

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Ebbs Shultz, of Curtin, was greeting friends in Bellefonte this week.

-Jack Heaton, of Runville, was circulating in Bellefonte on Saturday.

-Charles and Annabel Krumrine are visiting their grandma in Williamsport.

-Miss Heaton, of Yarnell, visited his father-in-law, James A. Stine, at Coleville, Saturday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beezer and son Herbert went to Philadelphia this week for a brief visit.

-Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler went to Philadelphia, on Sunday, to be gone for several days.

-Miss Lucy Spotts has returned home after a delightful ten days trip to Atlantic City and Bethlehem, Pa.

-Dr. Andrew Leiser, of Lewisburg, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday and witnessed an operation at the hospital.

-Dewey Davis returned to his home at Coleville on Sunday after a two weeks' visit with his brother in Johnstown.

-Miss Louise Hoffer, of Phillipsburg, daughter of C. U. Hoffer, is spending a few days at the home of her uncle, C. T. Gerberich, on Thomas street.

-Finklestine, the hustling merchant in the Alken Block, announces an important sale this week where you can get big values for your money.

-Henry Tibbens, of east Howard street, has been confined to his home a portion of the past week with threatening attacks of rheumatism.

-Mrs. Chas. Ketchik and her sister, Mrs. J. O. Brewer, left on Wednesday for a three weeks' visit at their parental home in Kirkville, N. Y.

-Misses Mary Knisely and Mary Osmer have returned home after a pleasant ten-days' visit at the home of their cousin, Miss Luella Fulton, at Tyrone.

-Miss Emma Shatzer, one of Lewisburg's most estimable young ladies, returned to her home on Tuesday after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eckenroth.

-James Lehr, of Philadelphia, who has been spending some time at Centre Hall, his former home, was an over Sunday guest of his relative, Mrs. Mary Smith, on Bishop street.

-Bliss Alkey fell from a beam into an empty lime stone bin at No. 27 mill, Armer Gap, on Wednesday of last week, spraining his ankle and injuring his right arm. His injuries are not of a serious nature.

-The ladies of the U. B. church will hold a festival in the church annex on Saturday evening next, where you will find on display and for sale a fine assortment of cakes, pies, rolls and bread, in addition to being served with ice cream.

-Miss Julia Bidwell spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bidwell, of this place. She returned to Pittsburgh on Monday afternoon where she holds a good position in the printing department of the Westinghouse Electrical Co.

-George Shearer, formerly of Centre county, and who a number of years ago was employed at the Brockert-Hoff House, was Bellefonte visitor last week. Mr. Shearer is now a resident of Chicago, and reports business a little slack in the Windy City at present.

-An enjoyable festival was held on the lawn of the Methodist church at Coleville on Saturday evening, about $3 being cleared. A social justice was the lucky person to receive a box containing a wax doll and a quantity of fruit, chanced off during the evening.

-Harry Barnhart, who for several years has acted as bookkeeper in the A. E. Schad plumbing establishment, has moved with his family to Steubenville, Ohio, where he has secured a job as conductor on a street railway. They left for their new home on Saturday.

-Among those from a distance who were in Bellefonte this week to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Hugh McGovern were, Mr. and Mrs. John Tolen, of Mt. Carmel, and Mr. Michael McLaughlin, of Conneville, the latter being the only surviving brother of the deceased.

-Mrs. Harold Stevens, nee Miss Anna Stacey, and her little daughter, of Newberry, Pa., are visiting at the William McElhattan home. Mrs. Stevens, before her marriage, was an expert linotype operator at this office, and while here could not help but stop in and take a good look at the machine she so deftly handled for us.

-Charles Kozitz, the blind tobaccoist, whose store occupies the rear of Mr. Brandman's lot on Bishop street, this week moved further down the same street to the room formerly occupied by Roan's grocery. After the new Brandman building is erected Mr. Kozitz will go to the corner basement room which will make a very desirable location.

-This week the pavement in front of the Reynolds building began to give away and pedestrians were a little cautious in passing by there, as it was but a short time ago that the adjoining pavement in front of Sim Baum's store dropped and left a large hole ten feet deep that might have buried a man in dropping. The walls of the building show some signs of settling again and may compel them to tear out the front and put in a secure foundation. About ten years ago the building showed signs of weakening and had to be rebuilt. It is quite likely that there is a seam of open rock along that part of the town, and the water that courses along carries away the soil in time, and is the cause of this trouble.

-This week Nelson Robb moved his household effects from Zion to State College, where they expect to make their permanent home, as Mr. Robb has accepted the position of Assistant Cashier of the bank at that place. For a number of years Mr. Robb was connected with the American Union Telephone Company and resided at different points, the last being in Mississippi, which did not prove congenial to him. His object in locating at State College was largely due to the fact that it gave him an excellent opportunity to give his children a first class education, and have them at home at the same time. This makes three of the Robb boys connected with leading banks in this county, the other two being, Edward in the First National Bank, and J. H. with the Bellefonte Trust Company and all are making good.

-Joseph Mills, employed at Mill Hall, spent Sunday with his family who reside in Collins row.

-Walter McClellan returned home Saturday from a week's visit with friends in Tyrone and Bellwood.

-J. A. Gettig, of Bradco, spent the week end at the home of his brother, S. D. Gettig, on Bishop street.

-Andrew S. Musser, of Aaronsburg, and cute little daughter, were callers and inspected the Democrat office.

-Miss Cora Corman, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Miller, on east High street.

-Mrs. William Wolf departed on Monday for Altoona where she will spend some time visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Frank Zeigler.

-Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Erb were Bellefonte visitors for a short time on Monday while enroute from Altoona to their home at State College.

-Attorney Fred Betz, wife and children, of Clearfield, were a pleasant party who autoed to Bellefonte on Monday in their large touring car.

-W. R. Galfort, 108 East Curtin street, is forming a shorthand class to open, September 4th. Those wishing to join will please apply at once. $34

-Henry Fox, the shoemaker, moved his household goods on Monday from north Water street to the rooms above Dr. Fisher's office, on Allegheny street.

-Ellis Shaffer, who very efficiently looks after the business interests of the Ward House, at Tyrone, greeted friends in Bellefonte on Friday while on his way to Penns valley.

-Miss Josephine Masden, who for some time past has been employed as seamstress with Mrs. Mitchell Leib, of Bush Addition, has gone to Williamsport to follow her vocation.

-Mrs. Alpheus Wolf, of Camden, N. J., was an arrival in Bellefonte on Monday afternoon and will spend some time at the home of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. David Barlet and family, on Thomas street.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Irwin, of Buffalo, N. Y., are here on a two weeks' visit to the parents of the latter, Jorman Miller's, on Bishop street. They are pleased with their home in the big city on the lake.

-Miss Lizzie McGowan, who for some time has been employed as bookkeeper in the store of Sim the Clothier, has accepted a similar position with the Cato Coal Company at Cato, Pa., and left last Monday to assume her duties.

-Louis Carpeneto, the Allegheny street merchant, left town over a week ago for the purpose of breaking away from business for about a month in the hope that the change will bring a measure of relief to his health. For some time past he has been complaining and has not been feeling like a well man.

-There are some auto operators that exceed the speed limit in this town, especially dangerous is this when crossing the diamond and in its vicinity, where the pedestrians are numerous coming from five directions. This violation of the speed limit is not confined to male operators either.

-The Women's Auxiliary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. will hold an exchange in the association building on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m. when a great variety of eatables will be on sale such as beef and veal loaf, bread, pies, biscuits, pickles, chowchow, cakes and a variety of other delicacies. $24

-Mr. and Mrs. David Garthoff returned to their home at Lock Haven on Friday after a few days spent at the home of John Garthoff, on Reynolds street, who has been called to Bellefonte to attend the funeral of Mr. Garthoff's mother, whose sudden demise occurred on Monday morning of last week.

-Next Monday, Labor Day, the big L. O. O. F. picnic will be held at Hunters Park, and all preparations have been made for the enjoyment of those who will attend. Among the prizes which will be a merry round, which has been placed on the grounds by Ed. Baudis, and which will be in operation all day on Monday.

-After a pleasant visit of several weeks spent in Bellefonte at the home of her father-in-law, John G. Dubbs, in Bush Addition, Mrs. John Dubbs, Jr., and four interesting boys, departed on Saturday in company with her husband for Cumberland, Md., to visit a short while before returning to her home in Trenton, N. J.

-After a pleasant two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Gettig, this place and other friends throughout the county, Mr. David N. Wolf and son, Oscar N., departed for their western homes on Monday. The former lives in Wisconsin and the latter in Illinois, and while they may appear to reside state wide apart, yet their respective homes, at Monroe and Winslow, are close enough for Sunday visiting.

-Architect Robt. Cole is preparing the approved plans for a nurses' home to be erected in connection with the Clearfield hospital. The home will cost over $10,000 and will be a memorial from the brothers of the late Harry Kurtz, who left a large estate, recently, at that place. He was a brother of William Kurtz, who at one time conducted a stationery store here in Bellefonte, but was no relation to the publisher of this paper.

-In the Bellefonte United Evangelical church the services will be of unusual interest next Sunday. In the morning the pastor, Rev. J. F. Hower, will preach on the subject, "Does It Pay to Be a Christian." At the evening service, Rev. I. P. Patch, D. D., District Superintendent of the Altoona District of the "Anti-Saloon League" will be the speaker. His subject will be "The Liquor Oppression and the Commonwealth's Emancipation." All are invited.

-On Sunday afternoon Arthur R. Kimpfort had a real surprise sprung on him at his home on Curtin street. He had just passed through the dining room at his home when the ceiling dropped late enough to miss him and that was the only part that tickled him. The cleaning up that followed was a mess that would make a good deacon in the front pew swear like a trooper, but it is said that Kimpfort maintained that mellow temper throughout for which he is noted.

-Last Friday Rev. Dr. Schmidt and family returned home after spending two weeks at Ocean Grove.

-Sammy Williams is still wearing his Sunday clothes and dealing out wall paper from the basement.

-The little one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rote, of Coleville, is seriously ill with cholera infantum.

-Mrs. John Ammerman, of Spring street, and little son Floyd, departed on Saturday for a visit with friends in Jersey Shore.

-Thos. J. Mitchell, Esq., says it is even difficult for him to buy a postal card, even get a pleasant look, at a certain place in town.

-Joe Lose, formerly of Bellefonte, and an expert on matters electric, came down from Altoona on a short business trip on Tuesday.

-Robert Sheffer departed on Wednesday for Johnsbury, where he will remain for an indefinite time if the town sizes up to his satisfaction.

-Mrs. Geo. B. Johnson and children, of Beaver Falls, Pa., are visiting at the Aiken's home, on Allegheny street, Mrs. Johnson's former home.

-Dr. W. W. Feidt was home over Sunday from Philadelphia, where he is taking special courses for a number of the large medical institutions.

-Miss Beulah Dale was an arrival on the 8:20, Friday night, for a two weeks' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dale on east Bishop street.

-Next Sunday representatives of the Anti-Saloon League will occupy the pulpits of a number of our churches, making a presentation of the League's work.

-Miss Lottie Robb, who has been ill the past two weeks with an attack of diphtheria, is recovering and will soon be able to be about when the usual quarantine is lifted.

-Jerome Dale came down from Renovo, where he is employed in the shops, and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Dale and sister who is here from Flushing.

-Mrs. Thos. Tubridy, of Moshannon, formerly Miss Ella Morrison, was a Bellefonte visitor this week, attending the funeral of the late John Caldwell on Wednesday morning.

-Harry Baum, who efficiently assists in the successful operation of the Sim the Clothier store, departed on Wednesday afternoon for Francisville, Ind., to spend a month or longer.

-Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Foreman and children left on Wednesday for Philadelphia to spend a few days with a relative, and incidentally Mr. Foreman will look after his political interests in that section.

-The offering last Sunday morning at the Harvest Home service in the Reformed church amounted to $22 for ministerial relief. The fruits, flowers and vegetables were sent, as usual to the Bellefonte hospital.

-John Connor, of Philadelphia, has been visiting friends in Bellefonte and throughout the county the past week. "Johnny" was one of Bellefonte's good citizens in the days when the nail works was in operation.

-George S. Houser, a former resident in Michigan, with Mrs. Houser, were callers, having arrived in Centre county, visiting friends, about three weeks ago, and left yesterday leaving their future home in Freeport, Ill.

-When you have an item of local news don't hesitate to give it to us either in person, by mail or by telephone. We want the news, and a little assistance in this way will be appreciated not only by us but by our readers.

-Mrs. Henry Claybaugh and daughter, Miss James Merritt, who have been guests at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, on Penn street, will depart today for their respective homes at Huntingdon.

-We are glad to see that J. Henry Wetzel, the new boro engineer, is making a good start on our streets by crossing the centre of the roadways that the water will readily flow to the sides and be carried away by the gutters and sewers.

-Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, was in town on Wednesday. He is not averse to hearing his name mentioned as an aspirant for legislative honors. As that is some time ahead he would not make a definite statement regarding the matter.

-Mrs. John Kremer, of Trafford City, Miss Ida Sharp was an arrival in Bellefonte last week with her three little children, and is now a guest at the home of Amos Garbrich in Coleville. She will visit other friends in the county before returning home.

-Mrs. Edward Franks, who with her little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, have been the guests of the late six months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, on Penn street, will leave this morning for Pittsburgh, where she will make her future home.

-An interesting talk was given at the Bush House on Tuesday evening on coal by representatives of Lacawanna Coal Company, who own large areas of valuable coal land in West Virginia which they hope to develop on a large scale, and are soliciting subscriptions in this section for that purpose.

-The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will conduct an automobile trip from Bellefonte to Milesburg and return, on Thursday evening 31st inst. The cars will assemble at the residence of Miss Mary Thomas on Allegheny street, at 7 o'clock. Round trip 10 cents. The run will continue as long as passengers can be secured. Everybody is invited, and a pleasant evening for all is anticipated. Ice cream and cake will also be served at the home of Miss Thomas.

-The fellow who runs the Bellefonte Hospital ambulance through the town at late hours of the night with the gong ringing loud enough to startle people unnecessarily out of their slumbers, should be awarded a nice leather medal. Gongs on ambulances in a town of this size are more or less of an unnecessary nuisance for some thoughtless drivers to use as a plaything. In a number of instances we have known of persons being seriously disturbed by the sound of this gong. We hope that this gentle reminder will have the desired effect on whoever is in the habit of making the noise when the ambulance passes along the streets that are seldom so congested or is the price so swift of the teams, that everybody for several blocks should be started at their coming. Even for the comfort of a suffering patient more consideration should be shown.

-The next important attraction will be Grange picnic at Centre Hall, September 9th, to the 15th.

-J. L. Dale is attending the Williams Grove Grangers picnic, one of the representatives of this section.

-The Potter-Hoy Hardware Company want you to inspect their new Economy fruit jar, on exhibition at their store.

-Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Clark, spent Sunday at Beech Creek, Mr. Clark at the home and Mrs. Clark with her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Few days.

-A party of about twenty from Ferguson township, were in town on Wednesday and left on the turn-of-train for Niagara Falls on a sight-seeing trip.

-The four-days-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gabriel, a Syrian family residing on Quaker Hill, died on Tuesday of pneumonia, and was buried on Wednesday.

-John Sourbeck, the High Street merchant, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for overseer of the poor, having prepared his petition for that office recently.

-Mrs. Elizabeth Robb, of east High street, this week has had the pleasure of entertaining two of her sons who live in distant cities: Arthur, of Bradco, and Harry, who resides at Pittsburg.

-Mrs. Sechler, wife of mail agent Robert Sechler, of this place, who had been in ill health for some time, underwent an operation at the hospital on Monday. While her condition is regarded as serious, there is hope expressed for her recovery.

-Frank Graham, who had been spending a short time camping with a party along Bald Eagle, was a guest of George Miller a day recently, before returning to Milton, where he has been employed as clerk in the leading hotel. He is considering locating at Philadelphia in the near future.

-Ad. Fleck, J. F. Hoy and S. H. Hoy were a jolly trio who left Bellefonte on Wednesday to take in the great Toronto fair, and paddle around in the late period of Niagara Falls. "Siney" took a pocketful of campaign cards along, and no doubt will do a little electioneering for auditor among those Canadian fellows.

-After all is said and done, you will find the scenic view more genuine pleasure than any other form of entertainment can afford. The programme for the balance of the week are made up of unusually fine subjects, and you should not miss attending any evening. Remember the scenic is endeavoring to please you.

-Work of tearing down the old building owned by Mr. Brandman, corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, is rapidly progressing, and it will not be many months until a substantial building will grace that portion of the town. It is Mr. Brandman's desire to have the building completed as soon as possible in order to open up a new moving picture parlor.

-Next Wednesday evening the wedding of Miss Florence Gehret and Mr. Arthur J. Casperson, will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gehret, 221 east Bishop street. The ceremony will be performed at 6 o'clock p. m. by Rev. Yocum, of the Methodist church. The wedding party will consist of Misses Mary Wlot and Nellie Gehret as bridesmaids, and Messrs. Joseph Gehret, (a brother of the bride) and Leslie Miller, as groomsmen. Little Misses Elizabeth and Dorothy Gehret, sisters of the bride, will act as flower girls.

-As the name implies, the Centre Social Club of this place, was organized some years ago and is considered today simply as a means of promoting sociability. From this standpoint the organization has been a decided success. The members are all good fellows, who believe in enjoying this life, and you will always find their club rooms on High street a comfortable and cozy place to spend a couple of hours. On Sunday thirty of the members decided on a little fresh air outing, and secured Bartley's hack to drive them to Nittany Mountain where they enjoyed a chicken pot-pie dinner, gotten up in good elegant style by the club chef. Everybody had a royal good time.

-Some of our Bellefonte boys had an exciting experience last week while camping at what is known as Hunters Run camp along the Bald Eagle creek. The party was composed of George Miller, George (King George) 71st, Valentine, John (Little Giant) Night-hair, Frank Graham, George (Dyke) Gehret, Ed. Erb, of State College, Willis Wyland, and Theodore Alkey as chef. During one of the days in camp some of the party had gone up the opposite way, each intending to outdo the others in his catch. Choosing the customary way of fishing in that locality, the boys were soon wearing waders in the water, in the mind of anything except the big one they were going to get.

-As luck would have it one of those big storms for which Bald Eagle is noted, broke forth in all its fury, and the boys never did anything so quick before in their lives as they did in scrambling out of that stream. Miller, Nighthair and Graham found shelter in Lizget's old mill, while Wyland and Erb were caught in mid-stream and almost blown under water. The latter clung to a small willow tree along the bank for nearly a half hour, while Wyland managed to crawl to an old buttressed tree, and dropped into the hollow trunk. He then began figuring how long it would take the water to rise over the top of that old stump, and actually trembled so hard, that the other fellows thought an earthquake had accompanied the storm.

-In the meantime those who had reached camp were having the time of their lives in trying to keep the tents from going up like balloons. Both Valentine and Alkey clung to the canyals like grim death and were only induced to let go after being assured that the storm was over. In spite of having had rain almost every day, the Old Hunter's Camping party can boast of some few bass, a large number of eels and pike—some of the latter being the largest caught in that neighborhood this season, and in addition had a royal good time.

-Spreading rails; Sixty Hurt. Spreading rails caused the wreck of the express train on the Valley division of the New York, New-Haven and Hartford railroad at Middletown, Conn., in which sixty persons were injured, eight probably fatally.

MARRIAGES.

Ellenberger-Houck. Ellenberger, of Juniata, and Miss Sue E. Houck, of Warriors Mark, were married on Thursday morning of last week at the United Brethren parsonage, by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey.

Westbrook-Sensor. Saturday morning, Aug. 26th, at Reformed parsonage, Mr. William W. Westbrook, and Miss Alfreda E. Sensor, both of Tyrone, Pa., were joined in holy wedlock by the Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D. Miss Sensor has been teaching in the public schools at State College and was an occasional visitor among Bellefonte friends.

Fry-Kragie. Herman H. Fry and Mrs. Eslie M. Kragie, both of State College, were made man and wife on Wednesday afternoon of last week by Rev. W. S. Sussman, pastor of the Grace Lutheran church. The ceremony was performed in the newly furnished home of the groom on Frazier street, where the happy couple will reside in the future. Mr. Fry is a well known liveryman, and a prosperous citizen of State College.

Gall-Packer. At the parsonage of Mrs. Lide Packer Blair, aunt of the bride near Monaca, Beaver county, Pa., Miss Mabel A. Packer was married to Louis P. Gall, of Monaca, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lewis Robb, D. D. uncle of the bride. None but the immediate families were present. They went at once to their own home farm and set up housekeeping. Mr. Gall is a prosperous farmer having but lately purchased the family homestead. Mrs. Gall is a native of Howard, Centre county, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Packer of Howard and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robb, Sr., who resided in Howard.

Saxe-Harper. The wedding ceremony of Mr. Archibald Saxe, of Scranton, Pa., and Miss Jennie M. Harper, is announced to take place in the Reformed church, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, and will be attended only by relatives and a few friends. The wedding breakfast will be served at the Bush Hotel, where they will take their departure on the noon train. Miss Harper is a daughter of the late Jonathan Harper, and for some years was an efficient instructor in the primary department of the Bellefonte Academy and is one of Bellefonte's charming young ladies. Mr. Saxe is a mining engineer, located at Scranton, Pa., and a former student of State College. They will reside at Scranton.

THAT SIGN AGAIN.

This week a new chapter was added to the Sebring-Seibert automobile garage sign controversy that heretofore attracted so much attention. The last event was the action of council rescinding its former action of granting Mr. Sebring the privilege of erecting a sign in Allegheny street on the corner of Dr. Seibert's lot.

Since then the sign has remained there as a convenient notice to the public, and tourists particularly, to find the "Sebring Fire Proof Garage."

The week equity proceedings were instituted in our court by Dr. Seibert to have the offensive signboard removed. The bill was prepared by Attorneys W. Harrison Walker, and Blanchard & Blanchard. In the meantime Gettig, Bower & Zerk are all ready to defend the sign, and later the matter will be argued in full.

When you mention "sign" to Sebring he simply grins and intimates that the sign will stay right there. Dr. Seibert is just as firm in his opinion that it will be removed and that all residents of the city are equally confident in their contrary views.

Now, when the doctors disagree, the patient usually recovers. When attorneys give different interpretations of the law—some one is liable to go broke.

Since this little sign has attracted so much attention in council, and all papers, it has become as interesting as the famous Beattie trial in Virginia, and everyone is speculating over the outcome.

Farm House Burned.

Three children narrowly escaped death last Saturday morning in a fire which destroyed the house on the farm of Robert C. Stamm, Milesburg R. F. D. No. 2. The building, situated on the ground, together with practically all the contents, Mr. and Mrs. Stamm were working at the barn when they saw flames bursting from their dwelling. Rushing into the building they saved with difficulty their three children who were sleeping soundly. The fire originated from a defective fuse and spread with such rapidity that but a few of their personal effects escaped destruction. Mr. Stamm purchased the farm only a few years ago. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

George Chapman, who is 84 years of age, and makes his home with his son-in-law, Harry Hockenberry, at Nigh Bank, this season plowed about seven acres of ground, in addition to helping clear about a quarter acre of land, and performed all this manual labor during the hottest weather, trying a remarkable and creditable feat.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Honorable Ellis L. Orvis, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 2nd Judicial District, consisting of the county of Centre, having issued his precept bearing date the 24th day of August 1911, to cause to be held a Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court, Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer and County Court, for the county of Centre, and to commence on the FOURTH MONDAY OF SEPTEMBER, being the 24th day of September 1911, and to continue two weeks.

Notice is hereby given to the Coronor, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of said county of Centre, that they be then and there in their proper persons at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the 24th, with their records, inquests, examinations and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office appertain to be done, and those who are bound in recognitions, to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand at Bellefonte, the 26th day of August in the year of our Lord 1911, and the one hundred and thirty-fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

W. E. HURLEY, Sheriff.
