—Bellefonte Tent No. 100, Knights of the Maccabees, will celebrate their fifth anniversary next meeting night, the 20th of September, and propose to hold a small celebration. The initiation fee has been cut in half for the next month to commemorate the event.
—Finkline's 5, 10 and 25 cent store has a number of new bargains to offer in this week's advertisement. This store is becoming one of the busiest places in town, simply because you can find anything you may want, and at reduced prices. Don't fail to at least read over the ad.
—Mrs. Emil Joseph accompanied by her sons, Edmund and Mary, arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday and are stopping at the Brockerhoff House. Edmund will resume his studies at State College as a member of the 20th senior class. Mrs. Joseph will remain here some time before returning to New York City.

He is a graduate of the Overbrook school, Philadelphia, and has had considerable experience in this line of work.
—Mr. Walter Coher, of Clearfield, has been selected as the new manager of the Cluster store in this place, the position having been made vacant by the resignation and removal to State College of Moses Horwitz, the former manager. Mr. Coher is in town this week getting acquainted with his duties and will move his family here from Clearfield as soon as he can secure a suitable house. We found him a very pleasant gentleman and there is no doubt as to his ability to successfully fill the bill.
—Monday evening County Commissioner John L. Dunlap left for Indiana, Pa., to attend the fifth annual convention of the county commissioners of Pennsylvania, which convened Tuesday, Wednesday and today. Mr. Dunlap intended to spend a portion of Tuesday in McVeytown, to attend the funeral of his cousin, the late George A. Foster. Commissioner Harry Zimmerman and Clerk Edward Williams were prevented from attending the convention by the pressure of duties incident to the campaign.
—Dr. W. W. Feldt is now located in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he has secured a good location and has been practicing for over a week. Later the family will leave here to join him and expect to make that their permanent home. Over a month ago Dr. Feldt left here to attend a special course of lectures and seeing what he thought was a better location, quickly made the change. Friday Mrs. Feldt and family will leave for Harrisburg to be gone about a week. As soon as she can rent or sell their home on High street the family will leave for Minneapolis. In her absence parties desiring to see the property should inquire for key at Harry Taylor's, next door.
—Part of last and this week J. C. Derr and Christ Decker have been touring the county by rig in the interest of the Centre County Fair. Large and attractive posters are left in their wake, and occasionally Christ drops a campaign card where it will do the most good. One day this week they had a mighty close call from being hit by an automobile while traveling along a road in Potter township. The auto came up from behind them and attempted to pass without giving any warning. As it was the auto struck one of the wheels of their wagon and broke it. Christ is of the opinion that it was some fellow trying to beat him to it that this commissioner job.

The lower half of the house is built of neat concrete blocks while the upper stories are frame, giving the whole a unique but pretty appearance.
—Joe the Turk, dressed like a big city policeman, was an arrival in Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon, and will remain here three days in the interest of his daughter, Arney. He is dressed in blue clothes, wears a white policeman's helmet, and sports a heavy mustache, the like of which none other than a Turkish gentleman or a New York ward heeler could afford. He will give lectures while in Bellefonte.
—James Herring, long in the employ of the Penna. Railroad Co. at Altoona, with a wife and child, arrived from Centre Hall, arrived from Altoona by yesterday's noon train, to visit their former homes at Penn Hall and Centre Hall. This is the first time Jim came over to old Centre for a number of years to visit his friends and relatives. He is one of the Penna.'s best men, and has held important positions under it.
—Last Wednesday night some sneak thief entered the cellar at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gehret, on Bishop street, and stole a quantity of the good things to eat, which go to make up a sumptuous wedding supper. The evening was the occasion of the marriage of the bride and groom, and this was an opportune time to play his tricks. No attempt was made to take anything but eatables, and we have every reason to believe that had the thief made his wits known to the family, there would have been no need for stealing.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.
To walk into the Y. M. C. A. rooms is to be impressed with a sense of neatness and cleanliness that pervades throughout the entire building. In the first place all the rooms have been re-papered and re-painted and present a homelike and cozy appearance. The pool room looks especially nobly with its wall decorations of college posters and pennants. In the basement the lockers have been moved to the rear, or under the gymnasium, which will be a more convenient location, especially when the new swimming pool is ready for use. From top to bottom the inside of the building has been renovated and cleaned.
In about a month from now the first number on the Star course will be given. While speaking of the course, we would like to impress the fact of its excellent character. The contestants selected for this season are all the highest class obtainable, and will cost twice as much to obtain as did last year's. This doesn't mean that you are asked to pay more than the usual price of $2 for the course tickets, but it is indicative of the necessity for a large sale. This no doubt will be accomplished as Dr. Weston, the secretary, has thoroughly canvassed the town and sold a large number of tickets. However, if there are any who have not purchased tickets they should do so at once and avail themselves of the low admission price of $2 for six high class entertainments. The following will comprise the course: Oct. 12—The Musical Favorites; Nov. 29—John B. Ratto, impersonator; Dec. 22—The College Girls; Jan. 24—Leslie Pugh, Concert Co. soloists, pianists, and reader; Feb. 14—Maj. R. H. Hendershot, The Drummer Boy, accompanied by his son; March 29—Physical Culture entertainment.
As stated last week a membership campaign is soon to be inaugurated. It was at first proposed to conduct a red and blue contest, as has been done on former occasions with the members divided equally on each side. This has been changed somewhat to the better plan of forming a league similar to a baseball organization, each side to be composed of nine men, and to be called after one of the major base ball teams; for instance, one team will be called the Athletics, another the Cubs, etc.
Sunday, Sept. 24th, will be known as Rally Day, or "The Men and Religion Movement." Rev. C. W. Winey, of the State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will be present and address a meeting in Petrik Hall.
On Monday evening, Sept. 25th a banquet will be given by the ladies' auxiliary, at which Mr. Burgess will preside, and the 11th member campaign will be started. There will be six teams of nine men each, and there will be some lively hustling done by the team that carries off the prize.
DIPPYDITS.
The author of the following was blackballed from the club for this: If Jacob Kniesly went up in a balloon where would Willie Wyland? Sic 'em, Tige! He bit your father!
If a nice young girl was lost in the mountains, would Graham Hunter? Your honor, I protest, I am a girl, and a telegraph operator was married in Omaha, would that be a Western Union? Let him up, officer, he's all cut!
The young man ascended the scaffold, Sheriff Hurley stepped forward and said about to tie on the black cap, when the victim spoke thusly, "Dr. Dobbins may be old, but isn't Andy Young?" "Bang," went the trap door!
If Bill Lyons walks, does Philip Waddie? Doctor, don't let him suffer from having an assessment.
If Philip Beizer is "gross" is Henry "Klein"? Quick, Watson, the hypo-dermic!
If "Red" Levy is "sick" is Jimmy Caldwell? I got cher, Steve, I got cher!
The ship was sinking rapidly. The captain ordered the life boats to be lowered. Just as the gangplank went under a weak small voice was heard to say, "Captain, if I drown, I will never speak to you again." "All right," bellowed the captain, but Isaac Underwood. For the love of Mike, be ready!
If Hassell Montgomery had a million dollars to divide what would Louis Dag-gert? I'm on, conductor start the car. I'm on!
"Daffy Dan."
P. S.—Our Weekly "ink Sling" I. "I felt about to tie on the black cap when his name changed, says the "Watchman." Maybe we are ultra-biased but his consonants does not gyrate on our tympanic membrane any worse than D—, F—, Portney or G—, D—, Ingram.

One of the most attractive and fashionable weddings that has occurred in Mill Hall for some time took place on Thursday evening, September 7, at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mann, when their very popular and accomplished daughter, Miss Caroline Bailey Mann, became the wife of Mr. Frederick Antis Curtin, of Needles, California. The bride was the recipient of very many rich and valuable presents. At a late hour, the happy couple were driven in an auto to Lock Haven, where they took the midnight train on their honeymoon, to visit many places of interest before reaching their future home in Needles, California.

Powell-Hall.
A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hall, at Tyrone, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, when the former's sister, Miss Beulah Hall, of Millersburg, became the bride of Mr. Elmer Powell, a fireman on the N. Y. C. railroad, located at Renovo. The young couple were attended by Miss Nellie Hall, a sister of the bride, and Bruce Robb, of Bellefonte. Malcolm Hall, another brother of the bride, acted as usher, and Miss Almada Powell, sister of the groom, as maid of honor. The flower girls were little Misses Mary Hall, of Millersburg, and Thelma Hall, of Osceola Mills. The beautiful and impressive ring service was used in the ceremony and it was performed by Rev. W. W. Hartman, pastor of the First Methodist church. The parlors of the home were beautifully decorated with ferns and white flowers. After an elaborate luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Powell departed for Soda Point, N. Y., where they spent several days prior to visiting other points of interest in that state. Upon their return they will reside in Renovo. Their friends wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

Shearer, of Beech Creek, were made man and wife, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey. After the ceremony the couple departed on the evening train for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and other eastern cities, and upon their return will be at home to their friends in Bellefonte, and will take up housekeeping in the groom's home in Bush's Addition. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Bell Shearer, of Beech Creek, and is a most estimable young lady. For a number of years she taught school in that vicinity, and has many friends who extend their kindest wishes for a happy and successful married life. Mr. Shearer is one of Bellefonte's best known residents, and is engaged in the ice cream cone business. For a number of years he was the local agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

Casperson-Gehret.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gehret, on east Bishop street, when their daughter, Florence M., was united in marriage to Mr. A. J. Casperson, of Titusville, Pa. Promptly at 6 o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Lyde Miller, the bridal party filed into the parlor. First came the maid of honor, Miss Mayme Wien, followed by the flower girls, little Dorothy and Elizabeth Gehret, sisters of the bride; next came Miss Nellie Gehret and Mr. Leslie Miller, followed by the groom and his best man, Joseph L. Gehret; and the bride, leaning upon the arm of her father. All the attendants carried pink and white asters. After congratulations and a wedding supper, the happy couple departed on the evening train for Jamestown, N. Y., and other places of interest. They expect to make their home for the present at Titusville, where the groom is employed. The bride receives a number of beautiful and costly gifts from her many friends, who were also profuse in their shower of well wishes for a happy married life.

THROWN FROM BICYCLE.

Lloyd Stover Receives Painful Injuries From a Fall.
Last Thursday morning Lloyd Stover, who resides at Coleville and is employed at the warehouse of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co., met with a painful accident by being thrown from a bicycle while crossing a bridge near his home. It is Mr. Stover's custom to ride from his home to work on his wheel, and on Thursday morning, a little before seven o'clock, while crossing the bridge near Amos Garlick's residence at Coleville, his bicycle struck a piece of plank that had been used to repair the floor of the bridge, and three him headlong. He is of heavy build and in falling he hit upon his right shoulder, tearing the blade loose from the collar bone, and otherwise painfully bruising himself. He was taken to his home, but has since been compelled to remain quiet in bed. It will probably be several months before he will be able to use the arm affected by the injured shoulder.
