BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-John A. Woodward was a Howard visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday. -Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shearer spent the Sabbath with friends in Beech

-William Schaeffer, of Mifflinburg, is a guest at the home of his cousin L. A. Schaeffer, on Curtin street.

-The "Musical Favorites," the first number on the Y. M. C. A. Star Course, in the Auditorium tonight. -Express agent Harry Taylor and wife have returned home from a pleas-ant two-weeks' sojourn at Atlantic

-The famous play "The Girl in the Taxi," will be the attraction at the opera house, next Wednesday evening, Oct. 18th. -Laurence McClure, employed at Renovo, was an over Sunday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. I Mc-Clure, in this place. -Geo. Smith, who several years ago married Miss Bessie Showers, of Bellefonte, is critically ill at the home of his aunt, in Buffalo

-Mrs. Wilson I. Fleming left last week for Harrisburg, where she joined her husband for a two week's visit in the Capital City. -Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown, of Lewisburg, were here last week attending the fair, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon. -Mrs. Perry Gentzel departed on Saturday afternoon for Sunbury, where she will spend some time visiting her son Homer Gentzel.

"The Girl in the Taxi," a play that has been meeting with great success in the city, at Garman's opera house next Wednesday evening.

-Mrs. John P. Harris left on Thursday of last week for Trenton, N. J., to become a guest at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. G. W. Childs. -Rally Day services will be held in St. John's Reformed Sunday school next Sunday morning at 9.45. All are cordially invited to attend this service. -Walter Tate and family have moved to Punxsutawney where the form-er has secured a good position on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg rail-

-Tuesday noon the Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt left for Lewistown and Johnstown to attend missionary and synodical meetings of the Reformed

-Mrs. Jared Mowery, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Alters in this place, for some time, left on Monday afternoon for her home at

-Mrs. J. A. Miller, of Franklinville, Pa., with her children has been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Robb on east Bishop street the past few weeks.

-Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway, who was recently chosen Regent of the Belle-fonte chapter D. A. R., entertained the husbands of the local daughters, at her home, on Monday night.

-Mrs. J. I. Underwood and children returned to their home at Reno-vo on Tuesday after a pleasant week's visit at the home of Granpa Isaac Alfred Christianson, the marriage taktimore, Md., on Tuesday afternoon.

usually pleasant these days as a grand- pleasant and agreeable qualities to run dict he will succeed. daughter was announced at the home a big daily.

Snow Shoe they erected several good morning until Friday evening. buildings for Uzzle and Chambers and did them a good job.

Edna Peters, left for her home in Lock Haven normal on Hughes Field, had better spen Rapid City, Neb., accompanied by game to be called at 2:30. Admission the Y. M. C. A. gone about a month.

-D. K. Geiss, of Centre Hall, will their lots.

-Hal Johnson, in "The Girl who Wasn't," at the opera house on Monday evening, again demonstrated to a Bellefonte audience that he has few church of this place by the pastor, equals in his line of female impersonation. With his own clever acting H. A. Benfer will be present for a and excellent support, Mr. Johnson's week and will preach the Word each latest play is equipped with all the evening. Everybody will be cordially

-James Krebbs stopped to inform us that the 110th Regiment Pa. Vol. would hold their annual reunion at Tyrone on Thursday October 19th. tion and he will see that this section is properly represented.

-Among the usual good features shown at the Scenic is "Pathe's Weekany of them.

ways is kept in prime condition, but the other day it actually laid down in ductor, Martin Reese, with his wife and daughter, returned home on Satium to-night.

-Owing to the rain the Centre County Fair was called off last Satur--Mr. and Mr. J. W. Barnhart were the guests of the latter's parents at Jersey Shore, over Sunday. -Miss Elizabeth Barnhart entertained her friend Miss Lillian Russell, of Altoona, the latter part of last week.

—John Cherry and family moved from this place to Montgomery, Pa., where they will make their future

-Miss Helen Cunningham left for Washington, D. C., to enter at once upon a course of training for professional nursing.

-Thomas E. Mayes has taken a room at Mrs. James Lane's, in the Gardner house on High street and will take his meals at Tanner's, on Bishop street.

-Miss Florence Love, having recovered from her recent illness, resumed her work after an absence of three months, as a compositor in the Watchman office.

-Rev. Hawes will assume the pastorate of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church on Sunday, October 15th, and will doubtless be formally installed in the near future.

-The Misses Alma Dorey and Maude McCloskey have returned to their home in Lock Haven after a pleasant visit spent with friends in Bellefonte and Milesburg.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hendrick, of Coon Rapids, Iowa, have been vis-itors of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coxey, on East Bishop street, and with other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

-Mrs. William Doll departed on Tuesday for a few weeks sojourn at Linden, Pa., to become the guest of her brother, Augustus Gillen, who is successfully conducting a hotel in that

-Harrison Kline, James Caldwell and Frank Crissman went to Akron, Ohio, several weeks ago. Crissmar has secured a clerical position with the Diamond Rubber company, but the other's returned home.

-Harry Auman, who recently re signed his position as clerk at the Brockerhoff House, has accepted a better position as chief day clerk in the Anderson pool and cigar store and bowling alley in Altoona.

-Next Sunday with be Old Folks' Day at the nited Brethren church, at time all grandmothers and grandfathers are specially invited to attend and hear a sermon preached in the morning, appropriate to the oc

-Chester Barnes and Miss Sarah Fitzgerald have started a dancing class in the Knights of Columbus Hall on Wednesday evenings and Saturday afternoons, with opchestra after dances each Wednesday evening beginning with next week.

-Announcements have been received in Bellefonte of the marriage of Miss Lucy Josephine Storm, daughsanctum on fair day. Miss Kennedy -Rev. John Hewitt is more than has all the accomplishments and perienced hardware man and we prefonte High school foot ball team will and partake of fine refreshments. -On Saturday Mrs. Garman, nee play the strong Reserve team of the is assured.

-The Rev. William Potter Van make his home with his son D. Wag-ner Geiss, here in Bellefonte. It is day evening, 4th, elected pastor of the his intention later on to make a pro- Broad Avenue Presbyterian church, onged visit to his brothers in Kansas. Altoona, to fill the pulpit made vacant Misses Elsie and Virna Geiss left several months ago by the resignation Centre Hall last week for Philadel- of Rev. Walter L. Whallon. Rev. Van phia, in which city they have cast Tries is a son of Dr. Thomas C. Van Tries, of this place.

Rev. J. F. Hower, Presiding Elder welcomed at these services.

-Mrs. Dr. A. H. Hibler, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Osmer, left this week for Oberlin, Ohio, where The 22nd Pa. cavalry will meet there they will spend a short time with the at the same time. Mr. Krebbs is the latter's son, Mils Osmer, before cononly member of the 110th in this sec- tinuing to Lincoln, Neb., for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Hibler anticipates continuing her journey ly Bulletin" of current events. It consists of a reel of film depicting a dozen or more actual happenings of Friday, October, 20th, by Horace Mcbig events throughout the world. It Farland, of Harrisburg. The lecture is not only interesting but vastly in- will be delivered under the auspices structive, giving as it does not made- of the Woman's Club in the interest up pictures, but photographs taken on of their work of improving Bellefonte. actual scenes. You shouldn't miss Mr. McFarland can give an interesty of them.

No one will dispute but that Dr. stand a great deal of improvement J. L. Seibert has a good car and it al- and we believe in helping them do it.

-A. C. Eckley and wife, with the conville he turned to the side of the road urday from a delightful visit of a ville he turned to the side of the road to avoid a mud hole when the rear wheels went down in slush. The more sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Worts, in Mecas and Mrs. J. M. Locke, who is attendhe worked, the more helpless he be- county, Minnesota. Mr. Eckley had ing Havorford College, is playing

M. C. A. Star Course will open with a __Today, Columbus day, October 12, concert by the "Musical Favorites." is a legal holiday for the whole state effort has been made to pro- under the terms of the act of Februvide the very best entertainmnt for ary 1, 1911. This announcement has the various numbrs on the course, and been made at the offices of the state as twice as much will be expended banking department in response to this year in securing talent, as last many requests for information rethis year in securing talent, as last year, we feel confident the course will come up to all anticipations. The entertainments are all endorsed by the

-Come to the Centre Democrat office when you want job printing. -There will be a special term of court commencing on the fifth or last Monday of October.

-Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin at their home on Linn street Wednesday afternoon, a son. -Mrs. Eliza Ammerman left on Tuesday for a week's visit with her son-in-law, Harry Harris, at Philipsburg. -Don't hesitate to hand us a per sonal or any item of local news. this way you can greatly aid in making the paper interesting to all read--A bushel of chestnuts, hickerynuts, walnuts, or butternuts will be accepted at market price in exchange on subscription account at the Centre Democrat office. -Mrs. John Klinger had quite a severe sick spell at her home on east Lamb street the past week but is now slowly improving, which is good news to her friends. -Mrs. Harry Haag, whose illness the past two weeks had given her friends some alarm, we are glad to e is now improving with all in-state is now improving with dications for her complete recovery. -The ladies' aid sociey of the Lutheran church will hold a baked bean supper Thursday evening Oct. 19th in the room next to Stickler's tailor shop, on Bishop street. Price of supper twenty cents. Ice cream and cake extra.

-Mrs. Florence Rearich and children, Lester and baby, after a few weeks visiting with friends in Bellefonte and her mother, Mrs. Smith, at Coleville, departed for her home at Niagara Falls on Wednesday after-

-On or about the fourth of November, Mrs. D. H. Hastings and daughter Sara will leave for a three months' trip abroad, touring the principal places in Europe. For this reason Miss Sara did not return to school this term.

-A very delicious supper will be served by the ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church at the residence of Mrs. D. H. Hastings, on Thursday, October 19th. Price 50 cents. Everybody is invited to come and bring their friends.

-George F. Garret, who for some time had been a clerk in Miller's hardware store, left on Tuesday afternoon for the sunny south. He expects to be -To-day, Oct. 12th, being Columbus Day, the members of Bellefonte Council, Knights of Columbus, will cele brate the event with a social smoker There will be appropriate addresses, music, a good lunch and fine cigars, a pleasing combination that should appeal to every member of this popular organization. Invitations have been onfined to members only.

Chas. McClellen, of this place, spent many friends attend them. Tuesday with friends in Milesburg. and we are inclined to think fooled their husbands just a little as about the time the latter began singing, 'My Wife's Gone to the Country," their vives came home. The ladies enjoyed their trip, however, just as much as if it had been many miles longer.

-This week Harvey Schaffer began making repairs in the room form- life erly occupied by Shaffer's grocery. Underwood on north Spring street.

—Miss Emily Valentine, who had been visiting friends and relatives in Bellefonte for some time past, returned to her home at Roland Park, Baledon to her home at Roland Park, B complete line, Mr. Shaffer is an ex-

-Remember the Y. M. C. A. recep-Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Hewitt in -Rev. J. F. Hower, of the Evangel- tion tomorrow night to new members, Georgia. Mrs. Hewitt went to Georgia ical church, accompanied by Rev. S. and every one should make it a point A. Snyder, of Centre Hall, departed to be there and bring their friends. -H. M. Shreckengast and crew of on Wednesday morning for New Cas- There is a nice social time in store men passed through town the past tle, Pa., to attend the sessions of the for you, beside enough entertainment week on their way from Snow Shoe to State Sunday School Convention, be- to keep you interested. You will wittheir home at Spring Mills, While at ing held in that city from Wednesday ness a good game of basket ball, see a lot of athletic stunts pulled off, hear -On Saturday afternoon Belle- the singing of tuneful college songs. won't cost you a cent, either, so you had better spend the entire evening at Miss Adaline Olewine, who will continue her journey to Des Moines, High school should be on the ground and men's Bible chasses of the United -On Monday evening the ladies' Iowa, and other points. She will be to encourage the boys. A good game Brethren church combined in giving their pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey a surprise party in honor of his twenty birthday anniversary. About twenty-seven grown up folks were present beside a number of the volluger people Everybody had a good social time and how could it have been otherwise with all the jolly folks who were there. Excellent refreshments were served by the ladies during the evening. Rev. G. Elmer Smith, of -Beginning Sunday, October 29th, a Houserville, recited a number of se-series of revival meetings will be lections that were greatly enjoyed. Everyone present felt royally treated by Rev. Winey and his wife, and hope for many more such happy occasions.

-Justice W. H. Musser received news this week of his son's, C. Dale Musser, threatened illness with typhold fever, at Jenkintown, where the young man has been located for some time as the junior member of a general insurance firm. Mr. Musser at once advised his son's friends in Jenkintown to have him removed to a hospital and the best of care given him. This has been carefully attended to by his friends, who tack of fever may be very slight. About twelve years ago Dale went through a hard seige of the same dishis parents' home in this place, where with excellent care he was nursed back to health. His many friends of them residents) playing such excellent foot ball on as many differcame, and finally a farmer with a not seen his sister in forty-six years and their reunion after the lapse of ground. Hereafter he will keep in the middle of the road.

This (Thursday) evening the Y.

County, Minnesota. Mr. Eckley had not seen his sister in forty-six years right tackle on the varsity team. Richard Weston, son of Dr. and Mrs. Weston, is holding down with all cleverness the position of forward on the lunch of an Altoona party of erness the position of forward on the were in the woods getting nuts. In more remarkable by the fact of its the crowd were John Fay, John Steinbecause they received their education traveled over the old Portage road. and good foot ball training at the Bellefonte Academy. They are Leon- woods on the hunt for chestnuts and year, we feel confident the course will come up to all anticipations. The entertainments are all endorsed by the Redpath Lyceum Bureau, the best in the country. Remember the "Musical Favorites" in the Y. M. C. A. auditor-favorites" in the Y. M. C. A. auditor-favorites in the year i

-A quarter of an inch of rain on Tuesday night.

-Miss Ida Klinger and little niece Miss Mary Klinger, spent Sunday with friends at Lyontown.

-Miss Mary Blanchard has returned to her home after a several months' trip through Europe.

-A delightful dance was given in the Logan Fire house on Tuesday evening by a number of young men of Bellefonte, which proved a pretty and enjoyable affair.

-Mrs. Margaret Wilson departed on Wednesday for a few weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Hiller, at Chester, Pa. She was accompanied by Wallace Gephart.

-Rev. and Mrs. Mallilieu, of Williamsport, were arrivals in Bellefonte on Tuesday and will spend several weeks at the home of their son, Supt. W. S. Mallilieu, on Howard street. -Tomorrow the Academy foot ball team will leave for Indiana, where on Saturday they will play the strong Indiana Normal. The local boys are in good shape and are confident of bringing home the game. -This evening the Austin flood pictures will be shown at the Scenic. Of course they will be but slides, as it was by no means possible to secure moving pictures of this great disaster They will undoubtedly prove very interesting and everyone should see -Mrs. Della Miller, who has been nousekeeper for Clayton Walters, on the Williams farm at Axemann, has resigned her position and moved to Bush's Addition. Mrs. Miller is a most estimable lady and has many friends who wish her success in all her undertakings.

-Sunday evening last, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Smith was painfully scalded by up-setting a bowl of hot gravy, the contents of which struck the child in the face, neck and breast. Mrs. Smith had just walked into another room for a moment when the little one innocently pulled the vessel containing the scalding liquid over its body. The child is now recovering very nicely.

-Saturday evening, Miss Ella Alters, one of the efficient helpers at the Bellefonte Steam Laundry was givn a little surprise in the form of a gathering of a number of her friends at her home on Penn street to remind her of her birthday anniversary. Miss Alters soon recovered from her "stage fright," and needless to say employed at Norfolk, Va., and may entertained her gueste in a very grace-later go to Texas. "Dyke's" friends all manner. Games, refreshments and all that helps to make such an occaentertained her guesta in a very gracesion pass pleasantly, were indulged in.

MARRIAGES.

Gates-Leathers.

Saturday, October 7th, at noon Mr. William M. Gates and Miss Ethel P.

Fetzer-Kline.

parsonage of the United Brethren church in this place, Toner Fetzer and Miss Lucinda Kline, both f Yarnell, were united in wedlock on Thursday morning of last week, by the pastor Rev. C. W. Winey. They have the hearty good wishes of a host of friends for a prosperous wedded both of the happy couple re- worrying over side at Stormstown. The marriage and groom are highly esteemed in ny Fink-bind-er? Your Honor, I pro-their own vicinity, and by all who test, I'm innocent!

Burkholder-Duck.

On Tuesday noon Mr. Wilber E. Berkholder, of Bellefonte, and Miss Brooklyn, N. Y., by the Rev. Elcanch Duck, the bride's brother. The ceremony was attended only by a few of their translations. The ceresis and farm implements at 10 a, m. David Wensels, their translations. immediate friends. After short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Berkholder will return to Bellefonte, and will occupy rooms in the Shoe maker building on Spring street over Dr. Hayes' office. Mr. Berkholder has been a resident of Bellefonte for some being the assistant passenger ticket agent at the Penna. R. R. and is holding a responsible position. The bride is a daughter of M. B. Duck, of near Spring Mills, and in the capacity of school teacher has been known to many of our readers over the county and is a young lady of pleasing manner and varied accomplishments, welcome their return to Bellefonte; may they live long and prosper.

Racing Accidents.

Friday of last week was a "hoo-doo" day for the drivers in the races at the Bellefonte Fair, as no less than three were thrown from their sulkies and painfully bruised, in one case to such an extent the man was compelled to go to the Bellefonte hospital to have his injuries dressed.

G. B. M. Melliver, the well known horseman, of Williamsport, fared the worst in the day's mishaps, as he was thrown out on his face and when picked up was partly unconscious. The horse Mr. Welliver was driving stumup from the hard fall.

At the one-third mile post the fonte, for the county of Centre, and to ease, and at that time was brought to horses driven by Charles Middagh and J. S. Vipond collided, stumbled and fell, throwing both drivers to the our town to have five of its boys (two hibition of animal intelligence, and Given can be more readily seen when one the 4th day of October, in the year of watches the finish of a heat and notices the amount of urging a horse and thirty-fifth year of the Indepen-requires. In this case after finishing dence of the United States. the animal stopped of its own accord.

for entertainment has been prepared. only kept him from the varsity team. crowd gave up search for Bruin.

Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes delicious homebaked foods of maximum quality at minimum cost. Makes home baking a pleasure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

No Alum - No Lime Phosphates

DIPPYDILS.

If Washington crossed the Dela-ware, what can Linn Black-ford, Kick him again, he still breathes!

Paul Fortney put up a great scrap for the Democratic nomination to the District Attorneyship, but wasn't James Furst. Zowie! I love every bat in your attic!

Homer Decker may be short, but isn't Elmer Long. I got cher, Steve, got cher! You can yell yourself blue, but you can't Crow Brown. I'm on, conductor, start the car, I'm on!

It was evening in the lunatic asylum. The keepers were all congratulating themselves on their diplomacy in quietly getting the inmates to sleep, when the silence of the night was cut Leathers, both of Mt. Eagle, Pa., were as if by a knife, when a voice, low, married at the Reformed parsonage sweet but musical, was heard to inby the Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. quire from the third cell on the sec--Mrs. William Hamilton and Mrs. D. The hearty good wishes of their ond tier, "If Bill Hollenback is a coach is Mike Don-a-van? "Sic em, He bit papa and mama! If the Buick lost her bearings, what BOY WANTED-To do errands, shine shoes, does the Cadil-lac? For the love of Mike be reasonable!

If a certain overland automobile would land over a 40-foot embank-men where would Capt. Mingle? I FARMS—Large and small, limestone soil, in Blair, Centre and Huntingdon counties. Send for catalogue. G. C. Waite, P. O. Box 282, Tywonder what he gets paid for writing rone Pa. that dope?

Colyer—Bailey.

As society event at Port Matilda, on October 4th, was the marriage of Miss Maude L. Colyer to Mr. William T. Bailey; both of the happy counts for the returns.

Kicks.

What's the use of kicking. Think of the poor candidate, like Dr. Brockershoff, who was nominated on both tickets for councilman, and then laid may be sold cheap. John Snave-ly, Spring Mills.

**Think black driving horse, 9 years old that has become heavy, will be sold cheap. John Snave-ly, Spring Mills.

**X42**

**POR SALE:—Buck touring car, complete equipment, conditional points of the poor candidate, like Dr. Brockershoff, who was nominated on both tickets for councilman, and then laid awake all night after the primaries plete equipment, conditional points.

(Apologies to Goldberg.) ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. If a certain young lady broke her McKelvey, minister of the U. B. heart over a certain young man, would charge at Port Matilda. The bride she call on Dr. Cupid or would John-

"Daffy Dan"

PUBLIC SALE REGISTER.

WEDNESDAY NOV. 8-2 miles east of Boals-burg. W. A. Leech will sell live stock and full line of farm implements. Sale at 10 a. m. L. F. Mayes, Auct.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9th 1911-Mary E. Vonada will expose to public sale at her resi-dence in Hublersburg, farm stock, implements and household goods.

THURSDAY, NOV. 2:- Rred Scandrol, at Moose Run, 2½ miles from Wallace's brick yard, will sell: 2 horses, 1 cow, wagons, buggy, and lot of butchering utensils. Sale at 1 p. m. David Wensel, auct.

HUBSDAY NOV 9:—John T. Spanrol, at Moose Run, 21/2 miles from

THURSDAY, NOV. 9:- John T. Span-

9 young cattle, 4 fat hogs, 11 shoats, brood sow, chickens; and full line of farm implements and household Burke, dam May Julian No. 63251. R. goods. Sale at 9 a. m. L. F. Mayes, Alexander, Julian, Pa. x43 SATURDAY, NOV. 4:--J. L. Gardner

1% nfiles north of Howard, will sell:

2 hasses, 2 colts, 2 cows, heifer, 3 broad sows, 2 shoats, and full line

SPECIAL COURT PROCLAMATION. County. No. 576.

Hayes Schenck, auct.

Whereas the Honorable Ellis L. Orvis, President Judge of the Court of tre County, to make distribution of the Common Pleas of the 49th Judicial District, consisting of the county of Trustee under the last will and testato California for a visit with relatives had him removed to the Methodist that had become soggy from the prevbefore returning home.

| Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued his precept bearbefore returning home. | Centre, having issued nose broken and several teeth knock-ed loose, aside from a general shaking Common Pleas, Orphans' Court, and rying out the duties of his appointment Court of Quarter Sessions, in Belle-> commence on the FIFTH MONDAY OF OCTOBER, being the 30th day of October, 1911, sent their claims or hereafter be deground. Both horses recovered their and to continue one week, notice is hope that he may escape a serious at- feet, and strange to say the horse hereby given that all persons summonowned by Middagh finished first in ed as jurors are hereby notified to at-

> > Given under my hand, at Bellefonte,

our Lord 1911, and the one hundred Sheriff's office, W. E. HURLEY. Bellefonte, Pa

Farm for Sale.

Oct. 4th, 1911.

Farm-106 Acres, at Rutherton, Union county, Pa., (Flag Station on being Theodore's first year at The del. Harry Barnes, George Rhoades Pennsylvania State College. The and Louis Conrad. The party left by other three may be called our boys trolley for Hollidaysburg and then Iron, Pa.), land in good state of cultivation, apple orchard, two houses,

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can intert a want advertisment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

BEES and scaps, for sale privately. John Rishel, near Axeman, Bellefonte.

WANTED-A good boy to make himself useful about the store. D. I. Gillen, grocer. Belle-

FOR SALE—Some extra fine long eared pups, ready to ship. Write or call and see. Herb Craft, Moshanga. Penna. x39 FOR SALE—A good home with 11 acres of land, Will be sold at a bargain. F. M. Ream, Spring Mills Pa. Route No. 2. 240

THESPASS notices on tough manilla card board at 5 cents a copy, or * for 25 cents at "The Centre Democrat" office. tf.

FOR SALE-Matched team bay colts, rising 3 years old; also one cheap blind mare; mare in foal. C. Weston. Port Matilda.

make himself generally useful; and to learn the shoe business. Mingle's Shoe Store, 37-tf

FOR SALE:—A fine black driving horse, 9 years old that has become heavy, will be sold cheap. John Snave-price reasonable; call or write Lee's Garage, Tusseyville, Pa.

WANTED-Farmers, we want your chickens and eggs, in exchange for merchandise. J. Finklestine's Racket Store, 29 So. Allegheny street.

yearling steers, bulls and fat cattle, western stock at private sale at my farm near Lemont, D. A. Grove. FOR SALE-Will be sold at Public Sale, house and lot, on October the 21st 1911; situated in Jacksonville, Centre Co., Pa. for further particulars call on Mrs. Jane Sayers, Jacksonville.

FOR SALE-A car load of cattle-

ORPINGTONS—"Crystal white" Cockerels, $5.00; Pullets. $3.00; while they last. Sired by $50.00 cock, dammed by $55.00 heps; original pen of 5 birds, one year old for sale at $50.00 An-drew S. Musser, Aaronsburg, Pa. 26tf.

gler, ½ mile west of Turseyville, FOR SALE—1 Registered Holstein will sell: 5 work horses, 6 milk cows, Bull, Hamilton De Kol Burke—2d No. 51003, weight 1,500 lbs. Also 1 2year-old heifer sire Hamilton De Kol

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE. In the matter of the estate of Amanof farm implements. Sale at 1 p. m. da Walker, late of Boggs township,

In the Orphans' Court of Centre The undersigned, an auditor duly appointed by the Orphans' Court of Cenfunds in the hands of W. G. Runkle, ment of Amanda Walker, late of Boggs. township, deceased, will meet all parday, the 30th day of October, A. D. 1911, at ten o'clock A. M. All parties in interest are hereby notified to pre-barred from the fund. JOHN J. BOWER, Auditor.

Low Fares to the West.

Pennsylvania Railroad. Tickets to Rocky Mountains. Pacific Coast. Western Canada. Mexico and Southwestern points on sale every day until October 14, inclusive, at reduced fares. Consult nearest Ticket Agent. x38

MARKET QUOTATIONS

Bellefonte-Produce Butter ..... 28 Eggs ..... 28 Bellefonte-Grain The following prices are paid by C. Wheat, white ...... 85

Rye ..... 70

Rev. Fred Barry preached his first sermon last Sabbath in the Centre Hall charge. He is off to conference this week, and will have no services next Sunday.