

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Remember, the musical comedy in the opera house next week.

J. S. McCargar was a Phillipsburg visitor on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Frank Clemson, of Benora, was circulating in Bellefonte on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tibbets were the guests of friends in Howard on Sunday.

Mrs. Sadie Larimer and son Fred departed this week for a visit with friends in Philadelphia.

F. E. Nagney made a run to Philadelphia the past week in his Ford car, arriving home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Eckenroth and daughter Mary returned home Sunday from a pleasant visit with friends in Beech Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Musser have been entertaining Oscar Peters of Lancaster the past week, at their home on Howard street.

Mrs. Donovan Huston, who had been visiting for some time with Mrs. Rogers in this place, departed on Tuesday for her home in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Charles Morris has returned home from Washington where she had accompanied her daughter Miss Elizabeth, who will enter a school at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lane and children returned to their home in MeKeesport on Tuesday after a pleasant month's visit with friends and relatives in this place.

Morris Klingler, of Lemont, visited friends in Bellefonte on Tuesday while en route to Lock Haven, where he will be employed for some time at his trade of bookbinding.

Mrs. Arthur Brown and child returned to her home in New York City on Saturday after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spangler, on Bishop street.

Mrs. Ed. Folk and child, while on a visit with friends in this section, stopped off on Monday with her uncle Joshua Folk, and returned to her home in Altoona on the 4:45 train.

W. H. Taylor, old veteran, and convalescer of the mails to and from the postoffice to the trains, departed on Wednesday for Port Royal, Pa., where he will attend a reunion of his regiment.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell departed for their home in Horton, W. Va., on Tuesday after a pleasant sojourn with friends and relatives in Bellefonte, Lemont and other sections of the county.

Last week Harry Otto, wife and children, of Johnstown, came to Bellefonte to visit relatives and friends, and while Mr. Otto was compelled to return to his position on Sunday, Mrs. Otto and the children will remain until Friday.

Col. C. G. McMillen, of Dayton, Ohio, is spending two weeks in Bellefonte for the purpose of having a brief vacation among former friends and acquaintances, having at one time successfully conducted the Brockert House in Bellefonte.

Lloyd Barnhart, of Pittsburg, was an arrival in Bellefonte on Saturday to join his wife and daughter Madeline, who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barnhart for the past month. They returned to their home in Pittsburg on Sunday.

A number of motor-cyclists from Pittsburg and Altoona made the trip to Bellefonte on Sunday, and the "chug-chug" of their vehicles was not unlike a small army of rattling guns. One of the party from Altoona broke his machine coming down and was compelled to go home by train.

If Harry Brown, of Axemann, greets you with a large-sized smile and a bear-like handshake, don't get the idea that he is running for office, for he isn't. It's something better than all the old offices—a nice big boy, and he arrived last Tuesday with the intention of making that his permanent home.

Sidney Barlet, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barlet, Sr., in this place. Mr. Barlet accompanied him as far as Tyrone on his return home in the afternoon and returned to Bellefonte in the evening with Rev. Winey and Darius Waite, who had been attending the United Brethren conference at Huntingdon.

Harry Auman, who for a number of years has been clerk at the Brockert House, recently resigned his position, and he and his family departed this week for Altoona, where after a few days visit they will locate in Philadelphia. Harry intends to get in the automobile business, thus affording him a little more outdoor work.

Aside from being a good electrician Harry Waite, of this place, is getting some reputation as a chicken fancier. Many people have admired his flock of white geese kept at the rear of his lot on Bishop street. They are of a good, healthy strain of birds, too, as Harry raised the flock over a hundred with the loss of but two. This week freight agent Frank Warfield, who takes delight in raising pure-bred chickens, purchased thirty of Mr. Waite's flock.

James Krape, who for the past year and a half, or more, has been employed at the Bellefonte hospital as man-of-all-work, handed in his resignation this week, and will hereafter devote his time to some other occupation. During his stay at the hospital James has been very faithful to his duties, and has rendered valuable services to those in charge of the institution. On the other hand James has received the best of treatment from all who are connected with the hospital and is loath to leave except that the work is not to his liking.

H. H. Bradley, who is employed by the American Lime & Stone Co. and lives near the chain works at the lower end of town, has done some hunting in his time but, up until one day last week, has never had the experience of game coming right up to his door. One day recently much to his surprise a good-sized pheasant flew into the parlor at his home, perched itself right upon one of the curtain poles and greeted the family with a look which meant: "Mind, I'm telling you pheasant season isn't in yet." Mr. Bradley kept his visitor all night and the next morning gave it its liberty. That bird had a mighty lot of faith, but it wasn't misplaced.

John Love transacted business in Snow Shoe on Saturday.

Mrs. D. C. Hess, of Linden Hall, favored the Democrat with a call.

Ad. Fauble returned home on Saturday from a business trip to New York.

Merchant tailor William Miller, of Phillipsburg, was a business visitor in Bellefonte last week.

Miss Ida Winkleblech, of Aaronsburg, was the guest of friends at the Brant House, one day the past week.

Luther and Charles Smith spent Sunday last by driving to State College and spending the day with friends.

Miss Libbie Fishburne and brother Thomas, of State College, were guests of C. W. Korman and family on Sunday.

Katharine Mongan returned home this week from a very pleasant visit among relatives and friends at Sharpsburg, Md., and York, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Haupt and Harry Fulton returned home Saturday from a two week's trip divided between Troy and Mansfield fairs.

Monday morning the record was broken, as there were more candidates in attendance at court than jurors and witnesses. All were as busy as bees.

Paul Brennan returned to his home at Pittsburg on Saturday morning after a pleasant week's visit at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Mary Fox, in this place.

Rev. C. W. Winey was called to Richfield, Juniata county, on Wednesday to preach the funeral sermon for the late Solomon Graybill, interment taking place today.

Among the recent movings in Bellefonte this week were John Dawson and family from Halfmoon hill to Logan street, and Joshua Barner and family from east Howard street to one of the new properties on Penn street.

Phillip Shoemaker went to Tyrone on Saturday to meet his sisters, Misses Ellen and Augusta, who had been spending the portion of summer since August last with friends in Somerset. They later returned to their home in Bellefonte.

Mrs. John Dawson was tendered a surprise party at her home on Halfmoon hill, on Saturday night last, the occasion being in honor of her birthday which occurred the next day, Sunday. A most pleasant evening was spent by all who were present.

A merry party consisting of Misses Bella and Hazel Johnson, Grace Vallimont, Margaret Coxe, Messrs Edw. Garbrick, Edw. Gates, Alfred Kleffer, and Homer Decker went to Milesburg on Friday evening where they were royally entertained by Miss Bessie Spicer at her home in that place.

Daily fine touring auto take in Bellefonte on their pleasure trips with families and promiscuous pleasure seekers. Bellefonte is found by these to be a pleasant and interesting town to stopover. The invention of the auto has brought appreciable patronage to our hotels here, as well as in other parts.

Miss Kathryn Cooney, daughter of Mart Cooney, departed on Saturday morning for Pittsburg, at which place she will enter the Mercer hospital to become a trained nurse. Miss Cooney was one of Bellefonte's most popular young ladies, and many friends will look forward to her reaching the highest success in her noble choice of professions.

Boosters have no business in the barnyard where they can grow and be as plentiful as weeds. Ambitious individuals who largely seek notoriety and are possessed of a lot of fads and fancies are an expensive luxury and the school debt in Bellefonte will never be lowered with such people on the School Board.

Next week will witness the great Centre county Fair, and while many amusements have been provided, there is one which you should not overlook when your friends come to Bellefonte. We refer to the scenic, the most satisfying amusement you can wish for, simply because there will be a variety of pictures to suit all tastes. Remember the scenic gives a 25c show for 5c, every evening. See the scenic by all means.

Incidental to Rev. Barry's departure from this place to Centre Hall on Tuesday afternoon to take up his duties among the Lutheran congregations of that vicinity, a half hundred or more of his friends called at his home on Spring street on Monday evening to wish him God-speed, and express their regrets on his leaving. The Reverend undoubtedly carries with him the respect and good will of the entire community.

Miss Cordie Sager, daughter of Isaac Sager, of this place, who had been employed for some time at a hotel in Butler, has been very ill in a hospital in that place for the past few weeks, having fallen a victim to the typhoid fever epidemic which has been scouring Butler. Mr. Sager spent pretty nearly all of last week at his daughter's bedside, and came home on Saturday satisfied that her recovery is now assured.

As will be seen in the list of United Brethren conference appointments in this week's issue of the Democrat, Rev. C. W. Winey has been returned to the Bellefonte pastorate, which is gratifying news to his many friends here. It may be said with all sincerity that the local church has never had a more popular pastor, and his work has been very successful. Rev. Winey will occupy his pulpit next Sunday morning, and in the evening Rev. G. W. Emshizer, a former pastor at this place, will preach to the congregation.

Trees, like mankind, are both long and short lived. Some trees are known to have lived upwards of a thousand years. The Cedars of Lebanon, recorded in the Good Book, have a record of several hundred years and from that number on down the forests have shorter lived denizens down to fifty years. "Time cuts down all both great and small," and to sing "Woodman, spare that tree," will not admonish Time. These thoughts sprang to our mind, as we witnessed, as the axe, a few days ago, was laid to the roots of one of the maple shade trees in front of the Benner residence just across from the Centre Democrat office. It was showing signs of having developed consumption, and its leafless top, and barren branches began to call Time.

Some "gentleman" used his knife on the rubber tires of Col. Taylor's carriage. Small business.

Mrs. William Bell has been spending the past week with Professor and Mrs. James Orvis in Tyrone.

Samuel Kreamer, one of Centre Hall's successful merchants, while attending court, was a pleasant caller at our office.

The new fire escape on the Bellefonte Hospital was completed this week and makes that institution safer for the inmates in case of fire.

The local High school football team was defeated on Saturday afternoon on Hughes field, by the State College High school; the score was 29-3.

Hard P. Harris is enjoying his new Flanders car, but when he is back of the steering wheel he moves more cautiously over the road than some others.

Ice cream, cake and homemade candies will be on sale at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church.

Much local matter will be found in the inside pages of the Centre Democrat; each week. Look the paper over, page by page, or you will miss something of special local interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Havery and little daughter, after a brief visit at the home of Mrs. Havery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, departed on Wednesday for their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harper arrived home on Wednesday afternoon from Philadelphia, where Mr. Harper underwent an operation about two weeks ago, and his condition is much improved since then.

Remember this, in the day of automobiles, you will avoid accidents and liability if you keep to the right. In driving around a sharp curve keep your team to the right, if a collision results you can then collect from the other fellow for damages.

When you come to The Centre County Fair next week it might be a convenient time for you to drop in at the Centre Democrat office and see everything in full bloom. We will have ample facilities to wait on all who may wish to renew subscriptions.

On Sunday evening a large gray horse, of one of R. B. Taylor's fine mated teams, died suddenly due to choking while eating. It was a valuable animal, worth at least $250.

This is what cuts the profits in doing teaming and contract work, and can happen to teams receiving the best of care.

Joe, the Italian fruit dealer, who conducted a business on High street, near Shuey's grocery, pulled up stakes and left with his family some days ago. Before leaving, however, he sold the stock and good will of his store for $75 to a fellow-countryman, who continues to dispose of "de big a banana".

Griffith Lytle, of Downs, Kans., passed through town on Wednesday, on his way from Lemont to his home. About 33 years ago Mr. Lytle left here as a boy to become a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all because a husky son came to him, and he was a farmer. A number of other Centre County people are living in the same section and he reports all as prospering.

Chas. A. Fetzer, operator at the Milesburg station, was in town on Wednesday morning, spy as a three-year-old, and happy as a lord, all