Thursday, July 13th, 1911.

EFONTE AND VICINITY THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

'-Last week's ardent desire: "O for a lodge in some vast wilderness." -Miss Annie Powers is spending a week with her sister, Mr. Katherine Massey, in Philadelphia. -The repairs on the M. E. church the building on Sunday. -Charles Harrison, of Altoona, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday while en route to State College.

-Jack McCummins left last week for Orviston, where he has secured a position in the brick works. -Mrs. Charles Koontz and daugh ter Irene spent a week recently with friends at State College and Lemont.

-Harris Heylmun, connected with a bank at Pitcairn, Pa., was home on a brief visit for a few days the past week.

-Mrs. William Derstine was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Harper in Centre Hall for a few days recently.

-When you are thinking of buying an automobile, new or second hand, will pay you to step around to Sebring's garage.

-On Monday evening of last week Dr. Jos. Brockerhoff and sister, Miss Mary entertained a party of forty at the Nittany Country club

-Orie Kline and family and Ed. Gharet and family are at Atlantic City the past week and will take in part of the Elks celebration.

-There are some bargains in second hand cars at the Sebring garage, in the Flood City. Turn to the on Spring street. vertisement in another part of this issue.

-A fine young driving horse, 1100 to 1200 pounds, only 5 years old, gentle and fearless; a sound, rangy animal. For sale at the Centre Democrat office.

-Bert Bayard, of the Tyrone Herald, spent Sunday in Bellefonte on account of the illness of his sister, Miss Ursulla, at the Zellar home, on Alleghenv street.

-While driving his Franklin car through a field on Monday night, Curt Wagner straddled a rock that caught his fly wheel and put the engine out of commission.

Officers for the ensuing year work, and is putting on a first class will be chosen on this occasion.

burg, for several months past, is home for the summer vacation. He reports the glass business not very brisk.

-Geo. Beezer delivered à new "Flanders Twenty" runabout to Col. W. Fred Reynolds this week, which he presented to his son Frederick. It is a neat car with graceful lines to the body.

-On Monday Milton Johnson purusing. Mr. Johnson expects to combine business with pleasure in making this investment.

the stork fast Saturday morning John Morrison recently r who left two nice twin girls at No. his 16. The mother is said to be in a ery store, and on Sunday morning, serious condition. -The Bellefonte nimrods who are camping on Fishing Creek, are not making any big catches of trout the The stream is low and past week. clear and the fish are hard to get under these conditions.

--Miss Anna Cherry is a guest of her friend Miss Dobson at Tyrone. -Herbert Gray and Robert Tressler are spending their vacation at Atlantic City.

-Miss Virgie Hummer, of Sunbury, have not all been made in time to use is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Al Stine, at her home on Ridge street.

-Mrs. Susan Lee, of Pittsburg, is spending a few weeks at the her mother, Mrs. Margaret Powel,

-Mr. and Mrs. William Barner and little son Edward spent part of last week with friends in Tyrone and Altoona

-W. Harrison Walker, Esq., was a Pittsburg visitor last Thursday on business connected with his legal practice.

-Mrs. N. B. Spangler spent the past two weeks in Philadelphia where the went to consult a specialist and is improving in health.

-- Everybody in Bellefonte seemed to desire a sane Fourth of July, but the weather man would not co-oper ate: he whooped 'er up with the hottest weather known in years. -Morton Bidwell has returned home from a two months' visit with his sister, Mrs. Vesta Culveyhouse, at Utica, N. Y. Morton says he had fine time, but would rather live in Bellefonte.

-Edward Gates, the right hand man in the Gazette sanctum, spent his midsummer vacation with friends in other people's business? in Johnstown, returning home on

Tyrone, a former Bellefonte boy, ac-Tyrone, a former Bellefonte boy, ac-Tyrone, a former Bellefonte boy, ac-companied by his wife and two chil-

Friday last and are now visiting Sunday and spent the day at the home be "Who is stoning Jesus in Bellefriends and relatives in this place.

Mrs. Louise Bush, accompanied Mrs. evening. Elizabeth Callaway to her home in of the summer. -Carpenter Al Stine and helper are job. visitors the past week, being guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Smith, at Penna. Furnace, and at the parental home Mrs. Smith, Harvey Griffith's, at Axe-mann. They also found time to greet their Bellefonte friends before returning to Beaver Falls. -Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gibbs, of Cin chased the Stanley Touring car which Bush, on south Spring street. Mrs. Decker home, the publisher of this paper had been Gibbs was well known to some of our ______ Gibbs was well known to some of our residents as Miss Sarah Sides, of Jersey Shore. Miss Valeria Shissler, of Detroit, Mich., is also visiting at the bargain.

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Mrs. F. W. Crider.

-The "Economy Jar" is the newest thing out. Sold by Potter & Hoy. 97, with signs of a thunder gust in the afternoon sky. -Jesse Derstine spent Sunday last with his brother Frank in Altoona. -Charles Snoke and little son, of Clearfield, are visiting friends in High street. Bellefonte. -Miss Nellie Harpster spent a week with her grandparents, George Young and family, of Nittany. -Mr. and Mrs. Ross Heckock and family, of Harrisburg, are at the Hastings home for the summer. -Mrs. William McClellen and daughter Sara spent a week recently with Mrs. Blair Yarnell in Snow Shoe. -Mrs. Jane Marshall, after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Lucy Cox, left for his home in Centre Hall.

-W. Harrison Walker, Esq., is pending the week at Rochester, York, at an annual gathering of the shriners.

-Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Harris have issue of the paper, should have read gone to Cape May, N. J., for a two "24 sheets of paper and envelopes for weeks' stay where they will enjoy the 5c." instead of 25c. This makes a rare sea breezes.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Watson and daughter Lucy were the guests of weeks' news into one issue this week, friends in Snow Shoe for several days much local news had to be "boiled during the past week. down" and other articles carried over

-Miss Tessie Houser departed a or omitted. few days ago for her home at DuBois, after an extended visit spent very there was no rain here, except on pleasantly with friends in this place. -Mrs. Nancy Proudfoot and Mrs. 6th of an inch: this was the hot per-Priscilla Jacobs, of Morrisdale, were iod without rain. guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. Edward Klinger, for several days re- ty holding a position in the Agricul-cently. -The big_trout down in the Bellefonte spring, has about two inches of few days ago, to shake hands.

his nose skinned. How does that come, has he been sticking his nose -Miss Bessle Sharp, formerly of Tyrone, a former Bellefonte boy, ac-companied by his wife and two chil-dren, were arrivals in Bellefonte on John Klinger drove to Snow Shoe on his farewell sermon. His subject will of the former's daughter, Mrs. Blair fonte,' -Miss Amanda Tomb, sister of Yarnell, returning to Bellefonte in the 1 -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ball, of Phil-

Elizabeth Callaway to her home in this place last week. The latter has fully recovered from an operation undergone some time ago. Miss Tomb dergone some time ago. Mi ing and fishing.

-Beginning next Wednesday, July few weeks. Breakers have been cut just finishing up a 7000-shingle job 19th, a Sunday school convention of out and much broken stone is being fer and G. G. Pelfer, of Wilkinsburg; of roofing on the house and barn of the eastern district, will be held in put on. This in time will greatly im-the American Lime & Stone company the A. M. E. church in this place. prove the road. We had a safe and sane 4th of time to acquire the habit. A $1 bill, July in Bellefonte, with no injuries due silver, money order or check -Wm. Beezer, who had been work-ing in a glass factory near Pitts-Beaver Falls, were Centre county tions at Hecla Park, Snow Shoe and one year. Tyrone drew many of our people, while others drifted to the woods and mountains to spend the day in quiet and was an over Sunday guest of Mr. and comfort.

-On Monday evening we had a pleasant call from J. V. Twitmeyer, of Rockford, Ill., a former resident, of Spring township. Mr. Twitmeyer is fonte.

a builder and contractor and has -On Wednesday afternoon, while prospered in that city. While in Belle- holding court, Hon. Ellis L. Orvis recinnati, Ohio, were last Sunday prospered in that city. While in Belle- holding court, Hon. Ellis L. Orvis re-guests at the home of Mrs. Louise fonte he was a guest at the Samuel ceived a telegram from Philadelphia for the annual encampment on the her daughter, for several weeks past.

Detroit, Mich., is also visiting at the Bush home, where she will remain as a guest for a month or more. --John Morrison recently resigned his position as clerk in Sheffer's grocfor such a purp -Friday morning last sixteen members of the Boy Scouts, under the you'll not want to miss any. Spend charge of Secretary Weston, of the Y. the evening at the Scenic, the coolest C. A., went lhto camp near Curtin, at an ideal spot of nature known as They remained "Mason's Camp." the until Monday before reluctantly pulland we have every reason to believe ing up stakes and turning homeward. -You haven't any idea of the bargains to be found at the Finklestine 19 and 25 cent store on south Allegheny street, unless you pay that place of business a visit. A good way to keep posted is to read the ads of this store which are found in this paper every issue. You'll find an array of bargains listed this week. past season he has been employed at -Outgrowing his present quarters Port Allegheny, McKean county, and in the Smith building, rear of the expects to return again in September. Haag Hotel, James W. Derr, Jr., this parents on Bishop street. The lawn week moved his broom factory to a building formerly used as a dwelling, -On Thursday arts, or the building formerly used as a furniture young for City, where they visited friends for a few days, and on Sunday were a few days, and on Sunday were street. This will give him more room -Fran to expand, which his increasing business of furniture repairing demands. spent the Fourth with his parents George Eberhart has leased part of the new location from Mr. Derr and -James C. Furst, Esq., bought a in several years, and no doubt the will hiso move his shop to that place. -James C. Furst, Esq., bought a in several years, and no doubt the Mitchell runabout this week from the Kelchline garage, and it will be tharged ward in his hunting and fish-sent. minus his luxuriant crop of whiskers. Just what happened we do not know. Whether the hot weather roasted ginia. them, or the wind blew through them, makes little difference, for they are gone: and now Beck tooks as though he had been to the fountain of youth made himself look ten years younger. and the ladies say twice as handsome as ever. The whiskers are gone, and we miss them. -Clarence G. Harper and family, of department where the paper boxes Lynn, Mass., arrived in Bellefonte on Sunday for a brief visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. machines that are expected to mater-The young man holds a good ially enlarge the capacity of the plant was "graduated from State College Smith, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Bairfoot, this year, was elected to fill the poslwhen they are installed. -Among those from a distance who attended the funeral of the late David Hendershot in this place last lie-Friday were: Rev. Mattern, of Mar-tion is the High School made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Jos. R. Shultz, who taught chemistry, physics and other branches. Miss Levy was elected to find the part tion is the High School made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Jos. R. Shultz, who taught chemistry, physics and other branches. Miss Levy was elected to teach in the schools and at the United Brethren church was -Wednesday afternoon thilleen of the DuBois scouts arrived in Belle-fonte from Philipsburg and were a husky set of dusty, sunburned lads, a little tired but full of ambition to con-tinue their journey to Williamsport. They were aiming to spend the night at the United Brethren church was occupied last Sunday evening by Rev. Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. William Mrs. J. E. Herberling, of Mill Hall: They were aiming to spend the night Mr. and Mrs. William Hendershot, of Tyrone. They all departed for their respective homes on Saturday except Tuesday morning on a round of visrespective homes on Saturday except Tuesday morning on a round of Vis-Mrs. William Hendershot, of Harris-burg, who expects to extend her stay with Mrs. David Héndershot in this place for about two weeks. Mrs. T. B. Lipton stopped off at Milesburg B. Lipton stopped off at Milesburg for a few days visit with her mother it was this fact that promted Mr. Jury to leave for his bedside on Tues-day. After staying at Millersburg filled the pulpit of the Reformed for a few days he will go to Perry church at Aaronsburg, some fifty-five -G. Mac Gramley, of Rebersburg, as in town the past week demon-spending a short period at each place. way home to Creston, Ohio, from a visit with old friends in Nazareth, -The hot weather the past week roasted the oil out of the state road beyond the boro limits leading to Milesburg. As a top dressing or binder, a heavy road oil was used last one. Mr. Gramley delivered a num- fall, and when finished seemed to be ship Georgia. —The 11th annual reunion of the Bellefonte, Nittany valley and Hub-leresburg charges will be held at Hec-la Park, Thursday July 27th. A specleresburg charges will be held at Hec-la Park, Thursday July 27th. A spec-ial train will leave Beliefonte at $:15 a. m. and returning leave the park at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. W F. More, Supt. of Bethany Orph.n's Home, Womelsdorf, Pa., will deliver the ad-dress at 10:30 a. m. determine the second state of the surface is crumbling to pleces. The intense heat of the sun the past week has melted this oil until it collected at the bottom of the road be-sides in streams. Where the road is protected by shade trees it has re-mained in excellent shape.

--Wednesday thermometer up to BURNS :--- Mrs. James Burns, elderly and highly respected lady of -Miss Nellie Cannon, of Holly-Snow Shoe, died at her home in that wood, Pa., is visiting at the home of place on Sunday, July 2nd, from diseases incident to her advanced her sister, Mrs. Doctor Rogers, on years. Her husband preceded her to the grave a number of years ago. Surviving are four sons and three daughters, of whom Frank and Mollie resided with their mother. Mrs. -Mrs. Mary Crider Rath, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and -Miss Helen Otto is said to be Burns was a consistent member of the Catholic church, and was buried in the very ill at her home at Niagara Falls, which is greatly regretted by her Catholic cemetery at Snow Shoe on numerous friends in this place. Tuesday.

-William H. Lucas, of Moshannon, WAGNER:--Mrs. Susan Wagner, was looking up friends, while trans-acting business in Bellefonte and widow of the late Joseph Wagner died and at her home in Blanchard Saturday Coleville on Monday and Tuesday. morning, aged 73 years, of paralysis. -Mrs. Thomas Moore came up from her home at Philadel, nia this week and will spend her summer va-who had lived in Blanchard for many cation with her mother, Mrs Dawson. years. She is survived by the follow--The item in the advertisement of ing children: Mrs. Mary Skillman, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. W. E. Weaver, of the 5, 10 and 25 cent store, in the last issue of the paper, should have read Ridgway; Mrs. Ellen Epley, of Coffey, ville, Kan.; John, of Big Run; David, of Lock Haven; Harvey, of Beech Creek township, and George, at home. Interment was made in the Baptist -Owing to the crowding of two cemetery opposite the home of the deceased.

RECENT DEATHS.

BLACKBURN :--- The old Philipsburg friends of Dr. Isaac W. Black--From June 27th, to July 10th, burn recently received the news of his death, which occurred at Washington, July 7th, when there was less than a D. C., on June 19. He is survived by his widow. The remains were taken to the family home in Bedford county for burial. Dr. Blackburn went to -Col. John Hamilton of this coun-Philipsburg in 1876, a-talented young art student, who forsook the artist's brush for the surgeon's knife. He tural Department at Washington, made a halt at the Democrat office a read medicine under the late Dr. S. F Lytle, and graduated from the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania, an 'honor -Little Virginia Hiller stepped on a needle and it penetrated the foot. man, standing third in his class. He Mrs. Hiller was fortunate in extract-Mrs, Hiller was fortunate in extract-ing the entire needle and thus far no thology, his text books being used in fonte and State College were very much shocked last week to hear of the sudden death of Dr. Shuey, of Prospect, Ohio; his former home was at State College and he was married to a daughter of H. K. Hoy, of Belleadelphia, the latter being well known in Bellefonte as Miss Mina Dawson, ill only about ten minutes with an aton the old college turnpike the past lege. Those who attended the funeral from Pennsylvania, were:

> of near Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hoy were visiting there at the time.

TWITMIRE:-Death once will chose a shining mark in our midst, when it closed on earth the beautiful life of Mrs. W. T. Twitmire at her -Mrs. Ellen Roan, of Los Angeles, home on south Water street, Monday Cal., arrived in Bellefonte this week afternoon. Deceased had been frail health for some time past, which and Mrs. Harry Keller, on Linn street. From here she went to Boalsburg to visit her aunt, Sallie Keller. Mrs. born at Unionville and was a daugh-Roan was born and reared in Belle- ter of Joseph and Ellen Alexander. On March 29th, 1870, she was united -On Wednesday afternoon, while in marriage with Wilbur T. Twitmire, who survives with the following chil-dren: Mrs. J. H. Pickle, of Millersburg; Alton A., of Asbury Park; Mrs. with the welcome news that a grand--Company L of the 12th Regiment of the National Guard of Penna, los cated at Bellefonte, will leave here Orvis has been visiting Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Orvis has been visiting Mrs. Harvey, Lancaster. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mills

Twitmire

W. B. Rankin, of Bellefonte. The body of the deceased was taken to Williamsport and funeral services will be an held this afternoon. Interment take place in the family plot where from his parents are buried.

Penny a Word Adv.

GIRL-16, desires place to work and go to school, Mrs.R.H. Merritt, Juliah, Pa.

BEES and scaps, for sale privately. John Rishel, near Axemann, Bellefonte. 13tf LOST-Monday, on High or north Allegheny street, one dollar bill. Finder please leave at this office.

FOUND- an upper plate, and part of the lower plate of false teeth found on High street. In-quire of Joshua Folk. Bellefonte.

FOR SALE-Two Short-horn buil calves, dairy strain, three months old, five weeks old, good ones. H. A. Meyer, Rebersburg, Pa.

LOST-From Allegheny street to big spring, a long signet pin, with initials "E F." en grav-ed on ends. Reward if left at this office.

LOST-in Bellefonte, on June 16th. Eastern Star Pin. Return to Mrs. B. W. Dedrick, Nit-tany Inn, State College, Pa., receive reward.

FOR SALE Fine Driving horse 5 years old, weight 1150, well broken fearless of automo-biles M. R. Johnson, Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR SALE-Fine young driving horse, 5 years old, weight 1200; safe and sound, fearless of automobiles. Chas. R. Kurtz. Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR SALE-Fifteen Farms. from 15 to 200 acres. near Tyrone. good limestone soil. some well timbered. For further information inquire of G. C. Waite. Tyrone, Pa. x29

FOR SALE—Celery Plants, six dozen for 25 cents, and 50 cents per hundred for natural grown plants; for transplant-ed plants 40 cents per 100. Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Howard.

WANTED-A few ambitious young men for rolling mill work, also some good laborers. Excellent opportunity, good wages and steady work. Apply Sweet's Steel Co., Newberry work. Apply Sw Williamsport, Pa.

AGENTS-Men and women to represent plan is a splendid opportunity for hust-lers. Something new. Write The Har-burgh, Pa. 227

FOR SALE-House and lot, at Nittany FOR SALE-House and lot, at Nittany Hall, at private sale, a 2-story house and lot, with outbuildings, stable, fruit and containing three quarters acre. In-quire of B. F. Shaffer, Mrs. Mary Processory vicinity. Experience unnecessary. No strike. Positions guaranteed competent men-4,866 sent to positions in 1910. State age, send stamp for particulars. George H. Baker, President, Dept. 467-227 Monroe Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

CAUTION. My wife, Mrs. Lizzle Thompson, having left my bed and board, notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any bills, whatever, contracted by her. Robert C. Thompson, Port. Matilda.

BOY

MORE MONEY IN ONE DAY may be earned with me than during AN ENTIRE WEEK in other ways. Applicants must be bright, neatly hands and face. dressed, clean want the MANLIEST boy in the city. Come early prepared for work. J. D. A., of Sunbury, and Dr. Wilbur D. of HUNTER. 6 So. Allegheny street, Bellefonte, Pa.

Page 5.

-Harry Yearick, who has been connected with a large hardware store in Altoona, for the past six years, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Yearick, this week. From here he wort to Buckelow with here he went to Buffalo where he will visit friends.

-Rev. Long preached an instructive sermon in the Olive Branch chapel at Coleville on Sunday morning last, his theme being "The Keeping of the Commandments." The Reverend expects to occupy the same pulpit in three weeks.

-Mrs. Schloss, of Philadelphia, who has been spending some time at the Fauble home, left on Sunday, accompanied by her brother Joe Fauble, who is a prosperous clothing merchant at-Monongahela, for a brief trip to New York City.

used in his hunting and fish- spent. largely ing expeditions. Later he will buy a

Morrison,

Harper. the General Electric when they are installed. position with company and is in charge of the turbines.

-Wednesday afternoon thirteen at Hecla Park.

-Trude Bidwell arrived home this week from Norfolk, Va., where he had been taken ill with an attack of typhoid fever and was in the naval hospital for several months. He islooking quite well-again and after a vacation at his home he will return to active duties in the navy.

-Milton Willard, son of Mr. and falo. Mrs. D. I. Willard, arrived in Bellefonte from Union City on Saturday afternoon and in the future will be in the employ of the Bellefonte Electric company as an electrician. Mr. Willard is an experienced and expert electrical worker, and for a number of years was in the employ of Uncle as an electrician on the battle-accompanied by his wife and child departed for Niagara Falls, where he has secured employment with a large manufacturing concern. John is of the good, reliable kind of young men whose services are always in demand, that he will make good. -Thomas Shaughnessy, Jr., son of Street Commissioner Thos, Shaughnessy, was an arrival in Bellefonte last Monday, to spend his vacation at the home of his parents. "Tommy" is an expert glass blower, and each year when the glass factories close during the hot months, he comes to Bellefonte to enjoy the fishing. The -On Thursday Mrs. D. I. Willard joined by Mr. Willard, starting the next day on_a two weeks' pleasure trip to Buffalo, Niagara Fails and up through Canada. This will be the first vacation Mr. Willard has taken

-Owing to the intense heat the boat for a long journey up the Salt past few weeks there has been prac-River region, where game is scarce. tically no work done at the match -Misses Kathryn McCoy and Lou factory, as they cannot successfully of the Republican office, operate under such conditions. The spent a portion of their week's vaca- intense heat interferes with the comtion in the vicinity of Lemont, pitch- position on the heads drying properly ing hay and doing other rustic stunts owing to so much humidity in the "down on the farm," while incident- atmosphere. Some of the departally acquiring a coat of beautiful tan. ments are busy, such as the printing -Clarence G. Harper and family, of department where the paper boxes before returning to her home at Buf-was in town the past week demonstrating the many good features of the famous Reo car, for which he is the local agent. He had with him a 30-horse power runabout that climb-ed our hills like mad, and made many of our motorists envious to possess his patrons. There are some good feature films in store for you and cleanest and most enjoyable amuse ment place in town.

-E. P. Semple, of Osborne, Kans., district attorney of that city, and his brother E. P. Semple, a hotel keeper, of Uniontown, Pa., were in town over night en route for their former home at Pipe Grove Mills for a brief visit. The later was a mail agent on the Lewisburg & Tyrone R. R. some years ago with headquarters .at Bellefonte. --Little nine-year-old Donald Gettig, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Gettig was the host at a delightful birthday -Outgrowing his present quarters lawn party given in his honor on Tuesday evening, at the home of his was beautifully decorated, upon which the refreshments were served to the young folks, who greatly enjoyed the

-Frank Derstine, of Altoona, came down from the Mountain City and Mr. and Mrs. William Derstine. His wife and two children have also been guests at the home of her parents. Donachy home for some time, depart-ed on Sunday for their home in Vir-lady's enjoyment was held at her home on Bishop street last Sunday Emanuel of Mi Aside from those of the family who in his 89th year. reside in Bellefonte, there were present from out of town: George Smith, wife and child, of Altoona; Thomas occupied last Sunday evening by Rev. cuit, Rev. Winey will be home in time for next Sunday's services, and in the evening. Hymme of Fannie Crosby, the inspired song writer, will be reminiscent chat with the senior edivisit with old friends in Nazareth, Northampton county, and stopped off in Bellefonte to spend several days with Mr. Harper, at his home on south Thomas street. The Reverend has had a delightful round of visiting, and two weeks ago had the pleasure of preach-ing in the church at Schoeneck, from the altar where he was baptised 80 years before.

Additional locals on page 7.

devout member of the M. E. church. of which to all its duties she was ever faithful. She was a graduate of the Millersville Normal school, class of 1866. Water street, conducted by Rev. Ezra Yocum. Interment will be made in-Union cemetery.

PONTIUS :- Samuel Pontius, Nortonville, Kans., died on Monday, July 3. Mr. Pontius was born in Mifflinburg, Pa., November 18, 1824. He was therefore 86 years, 7 months and 16 days old. He was the fifth of a family of nine children. He lived on a farm until he was 16 years of age. Later he was a clerk in a store drawing the munificent salay of $3.00 per month. February 24, 1854 he was married to Miss Lucretia Struble of Zion, Pa. He engaged in the mercantile business at Zion from 1854 to 1871 when he went to Nortonville and settled on a farm. In 1880 he moved to Nortonville and has since been closely identified with the interests and institutions of the town. To Mr. | and Mrs. Pontius were born two children, Joel A., of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Mary Abigail Bates of Nortonville both of whom with his wife survive him, besides he has four grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Mrs. Pontius has been an invalid for several years and at the present time is confined to her bed with a slight -A family reunion of the children attack of pneumonia. She is the last of Mrs. Mary Smith, much to that surviving member of her family. Mr. Pontius is survived by one brother, Emanuel of Mi inburg, Pa., who is > BAILEY :- The news of the sudden death of Rev. Newton S. Bailey, who formerly resided in this place, came as a great shock to his many friends William here on Tuesday, telling as it did of the sad event which occurred at his home at New Paris, Bedford county, on Monday evening. He is said have filled the pulpit at his church the evening before, thus death came very unexpectedly from paralysis of the intestines. He was aged about 55 years and was married. Rev. Balley. before entering the ministry, spent practically his whole life in Bellefonte, where he was known as a clever and versatile newspaper writer. He editor of the Bellefonte Daily News for a long period of years and during that time became widely known throughout central Pennsylvania. Later he launched the "Centre Mag-

Later he haunched the Centre Mas-net," a weekly nwspaper with Prohi-bition ideas, which he edited for a number of years, until its suspension. He was also in the employ of the Keystone Gazette for a long time. Dur-ing all his newspaper career, his pen ever championed the cause of right. Experiencing a call for preaching the gospel of Christ, he entered the ministry of the United Brethren denomination about five years ago. During the time he resided in Bellefonte he remained unmarried and made his home with his mother up until the time of her death. Three years ago he was united in marriage with a lady from the town where he last re-sided. After serving a charge in Cambria county, Nev. Balley was sent by the United Brethren conference to

The undersigned is prepared to do dressmaking and plain sewing, includ-ing children's clothes shirt in the includ-ing children's clothes shirt in the including children's clothes, shirt waists, etc. MRS. MATILDA LIEB, Bush Addition, Willowbank Street. M. Elmore, of Owego, N. Y., and Mrs.

FOR SALE

A Fine Lot of Horses, Mules and Jer-

1 pair of large Bay Horses, an excel-Funeral services will be held lent team; 2 single, bay and brown, both PONTIUS:—Samuel Pontius, of here team 2 single, bay and brown, both for team 2 single, bay and brown, both and to several good work horses; some very fine mules. Also several good Dairy Cows, fine milk-ing stock: 1 fine Jersey bull, 2 very fine here sold at very reasonable prices, if purchased soon. Inquire for information and to see and miles at Milesburg For Works. mals at Milesburg Iron Works.

A DMININISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Estate or Mary K. Whiteill, late of College wp..dec'd. Letters of administration in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Wills of Centre County, Pennsylvania all persons indebted to the said estate are hereby requested to make payment and all persons having claims against said esar e are requested to present the same duly authenticated without delay to Harry Keller. CHARLES W. WHITEHILL. Atty. x32 Admr. Oak Hall, Pa.

AUDITORS' NOTICE.

AUDITORS' NOTICE. In the Orphans Court of Centre coun-ty in the matter of the Estate of Harry Imboden. late of State College boro, dec'd. The undersigned an Auditor, ap-pointed to make distribution of the bal-ance of the fund in the bands of the Administrator, to and among those legal-ly entitled thereto, will meet all parties interested at his office in Bollefonte, July 20, 1911, at 10 e'clock a. m. for said pur-pose. WM. C. HEINLE. Auditor. Auditor.

A CARD. Bellefonte, Pa. July 11th 1917. To the Voters of Centre County: Having announced myself as a candidate for the Democratic nemination for the office of District Attorney for Centre County. I desire to state that if rominated and elected to that off-ce I will move into and occupy, as thy sole off-ice the rooms in the Court Honse fitted up and set awart for the use of the District Attorney, at a very considerable expense to the tax payor at a very consideration at the primaries to be tax pavers of the county, and that I may be found at these offices at all times by persons having business with the prosecuting Attorney. With this anouncment I present my name for your consideration at the primaries to be held beet 50 1011 Very trainer yours

Sept. 30, 1911. Very truly yours. S. KLINE WOODRING.

ESTRAY NOTICE: --The constable of College township delivered to the un-dersigned, on June 16th, 1811, the fol-lowing described animal: One bright bay horse with dark limbs. Horse is somewhat rangy and is about four (4)-years old. This horse was picked, up as an estray at the hitching place near residence of one Charles M. Dale, of Col-lege township, and it is said was tied there by one W. H. Dennison, of near Penna. Furnace. If the owner will not come forward, prove property and pay all costs for feed and attendance and care together with fees and expenses incurred, the same will be sold at public sale at Lemont, as soon as all legal require-ments have been compiled with. I. J. DREESE, Acts. Secy. Road Supervisors, College Twp. Lemont, Pa., June 22nd, 1911. X28

State of the local division of the local div
	FOR SALE
C	1 LL ALT
G00	d House and Lot
Loca	ation: 282 East High Street,
1117251	Bellefonte.
Ap	ply to Mrs. Geo. W. Smith,
	on the Premises.
	Bellefonte-Produce. 16e
	Bellefonte-Grain.
The f	following prices are paid by C.
	white
	White
Wheat,	red 80c.
Wheat, Rye	