EDITORIAL.

President Taft orders the revision of schedule K, and it is suspected that he would also like to revise that T. R. schedule.

Still they come: Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa announced on Saturday that he will be a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination.

Iowa republicans have instructed some delegates for Roosevelt—and more are to follow from other states. President Taft did a heap of electioneering, traveling the greater part of his term up to this date, something no Democratic president stooped to from Washington down to Cleveland.

The Duke of Connaught, of England, intends to visit the President at the White House. All right; show him around, and have him come over when the trout season opens and we'll give him some grand Centre county sport—such as they don't have in "Hingland," and where 'am and hegs are trump.

Recently the Keystone Gazette made sure of Centre County Republicans endorsing Congressman Patton for renomination on their ticket. The first column of the editorial department of that paper was filled with a clipping from the Dubois, Pa. "Journal" singing the praises of W. T. DeHass for Congress. The full meaning of the publication of that article will be readily understood when you recall some recent events in this county. Two years ago Editor Harter sang the praises of the present congressman in his paper, and went out in the highways and hedges and personally proclaimed the virtues of the "gentleman from Curwensville."

In the orderly course of events there came a vacancy in the Bellefonte postoffice and, as is the custom, Mr. Patton found it necessary to make a recommendation. In this instance he tried to comply with the sentiment of this community, and finally his wishes were respected and Sammy Williams stepped into the shoes of the windiest postmaster that ever came down the pike. The result was that the "gentleman from Snyder county" lost all his "welwet," his heart was broken. What use would he have for Patton in the future? Why should he not whoop 'er up for a new man? While he will be getting things lined up for DeHass to give Patton a stab in the back, there will be a few other gentlemen in Centre county who will have their eyes on the indicator. In due time DeHass will find out just how much the Keystone Gazette can dictate to the Republicans of Centre county, and especially when Harter simply has an axe to grind to lop off Patton's head.

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Victor Murdock, the Kansas Insurgent, has been rather quiet lately. He was aroused, however, when Andrew Carnegie, at the Stanley steel trust hearing, dodged every important question, and sought to amuse the committee with jokes and stories. Says Murdock:

"Carnegie has offended the national sense of justice, and no act would meet with so general popular applause as one that would follow a motion to take the Laird of Skibo by the scruff of the neck and land him squarely before the bar of Congress. It is not always easy to define humor, but the American people are pretty certain that paying interest on three times the actual value of the Carnegie properties is not highly amusing. The jester should be made to laugh out of the other corner of his mouth. What we need is fewer libraries and more justice."

The Philadelphia North American says of Carnegie: "Whenever men in the coming years see Carnegie's sculptured name they will say: 'I have preached peace abroad, after having helped to make hell at home.'"

Opposes Canteen.

General Frederick Dent Grant, who many times in official reports has recommended the restoration of the army canteen, now in a letter he wrote to a temperance paper of Evanston, Ill.

General Grant says the personnel of the army has changed greatly in the last ten years and soldierly have adapted themselves to the new conditions.

Another Republic. Another republic was born a few days ago—the Republic of China, as a result of the revolution that began in that ancient empire only a few months ago.

Ross Kellers, of Waddell, Pa., was admitted on Sunday as an operative patient in the Lock Haven hospital.

STATE PRESS ON GUFFEY.

A few extracts are published in this column from some of the leading state papers to give our readers some idea of the sentiment that prevails in this state for the redemption of the Democracy from the hands of a lot of trading tricksters who have been in league with the Penrose machine in the past. When the Pennsylvania Democracy stands for decency and commands the respect of well thinking people then there will be some hope of accomplishing something in this state for the masses. It means a struggle in which all good citizens should enlist. A strong, healthy and vigorous minority party is needed in Pennsylvania; under the Guffey management we drifted into a hopeless minority, used only for trading purposes for those at the head of the combination.

The Democratic Ruction.

Indifferent to the sentiment of an overwhelming number of Pennsylvania Democrats, the traitorous, tariff-flicking contingent which recognizes Colonel "Jim" Guffey as leader and is made up of the Donnellys, Ryans, Brennans and other assistant Republicans who have found it profitable to masquerade as Democrats, are determined to maintain their destructive control of party affairs. If they are deprived of leadership, they will engage in guerrilla warfare and hamper the efforts of honest Democrats to restore the party to its one-time vigor and respect.

A Temporary Reverse.

Mr. Palmer's fight to be national committeeman is not lost. His victory is only postponed. In a little more than three months the members of the party will vote for delegates to the national convention. The delegates, fresh from the people, will express their sentiment and Colonel Guffey will be eliminated from the leadership of the Democratic party in the Keystone State.

Out of Sympathy with Democrats.

Mr. Guffey is entirely out of sympathy with a majority of Pennsylvania Democrats, and his continuance in a post of power and responsibility in them an open insult, as well as an unwarranted assault upon the aims and aspirations of those who are endeavoring to retrieve the ground lost as a result of the perfidy of the so-called Guffey faction.

Treachery Rewarded.

Two years ago Col. James M. Guffey sold out the Democratic party in Pennsylvania to the Penrose machine. He deliberately threw away the chance to elect a Democrat as Governor.

Guffey's decoy candidate, Grim, polled 12.95 per cent. of the total vote, while Berry polled 38.27 per cent. The total vote for Tener was only 41.03 per cent. and the complete figures showed that if Guffey had taken Grim out of the road Tener would have been beaten by more than 100,000.

On Monday the Democratic National Committee rewarded Guffey by giving him a seat in that body with a vote of 28 to 18.

This is enough to make the honest Democrats of Pennsylvania take to the tall timber.

Eliminate Guffey.

The Democratic National Committee has decided that Col. James M. Guffey, the discredited Democratic National Committeeman from this State.

If Colonel Guffey had been interested in the success of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania, he would not have obtruded his personality upon the Democratic National Committee. He has failed in every alleged effort he has made to make the Democratic party useful to the people of Pennsylvania.

The suspicion all along has been that Colonel Guffey is more intent upon the preventing the use of the Democratic party by the people, than upon the party's success. He has a hindrance to making the party worthy of success.

A Bad Situation.

It has been the experience of Pennsylvania Democracy that about the worst thing that can happen to a minority party seeking preference are leaders who have been in league with those controlling affairs from which it is hoped to get rid of. The reorganization of the Pennsylvania Democracy has been one of the progressive steps of the times. The National Committee would have done itself credit and shown a spirit in accordance with the times had they declared for the better order of things, indicating that if the people get rid of one set of bosses and one machine, they will not have to contend immediately with a very closely bound annex.

Guffey's "Vindication."

Philadelphia Bulletin, Ind. Rep: "The only justification for the attention of Colonel Guffey as representative of Pennsylvania in the National Democratic Committee is that he had the legal or technical side of the argument in his favor. But as regards the political morals and equity of the case, he had no standing at all. If the National Committee had acted without regard to rules or precedents, it would have thrown him out in accordance with the plea of William J. Bryan in the name of party decency."

Col. Guffey's friends continue to insist, however, that he truly stands for the Pennsylvania Democracy and that his opponent does not. This is a question which the voters of the party will have an opportunity to decide in the spring. If they want to obtain for the party something like a general measure of respect and integrity in it as a concern based on definite principles, and not as a cheap huckstering commodity, they will take care to do with Guffey exactly what Colonel Bryan has proposed. "A first class fighting minority, such as Pennsylvania had, has been needed for years. But the Democracy will never become such a party in this State so long as it ties up to its Guffeys, either actually or nominally, as its leaders. In fact, if Colonel Jim has anything like a levelheaded regard for his own name and his reputation, he would not allow himself to be made a tool or fool any longer by the men who have traded on his cash in the past and now are trading on his legal "rights" in the National Committee.

Denounces Guffey Wing.

Edward S. Krepf, chairman of the Berks County Democratic Committee, in a statement denounced the Guffey wing of the party, and sounded the keynote for a reunited, reorganized Democracy. He declared that for his own sake will reorganizational delegations to the State and national conventions.

He says that the Democratic party will not forget the Allentown convention and its consequences, and that the party is aroused as never before at the rottenness it has allowed to exist within its circle.

MARRIAGES.

Showers—Stein.

The United Evangelical parsonage was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Mr. Harvey M. Showers and Miss Fannie E. Stein, both of Zion were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. After the ceremony they left on the 4:45 P.M. train for New Castle, Indiana, where they will spend a few months with the parents of the bride. Both young people are well and favorably known through Nittany valley, who will join in wishing them joy and happiness.

Hockman—Shearer.

John Hockman and Miss Grace Shearer, of near Zion, were married at the Reformed parsonage at Boalsburg on Wednesday evening, January 17th, by Rev. S. C. Stover. Those present were the pastor's wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Kuhn and daughter Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Durant, and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stover and son Riley. Mr. and Mrs. Hockman remained until the following day with the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Kuhn. Best wishes are extended to the young couple.

Lewis—Wiser.

Mr. Clair Lewis, of Tyrone, and Miss Myrtle Irene Wiser, of Port Matilda, were united in marriage at the First Baptist church, of Tyrone, Thursday, 18th, by Rev. Harrison E. Garner. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wiser, of Port Matilda, and is, no doubt, well fitted to make a home. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wiser, of Bald Eagle, and is in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. They expect to make their home in Tyrone. May joy and happiness go with them through their wedded life.

Walker—Elder.

Wednesday, Jan. 17, at high noon the nuptials of Miss Mary Elder and Ralph Walker were solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Elder, at Rock Springs, by the Rev. J. S. Shultz, in the presence of over 100 guests. The Elder residence was beautifully decorated with potted plants and ferns for the auspicious event. The bride was attended by her sister, Sarah, and the groom by his cousin, Irvin Walker. The wedding march was played by Miss Ella Rupert. Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served by the bride's parents. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Walker, and a prosperous young farmer, while the bride is one of the best known and most popular young women of the Rock Springs district. The honeymoon is being spent with friends at Johnstown and Pittsburgh.

HON. CYRUS E. WOODS.

Man is Appointed to Important Post in Diplomatic Corps.

Cyrus E. Woods, of Greensburg, is to be the next United States Minister to Portugal. Mr. Woods has agreed to accept the post and will leave for Portugal as soon as he can close up his business connections. His salary as minister will be $10,000 a year. The post at Portugal is one of the most difficult to fill, on account of many revolutionary movements which have marked the progress of that country. Mr. Woods was selected for the post because of his ability as a diplomat and an executive.

Mr. Woods served eight years in the diplomatic corps of Pennsylvania, making his first in the session of 1907 at the close of the session of 1907. He was chosen president pro-tem of the Senate and presided over that body in the special session of 1906 and the regular session of 1907. Upon retiring from the Senate, Mr. Woods was chosen chief counsel for the Pittsburgh Coal Company, which position he has retained ever since.

ROMOLA.

Frank Robb has got a new sleigh; now girls watch for Frank. John McCloskey was buried Saturday in the Disciple cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Himer Fours, of Flemington, were wedding callers at the home of George Heverly.

Hensyl Young went to housekeeping in the Uhl house.

Miss Edna Heverly spent Monday with her mother at Summit Hill.

We are glad to say Mrs. Jennie Brinkley, who has been sick for several weeks, at this writing is much better.

George Quay and Hiel whay were seen in our town on Monday.

Miss Margaret Bowes is home spending a few days with her parents, Harmon Bowes.

Altoona Shops Full Time. vania railroad are working on full time now—fifty-five hours a week instead of 48. More than 4,000 men are affected by the order. It is the result of increased business and sense and integrity in it as a concern based

Rev. W. Potter VanTries Installed. The formal installation of Rev. W. Potter VanTries as pastor of the Broad Avenue Presbyterian church at Altoona, took place on Tuesday evening, under most auspicious circumstances. Flowers and evergreens appropriately adorned the pulpit and the music was of a high order. Dr. George E. Hawes, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Bellefonte, delivered the sermon, and a number of brief addresses were given by others. Dr. E. C. VanTries, father of Rev. W. P. VanTries, and Professor Hughes, of Bellefonte Academy, attended the services.

Cornet Demonstrator Coming.

John P. Dressel, cornetist in the Tyrone band and local representative of the Holton instruments, has arranged for the appearance there, of E. A. Couturier, the wizard of the cornet, and said to be the world's greatest virtuoso in his line. Mr. Couturier will give a demonstration in Tyrone on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week, January 29 and 30, and band men anticipate a rare treat. The demonstration will be of immense value to band men and it is likely that, besides the players in Tyrone, many interested instrumentalists from other towns will be there to listen and learn.

Dippy Dils.

If the ax danced would the saw-buck? If she saw a calf's skin would the Cowhide? If January winds whistled a tune would February March? If a carpenter's wife refused to could the cabinetmaker?

COBURN.

Tuesday of last week a brand new girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hosterman. Warren Pursley, who had his home with S. R. Lingle, has gone to his home at Weikert where he will stay a few months, then return and work for Wallace Barger.

Jacob Stover and family, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday at the home of J. J. Breen.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith and daughter Stella, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here and showed respect for the Sabbath by attending a most interesting communion service in the United Evangelical church.
