Sudden Death. Mrs. Thomas Balling of Bald Eagle, died on the 26th at her home at 2.20 o'clock after a short illness from apoplectic stroke with which she was seized shortly after 5 o'clock a. m. Deceased had been in apparent good health. Shortly after 5 o'clock Mr. Balling arose and after conversing several minutes with his wife left for the barn to attend to a cow and finding that his wife had not yet come down stairs went to her room and found her lying in an unconscious condition on the floor where she had fallen. The family physician was hastily summoned from Tyrone and heroic efforts put forth to help her, but death ensued at the hour stated.

Druggist Must Pay for Horse. Because of a slight mistake in filling a prescription with boiled linseed oil instead of raw material, S. A. Hawthorne, a druggist, of Sharon, Pa., must pay $229 to Francis H. Strawbridge for a horse he lost three years ago, and which loss he claimed was due to the laxness of the druggist.

A Cross (X) marked in the square at the right of the word "YES," indicates a vote FOR the Amendment. A Cross (X) marked in the square at the right of the word "NO," indicates a vote AGAINST the Amendment.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION No. 1

SHALL SECTION EIGHT OF ARTICLE NINE OF THE CONSTITUTION BE AMENDED SO AS TO READ AS FOLLOWS?

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.

YES NO

SHALL SECTION SIX OF ARTICLE FIVE OF THE CONSTITUTION BE AMENDED SO AS TO READ AS FOLLOWS?

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law. In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

YES NO

Notice is hereby given, that every person, excepting Justice of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States or of the State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, and also that every member of Congress, and also that every member of the State Legislature, and of the Executive or Judiciary department, or of any city or incorporated district, exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of any such elections, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.
