Bright, Newsy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

Sleighing has all disappeared. Good use was made of it while it lasted. We think spring will soon be here, as sing their merry songs.

Since the snow has melted off the grain fields, they don't look as if there will be a very good crop ..

Dallis Marshall and wife, accompanied by Wm. Brennen and wife, went to Houserville last Thursday to move Edward Marshall to his new home on Main street, of that town.

We all wondered why John went up the road one night last week, but learned later he was accompanied by three friends, and they drove to Bellefonte to spend the evening.

Lawrence Marshall has returned home from Patton, Pa., where he spent the winter months. Lawrence wants to get rested up before he starts in on his summer's work.

O. A. Dunlap purchased some fine looking young cattle. He is getting ready for that big farm.

Talk about business, you should have been in our town last week one day, and seen how things changed around. The change was that J. C. Hunter decided that he wouldn't move to State College, and this caused Foster Young to give up keeping store in the vacant house that Mr. Hunter was going to leave. Now Foster is going to keep store in his own house. We hope he will have good success in his business.

Mary Lohr, living with her brother George, at Oak Hall, spent a few last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lohr.

We are told there will be two milk wagons travel the roads of our valley. This will mean a good bit to those who have lots of cream to sell.

If you want some one to haul you a load of wood, just call on John Kelley for he takes a four-horse load with two. They are supposed to be 25c loads, but they look more like 75c.

I told you last week in my items the names of those who were going to work this summer as hired help. I learned afterwards that some of those fellows had gone back on their jobs.

A few mistakes were made in my last week's items about the sledding party that went to Bellefonte on the 29th of February, so I will correct it. It should have read in this way: The erowd consisted of Henry Huey and wife, Dallis Marshall and wife, Wm. Brennen and wife, James Huey and wife, Cyrus Huey and wife, and Ben-ber Gummo in place of Wm. Benner was made to Rebersburg and Miss and wife. I hope no harm was done Stover joined the party not knowing spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris.

There will be a good bit of moving done in our vicinity in the spring and I have learned the names of some of the parties, they run as follows: Wat-son Struble to State College: Henry Berry Hartsock from Maternville to Sunday, March 17th, at 10:15. Rev. Hartsock's farm. Mrs. Ira Mar-shall from the Brennen property to State College. George Crust from Sunday. Centre Hall to Brennen farm. Wm Curry from Blair farm to west end of Scotia. O. A. Dunlap to Blair farm. Gilbert Parsons, from State College to O. A. Dunlap property. Mr. Cor-man, from McCoy's farm to Pleasant Gap. John Kline from James Clark's farm to McCov's farm

O. A. Dunlap purchased two fine mares one day last week at William Clenn's sale, near Pine Grove, Foster Young has opened his grocery store in his house and will carry a full line of goods which will be first He also has a good selection of candy and cigars.

Gustle Tressler returned home, after spending a few days at State College last week. Thomas Tressler is laid up with pneumonia. Say Benner, we would like to know what the attraction is at the Park? If you want to attend dances you should have called at our town last week, as there were about three at some of the neighbor's houses.

One of the women in our town woke the other night and there was something said to her, "stay here, stay here!" she told us it kept thus for about an hour, and then she lookod out the window and saw a cedar tree that stood near the house and it seemed to say the same thing, "Stay bere! Stay here!" Everybody around our town is commencing to look heavier and fatter, as many of the farmers are attending the sales, far and near,

Miss Edna Rockey and friend, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of J. B. Rockey's. If Clayton Brown is a white man why is Dorsey Green.

Mrs. Wm. Spotts, of State College, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. J., C. Hunter

If H C. Huey lives at water edge, what edge is Frank Lower. The social that was held at Thom-Tressler's last Friday night, was well attended. The night was very ugly, but the people made a good turn out to help the trustees of the M. E. church along in their work.

It is possible in these modern days to really have something and not know it. This was the case of the lady that was waiting for her teeth to arrive by mail and upon investigating had them in a neat little package in her home. J. Victor Brungart, who more than a year ago left for Texas to invest in land, has decided that Brushvalley with its fertile fields, picturesque beauty is after all the place for him. Most all the boys who left in the winter of 1910 have either come to Pennsylvania or at least farther east. Clayton Winters has been somewhat in the swine business of late. He has supplied the demand in several instances to the satisfaction of buying parties. Pappy Best says the $3.75 hog delivered looks better than the $6.00 one.

The past cold weather has frozen away the water supply of seven of our citizens. The neighbors who have been more fortunate are supply them with the precious white.

Rev. N. A. Whitman, pastor of the Lutheran church, Rebersburg, delivered his last sermon Sunday morning, March 10th at 10 a. m. The Reverend is compelled to give up the ministry on account of the illness of his wife will make his future home in one of the western states. He gave a very able talk and made a partial report of his work which extended over period of 14 months. In his time he delivered 181 sermons, made 320 pas-toral visits, conducted 12 funerals, gave 82 lectures, marreid 8 couples, baptised 22 infants, received 18 members into the church and traveled 3365 miles. Rev. Whitman is a man of model character, a kindly dispositioned man, one of the kind that has always a word for you, and without hesitancy we can say a christian example. He will not only be missed by the people with whom he labored, but by a host of others. May God bless him and his in his new home.

The Bell Telephone Company has been very busy in the last week in this valley in removing phones from residences and business places. Of course no one objected, but clung to the original agreement entered into at one of the meetings of phone holders. Robert Hackenberg's buggy is only designed for a two-passenger vehicle. On one of his rounds last week in company with Miss Bord Stover, whom Mr. Hackenberg transports in the interest of teaching music, it happened that on account of an early morning start, a chicken happened to be on the top of the buggy. The trip by the mistake that was made.

Miss Edna Mingle, of State College, the fowl got uncomfortable or got scared on smelling the automobiles at the Gramly foundry, for there it used its aeroplane and left. Bobby says he likes chickens but not on top buggies. Clair Gramly, of Millmont, will move to this town this spring.

On last Thursday, March 7th, Rev. W. F. Gilbert, pastor of the Port Matilda M. E. church, was just about to start in his hong-kong for Tyrone, when to his surprise he saw two men drive up to the parsonage. Thinking them on a little business, he left his machine and went to the house only to find his family had grown from two to one hundred and two. Oh my, you should have seen those goo-goo when he saw the baskets full of chicken and other good things sitting all around.
