FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs-Selected and Original.

RIVAL FISHERMEN.

- A barefoot boy,
- A white birch pole; A can of worms A swimming hole.
- A baited hook,
- A tug and swish; A steady haul, A string of fish.
- A white duck suit,
- A canvas boat; A costly rod,
- A patent float,
- A gaudy fly, A cast and swish; A pretty sight
- But nary fish! -Boston Herald.

Careless .- Two Irishmen, meeting one day, were discussing local news. "Do you know Jim Skelly?" asked Pat. "Faith," said Mike, "an' I do." "Well," said Pat, "he has had his appendix taken away from him." "Ye don't say so," said Mike. "Well, it serves him right. He should have had it in his wife's name."

The Way of the Boy .- A Marquette boy told the teacher that his sister had the measles. The teacher sent nim nome and told him to stay there until his sister got well. After he had skipped joyfully away another boy held up his hand and said: "Teacher, Jimmy Dolen's sisters what's got the measles lives in Imaha."

pocket ever since."

whippings she noticed a large ink spot on the pupil's copy book. When asked what that was, the pupil began to cry and blurted out, "Please ma'am, it's a tear." "A tear," exclaimed the ground to be chopped off with an ax." teacher in disgust at such an attempt to lie out of it. "How could a tear be black?" "Please, ma'am," sobbed the little girl. "It's a colored boy's came into contact with a chair and anything about astrology overturned it. A sudden movement no," said Pat. Then that's the best above, a hurried descent of stairs and part of your life just lost," answered Sikes found himself staring into the Englishman. The second Englishbusiness end of a revolver. "Now, then, hands up!" cried the aroused householder. "What have you stolen?" "Only your wife's pug dog." "If that's all you may sneak out quietly." "Your mother-in-law's parrot." "You minutes later a sudden squall arose and the lost capsized. Pat herea to don't say so! Here's some money for you. Nothing else?" "Your daughter's phonograph." "Good! Here's a dollar for you." "And your son's punching bag." "Splendid! I shall have peace in the house at last. Will you have a cup of coffee with me before you go."

minutes later a sudden squall arose and the boat capsized. Pat began to swim. The Britons, however, could not swim, and both called loudly for Pat to help them. "Do you know anything about swimology?" asked Pat. "No," answered both Englishmen. "Well, be jabbers," replied Pat, "then both of your lives is fost!"

Too Anxious.-Once on a time lonely little boy began praying to the Lord to send him a baby brother. Regularly every night before retir-ing he got down on his knees and offered up his petition. Finally he sug- glad to see their old pastor. gested that he had waited a long time and hoped the Lord would hurry up matters. In a few days the "little brother" arrived. Looking at the baby a little bit, the "lonely little boy" said, 'Gee! He's a great looking thing! Can't talk, can't walk, ain't got any hair, and he ain't got any teeth—he ain't finished! Wish I hadn't been in such a darn hurry!"

minister, a handsome and unmarried Martha Edmiston, left last week for man made his first pastoral call at a ten days' visit to the former's sizthe Fosdick's he took little Anna up in ter, Mrs. Samuel Baisor, at Johnsonhis arms and tried to kiss her. But burg. the child refused to be kissed. She truggled loose and ran off into the next room, where her mother was put-ting a few finishing touches to her addrnment before going into the par-lor to greet the clergyman "Mamma," the little girl whispered, "the man in the parlor wanted me to kiss him. "Well," replied mamma, "why didn't you let him? I would if I were you. Thereupon little Anna ran back into Tall Corn .- A man who had return-Caught.—"John," asked father, "do ed from Kansas after the corn crop you practice on the piano while I am had been harvested says: "Most of away at business?" "Yes, father, every day," replied the boy. "How long grains of corn instead of cobble-did you practice to-day?" "Three stones, while the cobs are hollowed hours." "Well, I am glad to hear that you are so regular." "Yes, sir." "And taken off whole and stood on end, the next time you practice be sure to makes a nice tent for the children to unlock the piano. Here is the key. I play in. It sounds queer to hear the locked the instrument last week and feed man tell the driver to take a dozhave been carrying the kep in my en grains of horse feed over to Jack-pocket ever since." son's stable. If it were not for soft, deep soil here, I don't see how they The Black Tear .- A schoolteacher would ever harvest the corn, as the had on several occasions to chastise a stalks would grow up as high in pupil for being slovenly with her the air as a church steeple. When oks. A day or so after one of these the ears get too heavy, their weight

When Pat Laughed Last .- A short A Welcome Burglar.—The burglar Pat's expense, asked him if he knew

ELECTION FACTS.

Information Which Will be of Interest to Voters of the County. tion house in each precinct in boroughs and townships.

mitteemen or officers can be elected qualified voter at the fall primary.

September 5 and 9-Registry assesthe May registration. September 7-Registry lists to be returned to the County Commission-

September 9-Last day to file petito have name printed upon official ballots. Ten names are required on petitions for city, borough, township or precinct offices. Last day for Commissioners to change polling places for fall election.

September 23—Forms of all ballots to be voted at the primary to be on file in Commissioners' office and open for public inspection.

September 30-Fall primary, from 2 to 8 p. m. October 3-Last day to file primary returns at office of County Commis-sioners. Time expires at noon.

October 4—Commissioners commence at noon to make official count of primary returns.

October 7—Last day to pay taxes to be qualified to vote at the November election. ber election.

October 14—Last day to file ex-pense accounts in office of clerk of courts if primary expenses have been

October 14-Last day to file nomi-nation papers for city and county of-

October 23-Last day to file nomination papers for borough and town-

October 20—Last day for primary expense account to be filed with clerk court if expenses have been under November 7-Municipal election.

December 4-City, borough, town-ship, ward and precinct offices elected on November 7 commence their term. Expense accounts must be filed be-fore oath of office is administered. December 9-Last day to file ex-pense accounts for county office-elect and all candidates not elected.

Killed by Sting of Bee. The sting of a honey bee on Tues-day caused the death of Philip Dusch, farmer living near Lutherburg. Mr. Dusch was working at a hive when he felt a sting on the face. It when he feit a sting on the face. It pained him so that he called to his wife, who came running from the house just in time to see him fall. He was carried to the house and died within thirty minutes and before medical aid could reach him. Just before expiring Dusch said that he had been stung only once. He was 62 years old.

Mamma Would .- When the new time ago two Englishmen on a visit to Ireland hired a boat for the purpose

ONE TRADE THAT'S GOOD

Comparatively few people realize that the business of raising and gath-May 22-Copy of registration of ering ginseng throughout this section voters compiled and banging in elec- of Pennsylvania is a quite important one. Hundreds of people engage in it, July 29—Last day for certificates gardens, but many more being hunters from party chairman to the County and gatherers of it among the wild Commissioners of offices to be filled lands. United States Consul Anderin county and cities. No party com- son, of Hong Kong, reports that there and gatherers of it among the wild party. is an unusual demand for ginseng on year under the new primary the Chinese market at the present Last day to be assessed to be time and the supply is lower now than at any period for several years. The August 5—Last day for Commis-sioners to publish notices of offices to were less than they have been during This includes all offices- any year since 1906. The imports of county, city, borough, ward, town-ship and precinct.

In the day of the county, city, borough, ward, town-ginseng into Hong Kong from the United States of recent years have August 30—Last day to pay taxes to constituted practically the whole imports of ginseng into the colony from all sources. In 1908, the total imports were 146,845 pounds, sor at the polling places in boroughs United States sent 134,290 and prev-and townships to receive applications lous to that year Korea and Japan voters and register and revise furnished some of the imports.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

John I. Thompson et exrs to Sarah Elizabeth Weiland, June 19, 1911, tract of land in Potter twp.; $800.

John Hamilton et ux to John Albert

Musser, July 1, 1911, tract of land in College Twp.; $410. David Burd et ux to Luther M. Stover, May 25, 1911, tract of land in Haines Twp.; $35, W. C. Bierly exr to Sarah Bierly, Jan. 20, 1911, tract of land in Miles Twp.; $800. T. Frank Mayes et ux to Henry F. Evey, July 17, 1911, tract of land in College Twp.; $1800.

Rush Twp.; $1.

Arthur Y. Casanova et al to Wm.
Shaw et al, Dec. 22, 1893, tract of land in Rush Twp.; $65.

Dr. Hugh Pitcairn Dead.

Dr. Hugh Pitcairn, of Harrisburg, president of the Altoona Tribune Co., ormer United States consul general to Hamburg, Germany, at one time connected in an Important capacity with the Pennsylvania Railroad company, died Wednesday of last week, at Hamburg, whither he had gone in the interest of his health. He was aged Moyer's Music School. $38.00 will pay for board and tuition for a six weeks' course of music in olce and all instruments. The Director has had many years of experience as head of musical departments in several Eastern Colleges. Pupils well cared for. Fall terms begin Sept. 4th, and Oct. 2nd.

For particulars, address
Miss Anna J. Moyer, Director, Freeburg, Pa.

Do you know that you can get ice cream at wholesale and retail in all flavors promptly from the Milesburg ice cream factory that is operated by

OVER THE COUNTY.

to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pearce, of State College.

Two Jersey bulls were sold in Missouri, the other day, for $13,000 and $10,000 respectively. Both are going to other states.

Rev. A. A. Black spent last week in and around Pine Grove Mills, renewing old acquaintances among his former parishioners, who were extremely

The tenant houses owned by the Refractories company, at General Sandy Ridge, are undergoing extensive improvements in the way of new weatherboarding, plaster and pain.

George Smith, formerly of Centre Hall, who is now holding a position at Morganza reformatory, near Pittsburg, spent a short vacation with Millheim. his relatives in this county recently.

Miss Luetta Edmiston, of State/College, accompanied by her niece, Mary

R. B. Spangler, of Barnsboro, was a nic in Chaney's Grove, about one mile west of Port Matilda and a cordial home of his mother, Mrs. Susanna invitation is extended to everybody to Spangler. Mr. Spangler is interest- attend. ed in a large milling industry in

At a meeting of the Loganton school foot six-inch blacksnake in his horse oard recently, Miss Prudence Boone stable, helping itself to a mess of was elected teacher of the intermediate school, the only school which had handle. been supplied with a teacher at the former election.

tre Hall, returning to Altoona last Boalsburg. week, where she will teach one of the Eight in chools the coming term.

Mrs. Mary Noll, of Hammond, La., sister of Jacob Sprow, of near Centre Hall, is visiting in Centre Hall at present. She was accompanied by that her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Jung, of flood. Amite, La., and they expect to remain north until October.

tant Episcopal church at State Col-lege. The edifice will occupy the the call made him some time ago by corner of Foster avenue and Frazier the Refo street, and work thereon will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Hazlehurst farm near Philipsburg, shot a horned owl which had taken that section of refuge in a tree near the chicken year Landlord I house one night recently. It measuralive stood 23 inches high.

Tom Slinger, of Barnesboro has the litical bee buzzing in his bonnet, and is out for the Republican nominagot his training in the duties of American citizenship in Philipsburg.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Buffale, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moch, of Philipsburg, passed through Bellefonte on Monday of last week in Hiram Thompson, and with Capt. J.

Three new fraternity houses are indergoing erection at State College entering the Presbyterian ministry. at present. Mrs. James Lytle is build-

A three-day trip from Reedsville to was recently made by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Yodder and Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings, residents of former place, who drove across the Seven hills to Penn Cave, returning by way of State College and Pine Grove Mills via McAlvey's Fort. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by the Evangelist Minnie Kline, of Centre Mills, will conduct religious services in Moyer's Grove, at Colyer, on Saturday and Sunday evenings, July 29th and 30th," at 8 o'clock and on Sunday 30th at 10 a.m. in the Reformed church, at Tusseyville. There will be no services in the grove on Sunday during the day, on account of the service in the church.

A team of mules, belonging to James Gramley, recently ran away while hauling grain at Madisonburg. A young son of William Rishel was riding one of the mules at the time and when the wagon collided with a telephone pole, the mule on which the boy was riding, fell to the ground pinning the boy beneath. When re-leased it was found that the young man's leg was broken.

Forest fire laid barren the greater portion of the second mountain south of Loganton on Sunday of last week. seen from the large volumes of dense age to young timber was done, mostly on state land in the White Deer sec-tion, known as the Schade mountain. The men employed in fighting the flames were aided to a successful termination by the downpour of rain west, rented a farm, and later pur-chased a 320-acre farm, which he sold afterward. He now owns, clear of debt, a well-stocked 180-acre farm. He is prospering very nicely, and likes he is situated.

$6.00 Round Trip

George Garbrick, spent a few days with his parents D. W. Garbrick's, at Boalsburg.

A little daughter was born recently Saturday, August 5th, is the day set for holding the Rachau family reunion at Penn Cave. All friends of this family are invited to attend.

Prof. J. A. Hunter, who is connected with the Colorado university at Boulder, is spending his vacation with relatives in State College and Stormstown.

James N. Leitzell, of Benton, Wis. has returned to Centre county to look after his property interests at Spring Mills. While in Wisconsin Mr. Leitzell resided with his son, Dr. P. W.

Frank Hartman, who is employed at Sparrows Point, Md., is spending his vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hartman at The watering trough in the gap along the pike across Nittany mountain which was torn away by a flood, is soon to be replaced by the pike company. The Black Oak United Brethren Sunday school will hold a union pic

Amos Karstetter, of Big Valley, near Lewistown, Pa., caught a sevenfresh eggs, and killed it with a fork

Frank Stewart and family returned to their home at Christiana. Lancas-Miss Anna Stover, of Altoona, spent several weeks at the home of her sisspending a few months at the home of the Hall return for the Hall return f

Eight inches of rain in Nebraska, within a few hours, the other day, gets ahead of any downpour ever in this county. The Centre countians in that faroff western land must have thought that there was to be a second Noah's

By reason of an increase of salary orth until October.

Workmen last week began excavat- tion, Rev. Charles F. Freeman, of ing for the erection of the new Protes- Summit Hill, has decided to remain Reformed congregation of Cen-

Old Fort Hotel, conducted by Ed-Riley Jackson, who resides on the ward Royer, has become a very popular hostlery for people who travel in year Landlord Royer served 5526 meals, and the record since February ed 52 inches from tip to tip and when of this year has been about fifteen hundred, a decided increase.

Mrs. Robert Moore and daughter Miss Elizabeth, have returned to their home at Philipsburg after a visit with tion for county commissioner of his friends and relatives at State College, adopted county for Cambria. Tom Mrs. Moore contemplates moving to Mrs. Moore contemplates moving to State College this fall, to make a home there for her son Edward, while he acquires an education at this institu-

Rev. I. Sturger Shultz, a son of Rev. J. S. Shultz, the latter a former pas-Mr. Mock's touring car, en route for tor on the Centre Hall United Evan-State College, where they spent part gelical charge a number of years ago, of the day with the Doctor's brother is now a student in the Grove City College, Pittaburg district. The young man will take a theological course in

Mrs. W. E. Park, of New Milford, ing a large house on west College avenue, the estimated cost of which is $10,000, for the Sigma Nu's; William Foster, of Lewisburg, is building one for the Ecclesia fraternity, and Mrs. Robert Garis one for the Sigma Rho's, A three day to form Parallel to Centre Hall in a Maxwell Robert Garis one for the Sigma Rho's, friends throughout Centre county Mrs. Park will remain at her parental

> On June 29th the farmhouse of W. T. Miller, one mile east of Julian, burned and the family escaped with nothing but their clothing. neighbors took the family many donations were Union county (Mr. Miller's former home) Philadelphia, Bellefonte, Julian. Unionville and neighbors, which Mrs. Miller and family are, truly thankful, and they ask God's blessing on them all. To add to Mr. Miller's loss, only ten days after the fire, a horse valued at $200, died.

The farming operations of the brothers Shook,—Ralph H. and Gross -in Gregg township, are attracting considerable attention of late, in fact to such an extent that the Pennsylvania Railroad company in the compiling of an elaborate book on the subject of farming are using a number of Illustrations made from photographs taken of the Shook brother' well-de-veloped fields and their high grade cattle. Messrs. Shook are the sons of E. H. Shook, and are young men of rare ability and progressiveness.

The recent welcome showers have given the corn and potatoes a fine boost, and there will be a fine crop of these from the present outlook. The fire burned flercely as could be ter the first shower, some ten days ago, the corn fields adorned themsmoke rising over the crest of the selves with tassels from every stock first mountains. Considerable dam- as proof of welcome to what the as proof of welcome to what the shower did. Other showers since added thereto and the ground has the moisture to assure a plenty of corn. The rain last Sunday night fell to the depth of over half an inch. Potato patches are also showing up well.

The season for picnics, of all de-Penna Match Co. to Penna Match Co, July 11, 1911, tract of land in attended the funeral of the late Emanare in full bloom now all around, and uel Musser, at Aaronsburg, were Mr. are real enjoyable affairs. The num-Bellefonte; $587,401.97.

John Ibberson, et ux to William Shaw, May 22, 1897, tract of land in Rush Twp.; $1.

Arthur Y. Casanova et al to Wm.

Arthur Y. Casanova et al to wm. erings are as a rule, conducted with greatest orderliness, refined enjoyment, an absence of rowdyism and in He is prospering very nicely, and likes temperance. Decorum is observable the section of the country in which chroughout, with every aim for healthful enjoyment for all participants.

$5.75 Round Trip

Atlantic City

Cape May

Wildwood, Ocean City, Anglesea, Sea Isle City.

Holly Beach, Avalon, Stone Harbor.

NEW JERSEY

FROM BELLEFONTE

TICKETS GOOD RETURNING WITHIN TEN DAYS

STOP OVER ALLOWED AT PHILADELPHIA

For full information concerning leaving time of trains, consult

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

They last a lifetime. They're Fireproof-Stormproof-Inexpensive - Suitable for all kinds of buildings. For further detailed information apply to Local Dealers or Cortright Metal Roof ing Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Pure Groceries and Food Products.

TEAS-With the coming of Summer the old Standard Hot Weather Beverage Tea will be in demand. Most Teas now are used blended, but we take no chances on buying. Blended Teas. Do our own blending right here in the store. Use only New Crop Goods of Good Value and Finest Flavor, not merely thrown together but compounded so as to drown the separate flavor of each and produce a new and true blend. Try our 60c blend for either hot or iced tea. If you want something fine go the 80c goods and if you are willing to go still higher, one dollar per pound will more than please you. We carry a fine line of Straight Teas-Formoss Oolong, Ceylon, Japan, Young Hyson, Gun Powder, Imperial-Several Grades of each kind on all "Our Lines" of Teas. 5c per lb. off on sales of one pound or more.

COFFEES-Coffees have not changed in value recently but we look for an early moderate decline. Our 23c and 25c goods are the best values of anything now offered.

OLIVES-We have just opened some olives that are worth your attention. Large, bright, perfect fruit at 10c per half pint, 20c per pint and 35 per qt. for sales of one qt. or

PICKLES-Dills: Sweet and Sour. New full Cream Cheese 18c per 1b. Fruits and Biscuits are in demand just now and we always have them in abundance. If you want some nice, bright country dried Apples we have them. Finest Hams and boneless breakfast Bacon at Bush House Block, Sechler & Company, Bellefonte.

The Economy Jar

No other Jar seals like it No other Jar opens like it No other Jar keeps like it A Jar that is easy and sure to seal No Rubber ring to leak or rot, or mold A Jar that will remain air-tight forever A Jar that costs less in the end than any

A Jar that is easy to fill because of the wide mouth-easy to open, and easy to Try It and You Will Use No Other.

The Potter-Hoy Hardware Co, Bellefonte, Pa.

HOSIERY THAT REPEATS

You might flim-flam a customer on a flying machine, for you may never have, occasion to sell him another; but you can't afford to sell him hosiery on THAT basis

If you want his hossery business, you must sell him the kind that "repeats", the kind that wears so that he hurries right over to get another dozen pairs. THAT'S JUST THE KIND WE SELL.

Drop in our store any day now and let us show you the new patterns and all the new shades in light, medium and heavy weights.

Get hosiery that repeats.

MINGLE'S SHOE STORE,

BELLEFONTE, PA.

HARRY FENLON,

INSURANCE

BELLES ONTE, PA TEMPLE COURT