stine's Busy Bee store.

Correspondence

(Continued)

HOWARD.

"It were much to be wished * * that their Easter devotions would, some messure, come up to their Easter dress."

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Reformed-Pastor E. F. Faust will preach and celebrate the Lord's Supand in Howard at half past seven. Christian Scientist-Service at the home of J. Sumner Wolf at half past United Evangelical-Pastor M. Snyder will preach at Fairview at half past ten, at Jacksonville at half past two, and in Howard at half past Methodist Episcopal-It is expected that Rev. James E. Dunning, the new pastor, will preach in Howard at half past ten, at Kennedy at half past two and at Curtin at half past seven.

Don't Miss the Concert.

is the Christian Chapel. The admission price is twenty cents for adults, end ten cents for children, and there is the constraint of the co will be no reserved seats. Therefore R. S. Taylor and brings to them as persons have been received into the you had better come early. It is pure his successor Rev. James E. Dunning. tertainment can be furnished at so will be none the less cordial, nor his small a price, and the management has made these figures as a compli- lor, in his departure, carries with ment to the community in considera-tion of the loyal way in which it sup-ported the winter course which clos-ed with "Tahan." The low price of admission must not be mistaken as a precedent for any future course that may be given, as that would be the may be given, as that would be the speed the parting with a warm-impossible. Such opportunities do hearted benediction, we welcome the not often occur. Nor must it be accepted as a measure of the ability or standing of the company. Within the past ten years the Ithaca Conservatory of Music has sent these representatives of its alumni throughout twenty-two states and they have appeared in more than two thousand towns and cities, universally giving the very best satisfaction. They are independent of all lyceums or bureaus and are not an ordinary troupe of professionals, organized as a business; but a quartette chosen for the efficiency and ability of its members, any one of whom can entertain a large and exacting audience for whole evening, and are doing this work as a loyal compliment to the great institution which qualified them. Cultured young ladies who are ex-perts in their several lines. Howard has never had a better opportunity to bear high class music popularized.

late John Mann, died last Wednes- turns. day at the home of her son-in-law, lightful social intercourse, interspers-James Neiman in Curtin township, at ed with music, and a general good the ripe age of eighty-two. She was time. buried on Saturday in the Lucas cem-etery, after the funeral service, conducted by Rev. E. F. Faust, John Weber, Claude Moore, H. A. had been held in Mann's school house Moore, C. E. Yearick and Mr. Miner, near which she lived for many years. Those who were without their husman survive her.

urday, though she was much ex-hausted when she arrived. It is hop-ed that the splendid air, water, and bring her around all right.

Commencement.

calaureate sermon in the Methodist church, and it was a good, practical, thoughtful discourse, upon which the minister bad evidently put much pants. thought and work.

evening of Friday of next week, April W. 12th, when Dr. W. P. Eveland, President of Williamsport Dickison Seminary will deliver the address.

Mrs. Hoffman was a Wednesday visitor in Lock Haven. P. Edwin Thomas, of Williamsport, spent Sunday with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Walker, now of Avis, spent Sunday with friends Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall and Mrs. Win-field C. Thompson visited Lock Haven last Friday.

Mrs. A. M. Butler visited her in-Mrs. Fannie G. Leathers visited with her brother, M. J. Gardner, in Bellefonte on Saturday. Mrs. J. L. DeHass went to Bellefonte Sunday morning for the observance of Palm Sunday. Jackson Kline took Tuesday and Wednesday for a little business trip to his old home, Millheim.

Grant Hoover, of Williamsport, formerly of this county, was a business visitor in our burg, Friday. Roy Heverly, son of E, E. Heverly of the township, died at Omaha, Wednesday, March 27, aged twenty-four

Mrs. Moore, of Flemington, formerly Miss Lavina Heverly of Howard, was a brief visitor in the borough last

Mrs. Ben. F. Lucas, of Tyrone, spent last Saturday here with her friends, Miss Corilla Thomas and her brother, Hunter.

early summer months. Mrs. Annie L. Harvey is looking after the interests of her relative C. C. Lucas while he is in Philadelphia stocking up with new goods.

Miss Helen Bennison returned Saturday afternoon from an enjoyable visit of about a month with her sister, Mrs. John Holter, at Johnsonburg.

ents, and started for her western home last Thursday. The Misses Jennie Kane and Maud home here. Everybody glad to see her.

Rev. Zahnizer, of Port Allegheny

Howard friends glad by spending stopped off here a few days ago and their Easter vacation at home; respent the night with his son-in-law their Easter vacation at home; re-turning to their work last Monday Harold Fisher, leaving again the next morning. He says, that grandson, Big, bluff, blooming C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, ex-teacher, ex-super-intendent, and hopeful candidate for Betsy H per at Salona at ten o'clock, and will the Republican nomination to the and will live with George Tibbens preach at Mt. Bethel at half past two, General Assembly, circulated among one mile east of Bellefonte, the conhis friends and opponents here last ing

Wednesday. If you want to feel well, and in every way all right for Easter Sunday, last sermon at this place on last Sungo to the store room, belonging to Mrs. day evening to a well filled house Katherine M. Long on Main street. Saturday evening and eat one of the great chicken and waffle suppers which will be served at that time and place by the choir of the Christian Chapel. You will help pay for their fine new piano at the same time that you pay for your supper. If not sat-from the recesses of his heart. He you pay for your supper. If not satisfied with chicken and waffles you may add ice cream, cakes and pies and other goodies and take a bucket best wishes of this entire community,

The custom of itinerating their summary of his labors on this charge accidental that this beautiful en- Mr. Dunning's reception by his flock coming guest with a benison as sincere.

It is not very complimentary to our educational spirit that we consent to have the shortest term of public school permitted by law semen months; but since it is so it is a pleasure to be able to announce that we shall have a "summer" school of eight weeks to help make up the shortage. It will begin Monday, May 6, and is intended for those who wish to review the advanced grammar grade branches and wish to try for the teacher's examination. It will be conducted by Roy M. Decker, a resident of our town, who has had six years experience in teaching-the last two in the township adjoining Williamsport, and for one of them as principal of the schools of Slate Run.

Wednesday, March 27, was the Mrs. Eloise Huff Mann, relict of the te John Mann, died last Wednes- at the home of her son in low xteenth anniversary of the birth of The pleased participants wo sons, William and Robert, and bands, wives or sweethearts were ve daughters, Katherine Packer, Mesdames W. L. Cooke, Clyde Yucas, Rebecca Lyons, Caroline Broken-Mabel Jenkins and J. L. DeHaas; bough, Elizabeth Fye, and Susan Nei- Miss M. H. Lucas, Harry Jenkins and Charles DeHaas.

man survive her.

Miss Lulu Holter, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for five weeks at the Allentown College, is so far convalescent that her mothings so far convalescent that her mothings with him his good wife, who have the local soer was able to bring her home on Sat-urday, though she was much ex-ciety of W. C. T. U., which flourished apace under her administration. Her I that the splendid air, water, and popularity with these good women ompanionships of Howard will soon overflowed last Friday evening when they really "surprised" her, by tering her home in a body and unan-The first public function of the nounced, taking complete possession ceremonies attending the closing of our public schools occurred last Sabbath evening, when Rev. M. J. Snyder, paster of the United and received them with her customder, pastor of the United Evangelical ary urbanity and courtesy, and accepted with manifest pleasure, the complement of the visit, for it was a "visit," lasting until bed time, and was greatly enjoyed by all the partici-

Our Ministerial Association held its The Commencement exercises will regular monthly session last Monday take place in the same church in the at the home in Blanchard of pastor H. Patterson. In addition to the routine work the meeting had two dominant features, the first of which that it was the last meeting held in the pastorate of Rev. R. S. Taylor, and it was somewhat in the nature of a farewell to him; the ad-miration and affection of the members for their departing brother finding ap-Miss Woodward spent a portion of last week with friends in Lock Ha. resolutions of unusual feeling. The ven. Faust, and the subsequent discussion of a paper upon "The Relation of the Church to the prevalent social unrest." The speaker definitely took the broad ground that if righteousness prevailed the conditions which create and foster the present social disturbances would not exist, and therefore, the Howard A. Robb came home from the F. and M. College at Lancaster for the F. and M. College at Lancaster for the be any relation, is that of a there be any relation, is that of a persistent teacher, and insistent provalid mother, Mrs. Zimmerman at mulgator of righteousness, and its Bellefonte, Saturday.

domination of civil life. Rev. W. H. Patterson was chosen president of the association, to succeed Mr. Taylor and Revs. Faust and Snyder being chosen respectively secretary and treasurer.

our town and neighborhood we note our old time friend and neighbor, Samuel B. Leathers of the west end of the township reached the ripe and of the township reached the ripe and mellow age of eighty-six yesterday, Wednesday, April 3rd. Mr. Leathers has been a farmer all his life, and worked as hard as most farmers did when he was at his prime. While he moves somewhat more slowly and picks his steps rather more carefully than of yore, he continues his watchful oversight of the farm in foul and fair weather, and actually does. and fair weather, and actually does, with his own well practiced hands, no inconsiderable part of the light work. During the past winter, excepting upon some of its unusually severe days, he has done most of the caring for the farm stock, even climb-Harry L. Zimmerman, of Bolivar, N. Y., was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. M. Butler, the early portion of this week.

Let Many L. Zimmerman, of Bolivar, N. needed daily supplies of hay, fodder and straw. Though his hands are drawn and hard, and his face seamed and browned with the weather-wear Mrs. Mabel Pletcher Mann left of these many years, his eyes are Tuesday morning for Philadelphia, bright, his smile cheerful, his voice where she will spend the spring and encouraging and his spirit undimmed with any fear of the great beyond up-on which he is so closely bordering. He is greatly blessed in the continuing companionship of the noble woman who has been his helpmate in word stocking up with new goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Port Matilda, and Miss Lettie Rye, of State College, were guests at the home of James Tyson last week.

Miss Cora Lucas, the efficient housekeeper for the family of Capt. H. C. Holter was on the sick list last week, but is now improved.

who has been his helpmate in word and in deed for many, many years, and who will herself reach the eighty-fourth mileatone of her journey on Friday the 24th of May next, and whose health is as fine and whose faculties are as unimpaired as those of the husband. May they be with us for yet as many years as will add to their comfort and happiness.

Among the several octogenarians of UNIONVILLE.

Wm. McEwen, boss cook in a large Mrs. John Earle, of Chicago, form- lumber camp at Dobbin, West Vir-

Jacob Thomas, is the only pebble on Betsy Hall has moved her trappings summer. Lucky George! Lucky Betsy! The time is eight o'clock next Wed- of eggs home with you for Easter for his welfare and success in his new breakfast.

The time is eight o'clock next Wed- of eggs home with you for Easter for his welfare and success in his new field of labor. The following is a church on profession of faith and by letter. A debt of $240.00 was liquidated, and for church and parsonage improvements there has been expended $1250. The pastor's salary was adanced $100.

The Rev. Henry K. Ash, who succeeds the Rev. Oyler, will preach his initiatory sermon on next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. It is hoped there will be a well filled house to greet our new pastor.

Mr. Ed. Eckenroth, of Bellefonte, with his helpers, is putting on new and attractive paper on the church week and in the near future the Ladies' Aid Society will have the entire floor carpeted with a costly and handsome design. On Monday evening, the Ladies' club was entertained by Miss Kate Smith at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith. They met at the home of Mrs. Holtzworth and all, being masked, repared to the Smith home in a body where, it is said, they had more than 17 chop sacks full o fun. Miss Kate had prepared a fine lunch for her guests, but they could hardly eat for laughing at the funny masks. There is nothing in the world so conducive to health and long life as lots of innocent, harmless fun.

The happiest man in this section of Terra Firma is Roy Calhoun. Be-cause why? The stork left a fine, handsome boy at his home on Monday, delphia North American, of Clearfield, on last Saturday, with whom I fell in Toner Irwin, one of our representa-tive citizens, moved to Altoona. gathers all the choice and most interesting items of local news from the local newspapers of four counties, puts them in a hopper placed on top Mrs. John Earle, of Chicago, toling the specific of the specif Mrs. Almeda Thompson, of Johnstown, is visiting friends at her old he borrows from Mrs. Scott, the expert cook, then runs them off on his typewriter and-presto! change! every item comes off highly embellished and wonderfully improved so that one would not recognize them as the original. The changing of a copper head to that of a bull snake was so neatly done that no one recognized it to be the same. He is a handsome man, like ex-District Attorney Billy Runkle and parts his hair in the mid- Busy Bee store.

love at first sight, because I found him dle-realwide, so that there is no place for those little centipedes to hide that infested his betouseld cranium when he was a kid. Any how, we found him to be a genial, jolly, companionable gentleman and hope to meet him again. His name is J. D. Connelly, but it is not true that he is a direct descendant of the famous robber of that name who infested the wilds and deep recesses of the Alleghenies many years ago in company with another named Lewis. Yes, and begosh, he takes the Centre Democrat.

Brass curtain rods 4c, 5c, 8c, 10c 12%c and 15c, the largest and most complete line of brass curtain rods ever seen in Bellefonte. Finkelstine's

Gov. Tener's Democratic Aid Society held a jubilee to celebrate Dreese's fall down.

A beautiful jardiner or nice dish with every $1.00 purchase. Finkle-

POTATOES WANTED

We pay for Potatoes $1.25 We pay for Butter..... We pay for Eggs...... Priices subject to change.

Gillen, the Grocer,

A Spring Coat or Suit from this store is a Coat or Suit of Assured Style and Quality.

Women's Plain Tailored Suits at $15 to $28.50 Women's Demi--Fancy Suits at $15 to $30.00 Women's Suits duplicated from Fancy Imported Models at $1750 to $35.00

Serge Coats with pretty Notched Collars and Fancy Broadcloth are $15.00

EASTER MILINERY

A New Shipment of Exquisite Hats.
NO DUPLICATES—NO COPIES—EACH HAT THE EXCLU-

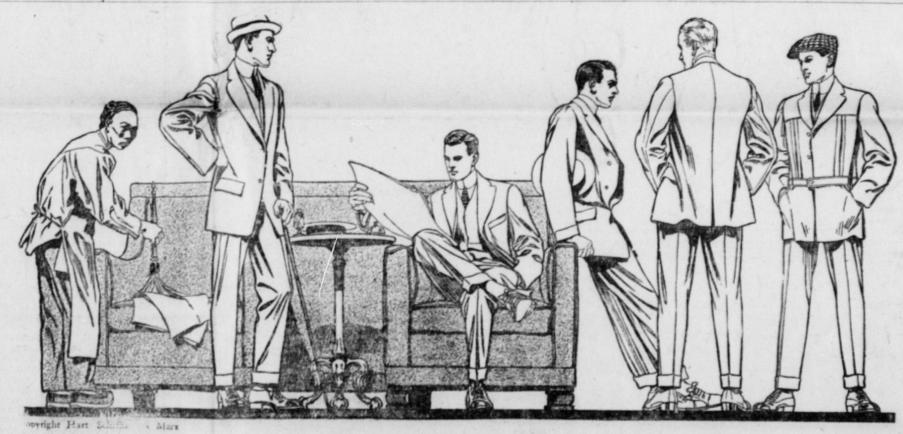

Summer Matting from China and Japan.

Our Importation of Straw Mattings for 1912 has arrived—Many New Designs are being shown—The Japs use Cotton Warp, and their Mattings are in Carpet Patterns and Inlaid Figures—Theh Chinese use a Fibre Warp andtheir Mattings are in Checked &

FANCY CHINESE MATTINGS from 15c to 40c a yard. FANCY JAPANESE MATTINGS from 20c to 50c a yard. PLAIN WHITE MATTING, 25c, 40c, 50c up to 75c a yard.

ALLEGHENY ST.

KATZ & CO., BELLEFONTE, PA.

GREAT DISPLAY OF

Latest Spring Fashions

Now Ready For Your Selection.

You Young Men who like Stylish, Smart Clothes; You Older Men who want the same thing: You Men who want Style and Smartness along conservative lines; All Men of all tastes in dress; Here's Notice to You that we are ready to show you the ever brought together in this town. It's a Great Lot of Merchandise---Variety, Quality, Tailoring and Diversity of Good Taste and Clever Style---Excelling anything ever shown.

Best Lot of Good Clothes

YOUR PARTICULAR STYLE IS HERE.

A Pleasure to Show You Clothes Smartness and Goodness at Such Moderate Prices.

New Hats, New Shirts, New Neckwear

The "NEW" Idea Prevails.

SIM, THE CLOTHIER, CORRECT DRESS.