Correspondents' Department

Life is full of dangerous crossings and conscience is the flagman.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath Christian Chapel-Pastor Patterson will preach at half past ten in the morning, at three o'clock in the the evening. The afternoon service will be especially for men.

Reformed—Pastor E. F. Faust will highway on which his home front preach in Howard at half past ten o'clock and at Marsh Creek at half past two; and at both these services the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. He will also preach at Jacksonville at half past seven.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor R. S.

Taylor will preach at Beech Creek at half past ten, at Hunter's Run at half past two, and in Howard at half past Christian Scientist-Service at the home of Mrs. Thomas Mann at half past ten.

James P. Haines Dead.

At his long time home on the top of Saturday morning, James P. Haines passed peacefully across the bar at the ripe age of 82 years, 6 months and 10 days. He was buried on Monday morning from the Discciple church in the cemetery attach-that church; Rev. E. F. Jose old home farm, and Mrs. Thomas mains here until spring to complete Johnson, of Milesburg. Mr. Haines his term as teacher of the Mt. Eagle was born in Howard township, and school. lived there all his life, a peaceful, in-He was a man of but few words and always meant just what he said, and his promises were held inviolable. His record is that he never broke a promise, neglected an engagement, nor failed to pay a debt at the time he appointed. He was a soldier of the Civil war, serving for three years as a private in Co. A, Forty-Fifth Penna. Infantry, and one of his mates tells of him that he sometimes served as cook, and that even in the midst of a battle he would manage to reach his fighting comrades with something to fighting comrades with something to

The municipal legislature met at the usual time and place with all members present excepting Mr. C. S. Pletcher and the minutes were read and approved without amendation. The street committee was instructed know that the good woman leaves a family of six children, the oldest being but fourteen years of age. to require S. I. Reber to lay a new walk from the Snyder lot to the alley. Also to require the B. F. Holter eswalk from the Snyder lot to the alley.

Also to require the B. F. Holter estate to lay a new walk on the front of the lot on Main street. They were also directed to have the obstructions left in the streets by Hallowe'en jokers removed. Water committee men of State, were hunting visitors and refreshments were served at half reported reservoir as needing clean. jokers removed. Water committee reported reservoir as needing cleaning. President Schenk appointed Musser, Fox and Neff to have this done. Adelbert Confer asked to have an extention of the walk along the Hayes Schenck property extended to Hogan Alley and a crossing over this alley. Action deferred. Burdine Butler, who lives a few rods outside the borough line, asked to have a supply of water from the borough water works. No action taken. Bills covering the cost of purchase, delivery and shed limstone, amounting to $57.were presented and ordered paid.
Sunday afternoon, Perry Kline, about Johy Rockey; he is nursing a very placing in the street a carload of crushed limstone, amounting to $57.

The Next Number of the entertainment course will be given on Thanks-giving evening, Nov. 30, in the Reformed church on Main street. The entertainer for that evening will be John B. Ratto, a man who has achievworld-wide reputation by his work; and from all sources come such omiums of him and his wonderful character sketches that it is safe to promise our community one of the most delightful evenings they have ever enjoyed. After a good, hearty Thanksgiving dinner a good, hearty laugh in the evening will be an aid to digestion, insuring a night of comfort and rest.

Election of Officers.

L. S. Club met at the home of Mrs. J. L. DeHaas, and elected the following named officers for the ensuing year: Pres't., Mrs. William Weber; V. P. Mrs. W. L. Cook; Sec'y, Mrs. C. R. Moore; Treas. Mrs. J. L. DeHaas; Asst. Sec'y., Mrs. T. E. Thomas. It is not improbable that this club will take up the work of civic improvement in the near future-a good work and greatly needed.

Mark one for the first snow last Thursday, November 2nd. Mrs. Charles Bowes enjoyed a short visit among her old home people last

Mrs. Lionel Walker, of Avis, was a visitor among her friends here last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lucas spent last Wednesday in Williamsport and Milton on business.

Miss Annie and Mrs. James Kane were out-going passengers on No. 52 last Wednesday.

Mrs. John W. Yearlek left for a ceek of visiting in Philadelphia on 2 last Wednesday. 52 last Wednesday.

Mrs. Clara Adams. of Milesburg. took dinner with her friend Mrs. Katherine McKinney, on Sunday.

Miss May McCoy, of Smoke Run, was a Saturday and Sunday guest of her cousin, L. L. Williams and family. J. Wyckliffe Gardner, of Pittsburg, and M. J. Gardner, of Bellefonte, spent last Sunday with their sister, Mrs. R.

C. Leathers. The school library has received an Important addition in the shape of a copy of the "Pamphlet Laws" of the last session of the Legislature.

portion of last week with his mother here. He looks as though that staid old town took good care of him.

Friday evening, having with him his friend, Mr. Vogle, a business associate. Mr. John Bayhorn and daughter Miss Mabel, of Juniata, visited over the week end with their friends' form-er Jury Commissioner Frederic Robb and daughter, Miss Emma

The mattress factory building has received a new roof of the Cortright Metal shingle variety, at the hands of Capt. H. C. Holter and sons. It was squares to cover it. Walter B. Pletcher, of Philadelphia, and Ellis H. Ertle, of Pittsburg. are having vacations at home. Somebody's blunder sent to Howard township election tickets with certain candidates' names wrongly marked as to party affiliation. For-tunately it was one that could be remedied by careful voters.

Charles and Albert Confer who have for some months been plying their trade as painters and paper hangers in Niagara, are spending a week or so with their families here and will shortly return to their work.

T. J. Moore, of the township, has afternoon, and at half past seven in just finished building a new and commodious house on his farm and graded up around it, including the public highway on which his home fronts,

> C. M. Fox always drives a good horse and a fast one, but generally manages to keep his hat on. It got away from him, however, in a spurt, last Friday and as his hair deserted him long ago, he had a cool ride home. Eugene M. Pletcher, one of Howard's stalwart sons, and now a worthy representative of our town in Philadelphia, and the shop manager of the Taite & Sisler Co., manufacturers of in cans and boxes, is spending his vacation with his family and friends

Special service is being held every the Bald Eagle Ridge, at eight o'clock Saturday morning, James P. Haines Chapel by Pastor W. H. Patterson. He is assisted by his brother, Rev. J. O. Patterson, pastor of a Christian church in Washington county, Pa., both in preaching the word and in ed to that church; Rev. E. F. Joseph L. Gardner, of the township, Faust conducted the services. He was married to Nancy Rockey, Aug. 15, 1850 and seven children were born to household belongings on Saturday last household belongings on Saturday last them. Of these three survive him: and moved to Altoona on Monday and Thomas and Lloyd, who live on the Tuesday. Mr. Gardner personally re-

Mrs. John B. Holter and little dustrious citizen of the best class. He daughter Carrie, with Mrs. W. R. Hop-

Thomas W. Burns, born and raised in Howard township and lately a resident of Philipsburg, had the great misfortune to lose his wife, who died there last Saturday and was buried at Tyrone on Tuesday last. It is sad to west end. The first day of the season they went out together over the mountains, and Mr. Purcell succeeded in bringing down a good specimen of the wild turkey. Good luck to him.

David E. Cloud, son of one of Ches-

eight years of age, a son of Samuel east of town, was thrown from his employed, also having horse and struck on the head by one in his hand. Hope for of the horse's hoofs, cutting an ugly gash. Dr. Kurtz took the needed stitches and bound it up, and the plucky little fellow who stood the pain news in it than any other paper printwithout a squeak, is getting on nice-

Charles Holter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Holter, died very suddenly early last Wednesday morning, though his illnes, tuberculosis, long made him an invalid. A slight cough caused a hemorrhage from his ty-five per cent. since the election quite a job, requiring thirty-seven lungs and in a moment he was gone Mr. Holter was about thirty-four years of age and was a favorite with all the young people of the town. The funeral services will be held at the house, tomorrow, Friday morning, services to be conducted by Rev. M. Snyder, and interment will be made in Schenck's cemetery.

> YARNELL. Michael Heaton attended the funer-

Edward Walker, on Saturday at the Advent cemetery.
Miles Heaton and daughter Lucetta ere Bellefonte visitors on Saturday. Harvey Heaton was a business vis-Rev. E. C. Houck, a former pastor of the Baptist church at this place. visited friends here and at Milesburg, and while here preached a very in-teresting sermon in the Baptist church on Sunday of last week. Mrs. Harry Kessling departed on Saturday morning for McKeesport to visit her son William.

Mrs. James Kokley left on Friday
for Nantyglo to visit her daughter,

Mrs. James Kraft.

Mrs. Sarah Packer left on Saturday for McKeesport, Pa., to visit friends.

Miss Norah Walker spent Sunday at the Kessling hor Miss America Confer returned home one day last week after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Blaine Rockey, at Avis. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Heaton spent Sunday of last week at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Mitchell orman at Snow Shoe. While attending a show at Snow Margaret Kessling drew the lucky ticket which entitled her to the honor of being the most handsome young lady in the house and the ompany gave her a fine glass vase. Mrs. William Dunkle and Mrs. Lem-Hipple, of Milesburg, visited friends here on Sunday. Harry Kessling is now grandfather for the first time as the stork visited his son William's home at McKeesport and left a boy. Work on the new U. B. church is progressing nicely.

Bellefonte on Saturday,

William Fetzer's new house is now H. O. Miller is about to erect a saw away mill on the Toner Fetzer farm. Miss Annie Shank, teacher in the primary school here, was a shopper in Hunter.

Miss Daisy Watsin, of little Nit-tany, and her friend Williard Emenspent Saturday evening and Sunday among relatives here. Mrs. Charles Lucas, of Altoona, is spending some time at her home here, with Mr, and Mrs, John Burd. Ellis Shope and his lady friend, of Bellefonte, were seen passing through our town on Sunday. Oh, you horse and buggy, Ellis. He expects to take tour through New York on his wed-

We are having some wet weather for butchering; J. W. Shope had three fine porkers, but he says the wet weather is going against his grain for keep your eyes open. The party guests all departed wishing her many more such happy events.

George Degarmo spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James sore arm which came from a burn in foreman of the Crider farms the boiler shops at Avis where he is in his hand. Hope for his speedy rerecovery. Anyone wanting the news just take the Centre Democrat. You get more > George Valentine, of Bellefonte, was seen passing through our town on Saturday but it was the turkey he was after; its weight was 22 pounds.

Handshaking has fallen off seven-

Kate Bathurst and her mother and Miss Poorman were week end visiters at A. R. Strickland's.

Mrs. M. Gates is visiting at DuBois for a week. Jno. Barger, who is employed at Newberry, is visiting his family here. Lloyd Reeder, wife and sister Alice, and Ethyl Bitner and Mrs. Jno Barger were Bellefonte shoppers on Saturday.

Jno. Bathurst was a Lock Haven visitor last week.

Elmer Gettig, of Tyrone, was visiting his sister here on Sunday. Carry and Nora Shank and gentlenan friend, of Bellefonte, were visiting their parents here on Sunday.
Mrs. Ettie Leathers and her daughter, Mrs. I. B. Bathurst and baby were visiting at Milesburg on last Thurs-

D. Holter, of Howard, was visiting in our town on Sunday.

REBERSBURG.

Noah Corman and wife spent a few days in Mifflinburg last week. Prof. C. J. Morris, a teacher in the Huntingdon Reformatory, spent Sunday with his wife here.

C. M. Gramley, our autoist, and lady friends Rose Wolfe, of Madisonburg, took supper at Jerry Brungard's on Sunday evening.

Miss Mary Stapleton and sister-inlaw. Mrs. Stepleton, of Mifflinburg, visited their father, Prof. Stapleton, at T. A. Auman's over Sunday.

Mrs. Burnace Diehl and Miss Belle Faxon spent Sunday at Spring Mills with their sister, Mrs. Warren Wood. Miss Ethel Harter spent a few days at Selinsgrove the past week. George Heller, of Iowa, formerly of this place, is visiting his brother Ja-cob at present.

STORMSTOWN. The farmers are having much rainy weather for cornhusking. There has been quite a number of turkeys shot—all making a fine meal. H. G. Hunter, of Altoona, is spending a couple of days with friends.

Mrs. Jacob Griffin and little daughthe body of Miss Jessie Confer laid C. W. Hunter is very busy putting up a large monument for captain J. H.

Miss Alice Sylvis has returned home from Lancaster after spending a few We congratulate you, Mr. Strain upon your grand sermon you gave us in the M. E. church on Sunday night.

A Lesson On Trusts. The commissioner of corporations has been delving into the history of the tobacco trust. In 1885, one part of the trust, the Duke Sons' pany, was worth mere process of joining the trusts it swelled to $7,500,000 and, later, was treated to a further dose of $22,000. 000 in "securities," and "earns" 10 per cent on that. And in 23 years the Duke property, a $250,000 proposi has "earned" $39,000.000, or 15,500 per cent! How long will the America stock, industrial monopoly, rising cost Philipsburg Man Bitten by Dog. Harry Jones, the well known Front street clothing merchant, was the owner of a dog which bit him on the hand one day last week. The dog was killed and the head sent in Satstock Sanitary Board Philadelphia. After a thorough amination the diagnosis showed that the dog had rabies, and Dr. K. F. Meyer, director, sent on a last evening to this effect. Mr. Jones will leave today for Marietta to take est hope of his friends that it will result in preventing trouble .-- Journal.

Albert Johnson was elected Judge of the Union-Snyder district.

POTATOES WANTED Gthe Grocer, all u'i

Rellefonte, Pa.

the evening of last Friday, the Distinction in Dress---Shape Retaining Qualities That Stay "Shape-Retained"For Two Full Seasons---All Wool Fabrics-- Latest Styles---Perfect Fit---All This And More Is Yours in and you get distinction, permanency of shape, all-wool, style, fit-all this and more—at prices that average about the same as those charged for ommon, ordinary suits and coats, of little or no merit. And since you can buy a new Fall and Winter suit or coat of real Print-zess quality with the full assurance that it will retain its first graceful shapeliness for two full seasons and with the further assurance of highest grade materials—pure wool through and through—matchless workmanship —true colors—artistic patterns and perfect fit at prices so moderate that every woman can afford and is will-ing to pay them-don't you think you owe it to yourself and your pocketbook to get acquainted with Printzess style, Printzess quality and Printzess becomingness before investing your suit or coat money? And don't you thing it would be best to come soon-today or to-morrow-and see this apparel of distinction while assortments are freshly new and unbroken? Our present display of new Printzess Suits and Coats for Fall and Winter wear is the most complete and interesting ever shown hereabouts. You will enjoy it. Come and see with your own eyes real, refined, "distinction in dress."

PRINTZESS COATS AND SUITS

PRINTZESS FALL AND WINTER SUITS $13.75 TO $28.50

PRINTZESS FALL AND WINTER COATS $7.50 TO $35.00

Katz & Co.

You See Men Everywhere

who are dressed as you like to be dressed; who look as you like to look; who have an air of distinction that you like to see. Ten to one these men are wearing Sim clothes. You may be wearing them yourself; in that case you're dressed and you look, and you have the air of distinction we're talking about. There's no better or more certain way to get these things than the way we offer you.

The Sim Clothes

are designed by the most expert style authorities; in every small detail of length; of shape of the sleeve; of the turn of a lapel; in the artistic combination of colors: the shape and size and color of but tons--the little things you may not notice-these goods are exactly right. Notice some of these fine little points about them next time you're here.

You want such clothes as these: we know you do; you're a man who cares to have his clothes right; we know you are. There's no reason why you shouldn't have and wear them. The prices needn't stand in the way; they cost no more than men's ordinary clothes. None are so truly economical as

The facts of the thorough, pertect tailoring; of the correct style; all go to make these clothes best for you; most profitable for you. We want to have you wear these clothes for your own sake.

Sim, the Clothier