Bright, Newsy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

WINGATE.

O you sun ahinet! Spring must be drawing near, as Sunday I noticed the old and young sitting out and sunning themselves and holding comical conversations.

M. E. Flynn, our third trick operator, went on his way to Beech Creek Friday and returned with his two oldest children, Dorothy and Charles, who are going to school at Beech Creek. They were two happy children when they saw their mother.

Annie Bavarr, of Phillipsburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boob, here.

Carrie Fisher left Saturday for Tyrone where she will visit her son Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Sters spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. S. Saxton, of Bellefonte.

As I understand, our hamlet is to be set off with more improvement as it is whispered around that Willard Fisher is making all the necessary arrangements to erect himself a house upon his own premises. The hamlet has had an independent life, as last fall he completed his new barn.

Come boys, and offer yourselves to the manager of the Wingate baseball club, as I know that he will need you for this season, and as soon as I can ascertain the line up I will put it in the Wingate items.

Mrs. L. S. Way and children, Nelson and Bond, after an enjoyable visit with relatives, at Halfmoon, returned home Tuesday.

If a spider can weave a web, could James Snyder knit a falsehood?

Joseph Davids, of Plum Grove, is reported to the scribe as being in a very serious condition and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Last Thursday about noon Ezra Fisher was at the barn to attend his horse and upon returning to the house, a heavy blast of wind swept along and blew his feet from under him, causing him to fall and sustain a slight laceration on the back of the head.

On account of his advanced age it almost left Mr. Fisher in a helpless condition, but he managed to regain his feet and came to the side of his house occupied by the scribe where he had his wound dressed.

After having three or four days of weather like spring our hamlet was visited with a thunder shower on Wednesday night and followed by an awful heavy west wind which, when in full blast, made it almost impossible to travel against it.

The scribe heard a report of a heavy snow on the west at Fort Wayne—they had from one to two feet of snow and freight traffic entirely tied up and passenger trains moving with difficulty. We are sorry to note that Geo. Brown, who has been employed at Williamsport, and the last time he visited his parents and many friends here was during last hunting season, is now in prison at Bellefonte.

Henry Eastright and wife were called to Bellefonte on Thursday, due to the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Martin.

The following are a few damages done by the high winds that swept our valley Thursday: Our little house of worship, the Evangelical church, on account of heavy frost cracked the brick on the north end, and last Thursday the heavy wind caused the entire end to topple and fall to the ground; the house that P. G. Murray lives in was struck with such force as to cause four window panes to crash from their frames. Gray said, he did not mind the glass blowing out but he could not keep the covers on while he slept.

Chas. Warner and his new wife spent Sunday with his grandparents, Lemuel Warner. Glad to see you, Frank, and wish you a happy and prosperous life.

Sara Boob, of Lock Haven, is visiting her parents here.

Hello Bill! Bill Cogan was a Wingate visitor last week.

Our radish man arrived a little ahead of time but on account of Sunday he promised to return soon and give us a lecture as how to handle the vegetable. Everybody is attending sales near and far. Elmer Bartley opened the season in this community.

Mrs. J. W. Sylvys and daughters, Emma and Alice, accompanied by Jake Zane, of Halfmoon, spent Sunday with Mrs. L. S. Way, here.

The scribe desires to extend his thanks to his many friends of this village during the last four years that he has resided among them and wishes every one a happy and prosperous life in any field or road they choose to travel, but always remember a still tongue makes a wise head at all times. I will leave on Monday for my new position and ask to not be forgotten by my friends. "Good-bye."

AARONSBURG.

David Summers, of Altoona, and Mrs. H. C. Yurdy, of Shamokin, were the welcome guests of their aged mother over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Gulsewitz returned from a pleasant trip to friends living in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Warren Winkieblech and Tammie Stover spent part of the Sabbath with their uncle Enoch Kreamers, who are both on the sick list, living east of town.

Miss Mamie Tressler, of Bellefonte, visited friends living in town over Sunday.

Dr. John Bowersox, a veterinary surgeon, has gone to York at which place he will locate; his friends wish him well in his new field of labor.

C. A. Weaver, of Freeport, Pa., was the welcome guest of Mrs. Effie Weaver, and his many other friends here.

Noah Cronemiller and Mamie Rote made a business trip to Bellefonte one day last week.

Mrs. Claud Feldler, of Feldler, was the guest of Mrs. Orwig and Mrs. E. Weaver one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gulsewitz spent the Sabbath with friends living at Coburn.

Raymond Weaver has gone to Plainfield, Ill., at which place he secured employment.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dorman, of Feldler, spent the Sabbath at the home of Wm. Wolfe's.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bower and his aged father were the guests of Adam Martin's living at Pine Creek.

Mrs. Wm. Houser, of Bellefonte, returned to her home after having visited her mother, Mrs. D. H. Lenker, a short time last week.

John Haines and family spent the Sabbath pleasantly with friends living in Hebersburg.

The personal property of Em. Musser, dec'd., will be offered at public sale on Saturday afternoon, E. G. Mingle auctioneer.

Clarence Eisenhour and lady friend, Miss Ruth Crouse, took a sleigh ride to Brush valley on Sunday.

Mrs. H. E. Crouse visited her parents living at Winfield over Sunday.

Robert Burd, who had quite a sick spell, we are glad to say, is much improved.

FILLMORE.

A good many of our people attended B. F. Harris' sale, in Halfmoon township on last Thursday. They said it was a poor sale.

We got some more ice and snow that gave us more sleighing; it has all gone again, with more followed. We expect that when it goes there will be a flood.

O. A. Dunlap has rented the Blair farm and is preparing for it; he expects to take charge of his place in the spring.

The electric storm, which passed over our vicinity on last Wednesday night gave us plenty of sleighing and will also mean a very late spring; we hope when it does come it will be pleasant.

Mrs. Joseph Tressler was called to Waddie last week to see her sister, Mrs. Henry Stone, who was ill with pneumonia.

H. C. Huey and Dallis Marshall went to Stoney Point one day last week to put a telephone in T. N. Huey's house.

Mr. Corman will move away from our little town in the spring and is making good use of the sledging by hauling his implements and feed to his new home.

There will be an ice cream, cake and fish-pond social held at the home of Thomas Tressler's on Friday evening, March 8; everybody come and help a good cause along.

Miss Mabel Norris who is teaching the Sellers school, has about four weeks' work yet.

There was a little mistake made in last week's issue of Fillmore items. It said there was a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Witmer's in place of at Mr. and Mrs. Winn Witmer's.

If Mae would buy an orange would Frank Hull hit?

Mr. Winn Witmer is on the sick list; we have not learned what the ailment is, but hope she will soon recover.

The chicken and waffle supper, that was to be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eckley, has been postponed.

Sore throat and heavy colds are the go in our town.

Don't forget, girls, this is leap year, and the young men are waiting for you to make your proposals.

Miss Martha McKite spent a few days last week with her friends at Stoney Point.

Roy Hull had the misfortune of getting tramped by a horse which caused a very sore foot.

Limon Bickel is hauling lime from Bellefonte for his farm; that is what makes the little corn grow.

Mrs. Andy Gummo returned home last week, after spending about two months in Indiana county with friends.

We looked for Domino and his airship to come in the storm last Thursday which was traveling towards the east; and we supposed that Domino had gone to Pittsburg to select some new material for his new machine and just getting back was traveling faster than his limit allowed, got bewildered in the heavy snowstorm. He got on this side of the mountain and, sailing very rapidly down the valley, his ship was unusually low, and just when he got to Berry Hartcock's the big bird struck the house and tore the entire roof off; of course it scared the poor man when he found the roof was torn from his house. Berry Hartcock saw what was wrong; he heard some one holler and he looked up and there Domino was sitting on the garret floor. Domino asked if that was the correct road to Unionville and was told "No!" Domino was helped out of that place and fined 15 cents damages, and then sent home for his dinner; he was not injured much but when he gets decorated up a little with some nerve and bone liniment he will come back to see those people in that section of the valley. We think he will stop at Charley Sellers' for dinner. We all trust Domino will not get into any more trouble with that big bird when he comes to visit us the next time.

On Monday we had a very heavy rain which will make more slush and slop.

Dallis Marshall, wife and little girl spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Brennan's.

Frank Thomas, of Altoona, visited at the home of his father-in-law, Andy Gummo's, on last Sunday.

If Daffy Dan is wise what does Domino?

This is leap year and one of our young ladies started out with the intention of hunting a man, and when she saw him coming she turned and started back to a neighbor's house till the man passed. Say, girls, you have to be braver than this if you want a man.

ZION.

Washington's birthday was a real blizzard. Harvey said, "Adam, do you know the boys are drinking your cider?" and behold, Harvey your own barrel was empty.

The local grange meeting was not very well attended last Monday evening, it was hard on some one who rode the goat, by the way things looked outside of the hall.

Orvis Yarnell and Clyde Hockman are very busy hauling lime from Pleasant Gap.

William Diehl, of Hartleton, spent a day last week with his friend George.

Edgar Lutz spent last Sunday in Beech Creek.

Howard Struble shipped a car load of handle wood last week to Leather Bros. of Howard.

Mrs. Lavina Shaffer is not improving. It will soon be the time of year for posters to be tacked up. Go another way. How far it is around.

The stork visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clevens last Sunday and left a bouncing baby boy. Harvey is grandpa again.

Some people on line number one forget their manners when someone else is talking.

SPRING MILLS.

B. A. Donnelly was home from Renovo for a few days.

Bruce Meyer has gone to Alberta, Canada, where he intends staying for some time.

The banquet given by the K. G. E. in the Eagle Hall, last Wednesday evening was largely attended. More than one hundred plates were served, and during the evening several addresses were given and music was also furnished by members and guests. All enjoyed the evening.

The I. O. O. F. banquet given Thursday in the Grange Hall was not so largely attended, owing to the disagreeable weather, but all who were present reported a very enjoyable time. Music was furnished by the I. O. O. F. orchestra.

E. S. Ripka and family, of Centre Hall, were in town last Thursday to attend the banquet.

Monday the members of the I. O. O. F. and encampment attended the burial of their brother, Jacob F. Hittner, at the Salem cemetery.

Saturday evening, March the 2nd, is the time set for the play which will be given by the High school scholars, in the school building; admission 10 and 15 cents.

NITTANY.

The funeral of Phillip Walters on last Thursday was not very largely attended on account of the awful cold and stormy weather.

The stork visited the home of Tom Gussallus last Saturday and left a young daughter; mother and babe are both getting along fine.

Mrs. Moore, mother of Mrs. D. O. Dorman, is having her home with her daughter, Mrs. Dorman and family, at present.

The reason Howard should not have R. F. D. No. 3 is that the people of Nittany are capable of attending to their own affairs. Better look out, Bellefonte! Howard will have to get the County Seat pretty soon. How about that big bunch of hustlers the people didn't subscribe for?

Mrs. William Long, of Waddie, visited friends here on Sunday.

The next big gathering will be W. E. Kessinger's sale, March 7th.

We noticed Ed. Green and wife, of Howard, on our streets on Sunday.

Harry Baker and E. W. Ammerman made a business trip to Peru one day last week.

We got our blizzard on Thursday last; who said the ground hog came out again?

Some of our people attended the funeral of George Harter's twin babies on Sunday at Jacksonville.

About all D. A. McDowell gets done these days is to fix clocks and watches and take orders for farm and garden seeds. Well that's enough; don't send your work away, give him a trial; he will appreciate it.

On Saturday, March 2nd, the Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. G. W. Tolbert; everybody cordially invited to attend.

Amos Wolford, who had taken up housekeeping in Milton, moved back to this place and will occupy part of Mr. Romick's house in Snydertown. Mr. Wolford will work for S. F. Dorman, of Snydertown.

Glenn and Lloyd Rogers, two of our first young gentlemen, visited their parents and many friends here over Sunday. Glenn is teaching at Muncy and Lloyd is attending school at Lewisburg. Come again; girls!

Monday, the 19th inst., being Mrs. Tillie Peck's birthday, her son Earl and his friends planned a surprise for Earl's mother, and they carried it out to perfection. There were fifty some present with an abundance of good things to eat, and all report having had a jolly good time. They all left for their homes at midnight, wishing Mrs. Peck many more happy returns of the day.

William Sheats, of Howard, visited Tom Gussallus and family here on Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended the sale on Saturday of Lamar; articles sold brought fair prices.

The class party of the Franklin school was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glantz in honor of their daughter Grace, on Friday night, the 23rd. Those present were: Clarence, Marion and Elsie Pressler; Helen and Tessie Stover, Chas. and Sancta Showers, Aaron Yarnell, Ralph Peck and Hester Zerby; those from Lamar were: Ruth Fleisher and brother, Luther McKinley, Lawrence Edly, Mrs. Alice Lockard and son Harold, Mrs. George Lockard and daughter Beatrice and son Roy, Laura and Susie Dolan. The evening was spent very pleasantly with games of various kinds, and all are cordially invited back again. Oh, you Hester!

CENTRAL CITY.

Lee Wilkinson, of Curry, Pa., has purchased the Bartley farm west of this city, along R. R. street, and has moved there.

Frank Wetzel, our worthy store keeper, has been wearing some pleasant smiles the last few days back, because of a big baby boy the stork left at his place on Sunday evening last. Both mother and baby are getting along fine.

James Owers, P. R. R. operator, who has been working the relief between Julian and Lock Haven, has been assigned to the assistant agent at Woodland and expects to move to that place in the near future. We are sorry to see you, James, but we expect to send for you once in a while when there is a big game at Milesburg this season.

Earl Myers spent Saturday evening and Sunday at Curtin.

Newton Jones, on the other side, says that the reason gun shoes and boots are getting so high priced, is because there are too many automobiles that take all the rubber to make tires; there is a chance for an argument.

The ice is going out of the streams along the Bald Eagle valley very nicely without any damage.

Miss Esther Fetzer, of Holts Hollow, is spending a few weeks at her brother's, Chas. Fetzer.

At this writing we are glad to hear of Mrs. W. B. Thomas being able to get around after a winter's illness.

Miss Crease Hannah opened her school Monday after being ill for a few days.

There must be some attraction at the High school how about it, Professor?

As dippydis seem to be all the go, here are some:

If Blanch Shay should fall in Spring Creek, would Joe Fisher-er?

If Claud McCullough can push a wheel barrow, can Clarence Cart-wright?

If James Jodon tells the truth would banner live?

Is Beasle Brown?

Is Sherd-white?

If Elsie Spicer is happy, is Isaac Murray?

Mrs. Catharine Conley, widow of the late John Conley, has moved to Centre Hall and is now occupying a part of the M. L. Emerick house on the diamond.

Housework Drudgery

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weakness, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures those weaknesses so peculiar to women. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any unscrupulous druggist persuade you that his substitute of unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit. Just smile and shake your head! Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cures liver ills.

PERU.

Adam Cramer and wife, of State College, visited at the home of E. H. Grove on Sunday.
