

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-J. L. Montgomery departed Monday on a business trip to New York.

-Mrs. Geo. Beezer entertained at her home on Tuesday evening at her home on Howard street.

-Fred Montgomery has gone to Bitumen, Pa., where he will be employed during the coming summer.

-Mrs. Lydia Restler, of Bellefonte, R. I., was a pleasant caller in the Democrat sanctum on business.

-W. Harrison Walker has been housed up for several days past with an attack of tonsillitis, at the Bush House.

-Two of Moshannon's good citizens, Austin Kerrin and H. L. Barber, favored the Democrat sanctum with a call.

-Weather this week, so far, has been quite disagreeable. Rain and snow were frequent and slush under foot resulted.

-Mrs. D. R. Foreman and children, of Bellefonte, are in Phillipsburg on a visit to the former's mother, Mrs. Beulah Smith.

-Kilne Woodrigh, Esq., has secured new offices on the 2nd floor of Crider's Exchange that are better adapted for his professional work.

-Lizzie McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGowan, of Roopsburg, who is bookkeeper for the Cato Coal Co., spent Sunday at her home at this place, departing Monday afternoon for Cato.

-Owing to the threatened coal strike the supply of coal is giving our people concern. The steam heat plant is the largest consumer in the town and would have considerable trouble to keep up the service.

-Miss Mollie Snyder, who has been spending the past month in Panama with her niece, Mrs. Pierce, was an arrival in New York on Saturday. She expects to spend two weeks there before returning to her home in Bellefonte.

-On Tuesday the venerable J. H. Sands celebrated his 89th birthday anniversary at his home on Allegheny street. On nice days Mr. Sands enjoys a stroll about the town and is in fairly good health considering his advanced age.

-Eugene Motchman, of Pittsburg, was an over-Sunday visitor in Bellefonte. He still is one of the Standard Scale Company's leading men in the Pittsburg office. He was accompanied by Guy Linn, who also resided here one time.

-Miss Mildred Grimm, an experienced milliner, who since Christmas has been staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Grimm, on South Thomas, departed on Saturday for Pittsburg where she will be employed for the next three months at her art.

-Mrs. John Raymond, matron at the Bellefonte poor house, spent Saturday in Lock Haven attending the fourth birthday celebration of her little grand-daughter, Lena Smith, who last year, up until Christmas, had been staying in Bellefonte with her. The little Miss received a number of handsome gifts.

-Lieut. James Taylor, of the United States army, was in Bellefonte on Saturday for a visit with his brothers and numerous friends. The Lieutenant until a few months ago had been in the Philippine service, but of late his regiment has been stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

-This issue contains a 2-page supplement on which is printed the Co. Auditors' Report for 1911. As we are supplied with 4000 copies for 5600 readers we will issue them in the order of our mailing and subscribers who are missed this week will get a copy next week. We can't do better, but all will be served if they are only patient.

-List of unclaimed letters for week ending March 5, at the Bellefonte postoffice—Mrs. Fannie L. Bittner, Eugene V. Bradley, H. DeVinney, Mrs. F. M. Mearns, Mrs. H. Fredericks & Bros., Mrs. Alice Ritter, Peter J. Rothrock, Ethel Saler, Messrs. Shaffer, Candon & Hopkins, Mrs. Taylor, R. C. Winters.—H. C. Valentine, P. M.

-Henry Confer, who spent the past six months among the tall timber, at Cheatridge, West Virginia, is back on a visit to friends at Howard. He reports that any man who is willing to do an honest day's work can secure constant employment at decent living wages, in that section. This is had news to the steady loafers about Bellefonte.

-All those who are interested in the Friday night dances held in the Logan Hose Hall will be pleased to learn that a Masquerade dance will be held there Tuesday, March 26th. All patrons will be cordially welcomed, masked or unmasked. Those wishing to conceal their identity can secure tickets beforehand from the committee. Tickets 50c.

-From Belleville Times: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frachbill and James Fox, of Bellefonte, Pa., were called here to the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Henry Fox, who is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Glen Kennedy. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox had been visiting relatives here for a few weeks in order that Mr. Fox might recuperate his health when Mrs. Fox is slowly recovering although she had been unconscious for several days.

-Linen laces, beautiful spring patterns, at exceedingly low price for this week's sale. 8 and 10c laces, a yard 5c; Cluny and Torcon patterns, 1 to 4 inches wide, edges and insertions, 50c allover lace a yard 25c. Oriental allover lace in well known designs in white and ecru, 20 inches wide, 8 and 10c embroideries 5c a yard. Good embroidery of handsome designs made of swiss and other materials, at Finckelstein's, 5, 10 and 25c store.

-Mrs. Philip Garbrick, of Coloville, had an exciting experience with accumulated gas in a furnace at her home last Friday morning. After arising in the morning she went to the cellar to stir up the fire in the furnace, and in order to give it draft she used an iron bar as a poker. The gas that had formed from the coal immediately exploded, blowing the flame out on her dress, which fortunately, was a woolen one and failed to catch. Her clothes were scorched, however, and her right arm painfully burned. Her father, Mr. Mayes, who reside with her was asleep in bed at the time, and had Mrs. Garbrick's clothes become ablaze, she might have been seriously injured before aid could have been secured.

-Mrs. Alice Showers, of Bishop street was a guest of friends in Altoona over the Sabbath.

-Mrs. Scott Brewer, of Flemington, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Simon Hockenberry, of this place.

-Finckelstein has an interesting announcement in his new advertisement this week. Look it up and read it.

-Landlord Runkle and former merchant Meyer, both of Centre Hall, were pleasant callers upon the Democrat.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher and little son, and Mrs. Zoenizer, of Unionville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler on Saturday.

-Mrs. Jack Fulford has returned to her home at Williamsport after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Sunnyside.

-Strawbridge & Clothier's salesmen will be at the Bush House, Thursday, March 21st, with a line of coats, suits and skirts, and wash suits and skirts.—Aikens x11

-Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer spent several days last week in Somerset, attending the eightieth birthday anniversary of Mr. Casebeer's mother.

-George Youcum, of Scranton, has been next Thursday afternoon March 22nd, in this place. Mrs. McWanter, of Washington, D. C., is also a guest at the parsonage.

-The good work of clearing the streets of accumulated snow and melting ice began this week, when the recent slushy snow put a stop to all proceedings. Take it all away the sooner the better.

-Mrs. Samuel H. Williams will have public sale of her household goods next Thursday afternoon March 22nd, at her residence on Bishop street. This will be a good opportunity to secure many bargains. Sale will begin at one o'clock.

-The old reliable Scenic continues to attract and delight large crowds every night. The people of Bellefonte have learned that this popular amusement place is conducted for their entertainment and comfort, and are appreciative of the fact.

-Green grocer W. H. Macker is now sporting a Ford runabout, which he purchased in Williamsport this week. He now has the fun of teaching the critter to "drive single," a stunt that is as strenuous as steering his broncho. He has a nice car and will get much enjoyment out of it this summer.

-Mr. W. J. Campbell, of Harrisburg, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon to men, taking for his subject, "The Country Boy." Every man in Bellefonte should hear him. Next week a conference will be held at the Y. M. C. A. in the interest of arousing association work in smaller towns throughout the county.

-Miss Helen Trafford, who is employed in Williamsport, is paying her parents a visit in this place. Mr. and Mrs. John Trafford on Spring street. She expects to return to Williamsport on Sunday and will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Stabel, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Bellefonte hospital.

-Saturday night, after his duties as head clerk at Sechler & Co's store were brought to a close, Chris Young was tendered a surprise party by his friends at his home on Thomas street. The occasion was in honor of Chris's birthday, and a delightful time was had by the large crowd present. Delicious refreshments were a feature of the evening.

-Miss Mary Mott, daughter of Mrs. Odilla Mott, of Bishop street, got beyond her depth in the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool one day last week, and Secretary Weston was compelled to jump in to her assistance. As the Secretary didn't take time to remove his shoes, he is at present having some difficulty in making them conform to the size of his feet.

-Wallace Markie, of east High street, while in Hazle Bros' store on Saturday evening, was overcome by a sudden illness, accompanied by an excruciating pain in his side, which gave his friends some concern for a while. Dr. Sebring was summoned and Mr. Markie was removed to his home in an automobile. We are glad to state that "Wallie" has now about fully recovered.

-The Academy strengthened their already famous reputation for good basket ball playing by winning two games last week. The first was from the Academy Alumni of Penn State by the score of 56-48 on Friday evening, and the other from Bucknell on Saturday evening by a 52-35 score. Today the Academy team will leave for Pittsburg on a two-game trip. Friday evening they will meet University of Penn. and Saturday the Pittsburg Athletic Club team. Both games will be played in the P. A. A. building, and no doubt will be witnessed by large crowds.

-James Reed, better known as "Dipper" Reed, is again behind the bars at the County Jail, this time for making threats to kill his father. At the hearing before Squire W. H. Musser on Tuesday afternoon, William Reed, the father, testified that his son had threatened to shoot him. It developed that the father because of fear of bodily harm from his son, had asked the police to allow him to sleep in the boro lockup at nights. This privilege was granted him, and on Sunday night while in the lockup his son James was picked up and put in for drunkenness. It was at this time that the threats were alleged to have been made in the presence of Policeman Beezer. Squire Musser gave the young man a stiff reprimand and sent him back to jail to await a court trial.

-On Wednesday Edward Raymond, a soldier in the service of the Sam's army, was an arrival in Bellefonte for a visit with his father, John Raymond, on south Potter street. He was accompanied by his bride, formerly Miss Elizabeth Meyers, of Lock Haven, the young couple having been married in that city on Tuesday by the Rev. Moss. Mr. Raymond has been in the army for the past ten years, and when opportunity affords always spends a portion of his furloughs with his relatives and friends in Bellefonte. A reception will be tendered the bride and groom at the home of his father this evening. The groom expects to leave for Fort Niagara, New York, in a few days, where he has been stationed the past year. His wife will reside in Lock Haven for the present.

-Mrs. Hadesty, of Pottsville, is paying a visit with her sons, Boyd and John, students at the Bellefonte Academy.

-Patsy Bathurst moved his family and household goods this week from Logan street to the house recently vacated by Scott Lambert, on Penn street.

-Don't forget to take in the hand concert and moving pictures at the Lyric tonight. An excellent program has been arranged and the admission will be but 5 cents to everybody.

-John Shutt became suddenly ill on Sunday morning while seated at the breakfast table at his home on Howard street, and before his condition was noticed by his wife he fell to the floor. A physician pronounced his trouble due to impaired digestion, and, fortunately being of short duration, he was soon able to be about again.

DIPPYDILS.

Attention, correspondents! "The Centre Democrat's" first great, grand and glorious "Dippydil" contest will be ushered to fame in next week's paper. Please remember the conditions. Each competing correspondent must write five localized "Dippydils" and have them mailed to this office before Saturday, March 16. As the three prizes offered, (viz. $1.00 and 50c respectively to the three winners), are on par with any trips to Bermuda or any automobiles ever offered by the other county newspapers, we would like to say that we will not take more than $10 in subscriptions from any one subscriber or correspondent in having our better judgments influenced as to picking the winners. So get on the job, correspondents, and walk away with the money, or it's a cinch Union-ville. The old boy from the capon country got darn dramatic last week and we hear he has a few extra good ones up his sleeve for next week.

If the grizzly bear can dance the bunny hug, can the turkey trot? On with the dance, let joy be unrefined.

If some one called Jim Schofield a dainty piece of bacon, would it be right to call Mitch a Cunnin-ham? I got cha, cried Amundson, I got cha!

If Roosevelt has his eye on the presidency what is the eye of Wils-on? Yes, boy, your father was a literary man, the only time he ever took a prize in a "Dippydil" contest, was when some one wasn't looking.

If an illiterate fellow opens all the doors in Bellefonte, it's a pipe no one could hear Charley Rapp. Bite him real hard, Fido. He sings of Fairy Queens!

If Dr. Kilpatrick's shot-gun got jealous of him, howling all his attentions right now on his fishing rod and started to weep, would it shed musketeers? I'm on, conductor, start the car, I'm on!

If a horse can pull a wagon, what can Willard Hie? Snow some more, we don't get your drift!

Sylvio de Grape had just been pardoned. Oh, how big was the joy in his heart. He had served but three years of his twenty year sentence for stabbing a liverwurst. Ah, much da joy. Now Sylvio rushed to his home. Wife and Antonio met him. He so much fulla da joy, Sylvio, he can't not maka da speak. He tries to shout but he's too fulla da joy. Finally throwing his hands in the air he bursted out, "Dey wata give me da twenty year prison, was a Dutchman. It woulda been a cinch, with a Dominick Judge." Save the eggs, Silas! Hamlet comes again next week!

"Daffy Dan."

Many Enjoy New Pool.

The opening of the new swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, on last Thursday evening, was largely attended, many being unable to gain admission to the gymnasium where the exercises were held. After the formal addresses were made the pool was opened and the public admitted. Scores of young men were in bathing costumes at the splash they sent in and the frolic began, even Prof. James Hughes went in with his good clothes on, accidentally. They dived from the spring board, floated and swam; disporting themselves like porpoises and all the time screaming with joyous laughter.

It certainly is a source of great pleasure to young and old, girls and boys; and good use is being made of the pool ever since. According to a schedule issued the swimming pool is reserved by regular hours for men, boys, women, student, etc., so that you can make use of it only at fixed intervals. Information regarding these intervals and fees can be secured by applying to Secretary Weston, at the Y. M. C. A.

One can hardly express the appreciation that is shown for Mrs. Wilson's thoughtful and generous gift to the citizens of this town. It will be a source of pleasure to many for years to come, and no doubt in many instances will contribute to the health as well as the enjoyment of those who make good use of the swimming pool.

Mrs. Wilson is abundantly rewarded in knowing that she has, in this manner, done a noble thing by so wisely contributing to the pleasure of others in this community.

The World-Wide Coal Strike.

The coal strike promises to be practically world-wide. The miners of Great Britain are already out, the anthracite and bituminous miners of the United States soon will be and there are symptoms of a similar condition at the collieries of the Continent. The result of such a general suspension of coal production is hard to estimate. It will, however, be more serious than is generally anticipated. Without fuel the wheels of industry must stop. Fortunately the spring season is close at hand and humanity will not suffer as it would during the winter season.
