The Home Circle

Pleasant Evening Reveries Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

If you think a house should have thing in which young men are so postpone your wedding indefinitely.

There is an old saying to the effect that an untidy mother has disobedient they forget, are somebody else's mothchildren may realize the why or ers and sisters. no pride in her personal appearance.

the kind old mother.

The woman whose life-book has brighten it, and to warm and encourlove written on every page; who age the pilgrim by the wayside. makes a home for a man, a home in a house and in a heart, a home that he is sure of, a home that is full and good cheer exudes from the very tables and chairs, instead of a mausoleum of gloomy elegance, wherein everything is for show and nothing to be

Who does not feel more cheerful and contented for receiving a polite bow, a genial "good morning," a hearty shake of the hand? Who does not make himself the happier by these little expressions of fellow-feeling and good will? Silence and a stiff, unbending reserve are especially selfish and essentially vulgar.

Success is never obtained in a counet up. If it is dark, strike a light, you are in the shade move around; if there is shade on one side there is sure to be sunshine on the other. It takes longer to skin an elephant than a mouse, but then the skin is worth something. Never be content with do-ing what another has done—excel

PUZZLERS.

Or a key for a lock of his hair?

Can his eyes be called an academy

Because there are pupils there? In the crown of his head what gems

Who travels the bridge of his nose?

Can he use when shingling the roof of

The nails on the ends of his toes?

What does he raise from a slip of his

Who plays on the drums of his ears?

Can the crook of his elbow be sent to

And who can tell the cut and style Of the coat his stomach wears?

How does he sharpen his shoulder

I'll be hanged if I know-do you?

Not a Requisite,-"And do you have

"unless you to be called in the morning?" asked the lady who was about to engage a new girl. "I don't has to be mum,"

A Secret.—Ethel—Bella told me that you told her that secret I told you not to tell her. Madge—She's a mean thing: I told her not to tell you. Eth-el-Well! I told her I wouldn't tell you Accidents.—A music teacher in a New England school was trying to make the children in the fourth grade understand the value of a triplet—to know that three quarter notes under a brace were equal to two quarter notes.

tals," shouted a small boy, with a vague remembrance of the lesson of a

Sn abed.—An Irishman was at work on attacisting machine that carried hods of bricks to the top of a building and brought them down empty. Happening to get caught he was carried to the top floor, and in the orderly but rapid progress of the machine was brought to the ground rather suddenly.

A fellow workman leaned from the second-story scaffolding and cried; "Are you hurt, Pat?" "You go to the divvel!" shouted Pat. "I passed you twict and ye niver spoke to me."

A Word For Father,-A school teacher once received a note like this: "Dear Mum-Please ixcuse Johny today. He can't be at school. He is

"If a field is four miles square, how long will it take a man, walking 3 miles an hour to walk 21/2 times around it?" Johnny ain't no man, so we had to send his daddy. They left early this morning, and my husband said they ought to get back late tonight, though it would be hard going. Dear Mum, please make the nixt problem about ladies, as my husband can't af-ford to lose the day's work. The Lord knows I don't have time to loaf, but I can say spare a day off occasionally better than my husband can. Respectfully yours, Mrs. Jones."

She couldn't make them understand; and finally, in despair, she asked:
"What are three little bables born all at the same time called?" "Acciden-

she told me—so don't tell her I did.

And if so, what did it do?

his mouth

tongue?

blades?

replied the applicant,

happens to need me."

week before."

Where can a man buy a cap for his

FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs-Selected and Original.

three letters.

ockets in the world.

any other expression

wife's waist?

an editor.

one head, and that be yours, thoroughly mistaken as the low estimate they form of the integrity of women-not of their own mothers and sisters, thank God, but of others. who,

a lack of respect and an indifference to the authority of a mother who takes from you to tell their virtues. Don't wait until your sister is far away in another land to tell her how helpful, The meanest men in the world are how pretty or how courteous she is: those who have allowed themselves to and don't wait until the weary hands drift away from their mothers and are crossed and the long sleep comes The best and before you make mother know what forget all about them. The best and before you make mother know what bravest men in the world are those who have never been so proud as tender her heart, and how dearly you when doing something pleasant for love her. Tell it all now-now, when the walk through life is hard, and the sunshine of praise is yearned for to

There is a certain species of reptile found in all parts of the known world; of love presided over by one whose price is above rubies. She is the model gles and wilderness, as one might suppose. This serpent frequents the haunts of men, showing by this that Let the sunshine into the gloomy it is of a sociable character; cities. rooms, have a couch to lie on, a piano villages, and the sparsely populated to play one; in fact, a home to live neighborhood, each and all claim its in; one wherein a sense of hospitality attention. The name of this serpent is slander. We hope it has no abiding place in the home of any of our readers. The Home Circle department is the best antidote yet discovered for this vile reptile, and seldom fails to drive it from the home its weekly visits.

We do not know why any one should object to a wife calling her husband by his first name when among friends, but it is seldom regarded as good form to do so excepting in the presence of relatives. No one, however, can object to Mr. Smith or Mr. White. And don't say "Smith" try like this without effort. If you fail down, for "Mr. Smith." If you want to call your husband "Darling" or "Love," lways in the privacy and seclusion of your own homes. The people who "Dove" and "Darling" and each other in company are often the very ones who call each other by strangely different names when at Parents make their great mistakes There is not question that a child in their training of children, by not can seriously and fairly ask that canseriously and fairly an- child has peculiarities in mind, temnot be as seriously and fairly answered. To tell a child or to lead it to infer that it is "too little" to know anything more on any subject about which it already knows enough to frame a question, is to deny its capacity for further growth. It is to thrust the child's mind into a dungeon, instead of opening it to the light.

Child has peculiarities in mind, temperament, disposition and character which makes it an individual problem. Mothers in lamenting the failure of home discipine sometimes says. "I am sure I cannot understand it; I have always tried to do my duty by them, and have always treated my children exactly alike." Therein lies the very secret of her failure; she has the very secret of her fallure; she has not realized their individuality; she Of all the evils prevailing among has made the mistake of using the young men we know of none more same formula for different problems; blighting in its moral effects than the endency to speak slightingly of the different locks by the same key. The virtue of women. Nor is there any- same sun melts wax and hardens clay

The Little Word "Yes."

It has caused more happiness and

It has started more dipsomaniacs on their career than all the strong liquor

the "You're a liars" that ever were

Will it continue to make such a rec-

The only way to refrain from mak-

We all like to meet the man who

Not That Flavor .- A man who had

Salary Doubled .- Tommy was an apprentice and had only been in his situation three weeks when he plucked up courage to ask his "boss" for a wage in discharge of the duties he performed. He tapped rather feebly at his employer's door, and entered to a gruff "come in." "Well?" inquired his employer. "Pup-pup please, sir," blurted Tommy, "I want a rur-raise." "A raise?" questioned the "boss."

"Why, how much do you get now?"
"Nothing." "Then I'll double it." said the hard-hearted "boss," and went on the same thing for a land dealer."

contracted tonsilitis was advised to try ice cream as a remedy. He went

"only vanilla and strawberry."

ing mistakes is to do nothing, and that's the biggest mistake of all.

Yes,-Philadelphia Inquirer.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Huckster Patton shipped from Penna. Furnace one day last week 400 ushels of apples and 50 porkers. Miss Gertrude Spangler, of Centre Hall, is in Philadelphia where she ex-ects to remain for several weeks. A. J. Tate, of Pine Grove Mills, has gone to Jersey Shore to engage in the furniture business with E. C. John-

Farmer W. C. Frank, of Pine Grove, is arranging to go to the University of Penna. this week to have his leg

Mrs. Calvin Swartz, of Menno, D., is visiting her mother, Mrs. John een seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beck, of St ouis, Mo., were recent guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bowes, at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodhart, of Altoona, recently spent several days with the former's mother. Mrs. Mary Goodhart, in Centre Hall.

Pennsylvania State College will make an exhibit at the coming show of the Williamsport Poultry association. A delightful Hallowe'en party was

The poultry department of The held at the Hotel Faxon on Tuesday evening of last week, which was en joyed by a large crowd of invited after the holidays as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ocker. Emory Good, 16 years old, while shot himself in the abdomen. He was where she expects to remain until where he died. Farmer William Colyer, east of Old Fort, uncovered three hundred and fifty bushels of potatoes from acres of ground this season, which puts him in the front rank of successful potato raisers. Lloyd Smith, of Centre Hill, has a feel justly proud. He estimates his crop at two thousand bushels, twelve hundred of the bushels having been grown from a field of twelve acres.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kline have reurned to their home in State College after a month's visit among friends in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. On their way home they stopped off at Al-toona and spent several days with Evangelist John Warden, of Harrisburg, will be at Spring Mills from Oct. 26, 1911, tract of land in Fergu-December 10th to 20th, and will work son Twp.; $250. under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Thomas Foster et al to Edwin The meetings will be of a union character, and will be held in the Luther-an church in the evening and in the several churches of the town during the day.

State College; $1200.

Chas. P. Long et ux to William A.

Sones, Oct. 28, 1911, tract of land in Spring Mills; $65.

with a fair crop of smaller game such as wild turkeys, rabbits, squirrels, pheasants, etc. This is the report from this and other counties. The from this and other counties. The larger "game" consists of over half a lozen hunters shot first day-som killed and others badly wounded. And the season has just fairly begun.

The Ladies' Aid society of Pleasant Gap M. E. church are giving "A Boston Tea Party" on evening of Nov. ton Tea Party on evening A.J. Gerill 11th at which will be served an old April 1, fashioned New England dinner, price Twp.; $1. 15 cents. Every one is cordially invited to attend that fashioned attests you will meet that fashioned for sale, fruit cakes for Christmas.

Rev. R. Raymond Jones, Sagertown, as accepted a call from the consisthe Centre Hall Reformed church to become its paster, and will occupy the parsonage about December Some extensive repairs are be-"Yes" is a simple word spelled with ing made on the parsonage, and by the time the new minister is ready to occupy it, will be greatly improv more unhappiness than any other word in the language. ed in appearance, both inside and out-It has lost more money for easy lenders than all the holes in all the Rev. W. D. E. Scott, one of the ministers who officiated at the installation of Rev. Fred W. Barry, on Sunday of last week, was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. since the meeting of the synod in that It has procured kisses and provoked place in 1886, and expressed great urprise at the town's growth since other good farming. It has defeated candidates and elect- then.

Little John Moore, a mere lad and It has been used in more lies than a son of E. S. Moore, of Pine Grove Mills, came down off Tussey mountain It is not meant half the time it is Wednesday evening dragging a pound wild turkey. He had shot the head off the gobbler and he was so small and the bird so large that when he had it over his shoulder it dragged on the ground. Old hunters who did-n't get anything on the opening day And if the hoopskirts do come back, how are you going to button your will have to take off their hats to this

Mrs. S. L. Condo and son Lester, of Spring Mills, had a narrow escape from drowning several weeks ago. They had been in Millheim, and on eturning home about eight o'clock on can disagree with us without acting as if he thought we were plumb fools. the back road between Penn Hall and Spring Mills, the horse they were driving took fright and in turning around upset the buggy, throwing the occupants into the creek at a point where the water is waist deep. Af-ter some effort they both succeeded in to the ice cream parlor and inquired as to flavors "We have vanilla and reaching the banks of Penns Creek, strawberry," said the girl in a husky and suffered little on account of the vole. "Have you tonsilitis, too?" he cold bath. The buggy was somewhat voie. "Have you tonsilitis, too?" he cold bath. The buggy was somewhat asked sympathetically. "No," she said broken and a number of packages

A masquerade party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer at Pine «Grove Mills on Hallowe'en evening. The odd-looking couples re-ceived prizes, and Mrs. N. B. Krebs captured the ladies' prize and Birt Ward received the gentleman's prize. After several hours of game and musrefreshments were served suitable for the occasion. Those present were: Dr. M. L. Krebs and wife, Simon Ward and wife, Harry Walker and wife, N Krebs and wife, Miss Maude Rudy, Bessie Martz, Mandella Smith, May Meyer, Edna Ward, Retta Ward, Prof. White. Fred Randolph, John Keller, Birt Ward, Frank Homan, and Grove

The Last Lie.-Three men met one day-a lawyer, a real estate agent and an editor. At once the question arose One morning recently, when Philip as to which of the three was the most truthful. "Why," said the dealer in S. Dale, who resides near Oak Hall, walked out on his porch he discovered dirt, "a lawyer couldn't tell the truth a full grown deer in his garden, When acting as timekeeper for his father. If he wanted to and an editor wouldn't Last night you gave him this iximple: If he had to." "Pshaw!" remarked the animal saw him it made two efforts to jump through a woven wire the lawyer, "I've known real estate but fell back, whereupon it men to take a grain of truth no larger tried a picket fence on the other side, than a pin-head and make enough lies which it easily scaled and then took out of if to cover a whole county, and a flying leap down the rocky prom-I've seen editors take the most out- ontory projecting over the historic rageous lies and dress them up until Dale spring, immediately below the they looked like angels of truth cloth-ed in the colors of the rainbow." "I it proceeded to the railroad bridge, don't know of but two *occasions that I swam through under it and then took dared to do a thing like that," quietly a course south toward the Seven remarked the editor. "And what were mountains. It was a doe which was those occasions?" inquired the lawyer, evidently intent upon crossing the val-"One was when I wrote an obituary ley and seeking forage on its way, for a lawyer and the other when I did took advantage of Mr. Dale's cabbage

Miss Nellie Hoffer, of Centre Hall, is at Harrison City, in the home of Rev. Daniel Gress, formerly paster of the Centre Hall Reformed charge, and will assist in taking care of Dorothy, the youngest child in the family. The little one has been in delicate health almost since her birth.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

A Lewisburg farmer has raised two crops of potatoes since spring. The first crop he harvested in July, then again put seed in the patch and now has his second crop of new potatoes which are fine for domestic use.

While playing at her home in Altoona recently, 13-year-old Etta Hol-Brandt, of Penn township, who has lingsworth swallowed a tack and almost choked to death. At last the unwelcome article found its way to a place where the danger was not so immediate, but it was impossible for her to cough the thing out. She was hurried to the Altoona hospital, where delicate work was required in removing the intruder. After having the tack removed, the girl was able to go to her home.

Edward Eticklin, of Avis, a fireman on the Fall Brook division of the New York Central, met with a peculiar accident at Slate Run, one morning last week which will lay him up for some time to come. He was going north in a fast freight and was engaged in poking the fire. Finishing his task, he swung the end of the Mrs. Sarah Kerlin, of Centre Hall, poker out over the edge of the enleparted last week for Lewisburg, gine as he turned to deliver it to its accustomed place. The protruding end of the heavy poker struck one of the cars of a freight standing on a siding, and Sticklin was whisked from hunting rabbits in the woods near his engine and thrown to the ground. Houtzdale Wednesday of last week, He was carried to a physician's office where it was found that the intaken to the Cottage State hospital, jured man had sustained a fracture of three ribs, and his back, hip and left wrist were terribly bruised.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Clara M. Comrad et baron to Julia Duganne, Oct. 26, 1911, tract of land in Taylor Twp.; $800. William L. Foster et al to John T. Spangler, Sept. 23, 1911, tract of land in State College; $300. Philipsburg Coal & Land Co. to

Joseph Knapper. Aug. 28, 1911, tract of land in Rush Twp.; $372. Trustees I. O. O. F. Lodge of Centre Hall to William Mitterling, April 13, 1908, tract of land in Centre Hall

M. Gramley trustee et al to J. W. Mitterling, March 27, 1906, tract of land in Centre Hall; $1200. Rachel Garfer to John G. Strayer, Thomas Foster et al to Edwin Strunk, April 6, 1910, tract of land in burg: $260. J. Crommon Alport et al to John Barnes, Oct. 25, 1911, tract of land in Philipsburg; $850.

S. H. Wigton exr to Mary Neidrick, Sept. 20, 1911, tract of land in Rush Twp.; $1750. A. J. Gephart to C. F. Gephart et al. April 1, 1904, tract of land in Penn

A. J. Gephart to A. Walter et al Elizabeth E. Brown to Jennie E stonbaugh, Oct. 30, 1911, tract of land in State College; $300. John N. Straub to Annie C. Row-land, Oct. 19, 1911, tract of land in Philipsburg; $1944.80. Geo. W. Haworth's exrs. to Annie C. Rowland, January 31, 1911, tract of land in Philipsburg; $1300.

Record Potato Crop. It is believed that a record to Stephenson county has been established by Adam Becker, who this season raised 354 bushels of potatoes on seven eighths of an acre. The potators are of uniform shape and weight. This is from Freeport, Ill., Bulletin. It has caused more fights than all Huyett while in Centre Hall. The Being in Stevenson ounty, which is he "You're a liars" that ever were Reverend had not been in Centre Hall peopled by Centre county. Pa., farmers, they can teach westerners how to raise big crops of potatoes and do

Stops

Sloan's Liniment is a relia! ble remedy for any kind of horse lameness. Will kill the growth of spavin, curb or splint, absorb enlargements, and is excellent for sweeny, fistula and thrush, Here's Proof.

"I used Sioan's Limiment on a mule for high lamerhous," and cured her. I am never without a bottle of your limiment; have bought more of it than any other remedy for pains."

"Sloan's Limiment is the beat made. I have removed very large shoe boils off a horse with it. I have killed a quarter crack on a mire that was zwfully bad. I have sho healed fraw, sore necks on three horses. I have healed grease heel on a that could hardly walk."
ANTHONY G. HIVER, Oakland, Pa., Route No. 2.

is good for all farm stock.

"My hogs had hog cholers three days fore we got your liniment, which I was fvised to try. I have used it now for tree days and my hogs are almost well.

No "Key" in Austin Dam. That the bedrock "key" specified in the plans for the Austin dam was omitted in the work of construction is the conclusion of Alexander R. Mc-Kim, New York State Inspector of Dams and Locks. McKim's deduc-to the State Department. "It was an appalling mistake," said Mr. McKim, "The plans called for a four-by-four key in bedrock, and I cannot conceive why it was omitted.

tions have been embodied in a report

The rain and the hen have their work, As everything earthly must. The hen gets busy and lays an egg While the rain is laying the dust.

Centre County Banking Co., Corner High and Spring Streets.

Receive Deposits. Discount Notes John M. Shugert, Cashier.

PATENT YOUR IDEA and make "HOW TO GET THE Annay But Service. Fees Ressort JOSHUA R. H. POTTS 7. Worth St., Washington, D. C. U. S. and Foreign Process Of Contract St., Philodelphia. 140 Dearbors St., Oc.

Pure Groceries and Food Products.

TEAS-With the coming of Summer the old Standard Hot Weather Beverage Tea will be in demand. Most Teas now are used blended, but we take no chances on buying. Blended Teas. Do our own blending right here in the store. Use only New Crop Goods of Good Value and Finest Flavor, not merely thrown together but compounded so as to drown the separate flavor of each and produce a new and true blend. Try our 60c blend for either hot or iced tes. If you want something fine go the 80c goods and if you are willing to go still higher, one dollar per pound will more than please you. We carry a fine line of Straight Teas-Formoss Oolong, Ceyoff on sales of one pound or more. COFFEES-Coffees have not changed in value recently but we look for an early moderate decline. Our 23c and 25c goods are the best values of anything now offered.

lon, Japan, Young Hyson, Gun Powder, Imperial-Several

Grades of each kind on all "Our Lines" of Teas. 5c per lb.

OLIVES-We have just opened some olives that are worth your attention. Large, bright, perfect fruit at 10c per half pint, 20c per pint and 35 per qt. for sales of one qt. or

PICKLES-Dills: Sweet and Sour. New full Cream Cheere 18c per 1b. Fruits and Piscuits are in demand just now and we always have them in abundance. If you want some nice, bright country dried Apples we have them. Finest Hams and boneless breakfast Bacon at

Bush House Block, Sechler & Company, Bellefonte. ·

We Do Printing of all Descriptions, Centre Democrat, Bellefonte, Pa.

Accident and Tornado

HARRY FENLON,

description

INSURANCE

TEMPLE COURT

BELLEFONTE, PA

Bonds of every