$2.00 Ladies Shirt

Waist at 99c.

STUNNING NEW STYLE

Season 1912.

Sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44.

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Mrs. Geo. Beezer entertained at her home on Howard street on Tuesday.

-Will Gfrerer, one of Centre Hall's good citizens, gave the Democrat's sanctum a call.

-John J. Bower, Esq., has been confined to his home the past few days with a bad cold.

-Frank Woomer has gone to Altoona where he has accepted a position in a large steam laundry.

-The "Philot" company canceled their date at the Garman opera house for this Thursday evening. They froze up.

-Mrs. Thomas Caldwell spent the week end in Altoona as the guest of her sisters, Misses Pearl and Bertha Philadelphia.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Nolen were guests of friends in this place over Sunday, returning to their home in Tyrone on Monday.

of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Seibert. He is another column. a brother of Mrs. Seibert. -Miss Julia Curtin returned to her home in this place on Friday after a

Ruth Kerstetter in Harrisburg. -Frank McCoy has been under the physician's care the past week at his west Linn street home, and is now said to be improving somewhat, -The annual inventory sale of the Saturday, Jan. 20th, and continues for G. Morris, on Linn street. two weeks. Read their announcement on Page 3 of this issue.

-Next attraction at the Garman Opera House will be the "Fay and Kut cold and being indisposed. Up Co.," a clever musical comedy. The date will be announced later, Mr. Garman says it will be a good attrac-

-Adjt. and Mrs. Campbell, of Phila- burg and Williamsport. delphia, will speak at the Salvation Army Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. These fire department should insist that evofficers are old time Salvationists and a good meeting is assured. Everybody

-Mrs. Frederick W. Topelt and lit-

-Harry Lutz is the new clerk in the county.

fee, Mrs. Fannie Ross, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson. Foreign: Stephan Blahnssak, victor Rahodisc, Yanko Rosegay. -S. H. Williams, P. M.

in Bellefonte last summer.

-On the third page of this issue sale to start on Saturday, Jan. 20th These sales always mean a harvest of bargains for those who attend.

-All members of Gregg Post are requested to meet at the Post rooms on Saturday morning to proceed in a body to the home of their comrade, the late Samuel H. Williams, on Bishop street, where they will hold services at 10 o'clock. This will be followed by services conducted by Rev. Ezra Yocum.

-You'll be certain of seeing something worth while if you attend the Scenic. Mr. Brown is endeavoring at all times to secure the best that can be had in the line of moving pictures, and that means there are no better made than what the Scenic gives. The balance of this week you will find an excellent program every night. The Scenic always strives to please.

-The frostwork on Knisely's large windows, fronting their cigar store, last Saturday and Sunday mornings, grand and simply wonderful in its figures much resembling shrubbery, grasses, forest scenery. Nature can around to do some decorating. No want to find to spend an evening. artist can sneeze at Jack Frost nor improve upon his work, with which he is at his best when mercury is lowest and would freeze off the fingers and toes, and the other et ceteras, of the landscape painters.

the stock on the shelves in Dolls' bakthe cut off for the building the pumps at the water works were stopped and valve in the main turned off in that part of the town, until the plumb-ers could make a temporary plug to the supply pipe. The ceilings and walls were badly soaked and much for who had the injured man removed to his home on Lamb street. On Wednesday Mr. Eberhart was unable to turn himself in bed, so badly was he ing forth for twenty-one days without he had conducted a paint and wall bruised up, but it is thought that no food or water. The hens showed some serious injury will result from the accident; at least his many friends hope ing fed upon wheat and oats, rapidly

-Mrs. Carrie Lucas spent the Sabbath with friends and relatives in Unionville.

-There will be service in St. John's Episcopal church on Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. -Send or telephone to us the news of your friends coming or going, and we will gladly print it. -Harry Haag, of Penn street, has been housed up the past week or more with sciatic rheumatism.

-County Commissioner Daniel C. Grove has been confined to his home the past few days with a bad cold. -Mrs. Jane Lane left last week for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Pittsburg, Harrisburg and

-Miss Anna Keichline, after week's "housing up" with a severe cold, has recovered sufficiently to be around again.

-Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. have a -Samuel Bollick, of Mt. Carmal, special sale on that should interest the Pa., spent over Sunday at the home public. See their advertisement in

-Miss Roxana Brisbin, of Centre Hall, spent the past week in Bellefonte as a guest at the Dr. Ward home two week's visit at the home of Miss on Curtin street.

-John D. Meyer, of Altoona, a former principal of the Bellefonte public schools, was a guest of friends in Bellefonte over Sunday.

-Robert Morris returned to his home at Wayne on Monday, from a Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. starts on visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.

> -Mr. Sechler, the groceryman, did not get down to his store for several days the past week owing to a slight 20.

-Six new students were recently added to the Bellefonte Academy, one conducted the Bush house, Bellefonte. each from Wheeling, W. Va., Pitts-Going to Altoona Mr. McClain enburg, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Harris-

-At this season of the year the ery fireplug in the town is tested to see if it is in proper working shape. Negligence may prove expensive.

-Mrs. Kathryn Burnett, of Roches tle son returned to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y., last week, after spending some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brouse,

-Mrs. Ann Moore, of Altoona, was -Hugh Bubb, a student at the n over-Sunday guest at the home of Bellefonte Academy, whose home is Mrs. Alice Showers, on Allegheny street. It was an enjoyable occasion for both ladies, as neither had seen gheny street, Friday. He was comeach other in the past twenty-eight pelled to return to his home for a few days.

-This week Mervin Betz, of Jack-Olewine's store. He is a miller by sonville purchased the John Hoy, Jr., trade and recently moved here from farm near that place. Geo. N. Hoy, Bald Eagle. Heretofore he worked Jr., the tenant, purchased the Geo. Hoy at Centre Hall, and at the Curtin mill homestead nearby, formerly owned at Roland and has many friends over and occupied by his grandfather. These are among the best farms in

-James Conley, of Freeport, Ill., was in town a few days ago, having come to Centre Hall to attend the come to Centre Hall to attend the Altoona. He also leaves one brother, funeral of his father. Jim, as he is Irvin Gill, of Spruce Creek, and one —Miss Helen Ceader departed last called here, was on the police force week for a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Saxe. The was found to be the right man in the latter will be remembered as former- right place, as he has become hearty ly Miss Jennie Harper, whose wedding and big enough to put down a little with Mr. Archibald Saxe took place riot single handed. Illinois seems to agree with him.

-Down along the placid waters of will be found the advertisement of the Bald Eagle, in the peaceful lit- acute indigestion last Monday, he on Potter-Hoy Hardware Co., in which they announce their annual inventory pondent of the Centre Democrat has paralysis, which practically rendered by paralysis, which practically rendered his speech her a premium on this effort.

leave Bellefonte this spring and in the future will make their home in Chicago where Mr. Corl has been employed the past two years with the Acme Supply Co., of which Harry Schroyer, formerly of this place, is the president. One of Mr. Corl's sons holds a good position with the same firm, and they feel that they will find it better to have all of the family together.

-Have you been to the new Lyric moving picture parlor on Brandman's corner? Everybody seems to be attending and enjoying the pictures and music. Bailey's orchestra will be there and play every night this week. Some evenings you get four reels of pictures, and it doesn't cost any more than 5 cents. Everything is brand not be outdone when putting its skill new and up-to-date, and it is one of to work when a big Jack Frost is the most pleasant places you would

-Some time during last Sunday night or early Monday morning Wallace's cigar store, under the First National Bank, was entered and robbed of a quantity of cigarettes and about $1.25 which had been left in the cash -Wednesday evening a water pipe drawer. A window on the north side at the top of the stairway on the third of the entrance to the store was chosen floor of the Bush Arcade broke and by the fellow who did the robbing, as the water poured out in a torrent the means of gaining an entrance. flooding the offices under it on the The window was found to have been second floor and completely drenched hoisted from the outside, possibly by the stock on the shelves in Dolls bak-

Owing to their inability to find window was never securely fastened. drink, was illustrated this week by a little incident that occurred at the hennery of Chas. Heisler's, on Willowbank street. Mr. Heisler has a flock of about 200 fine chickens, mostly floor he fell backward, alighting were they permitted underneath the to see him around again in a short recuperated, and now seem none the worse for the meals they missed.

-Come and see the fire sale bargains at J. Finklestine's store. -Found, a knit woolen glove for ight hand on Diamond-same left at this office. o her home in Lewistown after a vist with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kelerman, in this place.

-The home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Smith, on Curtin street, was made to rejoice by the appearance of a little daughter on last Friday.

-The annual statement of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre County will appear in next week's issue. The 'igures show that the company has enjoyed a very good year the past tweley months.

-The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bellefonte Trust Com-pany was held in their consultation rooms on Tuesday forenoon and was well attended. The report of the business for the past year was received with approval and showed the company to be in a sound and satisfactory condition, with very good earnings for the past year. All the stockholders were re-elected, with the substitution of Charles Cochran, of Williamsport, in place of the late Hon, J. Henry business meeting the stockholders adjourned to the Brockerhoff house where the annual dinner was served.

RECENT DEATHS.

LUCAS:-Alfred Lucas, who at one time resided in Snow Shoe, conducting a restaurant, died at his home in Williamsport last week. The remains were taken to Snow Shoe and interred in the Askey cemetery Jan. 4th.

McCLAIN: - Saturday morning Mrs. Margaret McClain, widow of Frank McClain, died at her home in Altoona. Here maiden name was Caldwell and was born near Bellefonte, 20, 1833. She wedded Mr. McClain some forty-one years ago and for a short time after their marriage he gaged in the mercantile business and he erected a business block. This building collapsed some five years ago and the site is now occupied by the latest addition to Gable & Co's, store. Mrs. McClain resided in the building at the time the wall fell in GUTELIUS:—Mrs. Euphemia Mc- Johnstown; Mrs. Chas. Levi. of Al- William McGowan, moulder Gee Gutelius, wife of Dr. Charles H. toona; William L., of Juniata; Miss H. C. Noll, laborer..... home in Mifflinburg, aged about six- sisters are left to mourn: James ty-five years. Mrs. Gutelius was a Gray, of Milesburg; Joseph Gray, of daughter of the late William and Mary Pittsburg; Mrs. Anna Bierly, of Lo-Barnett McGee. She was joined in ganton; Mrs. Frank Kyler, of Johnsmarriage with Dr. Charles H. Gutelius town: Mrs. Jacob Shirk, of Tyrone. at New Bloomfield, Pa., September 28. Funeral services will be held at the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock, consided in Mifflinburg. Dr. Gutelius ducted by Rev. Shearer, of Bellefonte, years ago resided at Aaronsburg, his first wife being a Miss Motz, of Wood-ters of the United Evangelical church, Frank Uzzle, miner.

GILL:-Friday night Mr. Samuel Gill died of dropsy of the heart and -Mrs. Charles MacAvoy, of Harrisburg, after a few days' visit with her son, Supt. C. G. MacAvoy, in this place, returned to her home last Thursday accompanied by her little grandson who will remain with her for a short time.

-List of unclaimed letters for the week ending, Jan, 13th, 1912;—Joseph Hamilton, Sam'l R. Hall. Miss Macafee, Mrs. Fannie Ross, Mrs. Elizabeth that valley.

-Two great games of basket ball home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geisinger. 324 Chestnut avenue, Altoona, Tuesday morning. Later the body was brought to Bellefonte for interment. Deceased will play the Academy, and next Monday evening days. His wife preceded him to the grave six years ago and he is survived by these children: Mrs. Sophia Admission 25 cents.

-Innes Conlay of Frank Geisinger.

-Two great games of basket ball home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geisinger.

224 Chestnut avenue, Altoona, Tuesday morning. Later the body was brought to Bellefonte for interment. Deceased was aged 82 years, 4 months and 2 days. His wife preceded him to the grave six years ago and he is survived by these children: Mrs. Sophia Admission 25 cents.

-Innes Conlay of Frank Geisinger.

224 Chestnut avenue, Altoona, Tuesday morning. Later the body was brought to Bellefonte for interment. Deceased was aged 82 years, 4 months and 2 days. His wife preceded him to the grave six years ago and he is survived by these children: Mrs. Sophia Admission 25 cents.

-Innes Conlay of Frank Geisinger.

-Two great games of basket ball home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geisinger.

224 Chestnut avenue, Altoona, Tuesday morning. Later the body was brought to Bellefonte for interment. Deceased was aged 82 years, 4 months and 2 days. His wife preceded him to the grave six years ago and he is survived by the second regular meeting of bore ouncil for the month of John Confer, liveryman.

The second regular meeting of bore ouncil for the month of John Confer, liveryman.

The second regular here are the body was brought to Bellefonte for interment. Deceased was aged 82 years, a goo and he is su Juniata; Mrs. Frank Gelsinger, of Altoona, and Mrs. Ed. Folk, also of sister, residing in Buffalo, N. Y.

minutes past nine o'clock, that Post master Samuel H. Williams had just passed away at his home on east Bishop street. Following an attack of taken the courage to challenge Dom-ino, and attempt to even outdo "Daf-fy Dan" in a "Dippy-Dill" contest. anxious as to the outcome of his ill-You will find the Wingate "Dippy- ness, and when the final summons Dills" on page 7, and we are not quite came, just one week later, they were sure but that we will have to award not entirely unprepared for the worst. Peacefully he slept away, surrounded The family of James Corl will by all the members of his family. Mr. William Beezer for second officer.

Williams was twice married, his first When put to a vote, Mr. Grim was union with Miss Sarah McMillen, Huntingdon county, who died in 1880: later he was united in marriage with Miss Laura E. Hamilton, who survives with one child, Miss Marilla, at home. The children of his first union are as follows: Horatio, J. Harry, Mrs. A. Linn McGinley, and Willis E., all of Bellefonte. He also leaves two step-brothers and two step-sisters, namely: Charles Williams, Williams, Mrs. Liddle Laird and Miss Hannah Williams, all of Downingtown, Funeral services will be held at his late home on Bishop street on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. conducted by Rev. Yocum, of the Methodist church, and Rev. Hewitt, of the Episcopal church. Preceding these services Gregg Post will hold a short service at the home at 10 o'clock, Samuel H. Williams was a son of John F. and Eliza Williams, and was born in Chester county, March 19, 1839; thus he was aged 72 years, 9 months and 26 days at the time of his death. With In the language of one of the members little chances of acquiring an educa-tion in early life, he at the age of serve as a lesson for future occa-fifteen years, was apprenticed to his slons." uncle at Stormstown to learn the trade | Several bills for concrete work done of painting. Shortly after finishing on the streets were turned over to his apprenticeship the Civil war broke street committee for proper investiout, and he was among the first to gation and report. One from M. R. answer the call for defenders of the Johnson for work done on the Ben-H, 7th P. V. I., for the three month's Taylor's for $175, for curbing put in service. His term having expired in between the High street bridge and August, he returned home, but the the race bridge. As these jobs have -A case of the remarkable length following February, 1862, he re-en-of time a fowl can live without food or listed in Co. H, 56th P. V. I., and served until the end of that memorable ably be withheld for a short time. struggle, receiving his discharge July 1, 1865. He was a gallant soldier and arose steadily in the service until he ed. became captain, winning each step damage was done.

-On Tuesday afternoon, Harry Eberhart, employed as carpenter at the Match factory, sustained a serious fall 26th of December he allowed the flock ant—he was finally commissioned that has since kept him confined to his bed. At the time of the accident he was engaged in ereccting a pair of steps in the machine room, and while at a height of about fourteen feet from the floor, he fell backward, alighting the floor has been according to be steps in the machine room, and while at a height of about fourteen feet from the floor, he fell backward, alighting the floor he fell backward, alighting the floor he fell backward, alighting the floor he floor part were they permitted underneath the South Mountain. Antietam, Freder. South Mountain, Antietam, Frederwith his back and shoulders on the floor, nor could they get there of their icksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, floor, and became unconscious. His own accord, as the building is closed the Wilderness, ,Cold Harbor, in front fellow-workmen, when they found he did not arise, realized that he was zerjously hurt, and a physician was sent was working at the coop he heard a of the war Captain Williams located was on Gen. Beaver's staff, and later served in the same capacity for Gen Wylle. In politics he was a staunch supporter of Republican principles, but always avoided bigotry. He serv--Mrs. Ira McClintic has returned and as a member of boro council for six years. He was a charter member of Moshannon Lodge F. & A. M., of Philipsburg, and also of Gregg Post, No. 95, of Bellefonte. He was known as one of the most active members in the Post, and since the death of Gov. Curtin, he had held the office of Officer of the Day. Last August he was appointed postmaster for Bellefonte by ongressman Patton, and had served out a little more than four months. As a citizen, the death of Mr. Williams will be severely felt in Bellefonte, not only as a business associate but in the ranks of the old soldier, and in the Methodist church, where he had for many years been a prominent pillar. LUCAS:-Mrs. Mary Catherine Lucas, wife of Roland Lucas, of Axeman, died at the Bellefonte hospital n Sunday morning. She had been a sufferer for a long period from a complication of diseases. Deceased whose maiden name was Campbell, was born in place of the late Hon. J. Henry in Centre county, May 15, 1867, thus Cochran, who died recently. After the making her age 45 years, 8 months and 29 days. She is survived by her husband, Roland Lucas, of Axeman, and the following children; Mrs. Lizzie Shutt, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Maude Hazel, of Clearfield; Fred Cox, of Curtin; Harris Cox, of Bellefonte; Re-becca Cox, o,f Tusseyville; Christena Cox, of Pleasant Gap; and George and Robert at home. Funeral services William Bennett, laborer were held on Monday afternoon at 2 John T. Beckwith, merchant. 'clock at the Forge church.

JOHNSON:-After an extended ill-He is survived by his wife and two ness with cirrhosis of the liver, Mrs. J. B. Confer, laborer children.

Lucinda K. Johnson, wife of William Jerry Donovan, dealer. Johnson, died at her home at Miles- James Dixon, farmer. burg on Monday morning at 11:40 A. C. Dunlap, barber. o'clock. Deceased had been in the H.M. Fye, farmer.
Bellefonte hospital for treatment a G.G. Fink, farmer.

few weeks ago, during which period W. H. Golden, phys. director. she underwent an operation. Realizing that her case was hopeless she expressed the wish to be taken to her home where her family might be near H. B. Goss, laborer. in the hour of her passing away. Mrs. Chas. G. Hall, farmer. Johnson was the daughter of Mr. and Newton Hoy, farmer. Mrs. George W. Gray, and was born W. T. Hoover, merchant at Frankstown, Blair county, May 18, J. C. Hosterman, editor ... 1840, thus making her age at time of death 60 years, 7 months and 27 days. About 41 years ago she was united in marriage with William Johnson, who and made a narrow escape. She is survived by one sister, Miss Mary John F. and Mrs. Chas. Zimmerman, John F. and Mrs. Chas. Zimmerman, of Tyrone; Mrs. Frank K. Tyson, of John McAuley, farmer. which deceased had long been a Thomas Vaughn, laborer onsistent member. Interment will be Frank Weber, merchant made at the Advent cemetery.

Yeager Swing factory (part of the Phoenix mill property) to insure proper fire protection, was turned over by Col. Reynolds to council. While this Arthur Ellenberger, farmer. subject was up Mr. Grim spoke of the A. F. Finkle, lumberman. eterioration of fixtures going on in Lucien Fulton, laborer... WILLIAMS: - A general feeling of portions of the Phoenix building un- George Fravel gentleman orrow followed the announcement in used by the boro, all of which the Hugh Glossner, farmer. Bellefonte on Tuesday morning a few oro will be liable for.

By letter the Penna. R. R. Co. ask- Roll Grevish, gentleman permission to move their watch John Herd, merchant. located at the Gamble mill, onthe boro's property on the opposite de of tracks from where it now P. B. Jordon, shoemaker tands. By motion the request was granted.

The various standing committees had little of importance to report. Fire and Police committee announcthat they had come to a conclusion n the choosing of the police, as folows: Harry Dukeman for chief, and ound to be the only champion of Of- Emil Roth, salesman. Daly Justice at the same salary, $52.50 Charles Vonada, farmer.

An agreement between the Penna. R. Co. and the boro for maintain- James Weiser, merchant ng terra cotta pipes at the foot of Miles Wrye, mechanic amb street, was, by vote, ordered ac- Budd Winning, farmer, epted and filed.

T. H. Harter's bill of $35 for printng the boro financial statement which ouncil has held up for several nonths, was finally disposed of by Beauty's Refuge ayment being ordered. The delay in ttlement was occasioned by the fact that council took exception to he audtors' way of handling the statement. n the opinion of Boro Solicitor Mitchell, the auditors had no authority to place the statement for printing until council had been consulted. In fact, it really seems to be the business of council to hand it out to the printer on Monday night, "this may possibly enlisting April 19, 1861,, in Co. ner pavement, and the other R. B. not stood long enough to give them the necessary test, payment will prob-Following the reading of bills amounting to $1105, council adjourn-

> From Penna State College. The weather observatory in State College is located on the top of a gentle slope and in quiet cold weather does not get as cold as lower lying places subject to a cold air drainage occurring on the 14th inst.

was -17 deg. F.
The records of the observatory inthe years since 1884. In that period there was but one day, Feb. 10, 1899, when the temperature was lower than that of last Saturday, the record then being -20; and on two days in 1886, Jan. 13 and Feb. 25, the tem-

The other extremely cold days during this period of 28 years were: Jan. paper store on High street adjoining 5, 1904, —15 deg.; Feb. 24, 1889, —14 Shuey's grocery, later moving to the deg.; Feb. 10, 1888, and Feb. 6, 1895, Crider Stone Building. At one time —13 deg.; March 5, 1885, —12 deg.; National Guard and in 1889 and 1881, 1997.—10 deg.; and Jan. 24, he had conducted a paint and wall paper store on High street adjoining Jury List for February Court.

Following is the list of jurors drawn for the February term of court, which ed for five years as school director, will begin on the fourth Monday, February 26th.

LIST OF GRAND
Harry Bates, farmer	Burnside
William Blauser, merchant	Potter
John L. Cole, farmer	Walker
Joseph Dunkle, farmer
John L. Dunlap, carpenter	Spring
John Eisenbuth, farmer	Penn
G. W. Frazier, operator	Philipsburg
Peter Ferguson, laborer	Philipsburg
George Hosterman, farmer	Haines
Jesse Hudson, tailor	Philipsburg
W. L. Hosterman, merchant
Perry Hall, farmer	Union
T. B. Jamison, justice	Gregg
Ira C. Johnson, clerk	Howard Boro
L. D. Kunes, cigar maker
John A. Kelley, barber	Snow Shoe
Shuman Lyon, laborer	Spring
Geo. C. Rowe, farmer	Harris
Ed. Robb, clerk	Bellefonte
Isaac Smith, farmer	Gregg
Isaac Smith, farmer	Potter
Arthur Thomas, blacksmith	Patton
Roman Wagner, miner	Snow Shoe Twp
James Wilson, stone mason	Howard Boro
TRAVERSE JURORS,	FIRST WEEK.
G. E. Adams, laborer	Rush
Charles Batchelor, laborer
William Bush, farmer
J. M. Bratten, laborer	Runh
F. P. Bartley, liveryman	Bellefonte
Henry Beezer, laborer	Bellefonte

Worth Taylor Bellefonte I. Clark Carson, steward Jacob Cole, Jaborer Spring Rush Spring Gregg NO. 614-White Sheer Lawn, imita-Burnside Huston rose design. Pleated frill on one side finished with Valenciennes lace. Tuck-Huston Henry Gault, farmer. Irvin Gettig, butcher Rush Union Ferguson Worth Millheim Howard Twp I. W. Hepburn, carpenter. F. V. Jodon, Sr., farmer. College I. D. Keller, teacher... Robert Keck, carpenter H. A. Leitzell, merchant. State College Charles Limbert, farmer. Walker Benner Benner Haines Howard Boro C. E. Philips, farmer Rush James E. Quick, carpenter Boggs George Rhoads, contractor. A. A. Stover, farmer Haines S. B. Shaffer, stockman Milesburg Solomon Shay, laborer... Earle Tibbens, book-keeper... .Rush Philipsburg Rash Williams, painter. Potter Walker, farmer. TRAVERSE JURORS, SECOND WEEK.

Snow Shoe Twp Ferguson Gregg Milesburg D. D. Goodyear, laborer. Rush John Harper, carpenter, Gregg Sidney Krumrine, farmer John Knisely, contractor. Bellefonte es Frank Keen, farmer... Spring Walter Kahler, farmer Spring Bellefonte J. Fred Montgomery, clerk James McClency, farmer, Benjamin Neff, laborer Harry Pownell, engineer William S. Rowe, clerk Gregg Walker Ellis Williams, mechanic Worth Blowers Woodring, farmer

Philip York, sawyer.

bring it to us

It keeps the skin like velvet.

best thing to use after shaving.

payment of your first bottle.

NOTICE IN DIVORCE.

It heals chapped hands, and is the Price 25c.

HAVE YOU EVER USED IT?

If not, cut out this advertisement and

Before February 1st

and we will receive it as ten cents in

YOU CAN ONLY

Set it at Green's

The REXAL Store.

BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

Thomas C. Bartges vs Anna E. Bartges. It

Sheriff's Office
Bellefonte, Pa., Jan. 17th, 1912. x6

CLASTER'S BELLEFONTE, PA. Spring DIRECT FROM WHOLESALER TO CONSUMER. Mail Orders Filled.

tion solid hand embroidery of artistic each

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

Spring FOR RENT-Steam beated office in Exchange Haines Building, F. W. Orlder. Miles FOR SALE— A Hobart Cable piano, good as new. Mrs. James Corl. Bellefonte.

Bellefonte
Potter
Snow Shoe Twp
D. 1.

FOR SALE—Farm stock and Bousehold goods, at private sale. A. D. Lucas, Howard, R. F. 23 Rush
Philipsburg
Bellefonte
Road Pale

Bellefonte
Rush
FOR SALE—A dwelling house, 6 rooms and large lot of 2 acres. Mrs. Alice Gill, Pleasant Gap. Pa.

Snow Shoe

WEEK.
S. Philipsburg

Shope. Curtin, Pa.

Snow Shoe

FOR SALE—One sorrel horse; also one gray horse; sell cheap. Apply in person to T. L.

Snow Shoe Twp
College
Snow Shoe Boro

Snow Shoe Boro

Snow Shoe Boro

Snow Shoe Boro

Cock. 19
Cock is worth $5. Inquire
Box 227. Bellefonte. College Twp
Huston
Philipsburg
Dunk
WANTED—A position as hostler in livery or driving team. experience and good references.
John E. Cowher. Philipsburg.

Rush Curtin Curtin Howard Boro Quire of Harry Hagg. Bellefonte. Pa.

FOR RENT—Two-horse farm, located about 2 miles north of Milesburg, in Holt's Hollow, Inquire of James Kreps, Bellefonte. WANTED-The highest market prices paid for pork, veal, calves, hides of all kinds. phone. F. I. Houtz, Boalsburg, Pa. Philipsburg Philip Potter and horse hides. J. D. Keller. Bellefonte, R.

Miles F. D. I. Houserville Woolen Mills. Both phon-

WANTED—Wood choppers soon as possible to cut one thousand cords of wood, at fifty cents per cord. Apply to C. W. Korman Curtin Pa.

State College Rush about four miles from Milesburg. Good house and barn on premises Sarah Burd. Curtin, Pa.

acres of land, good buildings and fruit Address Alfred Albright, State College. Com

Worth
Worth Half-Moon farm at Pleasant Gap.

Milesburg

Wanted Employment by a young man who has had some experience at farming and poultry raising. Address James Bradley. McCoy's Works Bellefonte. Pa.

WANTED—i pair of good work horses suitable for skidding logs. Give description, stating age, and lowest eash price. Wm. Witmer*& Sons Company, Surbury, Pa. WANTTD-Would like to rent a 5 or 6 room house in Bellefonte, inquire at this office. CLEANOLA, the great shoe, slipper, belt, kid glovey, and clothing clean-er at David Millers, and J. W. Gross stores. NOTICE—My wife Ruth Tressler having left.

my bed and board without just cause, all persons are hereby, notified not to sell her any thing on my credit as I will pay no bills contracted by her. Boyd Tressler. State College, north of Milesburg; a good bank barn 40x40 ft; a good 6-room house, and other outbuildings, all in good condition; a good young orehard; also plenty of water. Terms reasonable. W. H. McKinley, Milesburg, Pa.
R. F. D. 2

MEN WANTED-Age 18 to 35, to prepare for firemen or brakemen on railroads in Belle-fonte and vicipity, $80 to $100 monthly. Exper-ience unnecessary; no strike. Promotion—engin-eer or conductor, $150 to $200 monthly. Good life careers. State age; send stamp. Rallway Association, Dept. 467—227 Monroe Street, Brooklyb, N. Y.

FOR SALE—Mercantile stand, at Cen-tre Hall, Pa., near railroad station. Stock consists of a complete line of general merchandise. This is a good business location and enjoys a large patronage. Reason for selling—elected re-cently as Register of Centre County. Will sell at a sacrifice. Offered at priv-ate sale. Apply to J. Frank Smith, Cen-tre Hall, Pa.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. Butter 25 Eggs 30 Bellefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C. Y.

Thomas C. Bartges vs Adda E. Bartges. In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County in Divorce A. V. M. No. 130. February Term. 1911.

To Adda E. Bartges; Whereas your husband has filed a libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county. No. 130. February Term. 1911 praying for a divorce against you. Dow you are hereby notified and requested to appear on or before Monday. February 26th. 1912. to abswer the complaint of your husband Thomas C. Bartges and to show cause if any you have why the said Thomas C. Bartges should not be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divorce grapted in your absence.

Sheriff's Office

Sheriff. Sheriff. Wagner for grain: Oats