MERITS NO FAVORS.

A Bitter Partisan Should Not Fill Public Office.

George Yarnell, the Republican candidate for Sheriff, has been credited with heretofore carrying his politics into his business to such an extent that he would not employ a Democrat about the minebanks or his lumber operations, if a Republican could be found to fill the place. This same charge comes from so many different sources that we are satisfied of it being true. We hardly think a man of such narrow prejudices is the right kind of a man to fill a public office. Everyone's political views should be a conviction, based on investigation and reason, and no matter how firm or strong they may be, he also should have consideration for those who may honestly differ in their views. No one has a monopoly of brains or good citizenship, for that faculty was pretty well divided among us by our Creator—with some slight exceptions and all are liable to gross errors. Among all the men named on the Republican Ticket, Mr. Yarnell seems to be the only one who is branded with this grievous shortcoming—bitter political prejudice, and hatred of those who entertain different political views. Too many men's politics is nothing more than a narrow, inborn, political prejudice, and as such their influence in any condition is a detriment to the cause of good local government. When a man is so prejudiced as not to give employment to another, of a different political faith, such a man by disposition is hardly qualified to fill a public office. We should remember that all are "brothers in flesh" and blood and there is no nobler sentiment than "live and let live," think and let others think—grant others the same privileges freely as you insist upon exercising yourself, for such things constitute that "brotherhood of Man" that should exist among all mankind, and this old world then would be brighter and happier. Peanut politicians who will persecute a fellow man deserve no favors and merit no public recognition.

A CONSPIRACY.

Was Hatched Out in the Ward House at Tyrone.

One of the reasons why R. T. Conley is hot and refuses to support Pritchard for Treasurer, has some substance to it. He says Pritchard was brought out by a bunch of Court House politicians consisting of Sheriff W. E. Hurley, County Treasurer G. G. Fink, Commissioners' Clerk Ed Williams, with the approval of Chairman Quigley; these went to the Ward House in Tyrone and in conference with Josiah Pritchard pledged him their and practically the Republican organization's support and induced Pritchard to announce for Treasurer. Williams was in the game to get rid of Conley—both being candidates in same locality. Fink wanted Conley out of the way to improve the chances of his Democratic friend, whom Conley alleges was at this meeting; and Fink was to be Pritchard's deputy and it is told now in that section he then will buy an auto to go to and from his office. Bill Hurley was there to help his friend Pritchard, the liveryman and new-comer like himself, through. There the conspiracy was hatched, and only by the hardest fight did they succeed in downing Conley with the gentleman from "Decatur township, Clearfield county."

Would you stand for that kind of treatment? Did R. T. Conley get a square deal? Think it over, before you vote?

AVOIDS THE TRUTH.

Josiah Pritchard Becomes Angry and Calls Centre Democrat "Liar!" Last week we published and mailed a special letter to Josiah Pritchard, of Philipsburg, candidate for Treasurer, in which we asked Mr. Pritchard a few simple questions. They cover points that interest the people, and on which there has been some discussion. At a political meeting the past week in Howard, we hear in consequence Mr. Pritchard became excited and in his anger called the publisher of this paper seven or eight kind of "Liar's." Now the people are not voting whether the Centre Democrat is a "Liar!" or not, but they are to choose between Mr. Pritchard, farmer, and life-long resident of Centre county, and Josiah Pritchard, proprietor of a livery stable, Philipsburg, who until recently was a citizen of Decatur township, Clearfield county, as to who is to be the next Treasurer of Centre county. If Mr. Pritchard, instead of calling the Centre Democrat a "Liar!"—the weapon of the bully and the argument of the churlish braggart—would have answered the four questions we publicly asked him in issue, and the people would have known the truth and been satisfied. Even if the Centre Democrat is a "dirty liar" that does not change the fact that only eight years ago Josiah became a resident of Centre county.

We leave it to our readers if it was not timely to propound the following four questions:

- 1—How long were you a legal resident of Decatur township, Clearfield county, Pa. State the years? Answer: ... 2—When did you become a legal voting resident of Philipsburg, Pa.? Answer: ... 3—How often have you voted in Centre county at the annual elections held in November? Answer: ... 4—Did you support and vote the Republican Ticket on November 8th, 1910? Answer: ...

THE LOCAL ELECTIONS.

(Continued) We have always believed that in local elections party politics should have little, if any, place for the reason that the men who fill such positions have nothing to do with moulding the policies of those who govern the state or nation. A good Councilman or a good Burgess, whatever his politics, is to be preferred before a poor one. This remark also applies to the Schoolboards, if possible more forcefully than to that of any local office. Their politics should cease and those who have best served the public be re-elected. There are some men now before the public, as candidates for this office, who should receive the support of all parties. Their experience in the office, their ability in business affairs, and the discharge of their duties as citizens, especially fit them to be continued as members of the schoolboard. Their time and energies heretofore have been given unhesitatingly to the welfare and the advancement of the interests of our public schools. These men are D. F. Fortney and A. C. Mingle. The need of the district is to continue the efficient and progressive administration of the schools they have largely heretofore carried forward. With them this is not theory but actual practice, and knowledge obtained from experience in the work. It is well known in the performance of their duties, party politics has had no place, then why raise any party questions as to their fitness for these places? A PARENT.

INDIANA WILL GO DEMOCRATIC.

The Philadelphia North American, republican, sent its Washington correspondent, Angus McSweeney, to Indiana to report impartially on conditions there. This is a part of the report he sent back to his paper: "Indiana is hopelessly lost to President Taft and the Republicans. From no indications is it possible to reason that they will be as strong as they were in the last election, when they lost every congressional district but one, and control of the legislature. Since then the rapid development of progressive republican sentiment into an open hostility to the Taft administration, and the reactionary policies which he advocates, make it obvious that with Taft as the Republican candidate again, the vote against him in this state will be overwhelming."

$60,000 is what they promised. $135,000 is what it finally cost.

Three years and $170,000 debt,—will you endorse that record?

23c. Extra Heavy Wool Socks 25c. 25c. Ladies' Fleeced Lined Hose, a pair, 15 and 19c at Finkelstein's store.

We are assured by citizens of Spring township that when anyone applied at the minebanks where Yarnell was the boss, he would inquire of the men as to their politics. If they replied they were Democrats Yarnell would tell them to go—get your work from Democrats. This same man now asks Democrats to vote for him.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

History repeats itself—'tis a true saying. When the state capitol was proposed it was heralded that it would cost only between four and five million dollars and to that the people of the state consented. When it was finished, Governor Pennypacker—who should have known better—heralded it to the world that the capitol was finished and that every dollar was well spent and it was one of the finest edifices the world and other tarty, winding up with the erroneous and misleading assertion that it had cost only five million dollars. The people accepted that without a murmur. But when Mr. Berry was elected and took charge as State Treasurer he, as was his duty as an honest official, looked over the books and found that the job was a fraud and had cost thirteen million dollars instead of five. And then the taxpayers of the state began to kick—and the result is too well known to make a repetition of the famous capitol craft all of which at the time the Gazette repeatedly branded as a lie and upheld and defended the job.

That trick was in many ways repeated in the remodeling of the court house of this county. The pledge was positively given that it would be remodelled at a cost of $60,000 dollars. The taxpayers were content and the job went on with politicians directing the placing of contracts and more or less supervising the work and the finances especially, when completed it was found that the cost was over double—and now the taxpayers are kicking, as they have a right and should.

It seems that the present Tom Thumb bosses of the Republican party in this county manipulated Commissioners Woodring and Zimmerman and led them into this trap. They have an exact repetition of the state capitol job—and were it not for the Tom Thumb leaders aforesaid, the court house and bridge jobs would not now astound the taxpayers of this county. It is history repeating itself.

In the High street bridge contract they displayed their capacity to attend to public business. Disregarding all the legal preliminaries so essential, and without even the sanction of the court, they allowed themselves to be talked into an illegal transaction, and paid $2000 in advance, an unheard of procedure—all of which was finally unearthed and stopped. In this transaction they had a "private letting" to save expenses, as they claim. In this transaction, even if they did not know what to do, they never consulted Mr. Dale, the county solicitor.

Do such officials merit the vote and support of prudent, thoughtful men? It is up to every taxpayer next Tuesday to approve or disapprove of such work. Don't kick—go and vote. Can the esteemed republican nominees get over the High street bridge? —90c Ladies' neckwear, special, 13c. Collars, ties and jabots at Finkelstein's.

For Prothonotary exceptional ability is essential to fill the office in a manner satisfactory to the public. D. R. Foreman is competent, sober, reliable and in every way is best qualified to fill the office. Think this over carefully when you cast your vote next Tuesday.

THE WAY THE WIND IS BLOWING.

A canvas of Green county, Iowa, made by mail, may be accepted as a thermometer showing how the political wind is blowing in that section. One hundred and twenty letters were sent out to Republicans only, and ninety-seven answers were received. Some of the questions presented and the answers received are as follows: If Taft should be nominated, will you support him? Yes, 21; no, 64; blank, 12.

Do you approve of the Payne Aldrich bill? Yes, 12; no, 85.

Do you approve of Taft's action in the Ballinger matter? Yes, 2; no, 91.

Do you approve of the attack of Dr. Wiley? Yes, 3; no, 81.

Do you approve of Taft's veto of the wheat schedule as passed by the last Congress? Yes, 18; no, 70.

Do you believe the Taft administration favors the farmer and laborer or the trusts? Farmers, 6; trusts, 58.

Next Tuesday is Taxpayers' Day. It is not the time for collecting taxes, instead it is the time the taxpayer designates who is competent to spend this money to the best advantage.

—Do you think it advisable to fill up the Bellefonte school board with new material?

Cause of Ten Cent Sugar. "The high tariff benefits nobody but the sugar trust. Were it not for the sugar tariff this package would cost 2 cents a pound less. Urge your congressman to repeal the tariff on sugar."

This is not an extract from a political speech. It is a statement of fact by Pittsburg grocers to their customers to show the latter who is not to blame for the robbery charges on sugar. The quoted paragraph in print on the paper in which the grocers put up sugar. The effect of the inscription on a 25-pound bag is significant. It means that the tariff has cost 60 cents on that one purchase.

SAMPLE BALLOTS.

Have Been Sent over the County by Chairman Kimpfort for Voters.

This year we will have the county and the local offices all on the ballot, and for that reason it will take more time to vote than heretofore. Persons who will want to vote the straight Democratic, or Republican Ticket, will only need to mark X in the square at the left of the ballot. As a rule, persons in voting for the local precinct offices are not inclined to stick closely to party lines, and for that reason there will be comparatively few straight votes cast, also for the reason that the voters these days are becoming a little more independent and will do about as they choose. You will not find that there are three party squares, to wit: Republican, Democratic, and Independent. If you put an X in the first or second square you vote either the entire Republican, or Democratic ticket. If you mark an X in the independent column, you vote only the Independent ticket, and that is for but one man, Reuben T. Conley candidate for County Treasurer. Persons who wish to vote for Mr. Conley most certainly will want to vote for other offices besides that of County Treasurer. For that reason all such should pass by the party square at the left of the ballot and pick out each office and the candidate you prefer, and mark a cross after each name you wish to vote, and in that way you will be sure to get the ballot marked right.

Remember this, if you intend to split your ticket, if you expect to vote for Democrats and Republicans, let the party squares at the left of the ballot severely alone. Don't put a mark in them, but go along and mark the men who are your choice for each office. That is easily done and the surest way of voting—and don't vote for any man for any office that you think is not fit to fill it, no matter what ticket he may be. If you are a Democrat don't be mean enough to vote against a nominee of your party because you may have a personal dislike for him. If he is fit to fill the office support him like a loyal Democrat; don't vote for a man on your ticket that he may be. If you are an independent, that kind of selfishness to party is more injurious than good. When you vote be a good citizen first, and a party man next.

In order to provide ample sample ballots to the day of election for general distribution, the Democratic and Republican county chairmen have been thoughtful enough to have an extra supply of sample ballots printed for each district, and these have been sent out over the county to the local chairmen of the Republican and Democratic party. The chairmen who receive these ballots from Mr. Kimpfort should see that a number of them are posted up in conspicuous places so that all voters who may desire can consult the same. The sub-committee will not have a few days in this way they should be pretty well distributed in every district. Therefore if you want a Sample Ballot to go to the Democratic or the Republican Committee in your voting precinct and they will be able to furnish you with a copy or two.

For this reason familiarize yourself with the ballot so that when you go to the polls you will not need to ask assistance from anyone and in that way leave the outsiders under the impression that you have received a consideration for your vote.

For over a year you have been talking about extravagance in Centre county. Next Tuesday is your turn—go to the polls and vote.

One clerk used to do all the duty in the county commissioners' office. Now two are employed and then some. If you don't like it go to the polls next Tuesday and vote.

Bustle Her Safety Box. When Mrs. John Farris had finished moving her boarding house, in St. Louis, Mo., she looked for her bustle into which she had sewed her $1,000. The bustle could not be found, and in a panic of fear she informed the police of the apparent theft. The police explained that it would be both a delicate and difficult job for them to recover the missing articles unless they should be pawned.

Twelve hours after reporting the gems as missing, Mr. Farris remembered that in the haste of moving he had kicked some object he had not recognized amongst some clothing that lay in heap preparatory to being tied up. Nervously he dug into the bundle and triumphantly held aloft the bustle. The gems were safe.

Secretary of the Navy Meyer has received a report from the Washington navy yard, showing a shortage of $2,283,270 between the material actually on hand and the amount on the books. As a complete inventory had not been taken for more than twenty-five years, Mr. Meyer directed that the general storekeeper of the yard make a complete record of all materials on hand, which showed the large discrepancy. Well, that's the way things have been done, in nation and state these twenty-five years.

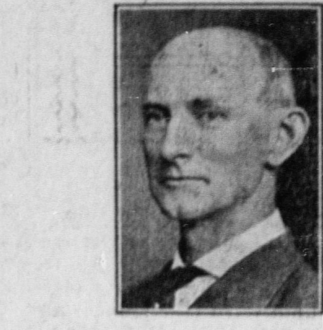

Cash Prizes for Corn. Pennsylvania corn growers should save their best corn at husking time for the State show to be held at Pittsburg, January 15-20 next. Over seventy cash prizes, besides cups and other prizes, will be awarded. Classes include all kinds of corn grown in the state, in ninety-day, early, and southern types as well as the regular yellow and white dent classes. Big money is also offered for Grange and Club exhibit. Regular classes call for 10 ears, but liberal prizes for 30-ear exhibits, for the largest ear and for the longest ear are hung up also. Write to T. D. Harman Jr., 116 Shady Ave., Pittsburg, Pa., for particulars. A postal card will bring them.

Three years and $170,000 debt,—will you endorse that record?

Mosquito on a Spree. John D. Rockefeller and the other residents of Tarrytown, N. J., who own automobiles have completely wrecked the morals of the mosquitoes of that town. They are now hopeless gasoline drunkards.

A family of mosquitoes started biting up the gasoline in James Brady's car recently and when they flew into the house from the garage were in an awful condition. One tried to get on Mr. Brady's nose as he was lighting his pipe and it exploded with a loud report and set fire to a mattress. Mrs. Brady was badly burned trying to extinguish the flames and Mr. Brady was burned about the face.

"Never a better ticket placed in nomination in Centre county, than this fall's Democratic Ticket." is the general verdict. Turn out, good citizens and taxpayers, and cast your votes for it on Tuesday next.

Mr. J. Frank Smith—For Register.

Mr. J. Frank Smith, whose name is upon the Democratic ticket for Register of Wills is a native of Pennsylvania, and one of its representative citizens. He was born in that valley and has passed his entire life among its honest and industrious people. His father, Jacob Smith, Esq., was also a life-long resident of that valley, and was one of its best and most respected citizens. Mr. Smith, who is now asking the support of the voters of the county for Register, followed the occupation of farmer until fourteen years ago, when he entered mercantile pursuits at Centre Hall. During these fourteen years he has so conducted his business that he now enjoys the esteem and confidence of the entire community.

Mr. Smith has always been a Democrat, but never an offensive partisan. His entire fitness for the place, either intellectually, morally, in a business or any other way, is beyond question. He has a good education and is especially apt in clerical work. This, coupled with his experience in the mercantile line, has brought him in touch with the public, and he knows how to meet, greet and to discharge the duties in a public office. He is painstaking, careful, reliable and would give the Register's office his very best services.

Many of our readers are not acquainted with Mr. Smith for the reason that he was detained by illness and the recent death of his wife, and therefore, could not make a complete canvass. Taking this into consideration, also that there is dependent upon him a family of small children, he would appreciate any assistance you can extend him next Tuesday. We truly believe this man merits not only your sympathy, but deserves your support and vote for the office of Register.

Try a change when you vote for Commissioners, on Tuesday, November 7th. All admit a great mistake was made three years ago—profit by it.

MARRIAGES.

Hazel—Immel. Mr. William R. Hazel, of Zion, and Miss Margaret Immel, of Woodward, two of Centre county's popular young people, were married at the parsonage of the United Evangelical church on Willowbank street, on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Hower. The happy couple are now receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

VanGorter—Krebs. A pretty October wedding took place at State College on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Goss Krebs became the bride of Mr. Harry VanGorter, of Toronto, Canada. The ceremony was performed in the Lutheran church by the pastor, Rev. F. S. Shultz. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Krebs, of State College, and is a gifted and very excellent young lady. The groom is a successful young electrician, and both he and his bride are graduates of Pennsylvania State College. Their many friends join in wishing them a happy life.

Make it a point to go to the election early on Tuesday. As the ballot contains a large number of names of the local candidates, you will want to have ample time to mark it carefully so as not to lose your vote.

Pennsylvania Day at Penn State. Friday, November 17th will be observed as Pennsylvania Day at Pennsylvania State College. This annual event promises to be very successful this year, and no doubt will be largely attended. The college has been fortunate in securing the Hon. James E. Watson, of Indiana, as speaker. Governor and Adjutant General Stewart will also be present. Among the features of the day will be a review of the Penn State cadets, 1,100 strong; an inspection of the building, laboratories, shops, farms and campus, and a foot ball game between the sophomores and freshmen, on Beaver field.

Every merchant should give "Mall-order" Williams one good boost next Tuesday.
