

KUFSKIE TAKEN TO PEN.

Clinton County Murderer Threatens Vengeance on Witnesses. Lock Haven Express: Sheriff W. H. Klepper, accompanied by Constable Jacob Nestlerode, of Castanea, and Ellis Claster, his deputies, left on Friday morning for Pittsburgh, having in charge two prisoners, Peter Kufskie, convicted of murder, and Peter Jones charged with sodomy. Both were sentenced to solitary confinement at hard labor in the Western Penitentiary. Kufskie's term being for from 5 to 20 years and that of Jones for 2 1/2 to 10 years. The seriousness of each offense will in all probability entitle them to serve at least half the maximum sentence. The difference between the two prisoners when on the eve of entering this great penal institution was apparent on Friday morning when the officers awoke them. Jones sobbed piteously, depicting his misdeeds, but Kufskie, with a forced bravado spirit, stated that he was ready to go and cursed every person that in any manner testified against him at the trial, as well as some others interested in the case. According to a trusty who was on guard during much of the time that the murderer was confined in jail, and also the last night there, Kufskie made threats as to what he will do when released from the pen. The jail officials state that they have never had a prisoner who gave them so much trouble and annoyance and it was an ordinary thing for him to dash his breakfast to the floor of his cell, providing it did not please him. Each prisoner was handcuffed to one of the officers only a few minutes before the Bald Eagle Valley railroad at 8:15 o'clock. Kufskie's wife came up from Williamsport on Erie mail and gave the prisoner an affectionate farewell, but she appeared to be in a commencement of time for the parting and with the same stolid glare on his features, never wavered for a moment.

IN OTHER COUNTRIES.

A little 2 1/2 year old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stevenson, of Lock Haven, was made violently sick on Saturday morning by eating a quantity of pills that had been distributed throughout the town as samples. Only the prompt administering of an emetic saved the boy's life. The Irvin House at Lock Haven was threatened by a conflagration about 12 o'clock on Saturday by a blaze that had started in a room at the rear of the dining room in which were three barrels filled with excelsior. The fire was put out before any serious damage was done. It is thought the fire was caused by a cigarette carelessly thrown aside. William A. Batschlet, the farmer on the ridge between Marsh Creek and Beech Creek, desires to be enrolled with the list of persons who are proclaiming their several yields this season. Mr. Batschlet says that out of a little less than three acres of ground he cut and threshed a total of one hundred and two bushels of buckwheat. Last August William Shanafelt, of Huntingdon, deposited in the oven of his kitchen range the sum of forty-five dollars in bank notes for safe keeping. One chilly morning the good housewife started a fire in the range, and the money was apparently burned to the state of ashes. The fragments were forwarded to the treasurer of the State, who in turn gave them to one of his assistants, a woman expert, who was able to piece the charred remains together in such good style that Mr. Shanafelt was able to recover his loss. The latter felt so gratified that he sent a letter of congratulation to the treasurer in which he highly complimented the young lady expert on her superior intelligence.

PENNSYLVANIA DAY.

This has become an important occasion at The Pennsylvania State College, second only to Commencement. It brings together from all parts of the state persons interested in public affairs who want to visit their state college and to inquire intelligently into its work and its needs. Friday, November 3rd, was set aside as the date for this celebration in 1911. Promises of attendance have already come from many prominent men of the state. The exercises of the day will consist of an address by the Hon. James E. Watson, of Indiana, who will be introduced by Governor John K. Tener; a review of the regiment of 1100 college cadets by Major General Thomas J. Stewart, Adjutant General of the National Guard of Pennsylvania; an inspection of the buildings, laboratories, shops and campus; and a game of football between the teams of the Sophomore and Freshman classes. By this varied program it is hoped to give visitors a glimpse of the life of the seventeen hundred students now enjoying the benefits of an education provided largely by the munificence of the state. Special provision will be made to care for representatives of the press. On Nov. 17 a special train will leave Bellefonte at 9:35 a. m., immediately after the arrival of trains from the east and west, and will return to Bellefonte in time to connect with the late afternoon trains.

Mr. Kelly in "His Honor the Mayor."

One of the best musical attractions to be seen here this season comes to the opera house in a short time, when that quaint character comedian, Harry Kelly, will appear in his famous success "His Honor the Mayor." Mr. Kelly was starred in this place for three seasons and probably in his many other stellar roles, both before and after "His Honor the Mayor" he has never had so successful a role as that of Deacon Flood in this screamingly funny musical comedy. Among the many features with the piece this season are the original English Dancing Dols, several new musical numbers by the principals with the famous beauty chorus, and an entire new scenic equipment and some startling and beautiful electrical effects.

Lewisburg Chair Plant Burned.

The plant of the Lewisburg Chair company at Lewisburg was destroyed by fire on Monday night. Loss $100,000. An automatic extinguisher had the fire practically under control when the fire department reached here. The same main which proved insufficient to supply both and by drawing the water away from the sprinkler caused the building to burn.

We are assured by citizens of Spring township that when anyone applied at the minebanks where Yarnell was the boss, he would inquire of the men as to their politics. If they replied they were Democrats Yarnell would tell them to go—get your work from Democrats. This same man now asks Democrats to vote for him.

MARRIAGES.

Pletcher—Yearick. At the Presbyterian manse at Mill Hill, Friday morning, Rev. A. D. Bate-man united in matrimony Mrs. Cora Hays Yearick of Clintondale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Hays, and Prof. A. H. Pletcher of Howard, principal of the schools at that place. Miss Luella Hays, a sister of the bride, witnessed the ceremony. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a honeymoon at Washington, D. C., and other places of interest.

Reese—Shock. A pretty wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church at Birmingham, on Saturday evening, when Miss Mary J. Shock of that place became the bride of one of Centre county's worthy young men, T. Paul Reese, of Port Matilda. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, and was performed by Rev. J. R. Woodcock, in the presence of a few immediate friends. Mr. Earl Houtz, of State College, acted as groomsmen, while Miss Clara Stewart, of Birmingham, filled the role of bridesmaid. Following the ceremony the newly weds repaired to their handsomely furnished home around which the call-thumpans were busy in a few moments and were generously treated by the groom. The bride is an attractive and estimable young lady. The groom has been employed as clerk in the railroad station at that place for the past year and a half, in which position he has made a large number of friends.

Nude Woman Frightens Burglar. The sight of a woman appearing as Mother Eve embarrassed a bold burglar who entered the Hotel Carlton, Altoona, Thursday afternoon. He got into the room of the proprietor's wife, Mrs. J. W. Charles, and took her jewel box, containing $500 worth of diamonds. Mrs. Charles was in the bath adjoining her bedroom, and on hearing a noise rushed in and confronted the man. She attacked the intruder, who dropped the jewels and fled. The retirement of the burglar was in no wise quicker than that of Mrs. Charles when she heard several attaches of the hotel come in answer to her scream for aid. The man escaped.

Every taxpayer in Centre county should go to the election next Tuesday.

Rabbit season opened yesterday, November 1st, for which local gunners were being eagerly awaiting. Whatever conditions may exist, only 10 may be killed in one day and hunters should bear this in mind.

David R. Foreman—For Prothonotary.

David R. Foreman, the candidate of the Democratic party for Prothonotary, in a native of Pennsylvania and all his family are now and always have been democrats. Mr. Foreman in early youth, like so many of our very best men, worked on the farm, attended the public schools, and after a time taught school very successfully. Mr. Foreman was selected as Deputy Prothonotary because he was the most fit and best prepared man that could be obtained to fill the place. The office of Prothonotary is one of great responsibility and a clerk who was careless in making up the records, or in entering judgments, or of irregular habits, could financially ruin his principal. It was therefore a wise thing for the chief officer of this office to have a clerk who could safely be trusted, and implicitly relied upon, to do the necessary clerical work of the office.

It may be, as charged, that Mr. Foreman has been a clerk in the Prothonotary's office for a number of years. It should be remembered that he was only a clerk, working under his chief at a very moderate monthly salary paid him by his chief. He got nothing from the public or the county by way of fees or office. Being a clerk therefore, and as such, having thoroughly mastered all the duties of the office as well as acquired all the details, none is therefore better fitted to assume and discharge its responsible duties, than is the nominee of the Democratic party. He is not only well qualified for the office he seeks but he is a clean, sober man; one who has always been a model citizen, upright and prudent and commands the esteem and respect of all good people. Courteous and obliging he would make an ideal official, and merits your support.

I DON'T WANT TO urge you too strongly, but really, you know, in every line of business in every community there is always one firm that stands forth above the others, superior for some particular feature. That is the case with this plumbing concern. We can explain this to you in person better than in an advertisement. Call and see us or let us call and see you.

TAFT TRAIN IN DANGER.

Trackman Finds 35 Sticks of Dynamite to Trestle. Thirty-six sticks of dynamite placed under the Carlton viaduct, 25 miles north of Santa Barbara, Cal., might have sent President Taft's train into a deep gully save for the bravery of C. B. Brown, section foreman of the Southern Pacific railroad, near Naples. While guarding the bridge he saw two men place something near the center span. He ordered them to halt but they ran. Shots were exchanged as they fled. Later the watchman went to the spot and found the dynamite with a ten foot fuse attached. He notified the authorities at once and search is being made for the would be train wreckers.

President Taft's train was due at the bridge at 5:51 a. m. The dynamiters were on the scene at about 2 a. m., but they failed to reckon with the plucky watchman.

Dies Aged 90 Years.

Mrs. Nancy Myers, aged 90 years, who died on Friday at her home near Lock Haven, was a remarkable woman. She was born in Clinton county and was married seventy years ago to John Myers. From her marriage to the time of her death she was never away from home more than a day at a time. She had ten children of her own, nine of whom grew up, and raised five other children just as carefully. Last winter she fell down stairs with a lighted lamp in her hand. It exploded and she was badly burned, but her wonderful vitality conquered and she recovered from her injuries. Her death was due to paralysis.

Well Known Theatrical Manager Dead. William E. Mankevill, formerly a resident of Altoona, well known as a minstrel and theatrical manager all over the country, died in Philadelphia on Saturday. He began his theatrical career when a young man with Haverly's minstrels, and later drifted into the dramatic field, and sent a number of productions on the road, several of which have been seen in Bellefonte. His remains were interred at Millfin.
