HOWARD.

"If citizens do not interest themselves in election day they must take the consequences of that neglect. The remedy for faithless, venal or reckless officials lies in the ballot box."—Judge Breyer.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach in Howard at half past ten, and at Jacksonville at half past seven.

Reformed—Pastor E. F. Faust will preach and administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at Jacksonville at ten o'clock, and will preach at Marsh Creek at half past two and in Howard at half past seven.

Christian Scientist—Service at the home of J. Sumner Wolf at half past ten.

Christian Chapel—Pastor W. H. Patterson will preach at half past seven.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James E. Dunning will preach in Howard at half past ten, at Hunter's Run at half past two and at Beech Creek at half past seven.

A Little Boy Honored.

While visiting Atlantic City last summer, Rev. James E. Faust, with their little boy Lawrence, attended a meeting which was addressed by Miss Fanny J. Crosby, the noted hymn writer and Christian worker, who was at that time ninety-one years old, and whose home is at Bridgeport, Conn. It so happens that Lawrence was born upon the twenty-fourth day of March which was also the natal day of Miss Crosby, and his knowledge of this fact gave him such an interest in the dear old lady that when the great day recurred last winter, marking ninety-two for Miss Crosby and eight for Lawrence he wrote her a nice little letter of congratulation and kind wishes. In due time he received a letter which will be to him a treasure as long as he lives, and which is well worth quoting:

My Dear Birthday Friend:—I dearly love children and am particularly pleased when they send their love to me. You would have enjoyed seeing all the pretty flowers I had sent me, and the cake with ninety-two candles. I had a postal from Rev. Francis Clark. He sent it from Turkey where he is visiting the sites of the seven churches mentioned in Revelations. I hope you may live to be a useful Christian man, strong in the Lord.

Sincerely your friend,
FANNY J. CROSBY.
Bridgeport, March, 30, 1912.

Announcement Party.

The most important social event of the season was the announcement party given by Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Weber on Easter Eve—last Saturday night—announcing the engagement of their daughter Miss Emma Weber to Paul M. Cheeseman, of Newark, N. J. Miss Weber is one of the best known and most popular girls of our community, while Mr. Cheeseman is one of Altoona's most worthy young men, and the Howard letter extends heartiest congratulations. The guests were in number, embracing the inner circle of Miss Weber's local friends, and including three out of town—Mr. Cheeseman, and the Misses Jane Stoner and Lulu Stover of Mill Hall; but the supper was distinctly recherche, and daintily served. The announcement was not made in words, but when the sheldon salad was served the plates carrying the glasses which contained the delicious concoction carried also varied little favors, as winged cupids, doves, "cooling and billing" through a gilded hoop, etc., each of which was a messenger of confirmation to the expectant guest who received it.

Gilard Gardner, of Renovo, spent Sunday in town.

D. A. McKibbin, of Salona, was a Sunday guest of his sister, Mrs. Chas. Bowers.

Mrs. George L. Williams is nicely recovering from a severe attack of bronchitis.

Miss Edythe Butler was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Bennett, at Mill Hall over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner had as their over-Sunday guest Mrs. Alice Smith, of Johnstown.

Joseph DeLong, of Blanchard, had his Easter dinner with his friend, Miss Florence Confer.

Mrs. Showers, of Bellefonte, was an Easter guest at the home of Isaac R. Williams and family.

Mrs. Blair Mingle, of Tyrone, spent Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Burdine Butler.

Miss Elizabeth Hamer, of Birmingham, was a last week's guest of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Holter.

Charles and Mrs. Candy, with their son Russell, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shuman Holter.

Mrs. Mary Flannigan, of Mill Hall, was an Easter guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Holmes, last Wednesday.

Mrs. John Meese and Mrs. Dorworth, of Bellefonte took last Wednesday's dinner with Mrs. Rebecca Lucas and family.

Mrs. John M. Conley, of Centre Hall, was a guest in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Holmes, last Wednesday.

Miss Annie McCallion came home from Lock Haven for her Easter dinner and brought her friend, Alex Creswell, with her.

Miss Margaret May DeHaas spent her Easter vacation from the Lock Haven Normal at home with her mother and brother Charles.

Roland C. Butler moved last week from the R. P. Confer hollow to the other side of the valley, near the Haagen saw mill and ciderpress.

Harry Wetzel, who has for several months been employed in an automobile factory at Detroit, returned home last Saturday for an indefinite stay.

When Oscar Lucas came home on Saturday evening for his Easter Sunday dinner he brought with him his tall and distinguished looking friend Walter Widener.

Dr. Reynolds, of Williamsport, district physician of the P. R. R. Voluntary Relief Department, was in our town a day last week in pursuance of his official duties.

Mrs. R. S. Taylor has been called to her old home at Mill Hall a good deal recently, by the serious illness of her father, James Flannigan, who is suffering from paralysis.

Col. H. S. Taylor was a visitor in our town Thursday last, on political errands bent, and kept both eyes and both ears open all day trying to find out where we "are at."

Mrs. Elmer Ertel with her son Herbert, former residents here, but late of Pittsfield, Mass., are guests of friends in town and it is rumored that they will hereafter make their home in Lock Haven.

C. A. Moore, now connected with the Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Co. of Scranton, and who is consequently absent from home most of his time, took a day or two off for Easter, and spent them at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Johnson, formerly Miss Lucy Leathers, have established their home in State college, and moved there last week where Mr. Johnson is employed in the farm department of the College and experimental station.

Clyde Long, who is employed in the Renovo shops, came home last week with a badly bruised and swollen face, the result of being struck by a flying bar of iron which had been thrown up from the floor by a heavy weight falling upon one end of it.

While no figures can yet be given, it is a pleasure to be able to announce that the supper furnished by the Christian Chapel choir on Saturday evening was a success from all points of view: The guests were pleased with the supper and the managers rejoice over the income.

Samuel M. Robb, son of former Jury Commissioner Frederick Robb, one of the Howard boys who are making good in the profession of teaching. He is now district superintendent of Horton township, Elk county, having seventeen schools under his charge, and came home on Easter to visit his friends and eat Howard fresh eggs.

Miss Lillian Williams, who was a pupil of Rev. James E. Dunning when he was a professor in the Bellefonte High School, some years ago, came down last Sabbath to hear him preach his introductory sermon as the new pastor of the M. E. church here, and she heard a good one, too. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Williams.

The latest accession to our rapidly growing society of octogenarians is Zara C. Welsh, who took his degrees yesterday, Wednesday, April 10, Welsh is a blacksmith by trade, and a good one; and while this has been his calling nearly all his life, he is also a good farmer, and has a genius for doing whatsoever his hands find to do, and doing it well. His present home is with his son David, and the old gentleman is found in the blacksmith shop almost daily, doing such light turns as he can, by way of assistance. On the ninth of September, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, he married Sarah P. Brickly, and a family of seven sons and three daughters kept the home happy and the old blacksmith shop busy. Of the sons one is dead. Nine children still living, thirty-two grandchildren, six great grandchildren, five daughters-in-law and two sons-in-law, constitute a family of fifty-five well to do people of which the venerable chief is justly proud.

LEMONT.

R. U. Wasson spent last week at the home of his mother, near town and returned home Saturday to be on hand Monday, to open a term of select school.

Golla Osman and family came home to help his folks move.

George Sellers and wife spent a few days at the home of Jno. L. Thompson.

The frogs have been making things lively during the warm damp evenings, but on Monday night, from the swamps was sung by but few frogs, as the thermometer stood at from 25 to 40 degrees, with lots of cold wind during the day.

Ottobine Dale and wife came up from Monticore to attend his brother's funeral.

Last Monday was taken up with moving for by looking you could see some family going to their new home.

These warm days bring out the wasps and fishermen, and by the crowd of the latter seen along Spring Creek the fishing must be good.

Saturday morning the dogs brought a fine deer from Nittany mountain to Spring Creek where some fishermen took the dog off. The deer spent a few hours wading the creek then went back to the mountain again.

There was a corps of surveyors surveying here in town but no one knows what they are working on.

Part of the school of the college township closed last week and the last of this week.

The following officers of Lemont lodge No. 717 I. O. O. F. were installed for the ensuing term by P. G.—J. C. Ertter, Saturday evening, viz: N. G.—Geo. Glenn; Y. G.—Jno. S. Dale; treas.—Clayton Ertter; sec'y.—Jno. C. Hoy; R. S. N. G.—Jno. D. Wirtz; L. S. N. G.—Thos. Houtz; war.—James M. Grove; con.—Chas. Ziegler; chap.—W. E. Grove; K. G.—James Kuesten; border.—O. G.—G. W. R. Williams; R. S. V. G.—H. K. Hoy; L. S. V. G.—J. Harvey Shuey; R. S. S.—George Grenoble; L. S. S.—D. W. Sheffer.

Which Was Ed?—Senator Edward Wolcott, of Colorado, was fond of telling of an experience he once had with a miner on a mountain trail. It was in the days when the senator was a struggling young attorney and he was moving from one town to another with all of his earthly possessions on the back of a small donkey. On top of the load on the donkey's back was a small sign board the senator and his brother had used when they were law partners. The sign bore the words "Edward Wolcott and Brother, Attorneys-at-Law." Mr. Wolcott and the donkey had halted for a little rest on the trail when a miner came around a curve. He looked at the sign for a moment and then asked: "Say, mister, which of you is Ed?"

Why He Left the Church.—A lonely bachelor, at the age of 72 married a young wife. A Sunday or two later the wedding a widower asked the minister who had officiated at the marriage of the bachelor to pray for him, as his own wife had just died. The minister in his prayer, therefore, did not fail to remember "our aged and grieving brother, upon whom the heavy hand of sorrow affliction had so lately fallen." At these words the old bridegroom, red and snorting with rage, rose from beside his wife.

"It may be a sore affliction," he growled audibly, as he left the church, "but I'll be hanged if any man is going to pray in public for me that way."

Postmaster John Gowan, of Phillipsburg, returned on Saturday evening from Philadelphia, where he had a couple of operations on his eyes. He will continue treatment under Dr. W. B. Henderson, with the result, it is believed, that he will be greatly benefited.—Journal.

Last fall the Democratic party had the best kind of harmony, what then was the use of W. Harrison Walker coming out to create "harmony." We had harmony until he jumped in and created a factional fight.

UNIONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Potter left on Monday for North Bend, Oregon, where they expect to make their future home.

John Bush, of Mount Union, transacted business at State College the latter part of last week. Mr. Bush was born and raised at Waddle, this county, and is a son of the late Dr. John M. Bush.

Charley Way and his charming wife, of Pitcairn, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Way.

William Keatley who, after spending the winter with his son George, "way down south in Dixie" returned home a few days ago much to the delight of his temporary widow.

Big handsome Aaron Hall and family returned from a week's visit to Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dreen at Daguer Mines, Elk Co.

At last, we are reliably informed the 25 feet addition to Grange Hall is to be built the coming summer at any rate, our informant said, "the work has been done."

Last fall A. B. Hall, while out hunting, accidentally shot two wild turkeys at one shot. His son was with him and he told him to take one of them as he did not want to leave it for the foxes to dine on, knowing that he was only entitled to one. Recently a friend (in a horn) informed on him and last week a game warden arrested him, took him to Belmont Square and fined him $32. If there is any justice in a law that will permit such robbery for so trifling an offense, or accident, we might say, we would like to see one of our representative citizens and had no intention of violating the law.

Wm. T. Nelman, one of our very best and most popular young men, has moved to Stormtown where he has engaged to work on a farm. We are sorry to lose you, Billy, but we hope it will be only a temporary loss as we expect to have you back some time.

It is said that "corporations have no souls" but listen: After the fronts come out of the ground the railroad tracks are always left in a "wobbly" condition and require a great deal of labor to get them properly "tamped." Foreman, P. J. McDonnell needed more track men. He recommended to the company's consideration, Jos. P. Stere, Joe Resides and Patsy Holt, of this place. What did this "soulless" company do? It sent the three boys transportation tickets from Unionville to Tyrone and return for the purpose of examination and allowed each of them for a full 10 hours' day at 16 6-10 cent per hour! $1.65 and all of them are now enrolled on the Erie corps of track men.

On last Sunday morning at the M. E. church, the Easter services conducted under the auspices of the Sunday school were the most beautiful and inspiring that it has ever been our pleasure to witness. The children were beautiful to look at and they acquitted themselves with credit to themselves and their teachers. The junior choir furnished the music and we are free to say it surpassed all former efforts. It was simply grand—charming! Our new pastor, Rev. H. K. Ash was present but owing to the length of the Easter services he did not preach but gave us a brief, delightful talk. He will preach next Sunday evening at 7:30. Everybody cordially invited to come.

Mrs. Lulu Sprow, of Unionville, who underwent a very serious operation at the Altoona hospital a few weeks ago is getting along nicely.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Bertha Smith is spending a week at State College.

William Everts, of Tyrone, is visiting his brother, J. N. Everts on Main street.

Mrs. J. Z. Murphy is on the sick list.

Postmaster David Barr is attending the Presbytery at Altoona.

Bryan Smith is the champion egg eater of Pine Grove Mills. He succeeded in eating 12 fried eggs for breakfast on Easter morning. We did not hear how many N. D. ate.

Dr. R. M. Krebs and wife and Mr. and Mrs. J. Meyer are visiting friends at Rebersburg.

Malen Everts, who has been sick for some time, is slowly improving.

James Decker, Simeon Ward, Howard Goss, D. W. Miller and J. I. Reed are having telephones placed in their houses.

W. H. Roush has come home from New York state for a vacation of several weeks with his family at this place.

Mrs. J. N. Everts opened her milliner store on Main street.

Charles Long has recovered from a severe attack of grip.

The commencement exercises of the Ferguson Township High school were a great success. The hall was packed to standing room. Dr. Weber, of State College, made the commencement address. Hon. J. W. Kepler, secretary of the school board presented the diplomas. Christy Smith's orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

AXEMANN.

Miss Rebecca Everts, of this place, is visiting friends at Milesburg this week.

Bloomard Shutt, who has been working at Lewistown, came home on Saturday. He will not return, as he has received employment here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Proudfoot, of Berwick, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Proudfoot's mother, Mrs. Jacob Gros, of this place.

Mrs. Minnie Huey and little son and brother Clyde Johnson, of Stormtown, visited friends at this place this week.

The Salvation Army of Bellefonte, held service in the Methodist church at this place on Sunday morning. Everybody enjoyed it very much, and hope to have the pleasure of having them with us soon again.

Mrs. William Steele and children returned home on Saturday from a visit among friends at Stormtown.

J. Adam Hoover will open his ice cream saloon on Saturday evening; turn out and give him a start.

Here's some news left over from last week. Rev. Engler preached his farewell sermon on Sunday morning and the new minister, Rev. From, preached in the evening.

Every farmer in Centre county should read what "Farmer Crensy" says about the importance of the primary election on Saturday.

Every farmer should read "Farmer Crensy" interview on the front page of this paper. "Farmer Crensy" fought the political bosses all his life.

Abraham Weber will not state where he stands as a delegate for state convention. On the other hand G. L. Goodhart stands for the re-organization of the party in Pennsylvania and to be under new leaders. Mr. Goodhart comes out in the open; you know what he will do. If you favor re-organization, vote for Goodhart.

PLEASANT GAP.

C. K. Stitzer is laid up with a sore foot as the result of stepping on a rusty nail.

Harry Griffith has secured a new baker. Mr. Griffith is having fine success with his bakery.

Mrs. John T. Noll's millinery shop has proved a success.

E. M. Zeigler and lady friend, both of Altoona, were Sunday visitors at the home of the former.

Rev. Engler loaded his household goods into a car on Wednesday; Rev. Engler will drive to Glen Campbell, his new appointment.

Rev. From and wife will arrive here in the beginning of the week. The Pleasant Gap fire company is in the act of erecting a hose house; the foundation has already been erected.

Yesterday the Pleasant Gap Summer Normal opened with a large number of students enrolled.

Mrs. Wm. Coldron accompanied by her son, Roy, departed for Philadelphia where she will undergo an operation.

Wm. Gremble, Pleasant Gap's postmaster, who has been laid up with a sore foot for the past month is able to be out again.

The Pleasant Gap High school will give the play entitled, "The School Ma'am," at Centre Hall tomorrow evening. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Don't miss it, it is great.

John Herrman, who is attending the Williamsport Commercial College visited his parents and many friends of this place over Easter.

Swallowed False Teeth.

The Rev. J. A. Mattern, of Martinsburg, last week swallowed his false teeth, and may have to undergo an operation for their removal. He was taken to the Altoona hospital, where an X-ray picture of him was made to locate the obstruction. Efforts were made to remove the teeth without resort to the surgeon's knife.

Tomorrow, 12th, is one of the two spring arbor days designated by the state department, the other date falling on the 26th inst. The governor calls upon the citizens to fittingly observe these days by planting trees and thus aid the state in its efforts to reforest our lands.

The annual conference of the A. M. E. church will be held in Williamsport next week, beginning Tuesday evening. The district is comprised of the following cities: Williamsport, Scranton, Pittston, Wilkes-Barre, Bloomsburg, Danville, Milton, Muncy, Jersey Shore, Lock Haven, Bellefonte, Tyrone, Phillipsburg, Clearfield, Crowsville, DuBois, Lewistown, Millersburg, Mount Union, Huntingdon, Everett, Altoona and Pittsburg.

Buggies and Carriages.

Forest L. Bullock, of Bellefonte, just received a load of Ligonier buggies and carriages, rubber and steel tire, which he has on exhibition and for sale at his shop on water street.
