BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Mrs. D. G. Bush is reported quite ill again at her home on Spring street.

—George Beezer and William Keichline are representing Bellefonte at the automobile show this week.

—Mrs. Barnes returned to her home on Bishop street, Sunday, after a pleasant visit with her son in Pittsburg.

—George C. Miller, father of David Miller, the grocer, who recently slipped and fell on the icy pavement, fracturing two ribs, is improving.

—The Women's Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association will meet in the Y. M. C. A. building, Monday evening, Feb. 5th, at 8 o'clock.

—Rev. C. C. Shuey spent last Sabbath in Port Matilda, assisting Rev. Gilbert in conducting the evangelistic services in the M. E. church at that place.

—After being housed up for a week with a bad cold, county commissioner D. A. Groce, reported for duty on Monday looking a little pale, but ready for work.

—Miss Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Barlet, of Altoona, is spending the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barlet on Thomas street.

—A dance was given in the hall of the public building on Howard street on Monday evening, by the young men of Bellefonte. About twenty couples enjoyed the occasion.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Harper arrived home from Columbus, Ohio, this week for a brief vacation. At this time the examinations are over and it gave them the opportunity to get home.

—Many Bellefonters went to Pine Grove Mills last Thursday to attend the celebration of Mr. J. A. Decker's fifty-third birthday anniversary, for which over one hundred invitations were issued.

—Dr. Nissley, the veterniary surgeon, placed his order with Geo. Beezer for a new Flanders runabout. This will enable him to promptly answer calls from a distance, when time means much.

—Thos. Shaughnessey, of Howard street, fell on the pavement in front of Dr. J. M. Lock's residence on Sunday and sustained a fracture of the left wrist that has caused him much annoyance since then.

—The condition of Drs. Braucht and Locke, both in the Bellefonte hospital recovering from the effects of operations for appendicitis, is satisfactory and they are expected to be about in the course of a few weeks.

—Mrs. William Armstrong Kirby and little son, William A. Kirby, Jr., were recent arrivals in Bellefonte from their home in Trappe, Md., for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Sechler, on East Linn street.

—John D. Miller County Treasurer, who will have sale of his farm stock on Wednesday, February 14th, will move his family to Bellefonte on the first of April, having secured the Joseph home on Curtin street now occupied by John C. Rowe.

—Daley Justice, ex-police officer of Bellefonte, has been tendered the position of mixologist at the Bush House and expects to enter upon his duties today, taking the place of Samuel Miller who broke his arm recently by a fall on the icy pavements.

—D. F. Fortney, Esq., departed on Saturday for Philadelphia and New York to spend a few days in the transaction of business, and before returning home expects to make an address before the County School Directors' Association in Harrisburg today.

—A Linn McGinley makes formal announcement in another part of this issue that he has become the owner of the S. H. Williams paper store, and will continue the same as heretofore. He has been connected with that business for years and will be able to give the public the same service as in former years.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jacobs left last week for Wheeling, W. Va., where they will make their future home. Mrs. Jacobs was Miss Iona Donaghy prior to her marriage and the young people were joined in Altoona by her father, S. A. Donachy, who accompanied them to Wheeling for a short visit until they get installed and also to visit his youngest daughter, Mrs. Clarence Bolton.

—Tomorrow, Friday 2nd, will be ground hog day, when the little critter who is supposed to govern the weather for the ensuing six weeks will have his inning. If he sees his shadow, we are promised six weeks of very cold weather. Ash Wednesday this year, which marks the beginning of the Lenten season, falls on February 21st, and Easter comes on April 7th, the earliest in a number of years.

—Take a peep at our sale register on Page 7 of this issue. There are more sales there than in any other two papers in Centre County combined, and every sale in that column has been directly ordered by the individuals whose names are attached. The farmers of Centre county have long ago recognized the Centre Democrat as the leading paper, and the one to advertise their sales, as it reaches the people.

—I J. Dreese was down from Lemont on Wednesday morning and took back with him one of Geo. Beezer's new "E. M. F." touring cars 1912 model, that has all the modern equipment on it and is one of the most popular cars on the market today. Since the republicans appointed Irv. the health officer in that district he will have more to do than formerly, and can put in much of his time going around looking after the health of his friends.

—During the past week the good Methodists of Bellefonte have had all sorts of trouble on account of the water supply pipe, to the motor that pumps the pipe organ, freezing, and the music from that source was stopped. Plumbers were at work and resorted to all kinds of schemes to thaw out the pipe without tearing up the pavement and the stone steps, but they were not successful. Finally Milt Johnson, the marble man, fired up his Stanley Steamer and, with 500 pound pressure, pulled up to the church and made a connection with the frozen pipe, and in a short time there was some dongs. The pressure of the steam and the heat from the same had a magic effect and made those plumbers mouths open with a huge smile as the frost was driven oue in a jiffy. Now all the plumbers are planning to purchase a steamer for summer pleasure and winter's work in their business. Johnson gave them a good pointer.

—"Little Miss Kut-up Co." at the opera house tonight.

—Mrs. E. R. Bryan, of Hollidaysburg, was visiting relatives and friends in Bellefonte last week.

—Charles Schad, who resides on his peach farm, below Bellefonte, butchered a 350-pound porker last week.

—Miss Gay Zenola MacLaren in "Maggie Pepper," a comedy play, at the Y. M. C. A. Monday, Feb. 26th.

—Mrs. Fannie Shultz and daughter moved last week from Penn street to the Thal property on Thomas street.

—"Little Miss Kut-up Co." at the opera house this Thursday evening. A fine musical comedy that will please you.

—Services will be held in the Lutheran church at this place on Sunday next, by Walter H. Traub, of Selinsgrove seminary.

—Master Hardman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lambert, of east Beaver street, celebrated his fourth birthday anniversary this week.

—Everybody will want to see Hadley's moving pictures next Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the opera house. Something different.

—Mrs. Charles Hassinger was taken suddenly ill at her home on Beaver street, Tuesday evening of last week, but since then has become much improved.

—James Harris came up from Reading to attend the funeral of his aunt, Elizabeth Harris, which took place on Monday afternoon. He returned the next day.

—Communion services will be held in the Reformed church at Zion next Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Preparatory services will be held Saturday afternoon at the same hour.

—Mrs. Samuel Decker, of this place, and Miss Mary Twitmyer, of Pleasant Gap, attended the funeral of their relative, Mrs. G. W. Twitmyer, at Wilmington, Del., on Friday last.

—Miss Helen Eberhart, employed in teaching school in Benner township, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eberhart, on Lamb street.

—Edwin J. Hadley's celebrated travel tour moving pictures will be presented at Garman's opera house next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Feb. 7th and 8th.

—An attraction of rare merit will be the rendition of the comedy play, "Maggie Pepper," by Miss Gap Zenola MacLaren at the Y. M. C. A. ono Monday evening, Feb. 26th.

—Mr. and Mrs. John White and three children were visitors on Sunday last at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Emil, on east Beaver street.

—Hadley's travel tour pictures are said to be a marvel of high-class, educational features. At Garman's opera house, two nights next week, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 7th and 8th.

—Don't miss tonight, the last night of Hugh Fay and "Little Miss Kut-up Co." the finest musical comedy that has visited Bellefonte in years. Ask the people who were there last night. Popular prices 25, 35 and 50c. By all means go see it.

—John Raymond, who for several years past has been employed at Beezer's meat market, resigned his position last week on account of his health. Rheumatism has been gripping him for some time past, and he has concluded to get away from the shop for a few months.

—The home of Harry Huff on east Beaver street, purchased last April from John White, has been made more convenient and beautiful lately by the addition of several rooms and a hall, and the whole house repainted. At this rate Mr. Huff is bound to have one of the coziest homes in that vicinity.

—The illustrated lecture on "Rum's Rebellion," in Petriken Hall Sunday afternoon, proved sufficient argument in favor of prohibition as to delight the number of adherents to the cause who were present. The talk was given by an officer of the State Prohibition Committee, and was repeated in a number of places throughout the county.

—The Bellefonte High school boys went across the mountains last week for a game of basket ball with the Philipsburg High school team. Since then we have not heard much crowing among our local sports and the reason is that they were beaten by a score of 53 to 13. Prof. Wagner now should keep them in after school and give them a few pointers on how to play the game. This won't do, boys—what ails you?

—The many patrons of the new Lyric theatre are becoming more enthusiastic every day over the excellent entertainments beina given there. The orchestra adds much to the enjoyment of the evenings, and the pictures are of a high order of excellence. The matinee every Saturday afternoon at 2:30, gives the children an opportunity to attend without being obliged to mingle in the rush at the evening performances.

—In spite of the Adamless feature of a quilting party there is more fun at one of these old-time gatherings than you could shake a stick at. The half dozen ladies who composed the "quilting-bee" at the home of Mrs. Joseph Thal on Thomas street, last Thursday at least think that they had a "stag party" beat to a frazzle. They were: Mrs. Alfred Beezer, of Roopsburg; Mrs. George Beezer, of Buffalo Run; Mrs. George Ingram, Mrs. William Daley, Miss Katie Murray and Mrs. William McClellen, of Bellefonte. At the dinner hour, Mrs. Thal, the hostess, seated them to a well-prepared dinner, which was as thoroughly finished as was the quilting.

—Tuesday evening, Febuary 13th, has been set aside by the Bellefonte Elks for a reception at their home in this place. At a meeting of the committee of arrangements on Monday they decided to limit the invitations on this occasion exclusively to the members of the order, with the privilege of each having two guests. Owing to the large membership this will even tax the capacity of the large home to the fullest extent. Just what will be the programme has not been announced but there will be elaborate decorations throughout the building, an orchestra, dancing, five-hundred, concert on the Victrolia and a general reception. It is hoped to have all of the out-of-town members present on this occasion.

—Company L is still without a second lieutenant, the office having recently been made vacant by William Brown's election to captain. Last Friday night's meeting was shy a quorum, but they hope to have enough men present this coming meeting night to insure an election.

—Scenic patrons were treated to an excellent program of pictures on Monday night; in fact, some very complimentary remarks have been heard regarding the some of the marvelous phota plays being shown there of late. Mr. Brown has some good, entertaining subjects in store for you, and it will be worth while to keep an eye on this popular place of amusement.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rachau, of Bellevue, O. twin daughters. Mrs. Rachau was formally Miss Ella Meyers, of Martha, and a graduate of the Bellefonte hospital training school for nurses. Mr. Rachau is from Madisonburg and moved to Ohio several years ago. The mother and babes are getting along splendidly, and the latter have been named Inez Marie and Irene Maphies.

—Miss Ruth Wetzel, daughter of Boro Engineer Wetzel, was agreeably surprised by a number of her young friends at her home on east Linn street on Monday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Games, music, and everything that contributes to the social enjoyment of a jolly crowd of young people, were indulged in by those present. Refreshments of a delicious character were served during the evening.

—The slippery condition of our streets during the past week has caused the "down fall" of many Bellefonte citizens who otherwise thought themselves "upright" in all respects. No serious injuries have been reported thus far, but many laughable scenes have been enacted. The funniest thing is to see a man step suddenly on a hidden icy spot, and give an imitation of the "Gobble Glide" with a dash of "Turkey Trot," before he recovers his equilibrium. This, of course requires a little more skill than to do the common fall, but it gets the applause every time.

—Crystal Springs Lodge No. 25, the local order of Reccas, held one of their enjoyable annual banquets in the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening, at which a large number were present. An orchestra added to the pleasures of the occasion, and was greatly enjoyed by those who were there. The local lodge of Rebeccas since its institution a few years ago has steadily gained in popularity, until today it is one of the most flourishing social organizations in Bellefonte. Those who had charge of Tuesday evening's affair are to be congratulated for the enjoyable manner in which it was carried out.

MORE "DIPPYDILS."

The National Association of Dippydil Writers were holding their 2nd annual conference. Domino, the sprightly spring chicken from the land of caponized poultry, had just read a very voluminous report on the "Whichness of What" and had been applauded to the echo by the young Laura Jean Libbey, of Wingate, who was next on the program with a paper on the "Thisness of Thus." Following the banquet, in which the wealthy bubbles flew like rain, President Loony Luke called for order and introduced the speaker of the evening, "Monseigneur Daffy Dan," who was all dressed up in his best soup and fish and who said in part, "Dearest nutty ones, after an absence of several months, I am glad to be back once more among all my friends. Henceforth, I will be with you again in the "Centre Democrat." As our spirits are all on the qui vive tonight, let me ask but one question and then we will close this memorable conference by singing our famous doxology, "Back to Danville." I would merely like to inquire:

"If Phil Waddle is a mind reader, what can Bill Reed?

If a farmer raises wheat, would Isaac Miller? I got cher, Steve, I got cher!

You can always find sympathy in the dictionary, but if you want to be protected by the strong arm of the law, it will be mighty hard to procure Daily Justice. Them's harsh words, Nell!

If a cyclone blew down all the windows in Bellefonte, would Dr. Ward be a painless dentist? Quick, Bill, the straightjacket.

If Dr. Dixon sees germs, what can Tommy Shaughnessy? M—m, strange we don't have licker like that in these parts.

If the Centre Democrat linotype machine should break, would Charles Kurtz? I'm on, conductor, start the car, I'm on!

If the President of the Barbers Union should resign, would Harry Ruhl or would Bill Mc-Govern. Sic 'em, Prince. He bit mamma and papa!

OVER THE COUNTY.

Mrs. Paul Musser, of State College, was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital on Saturday and will undergo an operation.

Dr. Frank, of Millheim, has been housed up the past two weeks owing to illness and has not been able to give attention to his practice. He reports that he is improving and soon will be over the trouble.

The members of the United Evangelical church, of Upper Marion, will hold a social, on February 3rd, at the home of C. S. Garbrick, on the Jacksonville road, and will serve chicken, noodles, ice cream and cake, in the evening. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

A hog owned by Adam Reedy, a Berks county farmer, was shot at several times with thirty-eight calibre bullets, but it simply grunted and was finally dispatched with an ax. The bullets flattened themselves against the skull, which proved to be one and three-quarters of an inch thick.

A fawn wandered from Tussey mountain a few days ago to the Manor Hill school house. Pupils were watching, expecting to see it leap a nearby fence, but it became tangled in the wiers and broke its back. Then they carefully carried it to the school yard, where it was killed and its carcass sent to the Bellefonte hospital.

10c pillow case lace, nice and wide —a great many pretty patterns at 3, 4 and 5c a yard, Finklestine's store.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson on east Logan street, Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. A bride of less than a year, death claimed her just as her life was opening upon the threshold of womanhood, leaving an infant daughter, Sue Theressa, and a sorrowing husband. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson, and was born in Bellefonte, Nov. 29th, 1891, thus making her about 20 years and 2 months of age at time of death. On April 12th of last year she was united in marriage to James Barret, of Bellefonte. The young couple had gone to housekeeping in their home on Halfmoon hill, but during her recent illness the young wife had been cared for at the home of her parents. Surviving are her parents, husband and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Sue Chandler, Victor, Alice, Beulah, Sara, and John, all of Bellefonte. Deceased was a devout member of the United Brethren church, and took great delight in attending all its services, and those of the Young People's Society. Funeral services will be conducted from her parent's home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. W. Winey. Interment will be made in Union cemetery.

STIVER:—John P. Stiver, of Martha Furnace, one of Centre county's most highly respected citizens, died at his home last Friday morning, Jan. 26th, aged 86 years, 2 months and 15 days. He was born Nov. 9th, 1825, in Huston Twp., where he has resided nearly all of his life. He leaves to mourn his death a widow, Mrs. Eleanor Stiver, and the following children: Lloyd, Wilson, Thomas, Mrs. D. W. Heaton and Mrs. John Williams, all residing near Martha; one brother, William, and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Shellenberger, of Philipsburg. He has fourteen grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. Mr. Stiver was married to Miss Eleanor Figart, of Huntingdon county, Dec. 11, 1851. Shortly after their marriage they began farming where they had resided for over 59 years. Deceased was a man of firm determination—possessing the qualities of honesty, integrity and strict christian proclivities. He was received into the membership of the Baptist church at Martha 46 years ago. Faithfulness and devotion to the church were especially marked during his christian life. The evening of his life was full of confidence and trust in the promises of God's word and the crown which awaited him, of which, he gave daily testimony and assurnce to those who patiently cared for him during his sickness. The funeral services were held in the Baptist church at Martha, Sunday, conducted by Rev. Ellis, of Jersey Shore, pastor and Rev. G. N. Downing, of Altoona, one of his former pastors. Interment in the Williams cemetery.

YEAGER:—The death of Mrs. Henry Yeager, which occured at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Harper, at Curtin, on Monday morning, removes one of Bellefonte's well known residents, she having lived the greater portion of her life here, prior to the past few years spent at Curtin. She was the widow of the late Henry Yeager, a well known hotel proprietor, who formerly conducted the Brant House in Bellefonte. Mrs. Yeager several weeks ago contracted a heavy cold and pneumonia developed, which, in spite of expert medical attention, was a severe a shock to one of her advanced years, and she passed away on Monday morning at 9:15. Deceased was a daughter of Joseph and Mary Soarbeck, and was born at Lewistown, May 14, 1844, thus making her age about 68 years. On December 4, 1864, she became the wife of Henry Yeager, who preceded her to the grave a number of years ago. Surviving her are two sons, Harry C. and Morris W., of Bellefonte, and two daughters, Mrs. Mary O'Connell, of Syracuse, N. Y., and Mrs. Edward Harper, of Curtin. One brother and one sister are also left to mourn, namely, John D. Sourbeck, of Bellefonte and Mrs. James Dorey, of Latrobe, Pa. Mrs. Yeager was a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Bellefonte and a woman who possessed many noble and endearing qualities of character. Her remains were brought to Bellefonte and taken to the home of her son Harry Yeager on north Spring street, where funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. R. S. Taylor, of Howard, assisted by Rev. Ezra Yocum, of Bellefonte. The body will be laid to rest in the family plot in Union cemetery.

NOTICE IN DIVORCE.

Mary Jane Lane vs. Chas. E. Lane.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, in Divorce A. V. M. No. 6 January Term 1906.

To Chas. E. Lane: Whereas your wife has filed a libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre Co. No. 6 Jan. term 1906, praying for a divorce against you, now you are hereby notified and requested to appear on or before Monday, February 26th, 1912, to answer the complaint of your wife, Mary Jane Lane, and to show cause if any you have why the said Mary Jane Lane should not be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you; and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divorce granted in your absence.

ARTHUR B. LEE,
Sheriff's office. Sheriff.
Bellefonte, Pa., Jan. 24, 1912. x7

SEWING MACHINES—Sewing machines can be repaired to sew as good as when new, if they are 20 years old. Don't let those agents get your machine for nothing, and charge you $45 or $50 for a machine when Clements, by order, can get you a brand new 5 drawer machine for $15 to $25. You will find at my shop all supplies, shuttles, needles, oils, etc., and don't forget the shop is on west Bishop street, across from Mrs. Aiken's store. I repair all makes of sewing machine; for any repairs bring the head of the machine, don't bring the stand, unless it is broken. G. E. Clements. x7
