BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Don't forget Katz & Co's white

-A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. McAvoy, at the hospital last Friday. -The rain on Monday and Tuesday has practically put an end to sleighing in this section. -Mrs. Margaret Leggett, head nurse at the hospital, spent part of the past week among friends in Har-

-Hon W. R. Bierly, while in town this week interviewing the legal profession for the sale of reference books, paid us a brief call. -Harry Eberhart, who was injured last week by a severe fall at the match factory, is improving slowly at his home on Lamb street. -Merchant C. P. Long, of Spring

Mills, was a pleasant caller in the Democrat sanctum. He accompanied Dr. Braucht to the hospital. -Joe Rightnour, of Axeman, will have sale on February 15th, at his residence near Axeman, and will move

-Mr. Wetzel, the boro engineer, having examined the boro fire plugs, informs us that he found all of them and an office in Temple Court. in good shape from the recentl severely cold weather. county, from last fall to the coming spring, will foot up a traffic of two stock and household effects.

-Wm. R. Gainfort, 108 East Curtin street, expects to commence his next shorthand class on Monday evening, Feb. 5th. Those wishing to join will please apply at once.

-The Workmen's Bargain store announces a special January sale in this issue that should appeal to all those who are desirious of saving money on their purchases. It will pay you to -A small open-faced ladies' silver watch fastened to an elastic belt, was lost somewhere on Spring street, between Dr. Kirk's residence and Spring street by Miss Hazle Johnson. A suitable reward is offered.

-Mrs. Harry A. Pierce, accompan-ied by Miss Mollie Snyder, departed last Thursday for New York, and on Saturday the ladies sailed for Panama, Mrs. Pierce's home. Miss Snyder expects to remain in the South until

-John Bryan, who was in the Bellefonte hospital for some time, left on Tuesday for Erie, Pa., where he will enter the Soldiers Home for several months. Of late his health has been failing, and can not be about with the without any mail and this has caused lege, with making threats and with-

-While working at Crider's planing mill this week, Isaac Sager was unfortunate in having his hand caught in a saw and was severely injured. He for treatment where it was found nec-several others were badly mangled. -David Roob, one of the veteran citizens of Howard township, was in town on Wednesday and, notwithstanding his more than seventy years, is as hale and hearty as some of the younger men. He says he is driving two spry colls, this work of the years, and Mrs. Scott Lambert, who are employed in taking fare of the Yar two spry colls, this work of the years, and Mrs. Scott Lambert, who are employed in taking fare of the Yar two spry colls. he can handle them with all their street to the association building.

-The next attraction in the Y. M. A. entertainment course will be tunity to attend to their duties. the imitative recital by Miss Gay Ze-

-With the seeming vigor of a tenyear-old boy, Missioner Crittenden, in operation.

right living. -Sunday morning Miss Rebecca five cents. prizes the animal highly.

-A crowd of young folks enjoyed 5 cents. a sled ride to State College on Friday Kingsley, Arbenz and Roderick.

-Last Sunday morning Rev. C. C. and died soon afterwards. pastorate. All are cordially invited. | objectionable matter.

-Last Thursday evening Mr. and

-Read Katz & Co's ads. this week about coats and suits.

-Miss Lulu Rice, of this place, was a guest of Tyrone friends over Sun-

-A. Baum has returned from a trip to the eastern cities where he visited

-Mrs. Garret, and daughter Helen, of Philadelphia, are guests of Dr. and his 78th year.

Mrs. Tate, in Petriken Hall.

—Samuel Hi

-James C. Furst, Esq., attended Chamberlin, at Milton, on Monday. -Mrs. John Hess, of Pinegrove, has of Wm. Reed.

of Mrs. Harry Stitzer on High street. -Miss Marie Walsh has gone to Philadelphia and New York to spend city, during an early date of the comsome time with friends and relatives. ing Lenten season. -At a recent election of the Watsontown Brick Company, C. Y. Wagner, of Bellefonte, was elected one of the directors. Send or telephone this office the visitors, and the editor will be more to Virginia, where he expects to work than grateful. -Miss Anna Keichline, daughter of

-J. Linn McGinley has purchased the paper store of the late S. H. Wil--Some ninety public sales in the liams, and will continue it in the future. He has been connected with the business for years as manager and hundred thousand dollars in farm thoroughly understands every detail. -Colonel Harry Austin, one of

Milesburg's prominent citizens and active republicans, who always reads the Centre Democrat, was one of our pleasant callers on Monday, and will read his own paper during the com--New sales have been added to the Democrat's register this issue. Watch the list from week to week until April. The list of sping sales is larger than in any former year. The list is authorized by each individual placing his order.

-Owing to the severe weather the past two weeks, the water motor at fire, is undergoing a complete renova-the Methodist church froze up and tion in the hands of painters and ommission, and in consequence regular services have been held in the

-The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Garman, of Tyrone, Robert, Betty and Virginia, whose illness with iphtheria was noted in last week's issue of the Democrat, are improving fully. steadily and we are glad to state are now on the road to recovery.

Lewisburg morning train arrived here Mrs. Hannah Foster, also of State Colleading business places to file a kick daughter. The parties are colored with the railroad company. It is hoped people, and the trouble at the Squire's that it will have the desired effect.

-The Claud Jodon store, on Water tachment was taken to the Bellefonte hospital street at the railroad crossing was daughter of Mrs. Foster had formed for treatment where it was found necessary to amputate two fingers, and will be managed by her son Harry Ir- two daughters are natives of Virginia vin, who had some experience in the and were sent to State College some mercantile business. Harry Fulton time ago by an employment agency to is one of the new employees connect-colts this weather and that their household goods from Penn This affords them a nice place of residence, and gives them better oppor-

-Mrs. Wm. A. Lyon, of Bellefonte nola MacLaren, the subject of which while on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. "Rebecca of the Sunnybrooke Clair B. Williams at Jersey City, sub-Farm." The entertainment will, be mitted to an operation for gall stones given, as usual, in the Y. M. C. A. in a hospital in that city, on last rooms. This is among the best atsidered satisfactory. The diagnosis spite of his nearly eighty-one years. —The committee in charge of the gets over the streets in Bellefonte and Charity Ball has now completed all -The committee in charge of the greets his friends with his usual arrangements for a fancy dress dance cheery salutation. He informs us that to be given on the night of February he enjoys his meals and his naps at the end of the day, and never felt better in his life. A true example of tume as elaborate as the wearer may trip by one of her relatives, and she 2:30, that is especially desirable for evening, chaperoned by Mesdames Woods and Larimer. Those who composed the party were: Misses Adaposed the party were: Misses Adalaide Rankin, Sue Wallace, Helen Conagan, Margaret Woods, Bellah Woods, Elizabeth Barnhart, and Messrs. Morris, Hadesty, Snyder, Markin, Sue Wallace, Helen of business. The animal had an attack of azotemia, an ailment due to overfeeding which frequently proves fatal. The animal lost all control of bruises. It was found that Irvin was at Spring Mills. In his boyhood days beliefonte. Pa. Stone, and threw the boys to the side oble, at one time, was the foremost business man in Pennsyalley, controlling the grain and produce trade trolling the grain and produce trade of all that section, with a large store at Spring Mills. In his boyhood days beliefonte. Pa. Bell phone.

mon in the local United Evangelical church to an appreciative audience. The fourth and last quarterly communion service for the present consumption service for the present co munion service for the present con-matter of personal taste or not, these care, although it will be some time enlisting, but finally became a mem-ference year will be observed next companies are constantly striving to Sunday in the morning at 10:30 and in the evening at 7:30. Rev. I. C. Shearer will preach the Word in the Scenic show these pictures every man, well liked by all who are accounted with him. evening. This will be the last com- night, and every picture is censured munion service under the present by a national board that eliminates all which are the number of friends who gaged in the mercantile business at -The International Correspondence Mrs. Louis Launsberry celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary at their home on Thomas street, and some forty friends dropped in and joined in rection of Messrs, F. Davenport, manthe festivities of the evening. Six ta- ager, and B. T. Grier, representative. bles of "five hundred" was one of the Those who call at the store are shown features of the evening, but the ele- the many advantages this school is gant refreshmnts served was the cli- offering to men and boys for their ad-

On Friday evening, the 19th, dur- have had first class sport last week, ing the severe weather, John Kerns, from a dozen hills, all centering upon 4th. In these schools not less than Lemont He practically controlled the an aged man who resides with his the diamond. There was fully a eight different religious denominations entire product, and with it purchased brother Martin, in a house on east week of coasting enjoyment. The are represented. 5th. All of them are and sold much produce. Along about Howard street, had a trying experline from Reservoir hill was the worshipping and working together 1890 Mr. Grenoble became financially ience. That evening in an effort choice one of the lot—starting from unitedly in harmony in "the name that involved, he had ventured too far as to open the outside cellar door he highest point in town, with is above every name." 6th. In the highest point is above every name." 6th. In the highest point is above every name." 6th. In the highest point is above every name." to open the outside cellar door he highest point in town, with is above every name." 6th In the his operations could not be economically conducted by him and he failfully conducted by him and brush conducted by him and bru ies that rendered him unconscious; grade from Bishop street crossing All of these chapels in which the fered heavy losses from endorsements, and he remained in the cellarway the momentum carried the joy riders schools hold their sessions are paid Following this financial crash he rethat night until discovered the next to the diamond and clean up north morning by his brother. As a result Allegheny street, Besides the large Branch Union chapel alone must seek later with his family he moved he suffered severely from the cold coasting sleds there were the smaller some outside assistance for needful Geitysburg, Pa., where he, for a ti

-Frank McCoy, who has been quite ill for some time, is reported much improved at this time.

-Miss Helen Hurley returned on Sunday from a pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Philipsburg. -Mrs. Henry Yerger, of Bellefonte, is ill with pneumonia at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Harper, at Curtin, Pa.

-The condition of H. B. Pontius, who has been seriously ill at his home

-The venerable Wm. Bartley is reported critically ill at his home on Bishop street and little hopes are entertained for his recovery. He is in

-Samuel Haupt and Geo. Reed were arrested this week and put in the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. William jail on the charge of breaking up a good cooking stove att he residence

> -Father O'Hanlon, of State Colege, will give a Shakespearean lecture

-During the past week Miss Elizabeth Harris has been seriously ill with pneumonia, at the home of her brother, John P. Harris, on Linn Being in her 88th year there coming and going of home folks or is little hope entertained for her recovery. She is one of Bellefonte's old-

-The following relatives living at distance, of the late Mrs. Mary Butler, were in Bellefonte this week to attend the funeral of the deceased Miss Grace Butler, Mrs. Charles Kelley, Clayton Butler, of Galeton; Mrs. Miss Lizzie Fetzer, of Kreps, Clearfield; Harry Luzier, of Hambleton, W. Va.; and Oscar Butts, of north

-Hugh Fay with "Little Miss Cut-Un," and Elfle Fay, the Broadway star "The Belle of Avenue A," will be the attraction at the opera house two nights next week, Wednsday, Jan. 31st and Feb. 1st. A thirty-people musicomedy including the famous beauty chorus and the original Dancing Daisies. Replete with dazzling electrical effects, gorgeous costumes. singers and dancers. Prics 25, 35, 50 and 75 cnts.

-The store of J. Finklestine, on south Allegheny, recently scorched by that put the large pipe organ out of paperhangers. Mr. Finklestine, the proprietor, is disposing of his slightly-damaged stock at very low prices order to make room for new goods. Many persons have taken advantage of the fire sale and secured bargains at almost give-away prices. Look up the ad in this issue and read it care-

-John H. Williams, of State Colow on the road to recovery.

Several days the past week the Musser on Friday night, charged by annoyance to induce some holding some clothes owned by her office resulted from the romantic at-Mr. anxious to get married. The charge against Williams was unfounded, and he Squire discharged him. ter and daughter were desirous of returning to Virginia, but being withfunds were compelled to seek aid the Bellefonte poor overseers. Their are was paid to Lock Haven, and they eparted on Sunday reaching Wilmsport the same evening, where they, spent the night at the police Monday they were given anof her case was fully verified by the other lift on their journey by the Williamsport poor authorities.

SERIOUS COASTING ACCIDENT.

The tickets will be seventy- bank street, was painfully injured on Charles Fryberger, of Philipsburg: o'clock p. m.

Irvin and a companion named Linn made in the Zion cemetery. children to attend. Admittance always 5 cents.

—A delivery horse used in connecon one sled when the accident ocat his home in Gettysburg, Pa., on its hind legs and fell to the ground, suffering considerably from his side he was connected with the store of and died soon afterwards. Shuey preached a very practical sermon in the local United Evangelical church to an appreciative audience, ison and Lubin companies to be the court of the fourth and least courted with the service of the union and least courted with the service of the union and went to the front. Owing to his allow the fourth and least courted with the service of the union and went to the front. Owing to his allow the fourth and least courted with the service of the union and least courted with the service of the union and went to the front.

> Union Bible School Report. In the suburban villages of Belle-fonte, within a common radius of not

Coleville, Nittany Furnace and Picas-

1st. All of these Bible schools are tallty of the Launsberry home. Of course they were reminded of the your benefit and you should call at ever they are presents on Krumrine's and see it. -Beliefonte's lovers of coasting 3rd. All of them report hopeful conversions in the year of our Lord, 1911. for; no debt upon them; the Olive

RECENT DEATHS.

BAUER:—Nicholas, the 11-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer, of Bishop street, died at the Belle fonte hospital last Thursday night, following several operations for the relief of a growth on the child's throat. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

RIDDLE:-Hugh Riddle died at the home of Samuel Breon, up Buffalo Run, on Wednesday morning after a who has been seriously in at the on Curtin street has not improved in brief illness. His age was 72 years, the past week. ommission Matthew Ruddle, Frank Riddle, now tiving in Kansas City; interment this Thursday. He was unmarried, and was an old soldier and had several fingers shot off during the war. The deceased was a well known individual in this section, of no fixed residence, and of a roving disposition.

JOHNSON: - Joel Milton Johnson, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Curt Johnson, died at the home of his parents on east Bishop street, Saturday night at 10:40. The young man had been in delicate health nearly all and recently was stricken is death. He was born in Bellefonte and had he lived until next April he would have been 20 years of age. Surviving are his parents, one broth-r, George, of Belelfonte, and three sisters, namely: Mrs. Charles Smith, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Oscar Loneberger, under the care of a physician who the abscess, and was supposed principal; and on Tuesday night he semed to be resting very nicely, and regarded as over the worst part of is ailment. Wednesday morning the abscess broke and the discharge clogged the bronchial tube, and stranguation caused almost immediate death he young man's parents reside at Chelsea, Oklahoma, but formerly were from Warren, Pa., where his sister now is visiting. He was one of the is second year, and last year won the mathematical prize.

WEISER:-Samuel Weiser, aged years, 2 months and 28 days, died at his home in Millheim on Monday vening at 10 o'clock, from a compli-ation of diseases. Deceased was a on of H. H. and Catherine Weiser, was born in Millheim. Nov. 14, was united in marriage with Clara Cantner, who survives three children, namely: Ward home; Mrs. Chas. Breon, of Mills, and Emerson E., of Alona. He also leaves two brothers d two sisters, as follows: L. L. of Marion, O.; F. F. Weiser, Millheim; Mrs. Sallie E. Grove, Mrs. R. E. Harter, Kas.; S. D. Deceased was zens, and a member of the United Evangelical church. He also was Received Friday Night.

William Irvin, a son of Mrs. Myrtle Irvin, a widow residing on Willow-left one brother and two sisters:

Received Friday Night.

and Mrs. Clyde Jodon. of Bellefonte, ate, will be held at her late residence on Curtin street, Bellefonte, Pa., on Thursday, January 25th, 1912, at 2

Thursday, January 25th, 1912, at 2

Spring Mills, upon the opening of the Lewisburg railroad, first erecting a building on the Peter Wilson tannery store and residence on the hill south of the station. Next to it he constructed a large Next to it he constructed man, well liked by all who are ac-quainted with him, a testimony of was amputated. Mr. Grenoble eninquire of him every day since the ac- Spring Mills, upon the opening of the more than two miles, there are four structed a large building intended for NOTICE IN DIVORCE. patronized and proved a great loss. In addition to his business at Spring Mills he operated a large coal yard siderable lumber. From that place he extended his grain and coal business what to other outside objects in need, until he had elevators and coal yards at every station along the L. & T. R. R. in Pennsvalley from Coburn to ed; and other prominent citizens in Following this financial crash he retired from business, and a few years

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

by his wife who was a daughter of NOTICE. Henry Krumrine, dec'd, of Spring

Mills, two sons and two daughters. ORBISON: -- Mrs. Nancy D. Orbison died at her late residence on Curtin street, Bellefonte, Pa., in the early s life, and recently was stricken morning of Tuesday, January 23rd, ith congestion of the brain, causing 1912. Nancy Dunlop Harris Orbison was born in Bellefonte, November 10th 1830, and was in her 82nd year at the time of her death. She was the daughter of James Dunlop Harris and Mary Ann Miller Harris. She was the granddaughter of Col. James Dunlop, the father of her grandmother, Ann of Pleasant Gap, and Hannah and Ruth at home. Funeral services were held at the parents' home on Wednesday morning at 10:30, and the body was laid to rest in the Union Bellefonte. On her mother's side, she body was laid to rest in the Union Bellefonte. On her mother's side, she is related to the Miller family, identi-TAYLOR—Wednesday morning Jno.
Taylor, a young man 17 years of age, at the Bellefonte Academy, died very tury. Mrs. Orbison was married to fied with Bellefonte and Centre couniddenly. He had been ill for a few Rev. James H. Orbison, of the well ays with what is known as aperiton- known Huntingdon family of that silitis abscess in the throat, and was name, on November 20th, 1858; and for the next ten years, from 1858 to 1868, they lived in India as missionto be improving. He was taken to aries under the Foreign Missionary America, during which time their four children were born, viz: Rev. J. Harthe residence of James Hughes, the Society of the Presbyterian church of ris Orbison, now also a missionary in India in religious, educational and medical work; Mrs. Eleanor T. O. Beach, intermarried with Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, the pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Princeton, New Jersey; Miss Agnes L. Orfrom Warren, Pa., where his sister now is visiting. He was one of the brightest students in the academy, in his second year and last year won. Los Angeles, California, recently appointed as Professor of Neurology in the University of California. After ten years of missionary work in India, Mrs. Orbison and her husband left India with their children in :868. and returned to America in 1863; and Rev. James H. Orbison died in Bellefonte shortly after his arrival in this country. Thereafter Mrs. Orid-son spent her life in Bellefonte, with the exception of two years spent in Italy, during the years 1894 and 1895. Mrs. Orbison was always deeply interested in Foreign Missionary work, organization of the Women's Forden erywhere at $5.00. Being wholesale Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Huntingdon, Pa., comprising seven counties, she was on March 2)th, 1877

Mail Orders Filled. elected the president of that society Millheim's best known citi-Inited election of her successor, in March, was 1895, during all of which time she was work as domestics. Williams keeps house at State College, and at his domicile one of the Foster girls found employment. The result was as love affair, but the mother objected, although both of the policited. After an illness of the end of her life Through to the order of the president and the presid week's duration with pneumonia, Mrs. out her life she has been closely identified with the Presbyterian church of Joseph J. Garbrick died at her home in Bush's Addition on Sunday morn-Bellefonte, of which she became a ing at 9:45. She was a native of Berks county being formerly Miss Annie Fryberger, and was aged about 65 years. The Garbrick family form- relationship and acquaintances. Her's 65 years. The Garbrick family formerly resided on one of the Reynolds farms, at Rockview, but for the past eight years had lived retired in their home in Bush's Addition. Mrs. Garbrick was always the cheerful and charity was always the cheerful a home in Bush's Addition. Mrs. Gar-brick was a most estimable woman, cheerful. This was one of those quiet in her home and among her large circle of friends, can never be filled. For many years she was a consistent member of the Lutheran church. Surviving are her husband and the following named children: Charles, John and Mrs. Clyde Jodon of Relleforts.

Christian lives that spoke more by deeds than by words. Mrs. Orbison was a woman of strong mental power was a woman of strong mental power and of the finest sensibilities. She has left an impress upon the combas left an impressure left an impress upon the combas left an impress upon the comb

-Sunday morning Miss Rebecca
Rhoads returned from an extended trip to Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, New York and other points and had a most delightful visit among friends. With her she brought a valuable thoroughbred Airdale dog, with which she was presented while on the which she was presented while on the trip by one of her relatives, and she 2:20, that is especially desirable for gomery has the highest average valuation, being $100 to $125. Fulton Pa. farm lands, it being $9.41 per acre.

FOR SALE—A cutter, good as new, cushion seats and back. G. W. Crouse, Smullton, Pa.

FOR SALE—Two colts, 1 3 yearing and 1 1 yearing, are offered at private sale. Apply to S. J. Clevenstine. Zion Pa. Commercial phone.

Mary Jane Lane vs. Chas. E. Lane.
In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre
County. In Divorce A. V. M. No.6 January Term
Stock consists

To Chas. E. Lane: Whereas your wife has filed a libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre Co. No. 6 Jan. term 1906. praying for a divorce against you now you are hereby notified and requested to appear on or before Monday. February 26th. 1912. to answer the complaint of your wife. Mary Jane Lane. and to show cause if any you have why the said Mary Jane Lane should not be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you; and in default of such appearance you will be liable Jane Lane should not be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you; and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divorce granted in your absence.

ARTHUR B. LEE

Sheriff's office. Bellefonte, Pa., Jan. 21, 1912-

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. Butter 28

Notice is hereby given that under her claim for $300 exemption, allowed to a widow out of the estate of her husband descased, under the Act of April 14th, 1851, the following described real estate has been appraised and set apart to Mrs. Sarah B. Yearlek, widow of Corman Yearlick, late of Walker township, Centre county, Pa., deceased: Beginning at a stone corner in the middle of the public road leading from Bellefonte to Lock Haven; thence north 43 deg. west 24 perches to stone corner; thence along land of John Snavely north 21% deg. east 6% and of John Shavely north 21% deg, east ow-erches to a stone corner; thence along land of 'homas Huston heirs, south 43 deg, east 26 erches to a stone corner in the middle of the oad aforesaid; thence along the said road outh 47 deg, west 6½ perches to the place of

Clerk of the Orphans' Court.

$5.00 Child's Suit at $3.50

Sizes 21/2 to 8 years, No. 1193. Childs Russian Suit, extra heavy weight, all wool, navy blue serge and a suit which we can guarantee to give satisfaction. Coat has large sailor collar, long lapels and with Black tache braid. The breech. in Bloomer style and are lined throughout with linen. retails ev-

DIRECT FROM WHOLESALER TO CONSUMER.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertis-ment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered pork, veal. calves, hides of all liphone. F. I. Houtz, Boalsburg, Pa. HIDES-Pay highest market price for beef, calf and horse hides. J. D. Keller, Bellefonte. F. D. 1. Houserville Woolen Mills. Both pho

WANTED Wood choppers, soon as possible, to cut one thousand cords of wood, at fifty cents per cord. Apply to C. W. Korman, Curtin,

FOR SALE-65 acre farm in Holts Hollow, about four miles from Milesburg. Good house and barn on premises—Sarah Burd. Curtin, Pa. FOR SALE-Property near State College: 4 acres of land, good buildings and fruit. Address Alfred Albright, State College. Commercial phone.

FOR SALE—17 shoats six months old, and eleven Chester whitepigs six weeks old, for sale by Arthur Rothrock,on the A. B. Miller farm, at Pleasant Gap.

CLEANOLA, the great shoe, slipper, belt, kid glovev, and clothing clean-er at David Millers, and J. W. Gross

NOTICE-My wife Ruth Tressler having left

my bed and board without just cause, all persons are hereby, notified not to sell her any thing on my credit as I will pay no bills contracted by her. Boyd Tressler. State College, R. F. D. 2

FOR SALE—Two horse farm situated 1% miles porth of Milesburg; a good bank barn 40x40 ft; a good 6-room house, and other cutbuildings all in good condition; a good young orchard; also plenty of water. Terms reasonable. W. H. McKinley, Milesburg, Pa. FOR SALE-Mercantile stand, at Cen-

FOR SALE—Mercantile stand, at Centre Hall, Pa., near railroad station. Stock consists of a complete line of general merchandise. This is a good business location and enjoys a large patronage. Reason for selling—elected recently as Register of Centre County. Will sell at a sacrifice. Offered at private sale. Apply to J. Frank Smith, Centre Hall, Pa.

$15 TO $50 PER WEEK-We will teach you salesmanship and fruit-growing free. Will pay you well for selling our "High Quality," propagated-from-prize winning-parent guaranteed Nursery Stock. No other nursery offers such great inducements to the planter. Permanent year-around position, Pay promptly, Outfit free. Write before your territory is taken. Pennsylvania Nursery Company, Girard, Eric county, Pa. 315

INCUBATORS—Having the agency for the Cyphers New Buffalo Incubators and Brooders, will be pleased to mail circular and quote special price to all who wish a No. 1 incubator and Brooder. Of five different makes in usc. last season, this is the only one to give us a 100