BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Academy minstrels on Friday evening. Mrs. H. W. Tate is in Philadelphia visiting her sister, Miss Harmer. W. H. Johnsonbaugh and John Weber, of Howard, purchased Ford cars this week. A dance will be given on Memorial Day, May 30th, at Hecla Park. Everybody invited. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tressler, of Shiloh, are the proud parents over the arrival of a young son. Mrs. Clarence Bolton, of Wheeling, W. Va., is in Bellefonte visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Donachy. Rev. G. E. Hawes, of Bellefonte, will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church of Tyrone next Sunday. Edward and William Bailey, employees of the Centre Hall Reporter, gave the Democrat a call while in town on Friday. Mrs. J. A. Dunkle and daughter, Roberta, of Chicago, are in Bellefonte visiting Mrs. Dunkle's father, Rev. James P. Hughes. Mrs. Christ Swartz is having a large double brick house erected on Bishop street on the site of the one destroyed by fire last fall. Miss Mary Young, of Millheim, formerly of Northumberland, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Tressler of Shiloh, several weeks. The venerable ex-sheriff Schaffer, of Nittany, was in town the other day looking ten years younger than his daughter's would give him. Mrs. Fred Kurtz has been seriously ill the past week at the home on High street. Dr. Kurtz, Jr., in the same home, has also been ill the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Barlet and children, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barlet, on Thomas street. Theodore D. Boal, architect and traveler, who spent the winter abroad, called last week from Amsterdam for the United States expecting to come directly to his summer home near Lemont. T. F. Kelly, who has a large coal mine operation, at Cato, was transacting business in town on Monday and dropped in to order the Centre Democrat. He reports business good with them. The grand minstrel parade will take place Friday at 5 p. m., instead of one o'clock, as advertised on posters. The chart is now open at Parrish's; you'd better hurry up and reserve your seats. The woman's auxiliary will have cakes, pies, bread, candy, etc., for sale at the Y. M. C. A. building on Saturday of next week, May 25th at 2 o'clock. Contributions and customers will be thankfully received. Harry Garber, who has been in the West for the past year, returned on Monday to Bellefonte last Friday on a visit to his wife, who is a guest at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Louisa Bush, on Spring street. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Beitzel, of Buffalo, N. Y., are visitors at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Ward, several days of this week. Mrs. Beitzel was formerly Miss Lizzie Foster, at one time a resident of Bellefonte. List of unclaimed letters for the week ending May 11th: H. Gilbert Cook, Rollin Lucas, James Rossman, William Solt, Miss Mable Spicer, John G. Stoll, Frank H. Thomas and Edmund Thompson.—H. C. Valentine, Postmaster. The Philadelphia Journal notes the continued illness of Rev. W. H. Spangler, of the United Brethren church of that place. The Reverend is a former Bellefonte pastor, and his many friends here will regret to learn of his ill health. The masquerade dance, of which previous mention has been made, will be held on Saturday evening at 7:30 in the Logan hall, beginning at 8:45. A large crowd is expected to be present to all of whom the management extend assurance of a pleasant time. Phillips Beizer accompanied by Mrs. Beizer, is representing the local branch of the Knights of Columbus at the fifteenth annual state convention of that order in Harrisburg this week. The attendance is said to be larger than any similar gathering in years. It required eleven innings to decide whether Bellefonte or Lock Haven High school could play the best baseball on Saturday afternoon, when the last ball had been swatted it was found that the local boys had pulled down the winning run. The game was played on Hughes field and the score was 5 to 4. Charles Schreyer, well remembered as a former Bellefonte merchant, now superintending the Chicago and Northwestern car shops in Chicago, was greeting friends in Bellefonte last week. Mr. Schreyer is president of the Car Builders' Association of America, and his trip was of a business character. Elmer Heckman, of Orangeville, Ill., was an arrival here a few days ago, brought here by the serious illness of his brother, ex-commissioner, Daniel Heckman, who had two strokes of apoplexy on Monday last week. Mr. Heckman has been living in Illinois many years, since leaving his native home in Gregg township, and has prospered in the west. He will visit other relatives before leaving for his home at Orangeville. A burning fire at the residence of Gurnel Rice on Pine street early Wednesday morning threatened destruction to that property as well as those adjoining by scattering sparks upon the numerous roofs in that vicinity, and in order to prevent such a calamity the fire companies were called to the scene. The roof of Mr. Rice's house was on one time a fire and a portion of the shingles had to be torn off in order to extinguish the blaze. On Monday afternoon while attempting to make the turn from north Water street to go up High street, a light car driven by George Beizer collided with one of the Potter-Hoy Co. delivery horses standing in front of the store. When struck the horse made a jump, and for a few minutes shared in the occupancy of the automobile. The animal's feet were thrust through the wind shield on the car, shattering the glass and twisting the frame, at the same time receiving numerous cuts on the front legs from the broken glass. Mr. Beizer was not injured in the mix-up but the car was taken back to his garage for repairs.

Wild West show will visit Bellefonte on Tuesday, May 28th. When you are thinking of job printing come straight to the Centre Democrat office. George R. Meek purchased a Cadillac touring car from Lee Larimer, of Jersey Shore, during the past week. The stores of Bellefonte, Lock Haven, Philipsburg, Clearfield, and Huntingdon start the first of June to close at six o'clock. Commissioner D. A. Grove is frequently seen coming to town in his new automobile and he handles the steering device like a veteran. The ladies of the Episcopal church will hold a sale of homemade cakes and bread, at Zelmer's store, on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Dr. J. L. Seibert and C. Y. Wagner will take a trip in Doctor Seibert's car to Syracuse, New York where they will leave the car to have it thoroughly overhauled. A. R. Richards, one of the publishers of the Philipsburg Ledger, was in town on Saturday. Under the new management that paper has been greatly improved. The report in some of our local papers that little Myrtle Lucas had her foot split from toe to heel by lightning last week was incorrect. There was only a slight cut at the toe. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, after having spent a month at Mrs. Smith's parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Showers, on Bishop street, returned to their home at Syracuse, N. Y., on Monday. James Fox, after a several weeks' visit with friends and relatives in this place, departed on Saturday afternoon for Philadelphia to resume his studies in the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy. A fine big baby girl made its appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stine, south Penn street on Wednesday morning. Both the mother and little Miss are getting along very nicely. Henry Rupp left on Saturday for his home in Centre Hall, after an eight weeks' stay at the Bellefonte hospital, during which time he was treated for a catarrhal affection of the left hand. The grand minstrel parade will take place Friday at 5 p. m., instead of one o'clock, as advertised on posters. The chart is now open at Parrish's; you'd better hurry up and reserve your seats. The strong Williamsport High school will be the Academy's opponents on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The game will be played on Hughes field and you will be admitted for 25 cents. An exciting game can be looked for. W. B. Copelin, assistant superintendent of the delivery of the mails in Harrisburg and Tyrone, is a former Bellefonte boy who is employed in the Pittsburgh postoffice, left for their home on Saturday after spending a week fishing in Centre county waters. A telephone conversation with Dr. P. Fishbein, of Zionsville, yesterday brought the good news that the Doctor is gaining in strength rapidly and is confident of an early recovery of his health. His voice was strong as of old and the same cheerful disposition as when in robust health. Last Thursday the Academy trustees met in General Beaver's office and elected Isaac Mitchell, Chas. M. McCurdy and John Curtin as trustees to fill the vacancy occasioned by those who have died within the last two years. They also elected Andrew J. Cook as president of the board. Don't forget that one of the finest moving pictures ever brought to Bellefonte, "The Coming of Columbus," will be shown at the Scenic tomorrow night. If you have other engagements for the evening, go early to the Scenic and witness the great spectacular production in which there are nearly four hundred people in the cast. Elmer Hockman, of Freeport, Ill., was a caller on Tuesday, having received a telegram that his mother at Hecla, Pa., was seriously ill. Mr. Hockman was a resident of Freeport some twenty years, and carries on a large bakery in that brick Illinois city, the home of so many Centre county people. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beitzel, of Buffalo, N. Y., are visitors at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Ward, this week. Mrs. Beitzel is a daughter of Maj. Harry Foster, dec'd, a former resident of Bellefonte, who served in two wars, the Mexican war and the civil war, and was at one time editor of this paper. Harvey Stine and wife, of State College, drove to Bellefonte on Sunday and spent a portion of the day with relatives and friends. Mr. Stine is a member of Bellefonte Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, and came down to join them in attending divine services at the Reformed church in the morning. Frank Eckenroth, a son of Charles Eckenroth and a former Bellefonte boy, came up from Sunbury last week to superintend the painting of the new wireless steel tower at State College. Frank is one of the best known steeple-jacks in the state, and is fully equal to the climb of 293 feet, the height of the tower. He is being assisted by Joseph Thomas, of Bellefonte. L. F. Roan, the auctioneer, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday arranging for printing of sale bills for Mrs. Dr. Benjamin Gill of State College, who will dispose of her household goods preparatory to her departure for Boston, where she will remain with relatives. The sale will be held on the 25th inst, and no doubt will be largely attended, as the furniture is all hardwood and of antique design, the kind that is so much in demand these days. At the third annual commencement exercises of the Smithfield public school, held in the Smithfield chapel at Huntingdon, Pa., Wednesday evening, May 8th, Miss Georgiana Poorman took first honors. Miss Poorman is a former Bellefonte girl and will be remembered as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Poorman, who moved to Huntingdon several years ago. Her many friends will rejoice in her good fortune. The young lady also possesses considerable vocal talent and on numerous occasions has delighted audiences with her solo singing. She is a niece of Prof. James Shook, of Pottstown, who several years ago took first honors at his home town school.

A festival will be held at Pleasant View Chapel, May 25th. Everybody invited. Everybody will come to Bellefonte on Tuesday, May 28th to attend the Wild West show. Jesse Osman, of Altoona, was a guest of Bellefonte and State College friends this week. Mr. and Mrs. Al Garman, of Tyrone, greeted friends and relatives in Bellefonte on Saturday. Charles G. McAvoy is attending the Knights of Columbus convention in Harrisburg this week. The many friends of Charles Ecklenroth are pleased to note his presence upon the streets, after a long sojourn of sickness. Linn S. Bottorff, who was in Ashville, N. C., the past few years in town several days this week as a guest of his sister, Mrs. John C. Orie. He appears to be improving in health. A meeting of the High school alumni association will be held in the High school building Monday evening, May 20th, to complete plans for the annual Alumni reception. Louise Brachbill, secretary. Eugene Motechman, of the Standard Scale and Supply Company, of Pittsburg, was a business visitor in Bellefonte this week. We learn that his daughter, Miss Anna, will be united in marriage to-day to Oscar Sheaffnit, of Pittsburg. Miss Belle Weaver, the efficient stenographer in the law offices of Gentry, Ewing & Zeeby, is enjoying a month's vacation with friends and relatives in Harrisburg. Miss Lela Ardrey is very acceptably filling Miss Weaver's position during her absence. Word from Fred Showers, who is in a Philadelphia hospital, stated that an operation had been performed upon his eyes, and that in a short time another operation would be attempted upon the organs of his ears, all of which is being done in the hope of restoring normal hearing. Remember that if you have any old linens or muslin about your home you may not want to use them, and should be used to good advantage at the Bellefonte Hospital where large quantities are consumed in the treatment of patients. They will appreciate any donations of this kind. Miss Belle Meyers, a returned missionary from China, who was at the Bellefonte United Brethren church tomorrow evening, has been compelled to forego her visit to Bellefonte on account of illness, due to a nervous breakdown. Miss Meyers is said to be an interesting speaker and it is to be hoped that her health may be restored, and a future engagement arranged for her appearance at this place. Bert Taylor began work on Tuesday building the concrete curb along the front of the Bush Arcade. The street paving will be started as soon as they receive all the brick to finish the entire job. A petition was circulated the past week for the paving of the upper part of High street with brick. Most of the property owners have signed, only a few object on the ground of the expense. We are told that the people out along Allegheny street are exceedingly sorry now that they did not have street paving instead of the macadam, which proves very dusty and must be constantly sprinkled to abate the nuisance. On Monday the Undine fire engine arrived in Bellefonte from the American Express Co., of New York, where it had been for the past two months undergoing repairs. While away the engine was equipped with an entire new boiler of the Fox type, and in general a complete re-fit. The engine is now practically as good as a new engine, and looks as spry and span as on the day it made its debut. A representative of the company is expected to be here this week, with a three-horse power engine to be tested before it is accepted for the company. During its absence from town very little need of its services prevailed, a fact that all citizens should be thankful for. MEMORIAL DAY NEXT. Two weeks from today will be Memorial Day—the one time in the year when young and old meet at the tomb of those who at some critical period in the history of the nation gave their services and lives that others might be delivered from bondage. It is right and proper that every American citizen should observe Memorial Day as it was intended, by breathing a salute to the departed soldier and placing a flower upon his last resting place. This duty has generally fallen to the lot of the Posts and the rapidly-decreasing army of veterans to perform—a fact to be deplored—as every man, woman and child has a part to play in this noble work. Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., of Bellefonte is making preparations for the proper observance of the day, and has selected Dr. G. E. Hawes, of the Presbyterian church, to make the annual address at the Logan and Undine Fire company, Co. L, N. G. P., Sons of Veterans, and the various lodges will be invited to meet with the Post on this day, and participate in the march to the cemetery. If the weather permits, Dr. Hawes' address will probably be made at the Union cemetery, and in case of rain the Court House will be used for that purpose. After the services at the graves are over, the Elks lodge will entertain the old soldiers at their home on High street. On Sunday morning, the 25th, Gregg Post will march in a body to the United Brethren church where the annual sermon will be delivered by Rev. C. W. Winey. A SUCCESSFUL BANQUET. Amidst the prettily arranged decorations of red, white and green, the colors of the order, and the strains of delightful music, several hundred members of the Loyal Order of Moose with their wives and a number of invited friends, feasted and made merry on Tuesday evening in the spacious rooms of the club in the McClain block. The occasion was the annual banquet given by the order, which by the way, is the strongest fraternal organization in Bellefonte. A. D. Tanner, of State College, was chairman of the evening, and under his skillful management the large crowd received every possible attention. Supper was served at 8:45 consisting of a sumptuous array of everything that could be wished for, after which James A. Schofield was chosen toastmaster, and the following named responded to his speeches to the great entertainment and delight of all present: Judge Ellis L. Orvis, D. Paul Fortney, C. E. Dorworth, Col. H. S. Taylor, John Fisher, John L. Dunlap and Homer Decker. The banquet was voted one of the most enjoyable social events ever held in Bellefonte, and reflects great credit upon the House Committee and Trustees who had the affair in charge.

RECENT DEATHS.

(Continued from first page) and three half-sisters, namely: Mrs. Huey, Buffalo Run; Mrs. McCalanery, Mary; and Mrs. Lykens, Warriors. Mr. Cronister was a man who knew him. He never knew that he had touched liquor or tobacco, and in addition to living a spotless life himself, his hands and heart were always ready to help the needy. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gilber and Elliot at the home of deceased on Sunday, and were attended by a large and sorrowing concourse of friends and neighbors. HARTER.—Absolem Harter, one of Pennavalley's oldest and best known residents, died at his home in Millheim on Wednesday night of last week and was buried in the Union cemetery at that place on Saturday morning. Rev. J. Max Lantz, the Methodist minister, having charge of the services. Mr. Harter had reached the age of 78 years, and had been in feeble health for some time past, due to paralysis of the legs. He was formerly Miss Carrie Yarger, and the following brothers and sisters of deceased: George W., of Millheim; Mrs. Catherine Meese, of Rebersburg; Mrs. M. S. Fiedler, of Millheim, and Mrs. Polly Royer, of Rebersburg. Mr. Harter conducted the National Hotel at Millheim for a number of years and was engaged in various enterprises during his life time which made him widely known. BOOB.—On Wednesday, May 8th, 1912, about the hour of 6 a. m. the angel entered the peaceful home of Daniel Boob at Wingate and carried away his beloved wife, Sarah Elizabeth (nee Bechdel) Boob, aged 60 years and 27 days, who suffered from Bright's disease in its various stages for the last year or more. She was a highly esteemed woman, dutiful and devoted to her husband and family, was a member of the Grange with her husband, and was a good keeper at home and devoted to her husband and children; she was a member of the Christian church from Millheim, Pa. She was born and brought up at Backsville with an extended relationship many of whom attended her funeral which took place on Saturday, Rev. J. Zeigler officiating. Her family survivors are: her husband, Mrs. Wm. Bavaar, Mrs. O. A. Fisher, Mrs. B. Fisher and George DeGra, and Sarah with one son, Clair, at home. Three sons have preceded her to the state beyond. The estate in which the family is held was managed by service rendered by the Susquehanna U. B. choir and the large attendance of the neighbors and acquaintances at the last sad obsequies. Her remains were buried in the Emmerick cemetery. THOMPSON.—Mrs. Mary C. Thompson passed away Monday morning at her home in Philipsburg, following a protracted illness. The deceased was born in Buffalo Run Valley on January 1837, making her age 75 years and 4 months at the time of her death. She was the daughter of Henry and Nancy Hartsock, pioneers of said valley. On October 11, 1859, she was united in marriage to A. J. Thompson, of Stormstown, who departed this life on August 11, 1892. She lived at Stormstown until after the death of her husband, going to Philipsburg seven years ago and since which time she has been in feeble health. She was a devout christian, and an ideal mother—exemplary in life, gentle and loving, wise in her counsel, unselfish and constant in her devotion to her children. Surviving are the following sons and daughters, viz: Dr. H. H. Jelsa, M. J. M. Brant, C. W. Thompson, M. J. H. Duncan, Miss Maryetta and A. C. all of Philipsburg; Mrs. Alice C. Hartsberger, of Port Matilda, and C. M. of Tyrone. One daughter, Annie L., preceded her to her heavenly home on July 2, 1888. She also leaves one son, John C. Hartsock, of Buffalo Run, and one sister, Miss Lizzie Hartsock, of Passadena, Cal. On Thursday morning the remains will be taken to Half Moon valley and buried in the Quaker cemetery beside her husband. MAY REVIVE OLD INDUSTRY. There have been numerous rumors about during the past week in regard to starting working operations at the old Lingle foundry and machine shop, and eager as the public are to see what is going on, or what may possibly take place, we can only conjecture. It is pretty generally known that for some time past local promoters have been giving the Lingle plant their attention, but no more has been made known by those who are interested. They do not care to commit themselves or make public any statements while the project is yet a matter of uncertainty. It is said that the McGarvey electric scale may be manufactured at this place, and the Lingle plant will be equipped for that purpose. The scale is a tested and practical scale, and negotiations are now going on for its manufacture and placing upon the market. Eugene Motman, representing the Standard Scale and Supply company of Pittsburg, was in Bellefonte this week, and it is thought that his trip here may have some connection with starting the manufacture of the scale. Considerable capital will be needed before operations can be started, and it is to be hoped that Bellefonte will furnish the manufacturing site and labor, no matter where the money comes from. Judge Gordon at Harrisburg. Judge James Gay Gordon was probably twenty votes stronger in the convention than the organization of the regulars. It really went hard against the wishes of many delegates to vote against a man who had so long and favorable a record as an independent Democrat, free from boss control. If he had come to the convention not handicapped, and for any honest or national commitment, he might have had it. As it was, he was the only hope of the regulars. By the aid and prestige of his name they sought to drag themselves out of the hole in which they found themselves, and his desperation they placed him in line for nearly every honor that the convention had to offer—delegate, chairman of the convention, delegate-at-large to the national convention and national committeeman. He permitted himself thus to be used. Under such circumstances to choose him would be either a victory for the Guffey crowd or a compromise. The reorganizers wanted reorganization, and so much as it went against the grain, they were constrained to withhold all honors from him.—E. J. Lynett in the Scranton Times.

KILL THAT PESKY FLY.

All Citizens Can Assist in the Destruction of the Housefly. A vigorous warfare is being waged by all municipalities against the pesky fly, and a determined effort is being made to get rid of all garbage and excrement which are liable to be breeding places for these pests and carriers of typhoid germs into the household. A fly cannot develop from the egg unless it reaches the pupa stage. If we clean up everything thoroughly every week, and keep all manure screened, there need be no flies. Will you help in the campaign against this pest? All garbage and horse manure from stables should be always kept covered and removed once each week in summer, and all houses, yards and alleys kept free from filth. Persuade your neighbors to take care of their refuse. To thus deprive flies of their breeding places is the best way to get rid of them. All houses and stores where food is exposed for sale should be thoroughly protected by screens, and any stray flies should be caught upon sticky fly paper, trapped, or poisoned. The careless and dirty storekeeper must be controlled by public opinion; otherwise he will allow flies to infect the food he sells and continue to distribute disease germs among his customers. The main defense of the sanitary home may be summed up in these five don'ts: Don't allow manure heaps near your home. Don't have uncovered garbage cans; scald them or otherwise disinfect three times a week. Don't have unscrubbed windows. Keep the flies out to save the babies. Don't have dirty sinks. Much dirt causes the stomach through unsanitary woodwork. Don't have unclean cellars or yards. Cleanliness is next to Godliness, and keeps down flies. WHY A MAN LIKES A DOG. "Why does a man like a dog?" responded the suffragette lady, fiercely, and repeated: "Why does a man like a dog? Well, there are numerous reasons, though a dog is not a reasoning being. A dog will lick the hand that beats it; a dog will eat a crust and a bone and bless the giver; a dog thinks whatever a man does is right and proper; a dog has no rights that a man is bound to respect; a dog asks no embarrassing questions; a dog is always grateful, no matter how long a dog does not ask the man to stay at home nights; a dog submits to any and all impositions without protest; a dog does not consider itself a man's equal; a dog lets a man have his own way; a dog doesn't want to vote; a dog is just as glad to see a man when he gets in at 3 o'clock in the morning, almost helpless, as if he hadn't gone out at all; a dog has no mother in sight, and a dog can't talk back, mind you, nor won't talk back. That is why a man likes a dog." Want Catholic Chapel. The state convention of the Knights of Columbus is being held in Harrisburg this week, beginning on Monday, and one of the important questions to be considered will be the proposition favoring an appropriation of $20,000 toward the building of a Catholic chapel at State College. During the last few years the number of Catholic students at State College has largely increased, and the Knights, seeing the necessity of a chapel, will advocate an appropriation. At present the Catholic boys have formed a club where services are now held by the Rev. Father O'Hanlon, who resides at the club with the students. Marriage Licenses. James M.
