SEPTEMBER COURT NOW IN SESSION

NO IMPORTANT CASES CALLED FOR TRIAL.

USUAL GRIST OF LITIGATION

Brief Report of the Proceedings—Cases Tried and Verdicts Rendered—Attendance Not Large—Court Still in Session—Cases Disposed.

September Sessions of Court convened on Monday morning at ten o'clock and the forenoon session was taken up in hearing motions and petitions. The Grand Jury was called and sworn and A. V. Daugherty, farmer, of Burnside township, selected as foreman. After taking the returns of the Constables of the various districts in the county, Milton G. Farwell was called, indicted for betrayal, prosecutrix Lola May. The defendant pleaded guilty and the usual sentence was imposed.

Court adjourned to meet at two o'clock and the case of Kline & Company vs. Edgar Sheffer, being an appeal, was called. After some negotiations judgment was confessed in open court by the defendant in favor of the plaintiff for $53.00.

T. C. Hippie, Esq., and R. B. McCormick, Esq., members of the Clinton County Bar of Lock Haven, were in attendance at court on Monday forenoon.

William M. Fairman, Esq., of Punxsutawney, a member of the Jefferson County Bar, was also in attendance.

J. H. Weber vs. Jacob Herman, an appeal, grows out of a controversy of a hiring or use of a hay bal. The plaintiff, Weber, is the owner of the hay and the defendant, Herman, is the hirer. The hiring was denied by the defendant, alleging that another had hired for baling defendant's hay, and the plaintiff also claimed for some breakage on the baler. Verdict on Tuesday afternoon in favor of the plaintiff for $25.00.

Edward Cawalt, Harry Smith, Daniel Rider, Oswald Stratton, Harry Rogers and Maurice Cartwright, prosecutor John F. Devine. These defendants are boys from in and around the vicinity of Philipsburg and are charged with on or about March 27, 1911, stealing wire from the Bell Telephone Company and disposing of the same. Defendants appearing in open court and pleaded guilty to the charge, whereupon they were remanded to the custody of the Sheriff, their case to be considered later, when they are to be sentenced.

The Supervisors of Burnside township are in proper repair. Counsel for defendant moved to quash the indictment on the ground that the individuals were not named, nor was the township itself named as defendant. Indictment quashed.

George E. Platt, prosecutrix Veronica Rauehle, indicted for the usual defendant plea, guilty and the usual sentence imposed.

Ray Parsons, prosecutrix Elsie Kershner, defendant plead guilty and sentence deferred until tomorrow.

Nathan Vonada, prosecutrix Netta Lore, defendant was indicted for adultery and on Tuesday and pleaded guilty. Upon request of prosecuting attorney sentence deferred until later.

Clyde Shutt, prosecutrix Carrie Owen, indicted for betrayal. Defendant when arraigned offered the plea of fornication, but denied the latter part of the indictment on the ground that the prosecutrix was a married woman. Defendant's plea was not accepted, cause went to trial, and verdict rendered of guilty as indicted.

Ray Parsons, who plead guilty Tuesday to the charge of betrayal, had the usual sentence imposed.

The entire next week's court was continued generally upon the agreement of all counsel interested in the cases for trial during next week, and requesting the court to continue the term.

Comm. vs. George Bush, charged with assault and battery, prosecutrix Elsie White, the grand jury ignored the bill and put the costs of prosecution upon the prosecutrix, less the $4.00 due the county.

Theodore Williams, Mamie Williams and Helen Wilson, indicted first count, larceny, second count, receiving stolen goods, prosecutrix Nannie Butler. This case is from Howard township and on trial all day Wednesday and will be concluded sometime today.

State College Football. Prospects for a champion football team at State College this fall are most encouraging. Over 100 men have been practicing daily for the last several weeks under the coaching of "Big" Bill Hollenback, the famous University of Pennsylvania, all-America fullback, and "Bull" McCleary, and everything points to a banner year in the pluckin' department of sport at old Penn State.

Captain Dexter Vely is back at end and his brilliant work should make a strong bid for All-America consideration this season. "Dick" Weston, of this place, who entered State College this fall, has made fine showing as substitute half back and will be given plenty of opportunity to display his powers during the season.

The season will be opened this coming Saturday when the White and Blue lads will clash arms on Beaver Field with the Geneva College boys. Games follow with Gettysburg, Cornell, Villanova College, University of Pennsylvania, St. Bonaventure College, Colgate, U. S. Naval Academy and University of Pittsburgh on each succeeding Saturday in the order named.

Miller—McCloskey. At the United Evangelical parsonage in this place, on Wednesday evening of last week, Mr. Caleb Evans Miller, of Bellefonte, and Miss Elsie McCloskey, of Howard, were married by the pastor, Rev. J. P. Hower. Both parties are popular in their respective communities, and their many friends extend hearty congratulations.

SIDNEY KIEFER INJURED.

Both Eyes Burned by Exploding Gas on Automobile.

An exceedingly unfortunate accident in which Sidney Kiefer, superintendent of the American Lime & Stone Company's operations in this place, was seriously burned about the eyes, occurred on Thursday evening of last week.

The accident was caused by the flames of a lighted match coming in contact with escaping gas from the motor of his automobile. The car at the time was standing in front of Mrs. Tanner's residence, on Bishop street, where Mr. Kiefer boards. He intended taking the car out, but before doing so, lit the lamps, and attempted to look at his generator which was not working freely. It is said that a companion who was with him held a lighted match so close to the opening that the escaping gas caught fire and blew up in Mr. Kiefer's face.

It was at first feared that the slight damage to his eyes was permanent, but the superintendent of the operations of the American Lime & Stone company at this place, and is regarded as one of their most valuable men. Just a short time ago his engagement to Miss Grace Blackford, of this place, was announced.

DRAGGED BY HORSE.

J. Bart Martin, a fruit-dealer of State College, had an exciting experience with a runaway horse at that place, last Wednesday, that might easily have terminated fatally. With his horse and wagon he had taken a load of boxes and barrels to his stable on Calder alley. One of the barrels falling off the wagon frightened the horse and the animal bolted down the alley, scattering the contents of the wagon in all directions. Mr. Martin grabbed the lines with his left hand and a trace with his right, but was unable to check the animal's start, and finally was compelled to relinquish his hold on the trace. He tripped and fell at this juncture and was rolled over and over on the ground before he could get loose from the lines. Aside from the bumps he received while being dragged two of the wheels ran over his chest. The horse continued running until it reached the public fountain on College avenue, where it was stopped after demolishing the wagon.

Although Mr. Martin was severely cut and bruised, no bones were broken, for which he can be mighty thankful.

Parent-Teacher Association.

The first meeting of the Association will be held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 3rd, of next week, in the auditorium of the new High school. Dr. Youcum will give a talk on "Learning to Read by a Learner." Persons who have heard this talk say it is most excellent. Russell Blair will sing a solo, accompanied by Miss Brady. The "Question Box," that proved so interesting and beneficial last year, will be continued. All are cordially invited. The parents are especially urged to come and join in these meetings and thus bring the home and the school closer together.

Engineers at Work.

During the past week a number of engineers have been in Penns-alley, between Boalsburg and Centre Hall, and it is reported they represent the commission seeking a new location for the proposed penitentiary farm. They have been making surveys and taking elevations of various sites that have been suggested for such an institution in that valley. They also have taken the elevations of various possible water supplies.

Before leaving, we are assured that they likewise will go over various locations in Nittany and Bald Eagle valleys that have been suggested for the same purpose.

Hospital Notes.

Operations: Mrs. Mae McCoy, appendicitis, Bellefonte; Mrs. Mary S. Strouse, Bellefonte; Mrs. Rebecca Welch, appendicitis, Bellefonte; Walter Shay, amputation of two small toes, injured by train, Howard.

Admitted for treatment: Sidney Kiefer, eyes burned, Bellefonte; Mrs. Mary Leathers, Howard.

Discharged: Mrs. John Lynn and Mrs. Fred Davis, Bellefonte.

There are twenty-three patients now in the hospital.

Who are the men running for District Attorney? Why not support the one who has served the Democratic Party the longest? Why not support the one who is a member of the Supreme Court, making him eligible to try all cases before this court? He has never held a County office. You know him—the man who promised you in a letter several weeks ago, saying, "I have but one promise to make, and that is, if nominated and elected I will be District Attorney for all people, and will try cases without fear or favor. Respectfully, J. M. Keichline."—Adv.

AUTOMOBILISTS HAVE EXCITING ADVENTURES

ONE CAR CATCHES FIRE AND HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

TWO STUDENTS SOUSED IN DAM

The Scenes of Both Adventures Were Laid Near Linden Hall—Timely Aid of Two Men Save State College Man From Frightful Death.

Thrilling and exciting have been the experiences of several automobilists in Centre county within the past ten days, and indeed that of Hamill Holmes, a well known citizen of State College, on Wednesday night of last week, hinges so near to a fatality, that it makes one shiver to tell of it. Mr. Holmes was not hurt, however, and was in Bellefonte this week, as is also the car which figured in the accident, the details of which are as follows:

Mr. Holmes had taken his brother's Ford runabout for a trip to Centre Hall to look after some lumber business, in which he is connected, his own car having been away from home at the time. It was dark when he started on the return trip, and when in the vicinity of Linden Hall he perceived a buggy approaching the horse of which he began to shy as it got near the car. Unaware to Mr. Holmes a steep embankment ran along the side of the road to his right, to the edge of which he pulled his car in order to give the horse and vehicle ample room to pass. His car had practically come to a stop, and before he realized his dangerous predicament, the machine began sliding down the embankment, and overturned, pinning Mr. Holmes under it.

In the meantime the horse and buggy had passed the spot at a pretty lively gait, and the occupants, who chanced to be Amos Koch and Lyman Smith returning from Boalsburg to Centre Hall, happened to glance back. They were amazed to see the car they had just passed lying over the bank upside down, and on fire. It took them but a moment to grasp the situation and get to the aid of Mr. Holmes, who was imprisoned under the burning car. They quickly lifted one side of the machine, thus enabling the unfortunate driver to crawl out, and not an instant too soon, for he had Mr. Holmes been extricated, the burning fuel tank exploded, scattering the burning fluid in all directions. Strange to say, none of the men were injured, except a slight burn Mr. Holmes suffered on one of his hands.

The car was brought to Keichline's garage in this place on Monday, and is considerably charred and burned, although the body was not entirely consumed, as at first reported. The explosion of the gasoline tank occurred at the end, and a large hole in the top, which Mr. Holmes escaped from serious injury was truly miraculous, and he owes it in part to the timely assistance of Mr. Koch and Mr. Smith.

No less exciting, but with a tinge of the ludicrous, was the adventure of two State College students Monday night of last week, in which an automobile and a mill dam figured prominently.

The two students, whose names could not be learned, were en route from Scranton to State College in an automobile, and when in the vicinity of Spring Mills their engine broke down, with no hopes of getting it re-down in that vicinity. This was consternation enough, but only a drop in the bucket to what was to follow. They finally secured the services of C. H. Gramley to tow them with his car over the balance of their journey to State College. A fairly long rope was used in fastening the two cars together, and they started, the disabled car in the rear, with the young men in it who undertook to guide and brake it.

Nothing eventful occurred until the hill at the Linden Hall mill was reached. At this point a descending steep incline those in the rear car failed to hold it back sufficiently to keep the rope taut, with the result that the front wheels of the rear auto ran over and became entangled in the slack of the rope. This latter was unnoticed by any of the party at the time, and when Mr. Gramley put on a little more speed to take up the rope, it turned the steering apparatus of the rear automobile to the side, and into the deep and chilling waters of the dam it plunged. Luckily the car kept right side up, but it was merged to a deep that only a portion of the top could be seen. The men in the car were in no wise hurt, but both were badly frightened and lost no time in getting to terra firma. The service of Robt. McClellan, a nearby farmer and his team of horses, were secured and the car was pulled from the water and the journey continued. Nothing further happened to the "studies" that night and they reached the college with all the appearance of having undergone a good healthy hazing. The car was not injured beyond its broken engine, which had been the innocent cause of all their troubles.

They Were Bellefonters.

The Tyrone Times of last Saturday said: "An alleged disorderly house, conducted by the Rossman family was raided on Saturday night. The people can here recently from Bellefonte, whether they again went on Monday night. They, it is alleged, took with them wearing apparel, etc., which they purchased from some of our merchants, one of whom was fortunate enough to have received a deposit on a ladies' suit. The others were not so fortunate. The man is said to have represented himself as being an employe of the paper mill and in that manner secured goods with the promise to make settlement on the first of the month. Steps have been taken to recover the goods, which he obtained under false pretense."

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ENLISTMENT

COMRADES JOINED IN CELEBRATION AT MOSHANNON.

PROVED DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

At the Home of J. Toner Lucas—Sung Familiar Hymns and Recounted Events of the Civil War—A Famous Regiment—Old Soldiers Present.

On the 23rd of September, 1861, J. T. Lucas, in company with C. T. Fryberger, Henry Folk, C. S. Garrett, George Creig and George Carson, of Hecla, enlisted in Co. D of the 45th Regiment Pa. Volunteers. The 50th anniversary of the memorable occasion was appropriately celebrated on last Saturday Sept. 23rd at the home of John Toner Lucas at Moshannon.

A few of his old comrades were present to enjoy the pleasures of the day. Among whom were: Capt. Charles T. Fryberger, of Philipsburg; Sergeant William H. Musser, of Bellefonte; William P. Mahaffey, of Clearfield; Michael C. Johnson, of Mill Hill; James L. Yarnell, of Snow Shoe; Geo. W. Lenz, of Stormstown; and William H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, all of whom were members of the famous "45th," which, it is claimed, covered more ground than any other regiment in the war. Those present of other regiments were: John A. Yeager, of Elgin; Christopher Cook, of Pine Glen; William A. Jacobs and Methias Maves, of Clearfield; George Fravel, John Munnell, and Hozellian Dixon, of Snow Shoe; Edward Shannon and Israel Hoover, of Moshannon. About ten o'clock the guests began to arrive and after a cordial welcome by the host and family, they immediately began to relate thrilling and comic events of the war, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all. The veterans were then assembled before the camera for a picture, after which several songs were sung, including "Auld Lang Syne," "The Army Man," and "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp."

Dinner, to which all did ample justice, and with comments on the scanty meals they had often partaken of while in the service, was then enjoyed. The dinner was served in a large tent upon the lawn, which was artistically and appropriately decorated with flags, suitable pictures, golden rod and maple leaves, the latter suggesting to the old soldiers that they are in the autumn of life.

After the dinner, Miss Jennie Lucas gave a recitation entitled, "My Father was a Soldier." Then short speeches were made by John Gansalus, J. T. Lucas, W. A. Jacobs, William Musser, J. Toner Lucas—1911.

C. T. Fryberger and James Yarnell. Several interesting letters from old comrades who could not be present, were read and highly appreciated. The following were sung, such as "America," "Marching through Georgia," "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home," "Am I a Soldier of the Cross," and others, after which Albert Lucas gave two recitations, entitled "Our Heroes," and "Boy Billy." The company was then favored with several selections on the violin by John A. Yeager, whose ability to entertain his comrades was not diminished with his increasing years.

Beside the veterans the following persons were present: Mrs. Edward Shannon, Mrs. Israel Hoover, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lucas, of Moshannon; Mrs. Annie Lucas, Mrs. McCullough, and Mrs. F. L. Zimmerman and children, of Altoona; Miss Pet Fellman, of Williamsport; William H. Noll, of Pleasant Gap; Rev. R. F. Rich, of Snow Shoe, and Rev. W. A. Graham, of Salona.

The hour for departure arrived all too soon and the company was broken up.

LITTLE ARCHIE WOOMER KILLED.

Fell From a Pile of Ties While Playing on Saturday Evening.

Falling from a pile of railroad ties on which he had been playing, Archie, the little eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Woomer, who resides in the Brown Row on south Potter street received fatal injuries on Saturday evening about 5:30, from which he died twenty minutes later.

The boy in company with a younger sister were playing on a lot of railroad ties, which are stacked in piles of from four to six feet high near the old brick office below the Brown Row. It is supposed the children were jumping from one pile to another, when the boy fell, one of the ties rolling to the ground with him. Mrs. Anna Gordon, a neighboring woman, who lives in her first house in the row, heard one of the children screaming, several times, and upon going down to where they were playing found the boy lying upon the ground with a heavy tie upon his foot. The little girl, unconscious of her brother's severe injuries, exclaimed, "Archie can't get up." The boy was perfectly conscious when taken home and told his mother he was going to die. A physician was summoned, but he could not save the little life, and in a few minutes death relieved his sufferings.

Archie E. Woomer was a bright and lovable child, and was one of a family of six children. Funeral services were held from his late home on Tuesday morning at 9:30, after which the body was taken to Myers cemetery, Buffalo Run, for burial. In the church at that place the services were continued, conducted in both instances by Rev. C. W. Winey, of the United Brethren church.

HOMES ENTERED.

Sleeping Inmates Were Chloroformed and Robbed.

Flemington was visited by burglars late on Saturday night, or at an early hour Sunday morning, the homes of William McGregor, the contractor, who is erecting the H. H. Martin theatre building, George Bressler and Mrs. Kate Barry being entered.

The robbers got in by prying open the windows and quietly entering the bedrooms chloroformed the sleeping inmates, it is believed, for the unwelcome visitors ransacked every room, and nothing was known of their presence until Sunday morning.

In the McGregor home $15 was taken from the trousers of Mr. McGregor and $3 from the trousers of his son Robert in another room. A watch in a vest under Mr. McGregor's pillow escaped the eye of the robbers, but they also took a number of towels and a box of soap of which which had been purchased for the Sunday dinner. In the Bressler home only 25 cents in change and several pair of socks were secured, while a small watch, a highly-prized gift, was snatched from the Barrett home.—Clinton Democrat.

Stop! Look! Listen!

Come to Epworth League at Methodist church on Sunday evening, and don't fail to get a card from the captains and their committees. See the captains and they will give you a card and full instructions. The colors are Red and White.

The Captains—Mrs. Harry Martorff; Committee—Anna Confer, Ida Green, Mrs. M. R. Johnson, Hazel Johnson, Thomas Morgan, Olive Steele, Harry Martorff, and Mrs. Maurice Kremer. White, Captain—Alfred Kieffer; Committee—Grace Blackford, Sara Caldwell, Mary Grimm, Mary Hill, M. R. Johnson, Van Joden, Keturah Rider, Emma Waite, and Grace Vailmont.

The leader for next Sunday evening will be C. C. Shuey. The contest will last until Dec. 3rd, 1911.

A Saucy Tramp.

The residents of Yarnell were annoyed on Tuesday morning by a young tramp who passed through that section, carrying with him more than the usual amount of impudence which this class of humanity possess. He stopped at the residence of Thomas Malone, and demanded of one of the members a glass of milk under threat of bodily harm if he was refused. At the store of Ira Confer's the hobo asked for something to eat of Mrs. Confer, who happened to be alone at the time, and backed his demand with a threat to strike her with a stick. A couple of good healthy men with clubs is the best means of softening the temper of such gentlemen.

Special Public Orchard Meeting.

Arrangements have been made for the holding of a monster public orchard meeting at the farm of Howard T. Struble, Zion Station, on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, commencing at 1 p. m. and an opportunity will be afforded all who attend to compare the up-to-date methods of horticulture with the average system practiced by the majority of fruit growers in the county. The meeting is free and a large crowd should be in attendance to hear the subject of "modern orcharding" discussed by the representative of the Division of Zoology Mr. T. C. Foster.

Don't forget the date, Tuesday, Oct. 3rd.

EVERYTHING READY FOR THE BIG FAIR

WILL BE LARGEST AND BEST EVER HELD.

GOOD RACES—FAST HORSES

The Main Exhibiting Building Will Present a Most Interesting Sight—Wild West Show Will Be New and Novel—Everybody is Coming.

The Big Centre County Fair next week will be the largest and best ever held, if the weather is propitious. Every arrangement has been practically completed and the management are confident of the success of the twelfth annual exhibition of the Centre County Agricultural exhibiting company which will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, of next week. Four days and every day will be a big one. Liberal premiums and increased purses are having their effect and the indications are that every available foot of space in the large exhibition building and the produce and fruit tent will be taken and the outlook was never brighter for a big string of race horses.

On the grounds Christ Decker will have charge of the concessions and general supervision of the stock exhibit, assisted by James Carson.

The main exhibition building will be under the general supervision of Harry Keller Esq. In that building the fancy work department will be carefully looked after by Mrs. W. R. Jenkins and Mrs. Harry Yeager. The housewife's department, of bread, cakes, pies, jellies, canned goods, etc., will be looked after by Mrs. Harry Keller and a capable assistant, while the children's department will be in charge of Miss Mary Gray Meek and others. It is the desire of those in charge that as many of the exhibits as possible be brought or sent in on Monday and all of them Tuesday morning, in order to allow for a proper display.

The fruit and produce department, which will be displayed in a big double tent, will be under the direct supervision of Samuel Decker, who will be assisted by Oliver Wittmer. This department, by the way, will be bigger and better than ever this year and will alone be worth the price of admission to the fair.

Through the generosity of the business men of Bellefonte the purses have been increased to a figure that makes them an object worth while to every horse owner in the State. A $300 purse both Wednesday and Thursday and $400 for the big race for all on Friday is worth going after. The big men will be there to contest for the big money. Then in addition there will be a running race each day, and everybody knows the excitement of such a race.

There will be the usual large display of farm implements and machinery and from the numerous applications already received for concessions on "The Pike" there will be plenty of amusements to entertain the crowd. No gambling dens or devices, however, will be allowed on the grounds.

Tompson's wild west show as the free attraction this year will be above the average. One of the features of this attraction is a basket ball game on horseback between Cowboy and Indian teams. A beautiful young lady will perform marvelous tricks on the best educated horse in the State. There will be broncho busting and lasso work of the most thrilling kind and dare-devil riding sufficient to make your hair stand. All this will be absolutely free and will be shown near the judge's stand during the races.

The Coleville band will be there every day and give frequent concerts on various parts of the grounds.

Children Admitted Free. Don't forget that Wednesday will be Children's Day, when all children will be admitted free. The fair is an educator in itself and the children of the county should be given the advantage of learning all from it they can. Therefore take them in on Wednesday when it won't cost you a cent for their admission.

Boarding houses and eating tents will be on the grounds to supply all who do not care to be encumbered with a basket.

The price of admission this year will be the same as in all former years. Twenty-five cents will admit you to the grounds and the privilege of seeing everything the fair management has to offer.

Don't wait for one special day as being the big day. Every day will be big so that you can't afford to miss one of them.

Through the courtesy of Maj. John C. Groome, a detachment of the State on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, commencing at 1 p. m. and an opportunity will be afforded all who attend to compare the up-to-date methods of horticulture with the average system practiced by the majority of fruit growers in the county. The meeting is free and a large crowd should be in attendance to hear the subject of "modern orcharding" discussed by the representative of the Division of Zoology Mr. T. C. Foster.
