EDITORIAL.

The "compromise" just now heard of, coming from the Penrose-Guffey gang leaders, is like the compromise King George offered the colonies when he found they could not be subdued in their rebellion against the wrongs of the King of England.

GUTHRIE ISSUES CALL.

George W. Guthrie, the reorganization chairman of the democratic state committee, issued a call for a meeting of all chairmen of democratic congressional district committees at Philadelphia on March 1.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Inquiry at the County Commissioners' office yesterday elicited the information that there had been no petitions filed in the past week in that department by any of our local politicians.

Among our republicans there seems to be a well defined sentiment among a certain class to down Quigley for county chairman because a presidential election is coming on and they want to handle the federal patronage.

Officers Elected. The State officers to be voted for on November 5, are as follows: Thirty-eight Presidential electors; four congressmen-at-large and one in each congressional district; auditor general; State treasurer; State senators from odd numbered districts, and in each county representatives as provided for by law.

The birthday party of John Heckman in Gregg Twp., on Saturday evening, was well attended. All enjoyed themselves very much; 72 were present.

Correspondence

RUNVILLE. The snow is going fast and the jingle of sleighbells is almost dispersed. The new item of interest is the clearing of the heavy ice in the streams which will give relief when it is all gone.

The second quarterly meeting to be held at the home of Harris Poorman, in Yarnell, in the interest of the Family charge of the U. B. church, was called off on account of our worthy presiding elder, Rev. J. S. Fulton, meeting with the decease of some one of his relatives.

Our protracted meeting is still in progress with eleven convalescing and new converts up to this time. A mighty conviction of sin among the unsaved, and the church strengthened and edified.

On Monday evening, when Rev. Miller had announced no meeting at the church for a little rest, a number convened at the home of Charles Reese, where an enjoyable prayer service was held to the pleasure of the entire family.

Our friend Edward Justice, from Hollaapple, spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Justice. We are always glad to see Edy in our town.

Mrs. Ashbridge Thomas called for a few days among friends at Centre Hall. Mr. Rhoads, agent for the gasoline engine, and Miss Gertrude Spangler spent a day at the home of Geo. Bitner.

Mr. Robert Glasgow and family, and Misses Ida and Dora Klinefelter, drove to Roopburg last Wednesday where they were royally entertained at the home of James Harsheberger.

Miss Julia Shope, one of our jolly young ladies, has returned home to this place after spending some time with her brother, Charles Shope, of Bellefonte; oh, you captin kiddo.

Samuel Miller and family, of this place, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte. If you want to read the news, just take the good old Centre Democrat; you get the most and best of any paper printed.

John Burd, of this place, was a Milesburg shopper Friday and Saturday. The airship took Centre Line scribe so far away that it only got back.

Miss Emily Way, who has been sewing in Tyrone, returned home. Oh you pretty dresses. Mrs. John Root returned to her home at Huntington on Saturday, after attending the funeral of her grandmother, Margaret Chronister, which was largely attended at this place.

A sled load, from Gatesburg, passed through our town to the Warriner-Mark meeting last Thursday evening. The robbers were seen hopping around in our community last week. They had better stay back till warmer weather.

A merry sled load of young folks, from Dix and Hannah, were driven to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gates last Wednesday evening, the 14th. The evening was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served.

SMULLON. "Buffalo Bill," a noted citizen of our town, intends starting a music class here, in the near future. We wish him success.

John Brungart, who had sale on Saturday last, intends leaving for the west on Thursday. Eugene Smull intends leaving for South Dakota Thursday, where he is getting employment. We will all miss Eugene.

Jim Ball spends much of his time at Coburn over Saturday and Sunday. Homer Cronse intends leaving for Illinois in the near future.

MILESBURO. Those who are among the sick are: Mrs. Tom Johnson and Mr. Eddie Johnson; Miss Crease Hannah closed her school on account of illness. Wish them all a speedy recovery.

Some people enjoy fresh air dances on the front porch. If you don't believe me ask Grace. I will tell you the Centre Democrat does not tell anything untrue.

Oh! how the mice play when the old cat is away! LOST—a valuable pair of gloves, under please return to Miss Mary McClellan, Central City.

There will be a free lecture held in the Grange hall, Friday evening, the 23rd at 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

H. C. Robinson returned home Saturday after taking a flying trip to New York. Oh, you dear little dogs; you had better tell your master to get you a tag, or there will be some shooting done.

Water carrying is the latest in Milesburg, as the water is frozen up. Mrs. Claud Sommer, of Milesburg, was seen on our streets Sunday.

The scribe received word the other day that our radical man would preach our town about March 2nd with a great story. How these vegetables grow.

VALLEY VIEW. Our friend Edward Justice, from Hollaapple, spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Justice. We are always glad to see Edy in our town.

Mr. Miller was to Julian last Friday to visit Mrs. Creag who is seriously ill at this time.

Carl C. Garbrick Sundayed with his parents, Carl reports everything booming in Tyrone; he says work is plenty. Call again, Carl; we are always glad to see you.

Those who have been on the sick list and are improving are: Mrs. Lowery Justice, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. J. M. Brower, and the Thomas and Wm. King families.

David Hampton says he will stay in the house as long as old ground hog will stay in his hole.

This collection of samples is prettier than ever this season and, if you are thinking of having a suit made, by calling early you will have a better selection—for as the season advances most of the choice selections are sold.

I have made arrangement with the American Ladies Tailors of Chicago to cut, make and trim your own goods at a very reasonable price. You can have a suit, or any kind of dress made to your own design, as this firm makes a specialty of special designs. If you have goods you wish made, bring it to me and I will guarantee a fit; and if the fit is not satisfactory, we will pay you for your goods. J. C. Rowe.
