MCCAFFERTY—The announcement of the sudden death of Charles McCafferty in Philadelphia on Monday, caused a general feeling of sorrow among his many friends in Bellefonte, especially so with the older residents of the town, who remembered Mr. McCafferty as a former prominent citizen. Deceased was suddenly stricken with heart failure while in the offices of the Mexican Plantation company, where he had come to ascertain the value of stock belonging to relatives. It is said that worry occasioned by the drop in the stock of the concern and the fact that he had incurred several relatives to invest in the stock, was responsible for his death. Mr. McCafferty had been in the office but a few minutes when he fell to the floor unconscious. A physician who was summoned found the aged man dead, and pronounced his death due to heart failure, probably caused by overexcitement. He is survived by a widow and three sons by a former wife, namely: Charles G. McCafferty, a banker of Bradford; George B. McCafferty, also of Bradford; and Robert Louis McCafferty, in business at Mt. Summit, Pa. He also leaves a brother and a sister, Thomas McCafferty and Mrs. Susan Powers, both residing in Bellefonte. Each year since his residence in Philadelphia he would make a trip to Bellefonte, sometimes on business, but always with a hearty greeting for his old associates. In the earlier days of his life Mr. McCafferty was a successful contractor here, and erected a number of the town's prominent buildings and residences. Among the number are the Brockerhoff Hotel, the Curtin residence (now the Elk home) and the house now occupied by the Sisters of Charity. Mr. McCafferty resided here. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Williams, from this county, who has been dead for a number of years. Of late years Mr. McCafferty had retired with the wife of his son and daughter in Philadelphia. The body of Mr. McCafferty was brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon and taken to the parlors of the Bush House, where funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 by Rev. Hawes, of the Presbyterian church. Interment will be made in Union cemetery.

An Effort to Liberate Thaw. Three celebrated alienists were employed recently to make a careful examination of the mental condition of Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, with a view of securing his release from the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Matteawan, N. Y. The examination was made with great secrecy and the report is now in the hands of Thaw's chief counsel. There are but two ways for Thaw to regain his liberty. One is through a certificate of recovery signed by the superintendent of the Matteawan hospital; the other is through habeas corpus proceedings. It is expected that the latter means will be employed. In that event a Supreme Court Justice sitting in White Plains will grant a demand for the appearance of Thaw before him. He will then decide whether a trial is in order.

It is not known just what ardent swain it was who imprinted the first chaste salute upon the lips of his lady fair. Perhaps it was Adam who invented the kiss. It sounds just like him, but whoever invented it certainly started something that has come down through the ages and caused more trouble than mumps, measles and prickly heat combined.

The high water, last week, was the cause of it being nearly "all day" with a large ground hog along the railroad east of Centre Hall. The section men heard the animal make its peculiar noise, and looking about found the little animal six feet up on a wild cherry tree where it had climbed to keep from drowning in the foot or more water covering a large area. The ground hog was cased by the men, put onto the hand car, and carried to high ground, where it was liberated—Reporter.
