

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—A lot of deaths and marriages will be found on page 2 of this issue.

—Leroy Locke, student in Haverford College, was home on his Christmas vacation.

—Miss Anna Belle Johnson, of Altoona, was a guest of Bellefonte friends on Sunday.

—Please take note of the large amount of local news in this issue of the Centre Democrat.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Young and little daughter, of Altoona, were New Year's day guests of Mrs. Katherine Farley, of this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell and children, of Burnham, spent the holiday season in Bellefonte as the guests of his father, Mr. Isaac Mitchell.

—Daniel Swartz, employed as bookkeeper for the Sweet Steel Co., at Williamsport, spent Sabbath last in Bellefonte as the guest of his friend Miss Grace Rine.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Parsons, of Wilkesburg, have been spending the past few weeks at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lowry, on Bishop street.

—Neither the curfew ordinance nor the cigarette smoking prohibition law, by little codgers, are enforced in Bellefonte—both parents and public officials are negligent herein.

—Miss Pearl Royer, one of the efficient employees in the office of the Bellefonte Telephone Exchange, spent Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Royer, in Tyrone.

—The 2nd quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church will be held in the Forge church, Bellefonte, Dec. 12-14, 1912. The public cordially invited. Rev. J. J. Zahniser, D. E. S. Stimer, pastor.

—Miss Artie Keller, graduate nurse of the Bellefonte Hospital, left on Tuesday evening for Bellevue, Ohio, to visit Mrs. Wm. Rachau, who formerly was a nurse in the Bellefonte Hospital.

—Max Wallace, one of the Bellefonte boys who are making good in other climes, returned to his home in Akron, O., last Thursday after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wallace, on Curtin street.

—Rev. T. C. Harper, of the First United Brethren church of Altoona, is assisting in conducting evangelistic services in the local church. The meetings are attracting many people and give promise of much accomplished good.

—Harry Rossman, who is in the employ of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co., has leased the property owned by and adjoining the residence of Mrs. Ellen Shadock, Thomas street, and will move into it from the Haupt flat in a short time.

—Little Mary Shoemaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker, took seriously ill during the holiday season and for several days was in an unconscious condition that gave her parents much concern. In the past few days she has much improved.

—After a pleasant holiday vacation spent with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dale, Esq., of this place, Arthur C. Dale and Miss Ethel Dale returned to their respective schools this week to resume their studies. The former to Wilkesburg College, Springfield, O., and the young lady to Goucher College.

—The home of Mrs. W. L. Steele, on Pine street, was the scene of a glad home gathering over Christmas of three married couples, who were accompanied by their husbands, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Curt Crider, of Howard; Mr. and Mrs. Curt Longoe, of Lewistown, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Craig, of Creighton.

—The Bellefonte stores have adopted the early closing hours since the beginning of the year. The stores close all business cases are cast aside and lights put out, except on pay days. At this season of the year there is a falling off in the trade, and they find that it hardly pays for the light they use to keep open after six o'clock.

—Mrs. Harriet Brown, familiarly known to her friends as "Aunt Harriet," while on a visit at the home of Edward Brown, at McCoy's iron works below town, fell on the frozen ground one day last week, and seriously sprained her knee. She was taken to the Bellefonte hospital, where under skillful treatment she is now recovering very nicely, despite her advanced age of seventy-one years.

—The scenic continues to please large audiences nightly, with some of the most interesting pictures ever produced. Many historical pictures which touch upon subjects that should interest every American citizen, are given in a true and life-like manner. These are exceptionally educating in character, and are excellent aids to school children. The most interesting of the world for only five cents.

—Miss Sue Garner, formerly of State College now a nurse in training in the M. E. hospital, in Philadelphia, was called home this week owing to the illness of her father, Wm. Garner, of Millheim, who was afflicted with an abscess on the arm. On Tuesday he underwent an operation in the Bellefonte Hospital where it was found that the infection came from an abscess that was located in the neck and needed immediate and careful attention.

—The inter-collegiate athletic meet in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Friday night proved a highly pleasing event, and the many feats of skill and strength were greatly enjoyed by the spectators. Three colleges (7) were represented—Harvard, Yale and Penn State. State won by 16 points; Yale followed with 13, and Harvard was third with 11 points. The various stunts consisted of short dash, putting the shot, throwing the hammer, standing broad jump, and relay races.

—The reception at the Nittany Country Club on last Thursday evening was well attended. The Pa. R. R. orchestra of Tyrone, and numerous members of the club came down in a special train at 5 p. m. The Bellefonte delegation went down on the regular at 7 p. m. which composed a large and congenial party. The club house was tastefully decorated in holiday attire and it never looked more festive. The selections rendered by the orchestra seemed to captivate all and was highly appreciated. A chicken dinner and dancing were special features of the evening. The party dispersed at midnight and by special train the members and guests returned to their homes in Bellefonte and Tyrone.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kiefer were guests of friends in Tyrone on Christmas.

—Miss Myrtle Williams, of DuBois, Pa., visited a week at Mrs. Tanner's, during the holidays.

—Mrs. Doris Rice, of Thomas St., spent a portion of last week with her sister in Jersey Shore.

—Isaac Dawson has been critically ill with dropsy the past week at his home on Halfmoon Hill.

—Prof. Arthur Harper and wife, of Columbus, Ohio, were visiting their parental homes over the holiday season.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson and children, of Beaver Falls, Pa., were guests at the Aikens home the past week.

—Farmer John Conly, of near Centre Hall, has been critically ill the past few weeks with dropsy and other ailments.

—John Bentley and daughter, of Pittsburg, spent several days during the holiday visiting friends at Curtin and in Bellefonte.

—William Rice, the printer, who is working at his trade in Philadelphia, spent a portion of last week with his mother in this place.

—Miss Minnie Gentzle, of Phillipsburg, spent Christmas very pleasantly with her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Ammerman, in this place.

—Nevin Corman and wife, of Renovo, spent several days the past week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Corman, on Bishop street.

—Miss Anna Peters, of Philadelphia, spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cheney Hicklen in this place, the latter and Miss Peters being sisters.

—Harris Olewine, student at Penna. State College, while home on his vacation, had a three-days' sleave with tonsillitis that kept him indoors during the holidays.

—Ex-Treasurer John Q. Miles, of Martha, was down on Monday to see that the new county officials were properly installed, and attend to some business matters.

—Mrs. Bess Packer and little daughter, Pauline, and brother, Robert Calderwood, of Dennison, Ohio, visited their sister, Mrs. Chas. R. Kurtz, during the holidays.

—Mrs. Harry Simmonds and daughter, Margaret, of Dennison, Ohio, visited her daughter, Miss Bess, a nurse in training at the Bellefonte hospital during the holidays.

—Misses Mary and Iva Brown, of Freeburg, are spending a few weeks at the United Brethren parsonage in this place, as the guests of their sister, Mrs. Rev. C. W. Winey.

—The wedding ceremony of Jerome Harper, formerly of Bellefonte, now located at Bitumen, Pa., and Miss Lulu Smith, of Bellefonte, is announced to take place the latter part of February.

—Mrs. Green, wife of Dr. Dorsey Green, of Lock Haven, underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lock Haven hospital last week. Mrs. Green before her marriage was Miss Blanchard, of Bellefonte.

—Harry Baum left this week for York, Pa., where he is conducting a special sale for a large mercantile firm. He has been making a specialty of such sales the past year, and is making a success of it.

—Judge Harry Alvin Hall accompanied by the Commissioners of Elk county and an architect inspected the new Centre County court house last week. They contemplate some changes in their court house and naturally wanted to gather all information possible before adopting any definite plan.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Willard, of north Thomas street, enjoyed a Christmas home gathering of their three sons: Roger, of Jersey City, N. J.; Milton, of Grafton, W. Va.; and Paul, of New York; they are all employed by the Union Switch and Signal Co., and each is making good at his respective location.

—Trude Parker, formerly employed at the Watchman office and who recently resigned to accept a railway position in the general foreman's office at Avis, was over Sunday guest at the home on Bishop street of her parents. Trude is making good and may some day become president of the road.

—Who knows? he was accompanied by his friend, Norman Johnson.

—Charley Haines, who has been employed at the Standard Scale works ever since their removal from Bellefonte to Beaver Falls, spent last week in this place at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Haines, Sr., in Beaver Row. Charley never forgets to look up old friends on his semi-annual visits here, and he's always as welcome as the flowers in May.

—Brandman's new Lyric moving picture parlor will be opened to the public in about two weeks, if present plans do not fall. A handsome metal ceiling is being put in this week, which adds greatly to the beauty of the room. Mr. Mowery, of Centre Hall, an experienced picture machine operator, will have charge of the business. The basement of the building may not be ready for occupancy for a few weeks longer, but as soon as completed it will be occupied by Chas. Kozts, the blind man, as a cigar store.

—Rev. Hamill Boal, pastor of the Presbyterian church at McCook, Neb., is here visiting his mother, widow of Rev. Dr. Boal who is well and favorably known to many of the Democrats readers. Dr. Boal at one time was pastor of the Centre Hall Presbyterian church, and upon his death some years ago, was buried in the Union cemetery of Bellefonte, alongside of his deceased daughter. The son, now visiting here, has served the McCook church over five years and is well pleased with Nebraska, and is in high standing with his parishioners.

—The Misses Elizabeth and Sarah Lambert, of Waterbury, Conn., daughters of the late Austin Lambert, deceased, were holiday guests of their brother, John Lambert, and family, on Quaker Hill. One of the young ladies is employed in making watches in that famous factory town where they turn out thousands of time pieces every month. The other sister is successfully employed in a large suspender factory. James Lambert, a brother, and a one time resident of Bellefonte, now of Pittsfield, also visited in this place with his wife and daughter. Mr. Lambert has abandoned the milling trade, and is prospering very nicely as an employee of the Pittsfield shops.

—Herman Holtz spent Christmas with his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Friedman, in New York City.

—Chemist David Washburn, of Vandegrift, Pa., came back to Bellefonte for the holiday vacation.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Gamble entertained their daughter, Mrs. Jack Ostertag and husband, over Christmas.

—Mrs. J. L. Spangler fell on Wednesday of last week in front of the Lutheran church and fractured the right forearm.

—Mr. and Mrs. James A. McClain and daughter spent their holidays in Bellefonte among friends. Mrs. McClain is still in Bellefonte.

—There will be some rare bargains at the Inventory Sale of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Company. Look for the announcement this coming week in this paper.

—Herb. M. Bartley and family, of Lock Haven, and Austin Bartley and family, of Altoona, spent over Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartley.

—Farmer James J. Gramly, of Madisonburg, who will quit farming in the spring, on his way for an extended visit with his children, spent the holidays in Bellefonte.

—Capt. and Mrs. James A. Quigley and daughter, Miss Katherine, of Beech Creek, spent Christmas in Bellefonte as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Quigley.

—Dr. John Keichline, of Petersburg, and Edward Keichline, machinist of Renovo, spent their holiday vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keichline, on Bishop street.

—Lee Walker, connected with the civil engineering department of the N. Y. C. R. R., and located at Albany, N. Y., spent a few days last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Miles Walker.

—Mrs. Louise Bush and daughter, Miss Lizzie Calaway, returned last week from Atlantic City, to their home in Bellefonte. The stay in Atlantic City proved beneficial for Mrs. Bush, who was in poor health for some time.

—Charles McClure, Esq., of Philadelphia; Harvey McClure with the Shoemaker-Eyre Co.; and Lawrence McClure, machinist, of Renovo, were guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClure, during the holidays.

—Wm. Barnes and family, of East Pittsburg, who visit at the Barris home on Bishop street, William, although a printer, now is an inspector in the electric motor department of the Westinghouse works near that place and has a good position.

—Miss Grace Rine has returned to her home in this place after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Calvin F. Rine, in Altoona. The latter accompanied her sister to this place and spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rine, on west High street.

—Vince Taylor, son of Col. H. S. Taylor, captured the highest scoring prize at the Y. M. C. A. bowling alley for the month of December. His score being 220. A prize of a 15-gallon bucket of offered each month to the one bowling the best game, and it serves to put ginger into the boys.

—The Woman's Club expects to give its usual charity ball on near St. Valentine's Day. They will be glad to have anyone who has Christmas trees and wreaths to save them for the occasion. By keeping the trees in a cool place their freshness can be preserved. By notifying Miss Elizabeth Blanchard, 13311 street, the greens will be taken care of when the committee begins to decorate.

—Bellefonte never before had so large a Christmas trade as on Friday and Saturday previous to Christmas. On Friday, shoppers from the country came in by hundreds, like on days when a big circus is in town, to show their Christmas goods. The merchants were busy from morn until late on those days and handled the big trade quite successfully. The stores that did some liberal advertising for a week, and longer, previous, found the expenditure a success beyond their expectations.

—"Come in the water's fine," will soon be heard at the new Y. M. C. A. swimming pool within the next month. It is thought that by the first of February everything connected with the pool will be in proper shape for use. The tilting green and white building and in the large basin is all laid, and its pure white, glistening surface, presents a handsome and inviting appearance. The large boiler used to heat the water to the proper temperature will arrive in a short time and be connected up, and then all that remains to complete the building, is to connect it to the main building by a suitable entrance.

—William Kessinger, of Eagleville, he of the flowing locks and beard who about a year ago figured in the Centre county court, as reason of domestic troubles, will arrive in a short time from a Squire Musser last Friday. Last March the court decreed that Kessinger should pay $3.50 a month to Chas. H. Lucas, of Howard, for the maintenance of his (Kessinger's) three children, they having been placed in the care of Mr. Lucas, who is Kessinger's brother-in-law. Prior to the decree of the court, from November to March, the children were also kept at the home of Mr. Lucas, and it was for their keeping during this time, a period of twenty weeks, that Kessinger's father was sued in court. Mr. Lucas' claim was one dollar a week for each of the children, amounting in the aggregate to $60, for which Squire Musser granted him judgment.

—The failure of the Singing Antias to fill their engagement several weeks ago, on the schedule of the Y. M. C. A. Star Course in this place, was a keen disappointment to local music lovers. Sudden illness of some of the members of the company while in Pittsburg necessitated their breaking several engagements, among which was that with Bellefonte. The entertainment bureau, however, has substituted another superb company, known as the Alda Quartette, with C. Pol Piancon, a famous French basso, and the latter organization, it is claimed, is of the highest musical and vocal ability. This company will appear here on Saturday evening, Jan. 13th. The fact that the Alda Quartette has appeared on the same program with such world-famous artists as Schumann-Helk, Biephann, and others, speaks volumes as to the standing of this organization. The personnel includes: Miss Norma Sauter, violinist; Miss Cora Sauter, cellist; Miss Ruth Wolfe, pianiste, and Miss Edna White, the only solo trumpeter of her sex in the world. Mr. Piancon, who accompanies the quartette, is a relative of Piancon, the famous French basso, and has had considerable experience in grand opera. The entertainment promises to be the best of the season.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Bible, of Philadelphia, spent part of the holidays among friends in Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Rath, of New Jersey, are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider, on Linn street.

—The funny comedy, "Husbands Beware," at the opera house tomorrow evening and Saturday afternoon and evening.

—Six coaches, drawn by two engines, carried the returning students from Bellefonte to State College on Wednesday.

—Miss Marie Moffit, of Penrose, was a week end guest of Miss Inez Cronmiller, at the Deitrich home on Bishop street.

—The annual "Inventory Sale" of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Company will be announced in this paper the coming week.

—See the funny situations of "Husbands Beware," at the opera house tomorrow evening and Saturday afternoon and evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock, of Jersey Shore, were over Sunday guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. James Clark in this place.

—The Misses Rachael, Anna and Sara Shuey spent the Christmas holiday season with their sister, Mrs. Charles Donachy, in Williamsport.

—The Centre County portion of State College students held a delightful assembly in the Bush Arcade last Thursday evening which was largely attended.

—Crider's "sucker stick" mill has been closed down for the past two weeks, owing to a slackness in orders. Quite a number of men and boys find employment at this industry.

—Edwin Hayes arrived home this week. He had been down in New Mexico and other parts of the west, and later was located in Chicago where he held a good position.

—Harry Yearick, of Altoona, came back to eat his Christmas dinner and spend a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Yearick. He has a good position and is doing well.

—A great deal of local news will be found on the inside pages of the Democrat this week. Most of the deaths and marriages will be found there, as we needed the space on the outside for other news.

—Robt. L. Tressler, ministerial student in Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, spent the holidays at his home in Altoona, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tressler, Reynolds Avenue. He returned on Tuesday noon.

—Harold Flagg, the young State College student who was injured some time ago by a fall in the armory at that place, recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital and spend Christmas at his home in Oil City.

—The demand for more room at Beezer's Garage, in Water street, induced him to build an incline trestle so as to run cars to the second story. This will give him double storage capacity, which was needed in his business.

—Owing to the cold weather the park work on the east side of the bridge has been discontinued until milder weather. With the temporary driveway the condition is no worse than it was during the past summer.

—H. S. Taylor, Esq., resigned his position as Captain of Company 1, 13th Regt., on the 1st of January last. He has filled the position for many years and feels like yielding it to a younger member of the organization.

—During the past week a canvass was made of the town to secure members for the proposed new board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. There have been made to our people by new industries and are worthy of careful consideration.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Munson, of Parkersburg, Tenn., spent part of the holiday season at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Munson, on Bishop street. They expect to return for a stay of several weeks during the month of February.

—The new-born year was ushered in by the blowing of whistles and ringing of bells in this place on Sunday midnight. Many who were waked from their slumbers by the racket of the whistles to believe that the infant required so much amusement at the "boring."

—New Year's evening the boarders at the home of Mrs. Tanner, on High street, celebrated the event with a feast that was fit for the gods, and in addition they had the soothing strains of "Christy Smith's" orchestra to assist in the festivities of the occasion. They certainly had a delightful time.

—The Baum residence, on Bishop street, will remain closed for several weeks. Mr. A. Baum, the father, has gone on a visit to his brother Samuel, in Philadelphia; Miss Fredia, who has been in the best of health, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hilda Reesman, at Princeton, Ind.; Harry Baum is conducting a special sale for a large mercantile establishment in York, Pa.; while Sim and Morris are boarding at the home of a physician, in the other members of the family return.

—The Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening January 9th, 1912 in the Bellefonte High school room. There will be music, election of officers, and an address by Miss Cynthia Dozier, State Organizer for the Parent-Teacher association. Miss Dozier is an interesting talker and it is earnestly desired that every parent interested in our schools will be present to hear what Miss Dozier has to say.—Mrs. Ambrose M. Schmidt, President; Mrs. John S. Walker, Secretary.

—Emedio Torsell, the shoemaker, last week purchased from the McCook estate the dwelling house on west High street, occupied by James Rine and family, just opposite the Meek residence. The purchase also includes the building adjoining, which has been used by Mr. Torsell for a number of years as a shoemaker shop. The new owner intends in the near future to greatly improve the residence, and may also put up a more substantial and better appearing building where the shop now stands. The price paid is said to have been $2500.

—The S. & H. Trading Stamp store opened up this week in the room in the Jenkins building, on High street, formerly occupied by Dr. Harris. This is a new venture in the business methods of the town and county, and the announcement of the company will be found in the advertising column of this issue where the plan is outlined for your consideration. The local branch will be under the direction of Paul Shaffer, who formerly conducted a grocery store in our town. There is a large and varied list of premiums to offer that will appeal to the public.

—On Monday a wrecked engine, beyond Colburn, delayed the morning train from the east several hours.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, of Buffalo, are guests at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Showers, on east Bishop street. Mr. Smith recently passed through a protracted illness, and now is recuperating his health.

BORO COUNCIL MEETS.

The boro council established an excellent precedent for the new year by a full attendance at its first regular meeting on Monday night. As the organization effected at the last previous meeting was considered but temporary, the formalities of a permanent reorganization for a term of two years were gone through with on Monday night. This resulted in a confirmation of the previous session's business and the election of Harry Keller president, and W. T. Kelley secretary. President Keller then announced the following members to serve on the various committees: Finance—Walker, Grim, Brockerhoff; Street—Beezer, Brockerhoff, Judge; Water—Gringer, Yergler, Judger; Special—Judge, Sheffer, Cherry, Brockerhoff, Walker; Fire and Police—Yergler, Beezer, Grim; Market—Sheffer, Beezer, Cherry; Sanitary—Cherry, Walker, Yergler; Village Improvement—Brockerhoff, Grim, Sheffer. The application of Mr. Wetzel for re-appointment as boro engineer, was referred to the street and water committees, and upon motion of Mr. Brockerhoff, Mr. Wetzel was elected for the next calendar year at the same salary as heretofore. The applications for police officers were referred to the fire and police committees, who decided to hold the matter over until next meeting. There is only one new applicant, that of William Beezer. A written request from citizens of south Water street for a crossing near the office of the Bellefonte Lumber Co., was referred to street committee. Burgess' report showed that fines to the amount of $16 had been collected, of which $7.75 had been paid out for incidental expenses, leaving a balance due boro of $22.50. Boro treasurer showed a balance on hand, Jan. 1, 1912, of $538.60. The renewal of two notes for six months was authorized by council, one for $225.00 and the other for $300.00, so orders drawn for $55 and $20 to pay six months accrued interest on notes of like amount that have matured.

MARRIAGES.

Shaffer-Jobson.
W. E. Shaffer, editor of the Daily Record, at Renovo, and Miss Ruth R. Jobson, of Lock Haven, were married in Philadelphia on December 29th. Miss Jobson was a teacher in the public schools of Howard.

Hey-Martin.
Thursday, Dec. 21st, at noon, at the Reformed parsonage in Bellefonte, Mr. M. Roy Hoy, of Zion, and Miss Mary B. Martin, of Lamar, were married by the Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt. The young couple are well known throughout the Nittany valley and their many friends join in wishing them many blessings through the years before them.

Williams-Weaver.
A very pretty wedding ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weaver at Lemont on December 29th at 6 o'clock p. m., when their daughter Helen became the bride of Orin R. Williams, of this place. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. K. Harnish, was witnessed by only the immediate relatives. The bride was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Edith Williams, a sister of the groom. The groom was supported by Mr. Eric Martz, of State College. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Bertha M. Meyer, of Linden Hall.

Van Tries-Aiken.
A pretty holiday week social event was the wedding of Miss Daisy A. Aiken, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Aiken, of Berwyn, a suburb of Philadelphia, and Rev. Potter Van Tries, pastor of the Broad Avenue Presbyterian church of Altoona, which took place in the Presbyterian church at Berwyn on the evening of Thursday, December 28th. The church in which the ceremony took place was decorated in green and white with Christmas greens and white daisies, and the bride wore a gown of white satin with lace and carried a large bouquet of white daisies. Her matron of honor was Mrs. Charles H. Quinby, of Waynes, and her little niece, Sueleke Aiken, was flower girl. Bridesmaids were Miss Sarah E. Blakely, of Chester, Pa.; Miss Jessie G. Whitman, of Roxborough, and Miss Emma M. Relfsnyder, of Norristown. The Rev. J. C. Finney, of Baltimore, acted as best man and the ushers were the Rev. H. H. Rendall, of Devon, Pa.; Dr. T. G. Aiken, a brother of the bride, and Mr. R. W. Flyeking, of Altoona. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Every man but one participating in the ceremony was either a clergyman or a physician. The groom is a son of Dr. Thos. C. Van Tries, of Bellefonte, and his taking unto himself a helpmate calls for his many friends in this place their heartfelt congratulations. The young man's successful rise in the ministry has been a source of much gratification.
