HOWARD.

Success is ever to be found close to the line which divides loss from gain. Sitting down on the wrong side of this line makes men failures. Bravely looking over to the other side and bending the last remnant of strength to get there changes the word failure into success.—Spare Moments.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Christian Scientist—Service at the home of Mrs. Mann at half past ten. Reformed—Pastor E. F. Faust will preach at Salona at ten o'clock, at Mt. Bethel at half past two, and at Hubbersburg at half past seven.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Fairview at half past ten, at Jacksonville at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven. Methodist Episcopal—Pastor E. S. Taylor will preach at Curtin at half past ten, at Kennedy at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven.

Schools Going.

A brief, unofficial and unexpected visit to our schools last Friday afternoon, disclosed that they had all gotten into working order and were hard at it. The changes in grading made necessary by the requirements of the new code, had been made, pupils and teachers had become acquainted, rules had been made and the pupils were rapidly learning and willingly obeying them, and the teachers, three of whom out of the four required, are new here, were earnestly and seriously working to get things shape for a start at real work the following Monday morning. Altogether the prospects for a good winter's work are brighter than we believe they have been before for some years, and we feel like congratulating all concerned, the pupils, teachers, directors, parents and the community at large, upon the excellent outlook. Good nature, patience and hard work upon the part of all interested will, we are sure, produce the desired results, and we confidently look forward. As readjusted the several grades stand in number as follows: Primary, Miss Johnson, forty-seven; Intermediate, Miss Fisher, forty; Grammar, Miss Johnson, thirty-five; High, Mr. Fletcher, twenty-nine, with five yet to come.

Season Tickets.

George Fletcher has undertaken to serve the citizens of the town with season tickets for the four numbers of the course of entertainment provided for the coming season. He will make it as convenient for every one as possible by calling at every residence and business place within the next few days. The price of admission to each entertainment has been fixed at thirty-five cents, but to make it easy for those who may wish to attend them all, a season ticket, covering the whole four entertainments will be sold for one dollar, admitting an adult to all, and for eighty cents admitting persons between eight and eighteen years of age. Children under eight will be admitted only when accompanied by a parent or other responsible adult. Of course everybody will want to hear all of these entertainments, and it will be wise to take advantage of the reduced price and secure the tickets when they are presented at your door.

A Sad Mishap.

One day last week, as Charles Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cook, was riding on a main line train toward Philadelphia, and not very far from that city, some unknown missile crashed through the window beside which he was sitting, passed squarely across the car and out of the window opposite, shattering both badly. One of the splinters of glass from the window by which the missile entered the car flew into Cook's eye, cutting it badly. When he arrived at the city he went to the Jefferson hospital, when the attending physicians told him that the eye was so damaged that he would never see from it again. He is still in the city; under hospital treatment.

Mrs. John M. Wagner was a Lock Haven visitor last Thursday. Trained nurse Miss Annie McCallion is spending her vacation at home.

Ether and Mildred Shay spent last Sunday with their brother, Jack, at Curtin. Harry Harvey, of State College is visiting here with his sister, Mrs. A. C. Leathers.

Miss Esther Hall, of Snow Shoe, was a last week's guest of her cousin, Miss Lulu Holter. Miss Rosetta Cooke is entertaining this week her friend Miss Katherine Sprinkle, of Tyrone.

Her friends here are glad to extend a cordial welcome to Miss Mollie Breth, of Lock Haven. Mrs. W. L. Harvey is entertaining her bright and cheerful friend, Miss Zona Scott, of Cleveland, O.

Miss Cora Yearick, of Clintondale, was a Sunday afternoon guest at the home of Squire A. A. Fletcher. L. H. Thompson, who has had a serious case of "cold" is out again, but looking a good deal the worse for the wear.

Mrs. John A. Thompson, of Tyrone, formerly well known here as Miss Gross, was a visitor in town last Thursday. Mrs. R. H. Neff, of Tyrone, was here Saturday last and induced her bright little niece Margaret to go home with her for a few days.

Mrs. Wm. H. Long left for Williamsport where she is caring for her mother, Mrs. Melinda Reeder, whose health is growing quite frail. Rev. E. F. Faust has been confined to his bed since last Thursday, with an aggravated case of indigestion. His friends wish for his speedy recovery.

For want of timely information the name of Don C. Gardner was omitted from the list of those who were immersed on Monday, Sept. 11, by M. J. Snyder. Mrs. Howard A. Robb, formerly Miss Alma Fletcher and a teacher of some experience, now has charge of the study hall for day students, at the Lock Haven Normal.

Former Sheriff Robt. Cooke recently sold his ridge farm, back of Franklin Confer, to Matthew Rogers, Jr. for the consideration of $800. Mr. Rogers will lumber it off, and is already shipping trees. Last Thursday Mrs. McKinney handsomely entertained at dinner, a quartette of her friends from abroad: The Mesdames James Martin and Harry Davis, of Juniata, and the Misses Nainey and Mary Delaney, of Mifflinburg.

Mrs. Rebecca Lucas started last Saturday morning, under the escort of her son Oscar and daughter, Miss Nan, for a trip of several weeks, which will include visits to friends in Baltimore, Md., Winchester, Va., and other important points.

Two more new roofs were added to the improvements in our community during the week. The barn of John Boney in the borough and the house belonging to the Lucas estate, and controlled by Mrs. Elizabeth Lucas, in the township, are the renovated properties.

Clyde Lucas and wife, of Tyrone, and Kline Confer and wife, of Liberty township were dinner guests at the W. E. Confer home last Sunday. Miss Florence and Pearl Confer went with their uncle, Clyde Lucas and wife to their home in Tyrone to remain for a week or two.

John Allison, of Roaring Branch, whom the late Charles D. Green named the executor of his large estate and instructed to carry out his wishes regarding his building of a large Orphan's Home at that place, was in town between trains last Friday calling upon his aunts, the Misses Jane and Mary Bennison.

Director H. T. McDowell and Cashier Matthew Rogers, Jr., of our First National Bank, laid aside their official care and watchfulness last Thursday and Friday and betook themselves to Port Royal to attend the Juniata County Fair, which they report to have been a fine success. The good weather of Thursday brought out a crowd which they estimated at fifteen thousand.

Prof. Fletcher, head of our schools, has called a meeting of all the teachers of the borough and township, and as many others as can come, for the evening of Friday next, Sept. 22, in the high school room, for the discussion of matters pertaining to the work of the schools under the new code. That portion of the public that takes a live interest in the public school work is invited to be present.

Two additions to the list given last week of those who at that time had gone abroad to enter upon their advanced school duties for the year are Howard Robb, who has entered the college of his church, (Reformed) at Lancaster, where he will prepare for the ministry; Miss Lulu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holter, who left on Thursday last to enter upon a full course at the Allentown college for women.

A few moments before three o'clock last Friday morning, an unheralded blast of thunder or two blasts following each other so closely that almost one, broke with such extreme suddenness and force over our town as to awaken most of the sleepers and alarm not a few. It was accompanied by a correspondingly vivid flash of lightning. It seemed evident that a bolt had been struck so near by us with such force as to cause many houses to tremble and even to rock. Upon examination the next day it was found that the "bolt," (whatever that may mean) had struck the ground on the south side of Graydon street, immediately over the water pipe, at a point about four rods west of the westernmost fire plug on that street. Two holes—seem to have been made, so close together as to be virtually one, and the soft earth, filled as it is at that point, with small stones, was jarred loose and thrown upward and outward as though some explosion from beneath had been the cause. The soft, watery mud was plastered quite freely over the fence, and a piece or two of sod, six to ten inches square, had been thrown out to the middle of the street.

PENN TOWNSHIP.

Alice Delong, who spent a few days with friends here, has gone to her work at Shamokin. Elmer Confer has finished the concrete steps and walk that he was making for Howard Eisenhuth and has made a good job of it too.

Mrs. J. W. Confer and daughter Jenny, from Renovo, are visiting at her parents, J. C. Lingle's. This place was well represented at the Centre Hall picnic on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Will Florey and children, from Tusseyville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Florey's mother, Mrs. Susan Crater.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Lingle had a home party on the 19th of September. There were all there but Noah, who is in Billy, Mich., and Mabel who live a mile away from home. They enjoyed themselves and think the day was well spent.

J. D. Lingle, from Georgesvalley, was a business caller to Henry Lingle's in Poehvalley. Miss Maggie Krisher, from Yeagerstown spent some time at her uncle's, John Zerby's.

Now for some music; William Snively bought a phonograph from John Eisenhuth.

SOBER.

Quite a few from here attended the Grangers picnic at Centre Hall. John Eisenhuth and wife spent Saturday evening very pleasant at U. G. Aumon's.

Mrs. Frank Delong, who is working at the weigh scales, was home a couple days. Ed Decker, wife and daughter Mildred arrived in Philadelphia on Tuesday.

Elias Auman and son William and wife, from Fort Wayne, Ind., accompanied by Mrs. Jane Blauser, spent a couple days at Uriah Aumon's. The Aumons reunion was well attended on Sunday.

D. D. Breon and family were welcome visitors at Benj. Breons, and also at U. G. Aumon's, on Sunday. M. C. Vonada and family were callers at J. J. Gentzell's on Sunday.

COBURN.

Luther Rote and wife, of Lock Haven, visited relatives here last week. C. F. Kerstetter, wife and pretty baby, of Elizabethtown, spent a few days under the parental roof and with Charlie's sisters.

Walter Fryer, who about a year ago entered the U. S. Navy for three years' service, visited his brothers and sister at this place. Ried Alexander, who was formerly a citizen of Penn township, but now residing in the state of Michigan, is visiting relatives in this valley.

Stella Hosterman has gone to Centre Hill and will make her future home with her mother, who was recently married to Robert M. Smith, of that place. Trespass notices printed on tough card board, at 5 cents a piece—for sale at this office.

UNIONVILLE.

Forman P. J. McDonnell made a business trip to Pittsburg on Tuesday. Zach Baily, a veteran of the Civil war and a member of the famous Bucktail Regiment, was a recent visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. J. St. Clair.

B. F. Hanbleton, of Hamilton, Ill., is visiting the above named Mrs. St. Clair. He is a cousin of her's and has not been in this section since 1858. He is an octogenarian and is "hale and hearty."

If you see Harry Musser acting queer, grinning and smiling all the time and occasionally talking to himself saying "I think she'll be a typewriter and stenographer" etc., don't think he's "off". He is only happy because the stork left him a girl baby.

G. A. Heberling, of Lock Haven, has been appointed first truck operator in the town at this place to take the place of Harry Pearson who was sent to Bellefonte. Mr. Heberling will move his family here as soon as he can procure suitable quarters.

John Rowan and Charley Holtzworth are both down with the typhoid fever. They were employed with an engineer corps at Cumberland and both went down at the same time. On last Friday A. T. Rowan and H. E. Holtzworth brought his son home who is now reported to be getting along as well as can be expected. Mr. Rowan spent several days with his son who was too ill to bring home. He is in a catholic hospital and he speaks in the highest terms of that institution for the kind and careful treatment and nursing his son is receiving. The latest report from his doctor was to the effect that the young man is getting along nicely.

Only a few months ago, Roy Miles, of Pitcairn, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Bellefonte hospital from which he had hardly recovered when he was stricken with typhoid fever. So highly was he pleased with the kind treatment he received at this hospital and with the reasonable charges, that he insisted on being taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment. He has been quite seriously ill but latest reports have it that he is slowly convalescing.

Ralph Moran left on Monday for Pen Yan, N. Y., in response to a call for 1000 laborers by an employment agency.

Ed. Morrison, who for many years has been employed as a mason by the P. R. R. Co., is off duty for the time being, on account of serious illness.

Arthur Hanscom has moved his family to near Beech Creek. On Tuesday a regiment of trackmen joined McDonnell's corps at this place and were engaged in cleaning out the sewers that had been practically filled up by the late heavy rains. It wouldn't have been healthy for the enemy to have made an attack on our town on that day.

The smiling countenance of the Rev. J. J. Zahnizer, of Port Allegheny, was in evidence on our streets for several days past. He is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Harold Fisher.

Miss Hannah Holt was taken seriously ill in the M. E. church during preaching services on Sunday evening and was taken to the home of her uncle, Samuel Holt, where she is yet too ill to be taken to her home, "across the creek." The doctor pronounced it acute indigestion. Miss Holt is one of our most popular young ladies and it is hoped by her best friends that she may speedily recover. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Holt.

Laird, Morrison has decided to learn the millinery trade. He was initiated on Monday in Mr. Buck's mill at this place. Now, Laird, don't put too much saw dust in the chop, don't take double toll, give full weight in buying and selling, be honest and industrious, and some day, in the not far off future, the sign on the north side of the mill in large capitals will read, "Laird Morrison's Mill."

The following bright ones from this place are attending the Bellefonte High school: Misses Margaret McDonnell, Margaret Eckenroth, Ruth Parsons, Mr. Francis Van Valin and Clarence Barton.

Elroy Irwin is a student in the Bellefonte Academy and Miss Kesiah Calhoun left on Tuesday for Lock Haven where she will enter the Normal school and if she don't "stall" some of the teachers, we'll have another guess coming Success to ye, all.

We were reliably informed that there are a couple of families in Union township that are in abject poverty. One of the families is practically without furniture, their children clothed in rags, and not a bed in the house. One husband and father spends much of his earnings for rum. A sad state of affairs. This ought not to be so in a land flowing with milk and honey. It might be well for our christian churches to send a missionary into this vicinity. Winter is coming on and the poor ought to be looked after in order to prevent actual suffering. Who'll be the first to act?

The venerable William Iddings, after an illness of about a week from diseases incident to old age, passed away at the residence of his son Ellis Iddings in Huntingdon county, on last Thursday and was brought to this place on Saturday on the noon train and taken to the home of his son Edward, on Centre street. On Sunday morning his remains were taken to the Friends church from which the funeral took place at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Dr. Russell gave a brief sketch of the life of this good man in such beautiful and touching words that brought tears to many eyes and was a most beautiful tribute to the memory of our deceased friend. She was followed by Mrs. Mary Hall, sister of the deceased, who very feelingly spoke of her brother's good qualities referring to their early childhood, of his absolute faith in God, of his strict adherence to the admonition "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," after which the body was taken to the upper cemetery where it was laid to rest. William Iddings was born in Clearfield county, October 24, 1823, and was at the time of his death aged 88 years, 10 months and 22 days. When 8 years of age he came with his parents to Union township and has lived there and in Unionville borough for over 72 years. When his wife died about 8 years ago, he went to live with his son Ellis, in Huntingdon county, where he died as before stated. Surviving him are three sons: Ellis and Edward, Unionville; Morris, of Phillipsburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Jesse Irwin, of Union township; also two sisters, Miss Ann Moore, of Gram-pling, and Mrs. Mary Hall, of West Virginia. He was a man of unswerving character, a representative citizen, a good neighbor and a loving husband and father. He was an ardent prohibitionist. Mrs. Hall stated in her eulogy that neither liquor nor tobacco had ever touched his lips.

CENTRE MILLS.

Those who attended the Grangers picnic from here were: Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dack and child, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miller, son Charles and daughter Sadie, Mr. and Mrs. H. Weaver and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kline and son George, Mrs. A. T. Corman and children and Miss Margaret Rachau.

G. W. Kline made a business trip to Antea Port where he intends to run a mill for Mr. W. Broshay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Godshall and children, of Centre Hall, started on last Friday for Portorico at which place he intends to teach in a college. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burns and family, of Spring Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Flory of Spring Bank, visited William Hall's on Sunday.

TYLERSVILLE.

The base ball game played at Lamar between the Lamar team and the Tylersville team, was one in favor of the former team by a score of 28-1.

The schools of Logan township opened last Monday, Sept. 18th. Miss Etta Barner is visiting her grandparents, F. K. Miller's of this place.

A number of our farmers are now ready to put out their wheat. Philip Shaack, of Reading, bought Samuel Tressler's home at this place, and Frank Caris of Lozanton bought a home of Minor Miller's.

—Best interests of the party, qualifications and temperament of the aspirants, and chances of your nominee being successful at the election should be well considered when you vote on Sept. 30; if you believe that J. Kennedy Johnston, for District Attorney, best meets these requirements, he will appreciate your vote.—Adv.

DR. HOCKENBERRY ADVANCED.

The following is an extract from an article that appeared in the "Republican," at Westfield, Mass., regarding Dr. John C. Hockenberry, a son of Mrs. John S. Hoy of Westfield, Pa. Dr. Hockenberry years ago taught in the public schools at Zion, and at Unionville, Pa. The Republican says:

"Dr. John Coulter Hockenberry, who is at the head of the department of psychology and sociology in the state normal school at Westfield, Mass., has tendered his resignation and will leave the 1st of January for Kalamazoo, Mich., to take charge of the department of education in the state normal school in that city. The news of Dr. Hockenberry's resignation will come as a great surprise to his many friends in and around Westfield.

"Dr. Hockenberry states that there is a decided educational activity in the middle West, and that Kalamazoo, being located midway between Detroit and Chicago, and an important railroad center, is the very center of this vicinity. The courses are much more varied than in the Westfield school, and will give Dr. Hockenberry abundant opportunity to apply to his work knowledge that he has gained in the subjects of which he has made a life study. He goes to Michigan as a substantial increase in salary. The new post will take him to the most interesting and profitable institute lecturing in the summer months. He has been on the list of state lecturers for several years.

"Dr. Hockenberry was graduated from the state normal school in California, Pa., and also from the school at West Chester in the same state. He was graduated from the Indiana university in 1899 with the degree of bachelor of arts. He continued special work along the lines of psychology and pedagogy at the university of Pennsylvania. He was awarded the degree of doctor of philosophy at the university of Pennsylvania. He took a special course of study in the university of Jena, Germany, and also pursued his special studies at Berlin, Paris, and London. He has had a varied teaching experience and first held positions in the public schools of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Virginia. From there three years ago accepted the call to the Westfield school.

"The delightful personality of the man has won for Dr. Hockenberry a host of friends in Westfield. His activities have by no means been confined to educational affairs. Church, civic and social life have profited by his enthusiasm, knowledge and power. He has given freely of his time lecturing before men's clubs and literary organizations and has been in demand at summer institutes."

Sunday School Executive Com. Meets.

At the meeting of the executive committee, held in Bellefonte on Tuesday, for the purpose of gathering statistics of educational affairs, Church, civic and social life have profited by his enthusiasm, knowledge and power. He has given freely of his time lecturing before men's clubs and literary organizations and has been in demand at summer institutes."

The establishment of these departments is urged upon superintendents. A report of those together with those already established and not yet reported is greatly desired before the state convention at New Castle, October 11, 12, and 13. Centre county desires to be a "Front Line" county in Sabbath School work and will be so if all these departments are reported. Please send such reports to Mrs. L. W. Nuttall, Phillipsburg, Pa.

C. L. GRAMLEY, President.

W. F. ZIEGLER, Sec'y Protem.

Brooks Comet Visible.

Brooks comet, which has been lost to observers since last July, was discovered again on Monday by Prof. H. J. Slocumyer of St. John's College, Toledo, Ohio. The phenomena was plainly visible in the northwest sky between the zenith and the horizon. The comet showed no tail. Prof. Slocumyer states, He said it looked as if it were traveling toward the earth. The head of the comet, or nucleus, displayed a brilliant light.

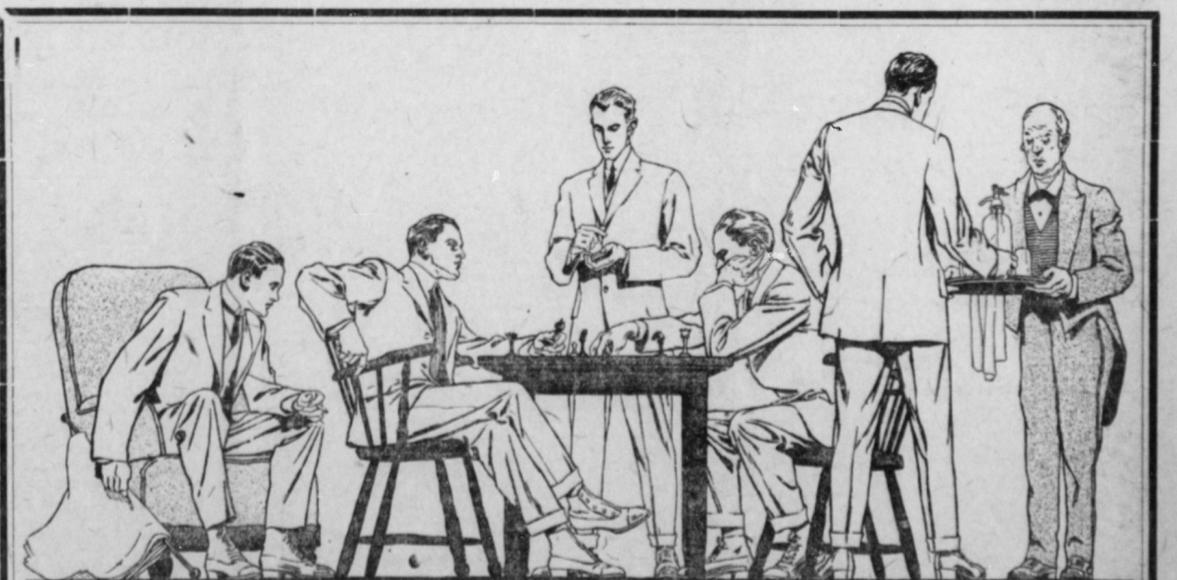

Inspected Several Bridges.

The Beech Creek correspondent of the Lock Haven Express on Saturday said: County Commissioners Robbins and Eason came up here from Lock Haven Thursday afternoon and inspected the one-span iron bridge across the Beech creek between Clinton and Centre counties. To the impaired condition of which their attention has repeatedly been directed in this correspondence for the past year at least. They found that it needs going over and tightening up and repairs made to one of the main supports. These repairs they declared would be made without delay, after which the iron-work will be repainted. After inspecting this bridge, the commissioners inspected the covered wooden bridge across the Beech creek at the lower end of this borough which needs weatherboarding and other attention, and also the long iron bridge across the Bald Eagle creek at the B. E. V. Station.

Last Friday Mrs. Geo. W. Williams, of near Marthas, was stricken with paralysis, and since that time her condition has been considered critical as her left side is affected. She is in her seventy-second year, and for that reason her age is somewhat against her recovery.
