent of the farms will give a voucher which will be paid on demand. W. Crider, Rellefonte, Pa.

AGENTS—Men and women to represent us in every town. Our progressive plan is a splendid opportunity for hust-lers. Something new. Write The Har-rison System, Pgh. Life Bidg., Pitts-burgh, Pa. x27 class who maintain an average standling of 90 per cent., or over, whether they are in residence at the high school for four years or for one year.

MARRIAGES.

Reese.

FOR BALE:—Two Hoodan pullets, 1
Hoodan Cockeral, 1 White Phymouth
Rock Cockeral, 1 White Phymouth
Rock Cockeral to Williamsport poultry show of 1909 and 1919. Write for prices. GEO. F. HOY.
Hublersburg, Pa.

Dressmaking and Sewing Wanted. The undersigned is prepared to do dressmaking and plain sewing, including children's clothes, shirt waists, etc. MRS. MATILDA LIEB, Bush Addition, Willowbank St. Bellefonte MERRY-GO-ROUND:—The undersigned's Merry-go-round will be set up at 8now shoe, on July 4th, for the accommodation of all pleasure seekers.

Will also be at the Williams Reunion, at Martha, probably also be at the Bailey-ville picnic and at the Centre County Fair,—this is my first year as owner. EDWARD BAUDIS,

TO PHYSICIANS: Having practice of medicine, I offer my me library, and medical and surgical in-struments at private sale. Instruments include a good cope, amputating case, obstetrical out-t, with sundry minor medical and surgical instruments, all in good order. No further use for them. Must be sold for what they will bring. Call on or address.

NOTE: THOS. C. VANTRIES.

Reliefonte. Pa.

AUDITORS' NOTICE.

In the Orphans Court of Centre county in the matter of the Estate of Harry Imboden, late of State College boro, dec'd. The undersigned an Auditor, appointed to make distribution of the balance of the fund in the hands of the Administrator, to and among those legally entitled thereto, will meet all parties interested at his office in Bellefonte, July 20 1811 at 18 o'clock a m for said pur-1911, at 10 o'clock a. m. for said pur-wm. C. HEINLE.

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that the or-dinances of the borough of Bellefonte and the laws of the Commonwealth of and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania prohibiting the use of torredoes, squib... expiselve canes, fire crackers, blank cart. dges, fire arms and all species of fire works will be strictly enforced in the borough of Bellefonte on and about July 4, 1911. All persons violating any of the ordinances or laws above referred to will be arrested and fined in accordance therewith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have bereunto set my hand and attached the herounto set my hand and attached the seal of the borough this 21st day of June A. D. 1911. JNO. J. BOWER. 45 Acres, 81000, Part Cash.

Near Large Manufacturing Town. This fine little farm, which can be easily worked by one man without assistance, is only 4 miles to a large manufacturing town with trolleys, rallroad and markets; 25 acres is in fertile fields. and markets; 25 acres is in fertile fields, 15 acres in spring-watered pasture, 5 acres in wood; 6-room house, puresparkling water, clean air, good surroundings; owner cannot occupy; only $1990, part eash. For further details and traveling directions to see this and many other lew priced farms near the large cities of the east see page 32, Strout's Farm Catalosue 34, conv free, Station 1406 R. A. Strout, Land Title Bidg., Philadelphia, Pa. Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

Bidg., Philadelphia, Pa.

ERTRAY NOTICE:—The constable of College township delivered to the undersigned, on June 10th, 1811, the following described animal: One bright hay horse with dark limbs. Horse is somewhat rangy and is about four (4) years old. This horse was picked up as an estray at the hitching place near residence of one Charles M. Da'e. of College township, and it is said was tied there by one W. H. Dennison, of near Penna. Furnace. If the owner will costs for feed and attendance and care together with fees and expenses incurred, the same will be sold at public sale at Lemont, as soon as all legal requirements have been comolled with.

I. J. DREESE, Acts. Seev.

Road Supervisors, College Twp. Lemont, Pa., June 22nd, 1911. x28

MARKET QUOTATIONS. Bellefonte-Produce. Butter Eggs 160 Bellefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C. Wagner for grain: Rye

Oats 35c. Clover seed at McCalmont & Co. 87 to $18.

Corn