HOWARD.

"Crowned with the ears of corn, now come and to the pipe, sing Harvest Home." —Herrick.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Reformed—Pastor E. F. Faust will preach at Jacksonville at ten o'clock, at Marsh Creek at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven. The services at the first two places will have reference to the Harvest Home festival.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor R. S. Taylor will preach in Howard at half past ten, at Hunter's Run at half past two, and at Beech Creek at half past seven.

Christian Scientist—Service at the home of Mrs. Thomas Mann at half past seven.

Christian Chapel—Rev. W. H. Patterson will preach at half past seven in the evening.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach in Howard at half past ten, and at Jacksonville at half past seven.

Under the New Code.

In ten days from this time our borough schools will open, for the first time, under the operation of the voluminous "Code" enacted by the last legislature. It is possible that the newness of the machinery will cause it to work a little stiffly at first, but this will speedily cure itself. It is not adverse criticism to say that possible weaknesses, and even defects, may be found in the varied and complicated parts, but these may easily be remedied if disclosed; and it is very sure that, as a whole, the new arrangement is a long step in advance for the conduct of our schools. Our directors have been diligent in making preparations for the comfort, well-being, and rapid progress of our interesting lot of pupils. They have provided teachers who, in their best judgment, are the best for the work of guiding our children in their mental development, and we have little doubt that their choice will be abundantly justified by results. The school building has been gone over and such minor repairs and changes have been made as the inspection suggested. The supply of books and materials has been improved and made good. Under the peremptory dictates of the code, none but high school branches can hereafter be taught in the high school, and this will necessitate some changes in the organization of the several grades and classes for which activity in their inspection and supervision of their work. In short, the schools seem to be opening under better auspices and brighter skies than ever before, and much is hoped for their influence upon our coming citizenship.

Our Lecture Course.

It is with much pleasure that our community is looking forward to the course of four entertainments provided by the Citizens' Entertainment Association for the coming winter. The arrangements have been concluded and dates fixed, as follows: October 12, "The Musical Favorites"; November 30, John B. Raito, January 15, Dr. J. Everett Cathell; Mar. 22, Tahana. These fix the first entertainments at six weeks ahead from to-day, Thursday evening, Oct. 12, and arrangements are being made by the executive committee for full and complete advertising and distribution of tickets. The price per evening has been fixed at thirty-five cents, but season tickets, good for the entire course of four numbers, will be sold in advance at one dollar each, and abundant opportunity will be offered to purchase these before the course opens. The success of the course is assured, because an association has been formed by twenty of our citizens, each one of whom has pledged himself to the amount of eight dollars, for its financial backing, and a formal legal contract has been made between this association and the Redpath-Brockway Lyceum Bureau, of Pittsburgh, to furnish the above named speakers at the dates fixed. This marks a new era in the advancement of Howard in intellectual culture, and clean, high-class entertainment, and is hailed with delight by the entire body of our citizenship. We have churches and schools to be sure, but this is good work in the same direction, and fills a place between the two which has never been filled before.

Stewart Taylor is spending the week with friends at Fillmore.

Miss Emma Weber entertained her friend Miss Portia Cheesman, of Altoona, over Sunday.

Miss Martha Turber, daughter of Justice Turner, of Juniata; is a guest of her aunt, Miss Turner.

The Misses Heffelfinger and Taylor, of Mechanicsburg, are guests in the M. E. parsonage this week.

Miss Jennie Cable, of Williamsport, Pa., is enjoying the hospitality of her friend, Miss Rosetta Cooke.

Miss Irene Ogden, of Clearfield, spent a day or two of last week with her friend, Miss Treva Pletcher.

Mrs. Ben Strunk, of Tyrone, spent last Sunday here, with her old neighbors, Miss Corrolla and Hunter Thomas.

D. W. Holter looked after some business matters at Pottsville last week and incidentally looked in at Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanly and two children, of Philadelphia, are summer guests at the home of Charles E. Yearick.

Cashier Rogers entertained his friends, trainmaster D. H. Kloss, with his wife and daughter, of Altoona, over Sunday.

Rev. E. F. Faust was the one representative from this locality to the County Sunday School convention held at Aaronsburg last week.

Robert P. Confer received last Saturday a trio of fine thoroughbred white pigs, which his brother Edward had purchased for him in Cameron county.

Mr. Newton Bickle, one of lower Nittany's excellent farmers, who does not often favor Howard, with his presence, was a business visitor last Monday.

Harry Wetzel went to Williamsport a few days ago in his automobile and returned a little later on a motor-cycle, which he and his brother Will are greatly enjoying.

Our marksmen were out, for the first time this season, in full force. The crack of the shot gun was incessant, and the slaughter of the clay pigeons enormous and sanguinary.

George H. and A. Cookman Leathers are having the interiors of their new houses papered and decorated by S. W. Haag, of Northumberland, preparatory to occupying them this week.

Horace and Eugene Conwell, of Northumberland, spent Sunday at the home of their grandparents, Squire and Mrs. S. F. Kline, and were accompanied by their chum, Forrest Piester.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robb were hosts of the Misses Catherine and Mary Robb, of Bellefonte, last Sunday. The young ladies were advanced pupils of Mr. Robb's in his summer school.

It is a great pleasure to note that Miss Mary Bannison, who has been seriously ill for many weeks, is so far convalescent that she is able to be out of bed a portion of each day, and has once ventured downstairs.

Grant C. Pletcher, who has spent the summer here with uncle William B. Pletcher, on the farm, returned to his home in Bellwood last Sunday, to prepare for continuing and finishing his course in the excellent high school at that place.

It is on dit that a very quiet wedding, in which Miss Lucy M. Leathers, of Howard, and Mr. J. C. Johnson, of Marion township, will be the principals, will occur on Wednesday next, September 6th, at eleven o'clock in the morning.

John W. Beck, one of Uncle Sam's valuable servants at State College, as a mail carrier, was in town last week with his wife, and while here arranged for introducing steam heat to his neat little house, now occupied by veterinarian Dr. Olding.

To "call up" the next door neighbor and ask her to "please bring your cat and get her to take out from the trap a great, big, fat mouse which I have just caught," is the latest development and refinement in the use of the telephone. And it worked, too.

The gallant old Democrat, Toner A. Lucas, of Moshannon, who was appointed by Judge Orvis to be a member of the county board of viewers for roads, came in to Bellefonte on Tuesday to be sworn into office, and afterward visited for a day or two with his son, Clyde C. Lucas, here.

Instead of the usual preaching service by the pastor, at the Reformed church, there was a pleasing song service, in which all the songs used were taken from the long list written by Miss Fannie Crosby, the blind but gifted writer of many of the best and most spiritual of our church hymns.

On Thursday, Aug. 24, at Pittsburg, Miss Mabel Packer, who is a native of our town and has many friends and relatives here, was married to Mr. Louis Gall, and they will live on their farm, near Monaca, Beaver county, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Miss Packer's uncle, the Rev. Lewis Robb, D. D.

Mrs. C. G. Evans, of Wilkes-Barre, formerly Miss Carrie Bowes, is in town, with her two sturdy little ones, stopping for a few weeks, en route to Jenkins, Letcher county, Kentucky. Mr. Evans has been transferred from his position of asst. div. engineer with the Consolidated Coal Co., and where they will make their home.

On Friday of last week, Mrs. Peter Robb, of Romola, entertained the Howard W. C. T. U. in royal fashion. Mrs. Robb was an active member of this most worthy organization while she was a citizen of the borough, and does not lose her interest in it, nor in the good cause which it represents since she went "back to the farm." The workers who ignored the bad weather and participated in the pleasant occasion were: Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Taylor, Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Faust and son Lawrence, Mrs. F. S. Dunham and daughter Grace, Miss Heffelfinger, Miss Taylor, Mrs. John Foreman, Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. W. H. Holter, Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. Irvin Reber, Mrs. Christ Pletcher, Mrs. Wilbur Hall, Miss Emma Robb, Rosetta Schenck, Edwin Robb, Mrs. William Long, Mrs. Frank Strunk, Ambrose and William Thomas. At a business session held in the afternoon Mesdames John Foreman, W. H. Holter and Christ Pletcher were chosen delegates to the County W. C. T. U. convention in Bellefonte on the 29th and 30th.

MARTHA.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peirce, of Bellwood, have been visiting here at the home of W. B. Williams.

H. S. Williams, wife and two children, have returned home from a visit to Niagara Falls, and is at his position again as ticket agent.

Miss Gertrude Fleming, of Bellwood, has been visiting at the home of E. D. Williams.

R. D. Ardery, having a stroke some time ago, is slowly improving.

Miss Myrtle Williams is home again, after visiting relatives in Tyrone and Bellwood.

James Robison, of Port Matilda, spent last Sunday with his parents here.

The Methodist Sunday school of this place, will hold their picnic in J. I. Miles grove, near Martha on Saturday, September 2nd. Arrangements are being made to make this a pleasant and profitable day for all. Prominent speakers will address the audience on topics of importance to Sunday school work. The Orion Glee club, of Philipsburg will be present and entertain the people with their sweet songs. Don't miss hearing these gentlemen sing. It is an exceptional opportunity for a rare musical treat. Refreshments will be served; the proceeds for the benefit of the Sunday school. Everybody is invited to come and mingle in the pleasures of the day.

Mrs. Lizzie Hassenplug, of Spring Bank, who had been confined to her bed the greater part of the past summer, with heart trouble, is again able to be about.

UNIONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. E. A. Russell, after several weeks' visit to friends in Adams county, have returned home.

Ed. and Howard Musser were home on a short visit to their mother, Mrs. Mattie Musser.

Mrs. Morris Lucas and her daughter Miro sojourned over Sunday at the home of A. T. Rowan. Miss Mira is clerk to County Commissioners, of Clearfield county.

Miss Beatrice Stere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Stere, accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Florence Miller, to her home at Sharon, Pa., where she will spend a couple weeks seeing the sights of that pretty town.

Mrs. Ben. Brisbin, of Lemont, Mrs. Martha Williams, of State College, and Misses Agnes and Margaret Brisbin, of Tyrone, constituted a quartette of jolly visitors at the home of W. A. Peters.

Miles G. Gray and wife, of St. Petersburg, Florida, are visiting Centre county friends.

Toner A. Huzar, of Milesburg, lost an auto tag in the vicinity of Unionville, and had Miss Florence Miller, who lives at Sharon, Pa., where she will spend a couple weeks seeing the sights of that pretty town.

John Stevenson, third tower man of this place, after two weeks spent in sightseeing at Buffalo and Niagara Falls, returned home a few days ago, if possible, had Miss Florence Miller, who lives at Sharon, Pa., where she will spend a couple weeks seeing the sights of that pretty town.

Rev. G. W. McSherry and wife, of Butler county, after spending a couple weeks very pleasantly at the home of J. M. Peters, departed on Monday, for their home in North Washington, Butler county, where the Reverend is pastor of the First Lutheran church, a position he has held for over eight years. Mrs. McSherry and Mrs. Milton Peters are sisters and this was their first visit in eight years.

H. D. Rumberger and wife, of Philipsburg, A. E. Rumberger and family, of Philipsburg, and George Z. Rumberger, of DuBois, held an informal meeting at the "Domino" home from Saturday till Monday. The principal subject for discussion was "which one of us can eat the most fried chicken?" Geo. F. won out.

Rev. James A. Pratt was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James, of Lake Helen, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Happer, of Lancaster, Mrs. J. C. Rumberger and sons Paul and John, Flora Brugger and Mr. Mary R. Bowman, of Lancaster, consulted with the members of the church all their tent on Benner's Run on the Alleghenies, one of the most weird and wild places imaginable; an appropriate name for it, I think would be "Rattlesnake Gulch." They took with them a cow to supply them with milk and cream and have every comfort that can be obtained in the most refined home. Their principal pastime is to see who can eat the most. Up to date, Lewellyn James is three laps ahead.

Otto Mobile, of Jersey Shore, was an over-night guest of our friend Billy Parsons recently, but Billy refused to let him come into his house and so he had to stand out on the street lawn all night. Poor fellow! He was "tired" too. He brought Mrs. Parsons' brother, Bing Richards and family up for a short visit but these latter he entertained royally.

Otto made quite a "buzz" over it the next morning when they went to start away.

On account of the continuous rain on last Friday, the Ladies' Aid society postponed their ice cream and cake social until Friday afternoon, and evening of this week. Don't forget the date.

Plums in this vicinity have become a "drug" as the saying goes. Bushels have gone to the bad. One man who could not sell or make use of all his plums became very charitable all at once and went all over town to find out who would take them free gratis, for nothing, he succeeded. Wild plums, too, were never finer nor more plentiful and bushels have been gathered by our people. A number of persons from Tyrone and Altoona came down and carried home bushels of tame and wild plums from this place.

What, Oh what, has become of our water plant?

The fellow whose fertile (?) brain conceived and formulated the late election laws ought to be relieved from any further service as a public servant. Can you conceive of anything more humiliating than for our good citizens to go about with a petition soliciting signers authorizing him to become a candidate for school director or councilman or high constable, or for any other office? Bah!

FOR THE LADIES.

THE FALL LINE OF COAT-SUITS AND SKIRTS IS NOW ON DISPLAY AT A. E. BARNER'S. We are ready to fit all shapes and sizes with our SPECIAL MEASUREMENT SYSTEM, for which the models and samples are now ready. x35

The valuable homestead farm of Henry Kryder, late of Porter township, deceased, which was offered for sale at the Court House on the 18th inst, was adjourned to September 2, 1911, at ten o'clock a. m. at the Court House, in Lock Haven, Pa. Any one desiring to purchase a good productive farm under a high state of cultivation with buildings thereon in good condition physically should attend this sale. x34.
