EAGLEVILLE.

Miss Verna Burrell, of Salona, spent Tuesday with her friend, Miss Mae Price. We are sorry to announce that Mrs. Kanag Rupert is seriously ill. They say Irve over-slept himself on Friday morning. It is pretty cold to go in your bare feet, isn't it, Irve? Some of the Blanchard boys had better learn when to go home and not sit up all night and keep their girls up till 5 o'clock. Rev. Eldridge, of Lewistown, preached a very interesting sermon on Monday evening at the Liberty Baptist church. Mr. Eldridge was formerly pastor of Milesburg and Liberty churches for two years and on account of ill health gave up the churches and went to Lewistown. Mr. Eldridge was loved by all the members of the Baptist church and is missed by all. If you think it was not cold on Monday evening just ask Chrissy and Mae. Mr. David Brown, of Cedar Springs, spent Monday evening with his niece, Mrs. Bessie Price, who has been seriously ill for some time. A. D. Cox spent Sunday with his lady friend, Miss Mae Price. Say, you Kunes, don't you know it is against the law to steal a girl. Jean James and Oly Wantz are home to butcher and go on a deer hunt. Now, boys, if you get any deer show it to some of the village boys as they never saw a deer. Miss S. Fravel spent Sunday with Miss Price. Mrs. Bessie Fravel and pretty little daughter, Miss Kathryn, spent Sunday with Edna DeHaas. George Nestlerode, who has been away, returned home last week. Harry Delong, who has been employed at Pittsburg, returned home on Saturday. Boys, get your cow bells ready as there is a rumor of a wedding in the near future; if you don't believe it, ask Gus. Quite a number of our people would like to know who writes for this paper. Well I am Pawnee Bill, and I live down along the hill.

PORT MATILDA.

ADAMS.—We are again called to report the death of another old veteran of the Civil War, that of W. Harry Adams, who answered his last roll call, Nov. 13, 1911, after a lingering illness of over four months from nervous prostration at the age of 76 years, at his home in Shady Dell. He was a member of Co. I, 22nd Pa. Vol. Cavalry, a true soldier as well as a faithful husband, and devout christian for 40 years. He leaves to mourn their loss a loving and dutiful wife, three brothers and one sister, namely, Matthew, of Shady Dell; Alex, of Philadelphia; Lloyd, of Altoona; and Mrs. Nancy Hollenshead, of Altoona. Interment was made November 16th, 1911, in Mount Pleasant cemetery, the Rev. H. A. McKelvey, pastor of the U. B. church performed the last christian rite with an eloquent and touching sermon. The pall bearers were John Adams, Aaron Adams, Doris Adams, Levi Cowher, Samuel McMonigal and Wilson Frantz. Rest comrade, sweet-sleep, the struggle in both battle and civil life has ended. Frank Blinman and wife, of Altoona; Mrs. Bessie Allen, of Tyrone; Lloyd Adams and sister Mrs. Nancy Hollenshead, of Altoona; Austin Near-hoof and wife, of Tyrone and Mrs. Lizzie Baney, of Bellefonte, attended the funeral of comrade Harry Adams on the 16th inst. August, Gill, of South Fork, visited relatives in and near Port Matilda this week taking a day's hunt before returning; he bagged a wild turkey and several rabbits. Mr. and Mrs. William Knepp, of Woodland, Clearfield county, visited friends near Port Matilda in the past week. Mr. Allen, of Pittsburg, and son John, of Tyrone, were visitors in the Cove this week. During their visit they took a day in the woods, bagging a nice lot of rabbits and pheasants. Port Matilda No. 2. W. N. Morrison, who is holding down a good job with the Pa. R. Co. at Trafford, Pa., came home to take a hunt. A friend of his accompanied him; they came on Tuesday and left on Saturday taking with them two wild turkeys and twenty-two rabbits. Right good Williams. The Port Matilda hunting club went to the Allegheny mountains to camp for a week. Success to you boys, but be sure you see horns before you shoot. Earnest Meyer killed a large wild-cat last week near town. Thomas Patton lost a valuable horse last week with the colic. S. B. Miles and wife are enjoying a visit with J. G. Miles, at Pittsburg, and taking in the sights.

FAIRVIEW.

Protracted meeting at Fairview was well attended Sunday night. Miss Pearl Fletcher was an overnight guest with Miss Mattie Poorman. T. J. Confer and daughters, Misses Myrtle and Gertrude, attended institute at Bellefonte a couple of days last week. G. A. Confer spent Sunday with his brother, A. D. Confer. Some of our people helped L. C. Thompson to move last Wednesday. Rev. M. J. Snyder called on some of the members here one day last week. Charles Boone, of Romola, called on Samuel Poorman on Sunday. Mrs. A. D. Confer and daughters, Margaret and Pollen, were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Miller on Sunday. Howard Leitch spent Sunday at his parental home. Clair Confer spent a few days last week with his parents at Romola. Mrs. Lemuel Poorman returned home from Phillipsburg. A. D. Confer came home from Wood, Huntingdon county on Saturday night. Mrs. T. J. Confer, who has been confined to her bed the past few days, is not much improved at this writing. Miss Clara Thompson spent Sunday night closer to Fairview to avoid a long walk to the top of the Divide. How about it, Sam? Some of those who called on Sunday at T. J. Confer's, were Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Thompson and sons, G. A. Confer, Lemuel and Katie Holt, Howard Leitch, W. B. Haines, and Misses Clara, Elsie and Alice Thompson. Miss Alice Thompson attended Fred Haines' butchering on Saturday. A fly and a flea in a flue were imprisoned so what could they do. Said the fly, "Let us flea," said the flea "Let us fly," so with a rattle they flew up the flue.

REBERSBURG.

On Friday Thomas Walker and Charles Bierly went to Coburn in a carriage. When Charles got out of the carriage he asked Mr. Walker why he did not get out. Tom made no reply and then it was discovered that he had suffered a paralytic stroke. As soon as possible he was brought to his home in Rebersburg, and his three sons summoned. On Sunday he recovered consciousness and at this writing can take nourishment and speak again. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery. Theodore is himself again. News from the deer hunting camp at the west end of the Narrows is to this effect: Two bucks and all well. A fashionable wedding surprised this quiet burg on Sunday evening, the high contracting parties being C. Mac Gramley and Mrs. Rose Wolfe, of Madisonburg, widow of Thomas Wolfe. They came up to the church in a car and the happy groom marched down the west aisle of St. Peter's Lutheran church whilst the radiant bride took the east aisle. They met on a precious rug in front of the altar furnished by Claude Haines. They marched to the dulcet strains of Mendelssohn's nuptial march played by Mrs. Alma Haines, Rev. Whitman, the pastor, pronounced the benediction that soled "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by many, they departed as they entered and repaired to the Gramley home with alacrity. A curious reader would like to know the botanical term of that luscious berry which grows along the fences, called in the vernacular "shofe-skunt-tel." Will Prof. Surface, or some of our orchardists please explain? An old farmer said: "Yes, the learned bulletins from the State College are all right no doubt, but we never read them nor pay any attention to them. We know, by a life's experience what to do.

HANNAH.

Mrs. Francis Gardner visited her father, William Stimer, a few days last week. Miss Myrtle Wiser and gentleman friends Clair Lewis, of Tyrone, Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiser. Ephram Stimer killed a fine porker, now for the buckwheat cakes and sausage; how about it Ephram? Miss Lena Wiser has returned to her work in Tyrone where she is employed in dressmaking; her many friends wish her success. Mrs. Dora Clewell is spending a few days with friends and relatives in Clearfield county. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knepp, of Woodland, have returned home after spending a few days with relatives here. Mr. Markowitz's sale was well attended; everything went high. Those who attended the butchering at J. C. Mark's on Saturday were, the Misses Margaret Marks, Rose Adams and Flossie Fink, of Julian; Mrs. Edith Johnson and son, of Port Matilda; Thomas Faust, of this place and Miss Myrtle Wiser, of Tyrone. He killed two fine porkers weighing a little less than half a ton. Mrs. Ephram Carabough, we are sorry to note who has been very ill for the past three weeks, is no better at this writing. John Marks, Jr., who has been in Maryland since March, visited his father on Sunday on his way to another place of business. Miss Flossie Fink returned home on Sunday to Julian, after spending a couple of days with her cousin, Harry Marks.

RUNVILLE.

The little two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bennett was scalded very badly last week by falling in a tub of hot water; he is getting along very nicely. Mrs. Florence Lucas departed for Williamsport last week where she will remain for an indefinite time. Cheer up, Merrill. Miss Minnie Walker returned home on Monday, after a two-weeks' stay at Bellefonte. Miss Mira Lucas left last Tuesday for Tyrone where she will remain some time. Roy Fetzer is spending a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fetzer. Miss Edna Rodgers, who spent the past two months with relatives at Tyrone and Valley View, returned home on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Willis spent Sunday at the home of Taylor Irwins, Egypt. Rev. I. H. Dean is holding a revival at the Pleasant valley charge. Miss Jean Robison and friends, of Phillipsburg, spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. Ida Poorman, Miss Robison's aunt.

BRANCH—College Twp.

Miss Margaret Musser attended institute in Bellefonte last week. Katie Breen, Maude Musser, Helen Sents, Henry Sents, Maggie Breen and Blair Ritner visited at the home of Belle Lytle, Wednesday night and report having a good time. Miss Hannah Royer spent Saturday and Sunday at Mrs. George Hoorman's. Mrs. Susan Peters and Mrs. J. I. Reed, of Pine Grove, visited at the home of Curtis Meyer, one day last week. Miss Belle Lytle and son, Jared, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday. Miss Maggie Breen visited at the homes of Alvin Breen's and Mrs. Geo. Hummel's, over Saturday and Sunday. Ralph Musser, Henry Sents, Henry Dale, Blair Ritner and Jared Lytle attended a dance in Bellefonte last Friday night. Preaching in the Branch school house was well attended last Sunday evening.

CENTRE MILLS.

James Stover and Roy Puff, of Centre Hall, passed through our town last Friday and took dinner at J. A. Kline's. Mrs. Agnes Corman returned home last Thursday, after a few days' visit with friends and relatives in Snyder county. Miss Margaret Rachau, of Madisonburg, spent her vacation week at Norman Duck's. One of Howard Weaver's horses died last week with a heaving in its jaw. The corn crop around here was a fine one. J. W. Blair made a trip to Spring Mills last Thursday night to see his sister, Mrs. Geo. Weaver. Edwin Bierly, of Madisonburg, is husking N. A. Duck's corn.

NITTANY.

Miss Grace Fisher, of Howard, and Miss Rosie Fittler, of Centre Hall, are spending a week with their parents and many friends at this place. Joe Lannen, of Howard, attended Sunday school and church at this place on Sunday. Mrs. Dan Diehl and two daughters, Lillie and Sarah, attended Literary society at Clintondale, Friday. On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 3rd, at 3 o'clock, Dr. Gobble, of the Albright college at Myerstown, will preach in the United Evangelical church at this place; everybody is cordially invited. Perry Rachau was to Brushvalley to help butcher on Monday last. Mrs. Charley Robb and son Lee, of Bellefonte, spent part of the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Billet. Our people are making sausage and killing the pigs. In Dec. 9th the Aid society of the Evangelical church will hold a pie social at the home of John W. Tolbert; they will serve ice cream and cake, pie and other delicacies of the season. Everybody cordially invited to attend and help a good cause along. Wilson Ammerman and wife, of Peru, came to our town on Saturday last to help Mrs. Corman Yearick to butcher on Monday. Bob Allison was to Lock Haven one day the past week on business. We are glad to note that William Billet, quite an aged citizen, who became very ill one day the past week, is a little better at this writing; we hope he will soon be restored to perfect health. Miss Blanche Snaveley, of Flemington, spent over Sunday with her mother and brothers and many other friends here. William Sheats, of Howard, visited Tom Gansalus and family on Sunday. Charles Zerby and wife are visiting friends in Pennsylvania over Sunday. Harry Baker and wife were to Lock Haven the past week doing some shopping. William Snaveley killed a fine big spike buck on the first day of hunting season. Butchering is all the go around here—the hogs are dying every day.

AARONSBURG.

Nellie Burd went to State College for an indefinite time; she will be greatly missed among her many friends. Justie Hoy, from Crescon, is spending a week with her aged aunt, Sara B. Kline, who was very glad to see her niece. Harry Wyle, his wife and children, from Akron, Ohio, arrived here on Friday and moved in his father's house on South West street. Mrs. Frank Guisewite, from Feldler, and sister Mrs. Thomas Meyer, from Coburn, each spent a few days with their aged father, J. C. Stover, at Geo. Weavers'. Mrs. S. H. Lenker and daughter Sue are at present visiting her children at Lemont and Bellefonte. Helen Bower spent a few days with her cousins and other many friends at the county seat last week. Mrs. McClintic, from Lock Haven, is enjoying herself very much with her grandchildren and children. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Crouse, our huckster. Al Stover and his wife took a week off to go and visit their accomplished daughter Marion in Harrisburg and with Mrs. Stover's sister, Mrs. Freeman Lutz. Dr. D. K. Musser was in town a few days; his hosts of friends are always glad to see him. Polly Stover is slowly improving at the home of Mrs. Noah Leitzel. Mrs. Frank Guisewite, from Feldler, and sister Mrs. Thomas Meyer, from Coburn, each spent a few days with their aged father, J. C. Stover, at Geo. Weavers'.

VALLEY VIEW.

Carl C. Garbrick and wife, Orin Westley, and Harry Buras, of Tyrone, and Miss Edna Rogers, of Osceola Mills, spent a few days at A. J. Garbrick's to help to butcher. They were a jolly crowd and enjoyed themselves very much. We are sorry to learn of the illness of Arthur Eckley's little girl, Bella; hope she will soon recover. The revival service has closed without any visible result. Miss Sarah Eckley and Mrs. Amanda Miller are at present visiting at Niagara Falls. There is a rumor about our town that there is going to be a wedding in the near future. How it is, Charley? We have a fever in our town that got four backbones out of three hogs last Thursday; how is this, Philly? Rush Hampton, from Muncy, was seen on our streets last Sunday. Last Thursday evening when the Tyrone crowd got off their train, some thought it was an opera company. But they pulled for Valleyview, to the home of Carl Garbrick and on Friday was butcher day at the Garbrick home. We were having awful stormy weather the past two weeks with snow storms and rain. The typhoid fever victims are improving some. Wesley Fike has returned home from Pine Grove where he was working this summer. Wess Dale's family, of DuBois, are visiting here with his sister, Mrs. Geo. Bhears. George Fike has gone to Buffalo Run to work at the lime kilns this winter. Ira Benner's took a drive to State College on Sunday to try their new carriage. Protracted meeting ended here on Friday night without much success. A great many of our people attended Boyd Williams' sale on Saturday at the Branch. George Boring has been making frequent visits at Frank Shuoy's; wonder what the attraction is, George? Mr. Benette, of State College, was seen in our town last week one evening.

ROCK FORGE.

We were having awful stormy weather the past two weeks with snow storms and rain. The typhoid fever victims are improving some. Wesley Fike has returned home from Pine Grove where he was working this summer. Wess Dale's family, of DuBois, are visiting here with his sister, Mrs. Geo. Bhears. George Fike has gone to Buffalo Run to work at the lime kilns this winter. Ira Benner's took a drive to State College on Sunday to try their new carriage. Protracted meeting ended here on Friday night without much success. A great many of our people attended Boyd Williams' sale on Saturday at the Branch. George Boring has been making frequent visits at Frank Shuoy's; wonder what the attraction is, George? Mr. Benette, of State College, was seen in our town last week one evening.

EARLYSTOWN.

This cold weather caught some of our farmers husking corn; Mr. Bartges has about 800 or more bushels to husk yet, and Mr. Delaney has also some to husk. Miss Rosa Fisher is taking her vacation at present visiting her parents at Nittany this week. C. B. Neff is the first farmer in this place to put up a silo and has it filled for use. T. C. Bartges and H. Bierly were out in the Huntingdon Mountains to visit the hunters on Sunday, but report that the Regulars have no deer yet.

ROMOLA.

Mrs. Isaac Williams, of Howard, spent several days last week with her old time friends, Mrs. J. W. Oyer. Mrs. Wm. Sayers attended a butchering at the home of Miles Lucas, of Fairview, Boggs township, on Thursday last week. Miss Edith Miller, who has for some time past been employed at Paul Markle's, returned home on Wednesday evening. Mrs. F. C. Harker, who is visiting at the home of her father, J. W. Oyer, went to Lock Haven on Thursday evening of last week, where she will spend some time with Mr. Harker, who is employed at the Lock Haven paper mill. Miss Maude Daley, of this place, spent several days last week at Bellefonte and also attended the teachers' institute. I would say to the Fairview scribe that the Romola scribe is not dead—just taking a long sleep, but has been awakened by the cold weather; we enjoy reading the Fairview news very much. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daley were Beech Creek shoppers on Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Oyer and two interesting children, Nelle and John, of Johnsonburg, are spending some time at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Oyer at this place. Clarence Daley, wife and four children, of Tyrone, are at present visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary J. Daley, of this place. Mrs. Barger and brother, Charlie Hayes, of Howard, spent several days last week at the hospitable home of John Miller at this place. Harry Miller transacted business at Bellefonte on Saturday.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Miss Margaret Glenn spent last week with friends at Bellefonte and State College. Mrs. Roy S. Goss, of Brookville, and Mrs. W. W. Ramsey, of Manor Hill, spent several days last week with their sister, Mrs. G. R. Dunlap. After a two weeks' hunt on old Tussey Mountain, W. W. Keller returned home Saturday. Mrs. Clayton Struble and son, Earnest, did some shopping in Bellefonte on Monday. Miss Bertha Smith spent last week visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Osman, at State College. Prof. White had the misfortune to miss the train at Bellefonte on Monday morning and the High school had no session in the morning. The time will not be counted missed for it was made up after four o'clock. Miss Kathryn Dunlap, of Troy, N. Y., is spending her vacation at her home in this place. Rev. J. S. Pittinger will address the O. of L. A. in their rooms on Water street, Saturday evening, November 25. After the address a delicious supper will be served. J. W. Sunday shot a fine deer last week. He is camping with the J. W. Kepler crowd on Tussey Mountain. Mrs. E. C. Martz visited her sister, Mrs. Arthur Peters, at Oak Hall last week. A party of students from State College, who were on their way to Huntingdon county for a few days hunt, passed through our town the beginning of last week. The members of the Presbyterian church will hold a festival in the I. O. O. F. hall at this place on Thanksgiving evening.

TYLERVILLE.

The services held here in the Reformed church were well attended. Raymond Lutz while on his way home from preaching fell across a log and broke his arm. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Miller, of Lock Haven, visited at this place last week. Mrs. Renninger, of Lorantown, who had been visiting at O. A. Caris, returned home last Sunday. Miss Florence Greeninger, of Boonville, visited at W. D. Kerstetter's last week. Charlie Harter, of Lock Haven, was here a few days hunting with his father. Augustus Miller shot a bear last week while on a hunting trip. Mrs. Thomas Hubler, of Rebersburg, visited a few days with her parents, Sylvanus Moyer's. Samuel Glantz's, who had been away for over a month, returned home last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Shrack and son, Harry, from Reading, came here last Saturday and will make this their future home. Miss Alma Mechtly, who had been to Lock Haven, was home over Sunday.

FILLMORE.

The change in the weather, which was colder, froze a great deal of fruit. Some of the people did not get their potatoes raised or apples picked. The small snow that fell on Tuesday night of last week made the little rabbit suffer, for every person who was able to carry a gun was after them. We received a report from our hunting club, of this place, who are on the Alleghenies. They were successful in capturing a spike buck. William Witmer was the lucky man to get him. Those who are with the club are as follows: Edward Taylor, Clayton Huey, Clair Rimmer, Thomas Tressler, George Hoover, Ralph Bum-barger, and William Witmer, the lucky man; also Paul Witmer the cook. Miss Katie Lauck left on Saturday to spend a few days with friends and relatives in Snow Shoe. Gee, but wish I had a nice girl like some of the other boys do; but I wouldn't want her to hide in the buggy shed and have them tell me she was sick. James Huey was one of the lucky ones to have a good crop of potatoes; he says he raised about one hundred bushels and there are some in the pile that one would make a hungry man a square meal. Elmer Scholl hauled some of his hauled hay to Waddle for the McKnitt Lumber Co. Terna McAlarney, of Altoona, visited at the home of C. C. Huey on last Saturday, also purchased a fine hunting dog from Mr. Huey. If a cobbler in Canada requires help can winnepeg?
