Bright, Newy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

FILLMORE.

We have very good sledding now, the little skiff of snow that fell on the ice made it fine; our winter is not all gone yet.

Berry Hartsock is hauling some of his furniture to his new home occupied by Henry Tressler. Mr. Hartsock is storing his furniture there on account of the storm tearing the roof from his house.

Reuben Crust spent a few days in Phillipsburg last week with his brother Thomas Crust.

Our storekeeper, J. C. Hunter, is going to move to State College in the spring, after he has sale, and Mr. Strawbridge, better known as Foster Young, will then move in the vacant house and keep our country store, and also run a barber shop; he has ordered new tools for his trade.

Raymond Harpater, who worked for Wm. Bodle last summer, is coming back to work for Thomas Tressler and to spend another summer with his old friends.

There was a sled load of young folks passed through our town last Wednesday night, who were singing some very familiar songs; we think these people were ladies and gentlemen, as the store didn't whooping and yelling like wild people.

Don't forget Henry Tressler's large stock sale on next Tuesday, the 12th of March, there will be some very nice horses and cattle offered to the public on that day.

There has been about six car loads of baled hay shipped away from our vicinity this winter.

Henry Huey and Dallis Marshall drove to Bellefonte on last Thursday evening with two sled loads of people to see the show at the Centennial Lyric. The crowd consisted of Henry Huey and wife, Wm. Brennan and wife, Jas. Huey and wife, Wm. Benner and wife, James Huey and wife, Dallis Marshall and wife, Cyrus Huey and wife, Clayton Huey, Vera Lytel, Frank Hull, Mae Huey, Ethel Brennan, Russell Brennan, Earl Huey, Anna Heaton, Benner Gumbo, Mrs. Mary Stanton, Fenna Lytel, Alma Huey, Lucia Huey, and Frank Blair. They returned at a late hour, and enjoyed their trip very much.

These who are on the sick list are: Mrs. Mary Hunter, Miss Mariah Taylor, Mrs. Winn Wintmer. All are improving slowly; we hope they will soon recover. There was a little mistake made in last week's issue where it said H. C. Huey and Dallis Marshall went to Stoney Point to put a telephone in T. N. Huey's house. It should have read T. M. Huey's house.

There were some young men attending the social on last Friday night at A. L. Garner's who had better stay at home till they get old enough to learn how to behave. They didn't have any respect for themselves or any one else, at least they didn't show any of it to the people. We think if these fellows want to be gentlemen they should act that way and people will think more of them.

Those who have hired for the summer are: Frank Hull for Wm. Wintmer, Clayton Huey for Roy Crust, Ralph Rumbarger for Miss Bessie Green, Benner Gumbo for Dallis Marshall, Harold Young for Mack Sellers, Raymond Harpater for Thomas Tressler, Thomas Heckler for Benner Kephart.

Don't forget the social on the 6th of March at Thomas Tressler's. Our minister, Rev. Hugh Strone, will preach his farewell sermon at the M. E. church of this place on March 17, and will then depart for conference.

Miss Mabel Norris spent Sunday at State College. Clayton Huey purchased a fine-looking buggy at Christ Beezer's livery sale on last Saturday.

Genevieve Tressler and her mother, Mrs. Joseph Tressler, were called to Harry Tressler's, of Shilo, on Saturday, to see little grandson Clair who had his hand badly torn by the explosion of a loaded shell.

Ed. Taylor is getting ready for some new fence as he is getting a supply of posts. Sunday was a very pleasant day but it was very cool and the wind was very raw; we are looking for some snow.

The grain fields, where the snow has gone away, look very bare and thin, and if they are this way all over, the wheat crop will be very poor unless it grows fast when spring opens up.

The farmers along our valley, who have telephones, are talking about putting on another set of wires providing they can get subscribers for the new line.

J. W. Blair is getting a good supply of summer wood saved so that he won't need to stop work in the summer and cut wood.

Waken up there, you two who went to sleep at the dinner table after sending the wedding party that went to Bellefonte one night last week; too bad you did not get enough sleep.

Our pastor, Rev. Strain, delivered a very interesting sermon on last Sunday and everyone enjoyed it very much. Thomas Mackley spent a few days last week with Dr. Coons, of Stormstown, training a horse to work double; the doctor got the driver from P. B. Kephart of this place.

SUMMIT HILL.

Jacob McCloskey moved to the old Dave McCloskey place out on the mountain, Monday.

William Cox and family, of Pleasant Valley, are going to move in the near future to the Fairview side in the house now occupied by Alfred Shawley who will later take possession of the Cox farm. Sorry to lose such a good neighbor.

Daniel DeHaas is moving his family to the Fairview side soon. Miss Teese Confer, with nine of her scholars from Knolls school spent Friday afternoon at the Quaker's school. Those that were in the load were Teese Confer, Carrie Oyer, Ella Mann, Mary Oyer, Justina Markley, Wilma Savers, Yeager, Walter Savers and Milford Oyer the driver.

Burpee's "seeds that grow" for sale only at Shaffer's Hardware store.

CURTIN.

Miss Verda Korman returned home after spending some time with her sister in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Elmer Bryan and Mrs. John Bryan spent Friday with friends at the Rolling Mill.

Myrie Schenck, of Howard, makes frequent visits to Curtin. There must be some attraction. How about it, Bertha?

A merry crowd of our young girls had a fudge party at the home of Mrs. John Bryan. All report having a fine time.

Mrs. Fred Heaton and children returned to their home at Orviston.

Mrs. John Osman and little daughter Virginia returned to their home in Sunbury on Tuesday.

Miss Sarah Bryan returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Reeder, of Mt. Eagle.

Mrs. Edward Kline returned home after visiting friends in Clearfield.

Miss Bertha Bitner, of Mt. Eagle, spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Barzer.

Miss Margaret Rocky spent Sunday with her friends, Miss Sue Bathurst and Laura Griffith.

Mrs. William Brooks was a Bellefonte shopper Monday.

John Barzer spent Sunday and Monday with his wife and children.

Miss Pearl Bryan, Bernice Doughman and Sarah Bryan spent Sunday in Mt. Eagle at the home of Lloyd Reeder.

Miss Stella Barzer was a Bellefonte shopper on Monday.

Mrs. Emma Bathurst, who has been seriously ill for some time and was taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment, was brought to her home in this place on Monday on the 5:46, not improved; her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Alice, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams, was seriously ill last week, but is much improved at this writing.

Mrs. Henry Shultz and Mrs. Orlanda Bryan were Bellefonte shoppers on Saturday.

Mrs. Mollie Hazard, of Phillipsburg, visited her son Roy and wife of this place over Sunday.

Harvey Barnhart is the happy father of a bouncing baby boy that came to his home to stay; both mother and child are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher and daughter are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnhart.

Mrs. Beil Curtin, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Miss Sue Holter has been very ill at the home of her sister Mrs. Jennie Curtin, but we are glad to say is improving.

Moving is all the go now. Mr. Foreman is moving to Spring Mills; Adam Gingham will move on the farm vacated by Mr. Foreman; Jake Shay will move to the Rolling Mill, and Roy Hazard will move in the house vacated by Mr. Shay.

A surprise party was held at the home of Orlanda Bryan on Friday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Hilda, it being her 14th birthday. To say she was surprised is putting it mildly. The evening was spent in playing games and at about 10 o'clock all were invited to the dining room where ice cream, cake and fudge were served. Those present were: Isabel Barnhart, Martha Glenn, Adeline Gingham, Mildred and Florence Glenn, Louisa and Stella Grassmyre, Bertha Prince, Victor Barnhart, Ralph Gingham, Frank and James Shultz, Paul Gingham, Leonard Glenn, Clair Prince, William Crossmyre, chaperoned by Mrs. Mabel Yeager all departed for their several homes at a late hour wishing Miss Hilda many more happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Reuben Garris, of Williamsport, spent a few days with her parents, Wm. Alkey's.

The surprise party which was held for Miss Hilda Bryan was largely attended.

Hon. Williams and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Brooks, attended the funeral of their cousin, James Bear, at Fort Matilda, on Monday.

Miss Sue Holter, who has been sick for some time, is slowly improving under the skillful care of Dr. Huff.

Jake Shay and family have moved to the Rolling Mill. Sorry to have you leave us, Jake.

It is rumored Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harper will soon move to Bellefonte; sorry to lose such good neighbors.

Billie Alkey spent Sunday at Milesburg with his cousin Clifford.

Mrs. Hazard, from Phillipsburg, spent Sunday with her son Roy, of this place.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harry, a son.

Dr. Walls, of Curwensville, was called to the bedside of Mrs. Eliza Williams, who has been a helpless invalid for several years. Hope the new treatment will prove successful.

AXEMANN.

Mrs. Kane is still very ill. Siny Hoy unloaded a carload of brick last week.

Quite a number of the young folks attended the party at Daniel Shuey's. Edmund Shutt has moved into Ray White's house.

The farmers shipped two carload of hay from here last week.

Wm. Steele had four or five carpenters at work on his new henery this week.

The many friends of Samuel Zettle of this place will be glad to know that he is improving from his very serious illness.

John Shuey, wife and little daughter spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ammerman, of Pleasant Gap.

Daniel Shuey loaded a car of paper-wood last week for Charles Bilger, of Pleasant Gap.

Rev. Angelor preached his farewell sermon at this place on Sunday evening. Hope for his return to this place from conference, as he is a fine gentleman.

A jolly party of young people from Rockview and Axemann spent last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shuey. Harry Hoy, Elmer Sommers, Boyd Corl, Herbert Benner, Loran Rae, Benner Shuey, Joe Bertrum, Ralph Sampson, Gilbert Lutz, Christian Hoy, Uriah Stover, Grover Shutt, Oliver Hartman, Clarence Crust, John Shuey, Margaret Breen, Lulu Saxton, Grace Tressler, Elizabeth Hartman, Miriam Hazel, Mildred Sampson, Helen Breen, Beatrice Rae, Maud Tressler, Ruth Bertrum, Margaret Benner, Marie Hoy, Maud Corl, Lammie Shuey, Minnie Shuey, Sarah Hishel. This evening was spent in playing games and music and at a late hour, they departed for their respective homes.

RUNVILLE.

Sledding is still fair in this part of the country—the longest period has been enjoyed this season in a number of years.

Mrs. Nancy Crider and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vannetta returned to their home in Cornell, New York, after a short stay with some of their friends of this place.

Miss Minnie Walker spent Monday, of this week, in the county seat.

Saturday morning's train brought the new bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson, to our town who were entertained in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson. Mr. Wilson is from Tyrone and is a fireman for the P. R. R. Co. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Nora Watson, who has been engaged in dressmaking at Snow Shoe for several years. Both are energetic young people and we all join in wishing them a long and prosperous life. The callumpnuses were out in full force and played their parts well.

A Kidnapping—This village was thrown into a fever of excitement when the news flashed over the wires that J. B. Lucas, now of Punxsutawney, but formerly of this place, went to the home of Mrs. Mary Eckly and kidnapped a little girl aged 7 years. On account of trouble unnecessary to describe, Mrs. Lucas was forced to take her children and leave Mr. Lucas. Ever since he has been threatening to take this one, it being his favorite. Therefore Mrs. Lucas was compelled to take action to recover the child and place Mr. Lucas in jail.

Willis Poorman lost a valuable horse from an accident to one of its feet, unknown to the owner.

Mrs. Rhine, of Bellefonte, arrived in our town Saturday evening and tarried until Monday morning whose help in our revival services were inspiring and helpful, and appreciated by the entire community.

Rev. Miller opened his revival effort at Fairview appointment Tuesday evening and a few evenings of prayer service will follow his effort in this place.

Mrs. William Johnson and son George, of Wallston, is spending a few days with her father, Charles Lucas, and a number of others attended the sale of Mr. Lindemuth, of Unionville.

Earl Heaton, of Juniata, is spending several days with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Annie Irwin and daughter Bertha spent part of last week at the home of Willis Poorman.

C. B. Friel departed on Sunday afternoon for State College where he is employed.

Mrs. Manda Ostrander, after spending several days with her sister, Lucy Smoyer, returned to her home at Bellefonte.

Miss Maud Walker and brother Lloyd, accompanied by Newton Lauck, spent Sunday with the latter's parents at Betts Station.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kunes and Edward Gross were out of town callers on Sunday.

ROCK FORGE.

We are having fine weather around here, but the roads have been so icy that some of our farmers were compelled to go out on the road and cut the ice before it was safe to drive on.

The sick around here have been Harry Pike and Andy Breen, and they are slowly improving.

Miss Ida Urskin, of a distant town, is visiting with her uncle, Harry Pike, of this place. Shuey was compelled to go to her father-in-law, Franklin Shuey's, for a couple days this week on account of the high water.

Daniel Houser is making good use of his automobile as it didn't take him very long to learn how to run it.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, Isaac Tressler and Ollie Tressler attended Sam Benner's sale at Axemann on Thursday.

We are all glad that Rev. Harnish is getting along nicely since his accident. Geo. Rhears is doing some sawing of wood with his gasoline engine this week; he had to wait till his son George returned home from Pittsburg, as he does the handling of the engine.

A great many of the people around here will be compelled to buy their seed potatoes as so many potatoes froze around here; they are now selling at a dollar and a half a bushel.

John Grove, of the Brown school house, is hauling his summer's wood from where the saw mill had been, in James Clark's woods.

John Grove and family will soon be leaving our town as next week is their sale and then they will soon be moving to their new home in Lemont.

George Rhears attended Hartsock's sale at Waddle on Thursday.

Ira Benner bought a pair of full blooded, Chester-white hogs at Sam Benner's sale on Thursday.

Mrs. Will Emblizer has gotten well again and is now doing her own work.

William Saxton and wife spent a few days last week at Scotia with Mrs. Saxton's brothers and sisters, while Miss Lulu Saxton and Mary Bertram kept house till they returned.

MOUNT EAGLE.

Mrs. Christ Heverly, who has been making her home with E. E. Heverly, of this place, passed away last Monday night. Her remains were taken to Marsh Creek for burial.

Mrs. E. R. Leathers, who has been visiting relatives at Brookville, returned home last week reporting a very good time.

Miss Bertha Bitner was a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Barzer, of Curtin.

Rev. R. S. Taylor will preach his farewell sermon in the Kennedy M. E. church March 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Diehl were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. E. R. Leathers.

Miss Della Leathers and Clark Beaty were quietly married at the parsonage at Howard on last Wednesday afternoon. Their friends wish them much happiness throughout their married life.

Quite a number of the people from this section attended the sale of Charles Confer on Saturday.
