HOWARD.

"Success is getting up promptly after one has fallen."

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Fairview at half past ten, and will hold a baptismal service. He will also preach in Howard at half past seven.

Christian Scientist—Service at the home of Mrs. Thomas Mann at half past ten.

Reformed—Pastor E. F. Faust will preach at Mt. Bethel at ten o'clock, at Salona at half past two and in Howard at half past seven.

Methodist Episc.—The several pulpits of the Howard charge will be vacant for the next two weeks because of the pastor's absence in vacation.

Presbyterian—Rev. S. C. Bower, of Johnstown, will preach in the old Lick Run church at Jacksonville at eleven o'clock, and in the Christian Chapel in Howard at half past seven.

Council Meeting.

Council assembled in regular meeting at the usual time and place—all present. Minutes read, amended and approved. Street Com. reported A. Weber's and Dr. Cook's sidewalk completed, and others making progress Com. was directed to notify B. F. Holter estate to build new walk. Cemetery walk was reported very bad and was discussed with special reference to the responsibility for it, and no action taken. A request was presented from J. W. Quay to have council require the walk on Black street side of the Hayes Schenk property completed, and a crossing made across Hogan alley. Street committee was directed to notify Mr. Schenk and action as to crossing deferred. Dr. McEntire urged that the railroad company be requested to build a sidewalk around their property on Black street, and that a crossing to connect with this be laid across Black street at the J. Will Mayes alley. Street committee also reported an inetrview with Burdine Butler as to the fence at the east end of the borough, which brought up a question as to the borough lines. The committee was directed to inquire into the facts in the case. Water committee reported muddy water in the pipes, and suggestions were made as to abating it. Nuisance committee reported a complaint by T. A. Pletcher concerning an overflow of the cesspool or drain on the store property of Jackson Kline, which Mr. Kline promised to have remedied at once. Bills of secretary Thompson and watchman Schanz, amounting to $15.25 were passed and ordered paid. An ordinance granting to Balser Weber and P. E. Thomas, operating under the title of the Howard Light & Power company, the right to lay poles and wires on or under the streets and alleys of the borough to conduct electricity for light and power purposes, was presented, read and passed. Chief Burgess George H. Leathers addressed the council upon the subject of selling goods within the borough stating that he received a communication upon the subject from the Ministerium Association, and had also been waited upon by a committee of citizens in regard to the same matter, and that he desired instruction from council. The council declined to take the matter up, on the ground that the burgess had full power in the matter. Adjourned.

The Flood of Sunday Night and Monday marked the climax of the wonderfully rainy season and was the highest in this section of the Bald Eagle valley that we have had since the memorable one of 1885, and it was but two feet less than the mark set at that time. This is the third flood of the late summer season, and completes a remarkable season. This last one was far more destructive along the flats of the Bald Eagle creek than either of the earlier ones, and worked particular havoc with the large crops of unhusked corn on the abutting farms. Beginning near the west end of the township Irvin Robinson lost twelve acres, William Gates his whole crop, George Dietz nearly all, William Dietz all, William B. Pletcher nearly all, William Smith all, William Thompson very largely, Antea Confer all, Jackson Kline all, A. M. Butler, about one-third of the flat field at the iron bridge and all of a seven-acre field at his home farm, Arthur Yoides, fifteen hundred bushels out of a two thousand bushel crop, Lincoln Crook, five hundred bushels and so on down the creek, particulars of which territory are not now available. Robert P. Confer who had been badly hit by the second flood, lost but little this time. To several of the tenant farmers this loss will be extremely severe, and their cases are almost pitiable.

The Ministerial Association held its regular monthly meeting in the lecture room of the Reformed church last Monday afternoon.

Rev. R. S. Taylor opening the subject of the afternoon with a strong paper on "The Preacher in Politics." He maintained that when one entered the ministry he did not abdicate either his manhood or his citizenship, and that which he should exercise great care to not "offend even one of these little ones." When moral questions were at issue or have been made party political questions, it was the minister's duty to discuss them fearlessly though he should do this in a spirit of charity and kindness and not with political rancor. He referred to the temperance question as an illustration. In the discussion which followed the thought of the leader seemed to be generally accepted. Thanksgiving day service was fixed for the Reformed church and Rev. M. J. Snyder will preach the sermon. The next meeting will be held in the M. E. parsonage, and Rev. W. H. Patterson will present a paper opening the consideration of Church Federation.

Wedding Reception.

Upon their return from the wedding trip, Wednesday evening of last week, Mr. Fred Leathers tendered to Mr. and Mrs. J. Claude Johnson, at the old Leathers home, a delightful reception, which was attended by seventy-five of their friends, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The hours were from five to eight, and guests came promptly. The evening was spent in congratulations and a renewal of friendships until the hour for refreshments arrived, when the bounteous and recherche repast was the object of undivided attention. At an early hour the well-pleased company departed for their homes with kind and good wishes for the host and the bridal couple. The out-of-town guests were Miss Zona Scott, of Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Cozey, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Joel Johnson, Miss Kate Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Stover, of Bellefonte; Nevin and Miss Alta Yearick, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Herly, and Miss Annie Rocky, of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Jean Hall, Beech Creek and Mrs. Alma Ruch, of Sunbury.

Sunday School Teachers.

The Union Teacher's training class of the Howard Sunday Schools has been steadily at work since its organization, and the good work it has been doing is showing good results. On Tuesday evening of last week eight members of the class took the second examination, each one of them passing with a high grade. The members who were examined were Rev. R. S. Taylor, Mrs. T. A. Pletcher and Miss Madeline Cooke, of the M. E. school; Mrs. E. F. Faust, Mrs. H. A. Robb, Mrs. C. M. Fox, and Miss Mary Allison, of the Reformed school; and J. F. Herr, of the Fairview Evangelical school. This examination was upon the New Testament, of which course Rev. R. S. Taylor had been the teacher. The subject of the first course was the Old Testament, taught by Rev. E. F. Faust and the examination upon this, held several weeks ago, was a very satisfactory one. This work has high value to the community.

An Earned Vacation.

The several congregations of the M. E. church in this charge have generously granted their pastor, Rev. R. S. Taylor, a three weeks vacation, which he has well deserved by his earnest application to his work. Next Sabbath, Oct. 8, he expects to spend with brother Rev. C. P. Taylor, pastor of the M. E. church at Winchester, Va., the next Sabbath he will spend with friends of his youth, preaching for Rev. D. N. Miller, pastor of the M. E. church at Montoursville. His many friends wish him "bon voyage."

Last Wednesday (yesterday) about 3:45 in the morning, a fire broke out in a small and unoccupied bed-room of the second story of the house owned by Dr. McEntire and occupied by John D. Shay and family, of which little Walter, now in Bellefonte hospital because of last week's accident, is a member. A younger brother of Walter's, Tom, about three or four years old, had been playing in the room, out of the bed of which were piled the unused bed and personal clothing of the household, and set fire to it. The mother's cries soon started a general alarm, and nearby men rushed into the house, and despite the stifling smoke from the burning goods, entered the room and began pitching them out of the windows. Our ever alert and volunteer firemen soon had pieces of hose out of the fire house, only a few rods distant, and the fire was extinguished with no serious harm to the building, and comparatively no important destruction of clothing and bedding.

Season tickets for the full course (at one dollar) of attractions offered by the Howard Entertainment Association, and single admission tickets for the "Musical Favorites" (at 35 cents) who will appear in the brick church south of the railroad, Friday, 13th, inst., are now on sale at the stores of B. Weber's Son, Moore's drug store, C. C. Lucas, Kline and Wolf, and the postoffice, where they can be had until the 13th. After that date season tickets will be withdrawn, and only single admission tickets will be available. Get in on the ground floor and secure the advantage of season tickets.

Mrs. J. A. Kundtz, of Columbus, O., is just now caring for the otherwise womanless household of her father, Capt. H. C. Holter.

UNIONVILLE.

The first spasm is over. Gee! but ain't we got a strong team! It's a winner!

The office of Recorder is floating on the political sea. Will Francis Spear it? Sure. If he don't he'll be done up Brown. (That's one, crazy Dan didn't get)

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Peters. On Thursday the guests, chaperoned by Mrs. Peters, will go to Berwick, Millville and other eastern towns on an extended visit to friends located there.

Several rows of corn shucks were washed out of Mrs. Fisher's corn field by the recent flood, and will probably land in the Chesapeake bay.

In a recent issue of the Democrat the Wingate correspondent boasted of a big cucumber that somebody had raised there, Mrs. Emma McDonald, nee Harpster, formerly of this place but now of Munson Station, who is a devotee of the Centre Democrat, wants her Centre county friends to know that she is "some" on raising big "Cow-bumpers" and here is one she raised this summer that knocks the warts off the Wingate "Cuke." It measured 14 inches in length and 1 1/4 inches in circumference. There, now.

Miss Mary Erhart, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli E. Erhart, formerly of this place but now of Pittsburgh, was married last week to Frank Shorehouse, and while on their honeymoon trip spent several days with friends in town. In the evening they were accorded the usual Calathumplan reception. We are "shy" of full particulars.

Mrs. John P. Harris, Jr. came home from her husband's camp near Mount Union where she had spent the summer and at once commenced packing up her household goods preparatory to moving to Mount Union and on Tuesday of this week, her household effects were loaded on the cars, and will be shipped to that place at once. During the six or seven years they have lived among us they have made hosts of friends who are sorry to have them move away, and all join in wishing them success in their new home. B. W. Shipley, Esq., has purchased the Harris property and will occupy the same in the near future.

Great, big-hearted Joe Barton, who holds a lucrative position in a railroad office at Confluence, Pa., was home over Sunday shaking hands with his friends, whose name is legion. Joe came home to help make the Republican ticket and we'll bet dollars to doughnuts that he'll be back in November to help elect (?) it.

Miss Sarah Cowher, who for a long time has lived in the Pratt home is lying seriously ill, being threatened with pneumonia at the home of Abdenico Williams.

It is rumored that Mrs. Frank Ammerman wishes to sell her pretty home across the creek with the intention to quit housekeeping. Of course, Mrs. Rumor didn't say that she has matrimony in view.

We were also informed by the same lady that the Pratt heirs desire to sell their beautiful home which is a substantial brick residence and one of the prettiest and most desirable homes in our town. Seth B. Pratt and his sister, Miss Bessie, who have been occupying the house since the death of their father, Riley Pratt, Esq., will close the house the latter part of this week for the winter, Miss Bessie will go to live with her brother, the Rev. James A. Pratt, at Norristown; while Seth who is a mail agent on the main line of the Pennsylvania, being between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, will make his home at one end or the other of his route. May the world deal kindly with you.

We would again ask those who are interested in the Unionville items to help make it more interesting by hanging, or send me, any news that may come under your observation. Since my first request a number of persons have responded for which we feel grateful. Something like this will do.

The Centre Democrat.

Say, Charley, do you know Miss Maggie Rowan? Let me tell you about her. She is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rowan of this place but she has lived in the family of Mr. Leon Sickler at Tyrone for a number of years. Recently she went to visit her cousin, Miss Gertrude Gulich, at Clearfield, she, having her suit-case, which was a valuable one, checked at Tyrone for that place. On the baggage car in which was her "grip," was a crate containing a number of bears which were on the program of the Opera House for a burlesque and other stunts. One of the shabby coats broke out of his "pen" and, no doubt, being hungry, commenced nosing around for something to eat. Baggage Master Halligan felt his hat being elevated on the ends of his hair, struck for the passenger car at a 40-mile-a-minute gate. Bruin had everything his own way. Not finding any meat on tap he tackled several suit cases, one of which was that of Miss Rowan's. When Halligan returned with the trainer of the bears and a number of subordinates armed to the teeth, they found that the hungry cub had torn off and eaten the one side of Maggie's grip and was about to commence on the contents when his meal was suddenly cut short by the appearance of the man. The railroad company, of course, will recompense Miss Rowan for the loss of her suit case.

Mrs. May Buck is at home on a few days' visit.

The Big Run school teacher, Miss Boyle, took Sunday dinner with Nancy Dietz. The pupils attending the Big Run school are all pleased over their first lady teacher and they are getting along fine.

There will be a chicken and waffle supper held at the home of Joseph Poorman's on Saturday evening, Oct. 7, everybody is accordingly invited to attend; for the benefit of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunington took dinner with their daughter, Mrs. Percy Walker.

The farmers around here are patiently waiting on dry weather to put out their fall crops.

Miss Mable and Myra Boon, Mary Wagner, Hazel Clark and Harold Clark, five of Marsh Creek's promising young people, walk every day to Blanchard to school.

Phillip Dietz and Clarence Robb transacted business in Howard on Saturday.

Caleb E. Miller, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Jessie McCloskey, over Sunday.

Charles McCloskey attended the festival at Blanchard High school on Saturday evening.

The saw mill owned by George Eatens has not been running for about a week.

Mrs. George Dietz visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Dietz last week.

COBURN.

There were 126 Democratic and 20 Republican votes polled in Penn township Saturday. The many candidates whose names had to be written on nine different papers for each party and the count of the vote made considerable work for the election board, and they did not retire from their work until 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

Last Wednesday a little "Squire" arrived at the home of A. L. Auman, just in time to cheer for his father's success in winning the renomination for Justice of Peace.

Minnie Pye, of near Millheim, is making her home with Jacob Kerstetter.

C. A. Weaver and daughter Thelma spent last week here and during their stay Mr. Weaver made some repairs at his homestead, occupied by F. J. Malone.

Mrs. Cora Smith and daughter Stella and Miss Annie Smith, of Centre Hill, visited her over Sunday.

Miss Kathryn Kalter, who spent several weeks with relatives in Cleveland, O., returned home last week.

Mrs. E. J. Burd spent last week at Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. Ebon Bower.

FILLMORE.

The heavy rain which visited the community on last Sunday didn't do much damage.

Harry Rimmey, of Tusseyville, visited at the Kephart home last Sunday.

Reuben Crust unloaded a carload of coal at this place last Monday and Tuesday.

If you want any roasting ears just call on Walcott Peters, as he will see through our town twice a week with a load to State College.

Some of our farmers are not done seeding as the rain keeps them back.

KATZ & COMPANY

Not Talk But Action Has Made Ours the Largest & Best Clothing Store in This City.

It's easy enough for any store to praise its own merchandise, and to judge by the printed utterances of some stores, one would imagine that theirs was the only clothing worth buying. It's not what a store says, however, but what it does, that counts. You can't build a great business on a foundation of newspaper talk. You must produce the goods.

For over eleven years we've produced the goods to back up every claim we ever made in our advertisements. We've sold only the sort of clothing that has given thorough satisfaction at prices the lowest for good quality. This is why our clothing business has become the greatest in Bellefonte. This is why we sell more clothing than any other stores in Bellefonte. No one can truthfully dispute these facts.

We don't deny that you can buy good clothing elsewhere. You can—plenty of it. But you can't buy elsewhere any clothing as good as ours, for anything like our low prices.

A little investigating on your part will convince you that you can spend your money for clothing, to the best advantage at Sim the Clothier.

Our variety of new fall styles is immense and we can please and fit any man's fancy and pocketbook.

Suits at - $10 to $35
Overcoats at - $10 to $50
