WINGATE.

William and Thomas Sommers, two of our jolly young men, boarded the morning train on Monday for Sunbury where they expected to secure positions as locomotive firemen. But William returned and reports a nice trip and no job. Thomas went to Lewistown where he had been employed.

Martin Ryan, one of our jolly operators, left on Monday for Boynton, where he bid in a steady position. "O you fair damsel at Phillipsburg."

The new broom sweeps clean only when there are willing hands at the other end of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sommer left on Tuesday evening for Unionville where they will assist in killing some fine porkers for a friend of that town.

Ell Stere still has the habit of court-ing yet, as he spent last Tuesday at- tending court at Bellefonte. Forget it.

Erma Sylvia, of Stormstown, accom- panied by Thomas Crawshaw, of Phillipsburg, spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. L. S. Way.

There are some folks so lacking in skill that they do not know how to make an excuse.

Quite a few of our young people attended the protracted meetings held at Bush Hollow and Unionville.

Dora G. Stere, after spending a few weeks visiting relatives at Altoona, returned home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Mat Conaway, of Snow Shoe, spent Thursday at the home of Eli Stere.

Bessie Shirk, of Runville, is at the present time living with James Snyder. Bessie is a good girl alright and deserves a Christmas present.

Last Friday evening at 9:03, extra 2692 west arrived in our village haul- ing one of the largest passenger en- gines in the world, No. 3395. It was 78 feet long and weighs nearly 100,000 feet, 8 inches high and everything in proportion. It was self firing and was supposed to haul 10 pullman cars at the rate of 90 miles per hour. This engine was headed for Altoona where the Penna. railroad will give it a test.

Mrs. James Snyder left on Thurs- day for Phillipsburg where she will visit relatives and friends.

Clinton Murray and daughter, of Altoona, arrived in our city last Thursday, and Friday the writer and Clinton started out for small game. Ask Clint why we did not get that turkey.

It is a good thing to know when we are right, and it is important also, to know when we are left.

Wm. Heaton, of Hublersburg, spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Ja- cob Kerchner.

On December 22nd the return con- test between the Wingate school and Runville school will be pulled off at Runville. Some class to our school when it comes to dialogues.

Joseph Hoover, of Altoona, is spend- ing some time at the home of Jas. Davidson.

Edward Fisher and wife, of lower Milesburg, spent Sunday with his parents, W. E. Fisher's.

JULIAN.

John Holt, of Scotia, has moved his family to one of H. K. Matern's ten- ant houses and he will work for him this winter.

Benner Dillen, of Altoona, is visit- ing at the home of F. W. Dillen, his nephew.

William Richards, who is employed on the railroad, is on the sick list the last week.

J. R. Williams, our mail carrier, was suffering with an attack of la grippe, but is much improved now and back on his route.

Julian No. 2.

Summer is back again, and some of our farmers are plowing for their spring crops.

Reuben Walizer, of this place, spent a few days with his sister at Renovo.

Allen Boyer, who is employed in Ty- rone, spent Sunday with his family of this place.

Michel Murphy, our new supervisor, is making some fine improvements on the mountain road which is badly needed.

A large bear passed through our vi- cinity on Tuesday, after which a crowd of jolly fellows consisting of J. E. Hanscom, C. M. Wilson, John Smay, R. D. Wallizer, Irvin Craig, Chas. Fahr, followed over the Munsey mountain till they arrived at Alec Hoover's, where they partook of some refreshments and journeyed on as far as Dale Summit where Chas. Wilson and Irvin Craig suggested getting a flying machine to overtake poor Bruin. The remaining ones thought they had better postpone it till next week. They decided on the latter, and all re- turned very much fatigued.

The job under the management of J. B. Hanscom and Chas. Fahr is go- ing on in full blast.

Dory Swisher is home on a few days vacation at this writing; glad to see you, Dory.

VALLEY VIEW.

David Casper and wife, from Monu- ment, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Casper's parents at present, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rider, at Buffalo Run.

Our Sunday school will have a Christmas entertainment, but the time for the same has not been fixed yet.

Mrs. Lowry Justice had a very suc- cessful operation on last Thursday and is getting along nicely; wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Houser pass- ed through our town last Sunday.

Our Sunday school was well attend- ed last Sunday; all are invited.

Miss Susan Justice, from Tyrone, is taking care of home affairs while her mother is in the hospital.

There was communion service in the United Brethren church on Sunday evening, conducted by Rev. G. E. Smith, the pastor. The Reverend de- livered a very appropriate discourse for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rider were seen on our streets in Sunday.

WADDLE.

Rev. Smith is conducting a revival meeting at the Paradise U. B. church. Miss Erma Stevenson has returned home from a visit with friends at Ju- lian.

A Christmas entertainment will be given at the Stony Point school house on Thursday evening, Dec. 21st. All are cordially invited to attend.

WITTANY.

Mrs. Yearick, mother of Mrs. Harry Mauck, was called to Woodward one day the past week on account of the sudden death of her brother, Mr. Eby.

William Sheats and daughters, of Howard, helped Tom Gunsallus to butcher last Wednesday.

Miss Stine, of Zion, is the guest of Miss Edna Gunsallus at this writing.

William Snaveley and John Williams were to Lock Haven one day the past week on business.

Dan Diehl finished up thrashing for our farmers last Saturday; he still has some hay and straw to bale and some fodder to shred.

George Gunsallus and Oscar Dor- man were to Lock Haven one day the past week on business.

"Where are you going to spend Christmas," is the talk of our people. Don't forget the pie social, Decem- ber 30th; come and eat.

There will be preaching in the Church of Christ at Huston on Sat- urday night, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock; everybody is cordially invited.

The coasting party on Wednesday and Thursday night held at the Frank- lin school grounds was well attended; all had a very enjoyable time.

Any one wishing to purchase a fine young colt should call on S. R. Mc- Caleb; this is a fine colt and worth any man's money. Inquire of S. R. McCaleb, Nittany.

Mrs. Hannah Krape is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Dan Showers, for a while.

Russel Showers, who is working at Waddle, spent Sunday at home.

Preaching in the Evangelical church Sunday morning at 10:30.

The Misses Cora and Alma Hall, of Unionville, were guests of their un- cle, E. W. Ammerman and wife, over Sunday.

Christmas is coming and no cakes baked.

On last Thursday Miss Laura Shill- ing, sister of Mrs. James Nolan, was buried, the funeral being held in the Clintondale church; quite a number of our people were in attendance, also Mrs. Feldler, of Brush valley.

The stork while hovering over this place spied the big house George Fish- ing is living in, and he stopped and left a little girl. Both mother and babe are doing nicely at this writing. May Showers is doing the work.

Don't forget the pie social on De- cember 30th at J. W. Tolbert's.

Ferry Welber, who works at Wad- dle, spent several days with his fam- ily here; his wife has been sick in bed for over two years.

Benjamin Budd Allison, who had been in the navy the past four years, has returned home; his many friends are all glad to have him in our midst again.

Cal Wilson, of Hublersburg, came down on Saturday last to help Harry Baker to butcher.

STORMSTOWN.

Reception—A very enjoyable as well as a profitable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Anna Clark, of near Stormstown, on Thursday evening, Dec. 7. The occasion was in honor of a granddaughter, Miss Helen Clark of Juniata, Blair county. Miss Helen formerly lived with her grandmother and is therefore very well known in that community, and her many young friends were glad to give her a hearty welcome in the above named home.

About ten o'clock Rev. Smith appear- ed on the scene and, of course, was called upon to assist in making the gathering a success, and after several attempts to unite in wedlock those who perhaps are thinking of choosing a mate sometime sooner or later, but be- cause of the "man behind" all seemed to get enough before the ceremony was really begun, they decided to wait until they were really engaged and then try it. Many games of mirth then were engaged in, and after Mr. Smith had recited a few poems and all had taken part in singing no songs, but hymns, with Miss Inez Sellers, of Bucknell University and Miss Elsie Hartsock presiding at the instru- ment. The occasion was turned into a feasting only on those things which help to build up the human body in- stead of tear it down. Those present were: Mrs. Anna Clark, Miss Grace Clark, Miss Helen Clark and Misses Ruth Stover, Inez Sellers, Maud Huey, Elsie, Mary, Margaret and Helen Hartsock, Luella and Mae Nearhoof, Dora and Stella Harpster, and Messrs. Harold and Loy Clark, Agnew and Ross Sellers, Rev. G. E. Smith, Paul and Fred Hartsock.

HANNAH.

Miss Luthora Reese is very ill with the mumps; we hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bell, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with their son, J. T. Beckwith.

Those who attended the butchering at John Thomas' were: John Frantz, of Stone; W. Franks, of Piquaburg; Alfred McGuire, of Fort Matilda; J. C. Marks and Anna Nearhoof, of this place. He killed two hogs weighing about 400 pounds a piece.

Mrs. C. Reese visited her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Beckwith, of this place.

Miss Emma Reese, of Tyrone, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reese.

The Misses Bouiah and Mary Beck- with, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with their friends, Miss Alma Beckwith, of this place.

PERU.

Peru school will give an entertain- ment on Christmas evening, Dec. 25, at 7:30 o'clock, to which every one is cordially invited to attend. A collec- tion will be taken, the proceeds of which will go to pay for the organ, the school has lately purchased.

On Sunday, Grace Grove, daughter of E. H. Grove, fell and broke her arm.

Al. Everts, the lumberman from Spring Mills, had the misfortune to smash two fingers. He is unlucky, as not long ago he had his leg broken, while working near Peru station.

The following people butchered dur- ing the week: Jacob Markle, Orland Brooks, Dan Kilinger, Chas. Crust, and Mack Weaver.

Cora Peters spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Buffalo Run.

CENTRE LINE.

Lloyd says, he knows how to get the girls to go out driving.

Harold E. Way, who is employed by the P. R. R. Co., of Altoona, made a flying trip to Buffalo Run where he stopped a short time with his par- ents, W. M. Way's, on Sunday.

Butchering and large dinners will soon be over.

A few of our people attended the Farmers Institute at Stormstown on Friday evening.

The protracted meeting at the M. E. church of Centre Line is still in progress with fine speaking and good success.

The lecture which was delivered on Wednesday evening of last week, in the U. B. church, was well attended.

Mrs. Nowlin, who spent last week with her parents, Henry Cupps, left on Saturday for her work at Sinking Valley.

Harry Genstomer, the barber, start- ed Monday of last week to Dungan- riv to work; we wish him success.

Mrs. W. M. Way and son John spent Saturday in Altoona.

Isaac Kauffman and daughter Mary were seen on our streets on Sunday; come again.

William Brower, of Unionville, at- tended the Farmers' Institute and also visited his friends at Centre Line.

Centre Line, No. 2.

Butchering is on the go. Now for butchering cakes and sausage for breakfast.

Charles Matts got shot in the face while hunting last week. Charles is a great bear hunter.

Miss Erma Buck and John Stine at- tended Grango meeting at the Friends church last Friday evening.

H. C. Newhof made the feathers fly last week while hunting, but they were on the turkey; shoot again, Harry.

Edgar Nowlin borrowed his un- cle's gun and dog to go hunting, af- ter waiting twenty miles in a half day claimed the dog was no good and laid down; he wanted a rest, Edgar.

H. H. Ginsamer killed a hog that dressed four hundred pounds. Who's next?

A deer was chased through the mines of Dunganrivin by dogs that be- long to a party in our valley last week. We are in need of a game war- den, as there are men that will not obey the law.

The Warriors Mark Land Co. has closed their mines down for the win- ter.

Cyrus Lykens is improving slowly from the grip at this writing.

A certain young man and his lady friend has returned from a trip and now she is staying at his home. How about it, William?

Miss Rosalia Taylor is seriously ill at her home in the valley.

A wedding was about to bloom in our valley and got nipped in the bud. That will bloom later on.

FILLMORE.

The little snow that fell has all gone and left us soft weather.

Some of our crack marksmen did some very good shooting the other day—it kept them busy to hit the board without the paper.

I see that Lyman Bickel and Homer Cramer have returned home after spending some few days gathering oysters for their next summer's sup- ply, and if there is any one wishing any, they can get them at Mr. Bick- el's place; they are cheap and al- ways sweet and fresh.

Miss Cora Peters, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at the home of E. A. Peters of this place.

Butchering dinners are about over around our town.

Ed. Marshall took the prize at our town for big porkers; he had three and got five and a half cans of lard.

We still have a Fillmore hunting club and they are brave young men; they spent two weeks on the moun- tain hunting large game. After they came home there was a great big black bear came over to hunt them and they were all afraid to look that way or tackle him as he might have wanted to shake hands with them.

Walter Crust saw a bear and run to the house so it wouldn't hurt him, be- careful, Walter, when you cross the fence, in the evening to go to your neighbors' house, that he don't get you.

Miss Mildred Mingle and lady friend, of State College, spent Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Norris, of this place.

Some people use liniment for sprains and bruises while we have a person some distance from our town that used Vanilla extract; this is a new remedy.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Caroline Mayes has gone to New York city to visit her daughters living there.

Mrs. John Grenoble, of Lewistown, has come to assist her sister, Mrs. George Weaver, to take care of their aged father, J. C. Stover.
