

Correspondents' Department

Continued.

On Saturday evening, March 16th, the Aid Society of the United Evangelical church will hold a social at the home of J. W. Tolbert.

One of Mrs. H. P. Zerby school day friends, of Williamsport spent several days with Mrs. Zerby; they had not seen each other for twenty years.

Charley Krape and family, of Lamar, were guests at the H. P. Zerby home recently.

Dan Long and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Earl Arthey and husband, near St. Paul, one day the past week.

The sad news of the death of Miss Nora Krape, daughter of Philip Krape and wife, of Lamar, was a shock to her many friends at this place; funeral on Monday.

Ben and Edna attended Gramley's sale at Madisonburg on Saturday; wonder if they were after furniture?

John Tate, of Salona, and Mrs. Harry Stover, of Hubersburg, were called to the bedside of their mother who has been quite ill. We hope Mrs. Tate will soon recover her health again.

Miss Grace Glantz attended a grammar school class party at the home of Harry Kling, at Clintonville, one night the past week, and reports having had a very nice time.

Mrs. William Fleisher and daughter Ruth and Mrs. Kate Glantz and daughter Grace, of Lamar, were calling on some of the sick people in our town on Sunday afternoon.

Guy Nolan has gone to Altoona where he expects to secure employment.

Mrs. Ben Beck is very low at this writing with not much hope of recovery.

Earl Clark, of Hayes Run, spent Sunday with his lady friend, Edna McDowell.

Paul Walkey spent Sunday with his lady friend, Helen Rossman.

Daniel Peters, of Hecla Park, was the guest of O. N. Yarnell one evening the past week.

George Gummalus was to Hayes Run one day the past week on business.

Wilson Ammerman and wife visited friends at Unionville over Sunday.

Our people are kept busy attending public sales as there is one nearly every day.

Mrs. Sarah Diehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Diehl, who has been sick with appendicitis, is some better at this writing.

William Diehl, of Howard, and Mr. Catherine, of Hartleton, were guests of Dan Diehl and family recently.

Peter Knecht, of Parvin, was the guest of Harry Baker and family one day the past week.

Squire Michael Shaffer is visiting ex-Sheriff Shaffer.

H. W. Winkelman, of Avis, was the guest of J. W. Tolbert one night the past week.

MARTHA. Hippy Huss! Hippy Huss! What in the world is the matter with us? Nothing at all, nothing at all! zero weather, that's all.

Good old winter is holding its own with plenty of fine sleighing.

There has been a great deal of sickness in and about our neighborhood.

Wilson Stover was very kind to the ladies last Wednesday by taking them to Port Matilda to spend the day with Mrs. Sarah Chaney, where they were pleasantly entertained.

Thomas Stiver, who has been sick for a long time, and not able to work, is at present doing a good business for Larkin Co.

R. D. Arley is not improving.

Some of our girls have gone away from here and improved their situations by marriage; but to hear them talk in company, we know they have not improved in manners.

Miss Mae Stiver is again in the hospital and has just undergone an operation for appendicitis. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. G. O. Benner was called to our town upon the death of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Fink, from New Milport.

People who attend public sales report the hog stock very low in price. One of our mountain dale farmers drove to a sale one day lately for some farm implements and came home with a sugar bowl and a grind stone. Well these are alright but will not do to work the corn.

As some of our hucksters have brought eggs down to 20 cents per dozen there is no reason why we should not have plenty of them to eat as a nice sized hen runs at about 40 cents.

Roger William had the misfortune of losing a cow and Jasper Steele lost a horse.

Mrs. Allie Robinson is on the sick list; I'm afraid she'll see much chick while at Port on Wednesday.

Our prices are reasonable—the work the best at The Centre Democrat office.

SPRING MILLS.

Chas. T. Hagan returned on Monday from a visit to Philadelphia and New York City.

Gertrude Lingle and Esther Peck, of Laureton, were visitors in town a few days.

Mrs. Jno Shook has been on the sick list for the past week.

Mrs. Ocker is a guest at the home of T. M. Gramley's.

A number from town attended the concert at Centre Hall last Tuesday night.

W. H. Smith is spending the week in Bellefonte as jurymen. Lloyd Smith, of Potters Mills, is taking his place in Smith Bros. furniture store, until his return.

C. C. Barges spent Monday and Tuesday in Bellefonte.

Carrie Osman is visiting at Wm. Colyer's, Centre Hall.

The play "The Woeing of Salina" given last Saturday evening in the High school building by the Spring Mills Stage Amateur Club, was a complete success, the house was captivated at the very beginning by the character march and held, even at times with a tense rapture, throughout the entire play. Too much praise cannot be given to "Barnaby," the leading character of the play, performed splendidly by Harry Korman. The club is now speaking of reproducing the play in some near locality. The realization financially by the High school, through the kindness of the foresaid club, was a neat sum to be utilized in purchasing books for the school library.

Thursday evening the teachers of Gregg township will have an open meeting in the Penn Hall school building.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gramly were to Lock Haven on Monday to visit Mr. Gramly's mother, who is ill at Lock Haven hospital.

All the leading public sales in Centre county are held in the Centre Democrat.

PORT MATILDA.

On last Thursday, Feb. 29th, the members of Black Oak friends of Port Matilda, met at the United Brethren parsonage, and tendered Rev. H. A. McKelvey and wife with a very sumptuous donation. The following persons were present: Rev. J. H. Pershing, D. D., of Greencastle; Mrs. Jacob Woodring, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodring, Miss Mildred Woodring, Mrs. W. G. L. Crain, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crain, Mrs. H. H. Laird and family, Mrs. Gilbert Eller, Mrs. H. A. McKinney and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. M. Pringle and family, Mrs. J. A. Williams and daughter, Mrs. J. M. Williams, Mrs. Lawrence Way, Mrs. J. W. Sylvia and daughters, Erna and Alice; Mrs. Samuel Little, of Tyrone; Mrs. Andrew Johnson and grandsons, Mrs. Lafayette Ross and son, Dr. S. U. Harshbarger, wife and son, Mrs. A. Thompson, Mrs. Jennie Henry, Mrs. Wm. Bennett, Mrs. Allison Bennett, Mrs. Wesley Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Frank Clewell, Mrs. M. G. Malnes and son, Mrs. Henry Spotts and daughter, Mrs. Alex. Chaney, Mrs. A. L. Price, Mrs. Chas. Richards and daughter, Mrs. A. W. Reese, Mrs. W. T. Hoover, Mrs. Gertrude Robison, Mrs. G. W. Gates, Mrs. Geo. Woodring, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. G. Shultz, Misses Mabel and Florence Williams, Martha and Martha Cowher, Helen and Sarah Way, Helen Thompson, Lucy Smith and Annie Reese, Messrs. Harold Thompson, Gilbert Walte, and Harry Gates. All report a sociable time and it will be a day long to be remembered.

Last Friday evening a jolly sled load of young folks, from Port Matilda, drove up to Dix to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lego. The evening was spent in playing games and in singing and about midnight all were invited to the dining room where Mrs. Lego and Mrs. Willis had prepared a bounteous supper, where all did justice to themselves in partaking of the good things of which the table was loaded. After thanking Mr. Lego and family for their hospitality, all departed in the wee hours of the morning for their respective homes, wishing that such enjoyments would occur much oftener.
