ADVENTUF 5 OF YOUTHFUL WANDERERS

THEY STRUCK OUT.

Their Purses Were Small But Their Ambition Was Great-Got as Far as Reading-Picked up by Police-Anxious Parents Were Uneasy.

Tuesday could not furnish sufficient to be very timid, and always closed excitement for five Bellefonte youths, so they decided to came disgusted with the others 'ac. etery. of the crowd continued by fast freight on to Tamauqua, and then to Reading.

In the meantime there were some anxious parents in Bellefonte, and word was sent out to surrounding towns for the police to be on the lookout for the Tressler and Bathurst returned home of their own accord, while Schad was held in Reading until Chief-of-Police Dukeman was notified and the latter went to Reading on Sunday and returned Monday with the boy. Fisher failed to get nabbed, and so far as could be learned, his whereabouts are unknown.

Evidently the trip was all planned by the boys in a spirit of mischief, but it is a serious proposition to the parents, and presents a problem in the lives of the youths that needs speedy solution.

BORO AUDITORS.

Enerty Council to Recover Sums Paid the Solicitor. The Bellefonte Boro Auditors have taken up the matter of instituting legal proceedings to recover several items paid the Boro Solicitor, in addition to his fixed salary for what was considered special services. Counsel has been engaged and the facts and the law in the question are being carefully investigated after which some definite form of action will be taken. We commend the Auditors in this matter as for some time the public has been made to believe that council allowed Mr. Mit-chell certain sums of money to which he was not legally entitled, as he was paid a fixed annual salary to cover-all such services.

There appears to be some grounds for difference of opinion on this point. We believe in definitely settling all such disputes by submitting the same to the court for a ruling. We feel sure that if Mr. Mitchell finds that he is not entitled to pay for his "special" services he will willingly refund the same. On the other hand the Auditors and council will be equally willing to allow Mr. Mitchell whatever the court finally may decree.

A much similar case regarding the pay of a county solicitor came up in Union county and finally Judge Harold McClure, in an able and exhaustive opinion, ruled that solicitors, who are under contract at a fixed salary are not entitled to extra compensation for special services. This opinion of Judge McClure has attracted wide attention for the clearness in which he defines the duties of various county officials, and solicitors espe-cially. As Judge McClure's opinions are regarded in high favor by the legal fraternity for clarity and sound reasoning, we published that opinion some time ago for the general information it contained, and it received much favorable comment and discussion throughout this county.

lectors especially, as it relates to the about without experiencing considercollection of taxes under the new school code on which there is some misunderstanding and considerable difference of opinion. The school board of Snow Shoe Boro put the question up to D. F. Fortney, Esq., of Bellefonte, for his interpretation of the law. As Mr. Fortney is considered a well informed man on all school questions, and the law as well, his conclusion in the matter are worthy of consideration. As other districts may be in doubt as to the question, Mr. Fortney very kindly agreed to furnish the Centre Democrat with a copy of his opinion in this instance for the general information of other boards.

Wrong Impression Corrected.

We are informed by Superintend-ent Warfield that there really has been no increase in rates on the Central railroad of Pennsylvania, as published by the Bellefonte Republican. In accordance with the Act of Assembly the rates were reduced to two cents per mile, but the law was later declared unconstitutional, and the inter-state commerce commission directed the railroads to return to their former tariffs of 21/2 cents a mile, which the Central railroad is now doing, and which all other railroads have already done. Mr. Warfield also says that the statement to the effect that his company expects to increase the regular excursion rate to Hecla park, next season is erroneous. The slight increase was for the Business Men' picnic only.
